APPROVE PARK MANOR PLAN

Crossing Guard Sought

Parents of Dunton School children living east of Arlington Heights Road have been warned not to let their children walk to school alone when school resumes after the Christmas holiday Monday.

The school crossing at Cypress and Arlington Heights Road probably will not be guarded. About 33 children, in the unincorporated area of Pinehurst subdivision, are affected.

The crossing guard, provided by the Cook County sheriff's police, has quit his job and efforts to replace him have been unsuccessful to date. The hazardous crossing is on a high-speed stretch of the thoroughfare two blocks south of Central Road.

DISTRICT 25 ASST. Supt. Robert Campbell said the sheriff's office will pay $5 a day for a crossing guard but the school district has had to assume the responsibility of finding guards.

When the former guard resigned, Campbell said, the district advertised and found a replacement. However, he did not report to the sheriff's office, as required, and apparently backed out of the arrangement.

Campbell said the district learned of that several days before school was dismissed and has not been able to find another replacement. There are no applicants at present. (A classified advertisement for the job was to appear in today's Herald.)

THE ADMINISTRATOR said the district was concerned because "this is really a hazardous crossing." So it wrote parents, warning them to accompany their children Jan. 3, and reminding them child safety on the way to school is basically a parental responsibility.

He said the schools also asked parents for suggestions on a replacement but they have not been able to come up with any names. The portion of Arlington Heights Road is outside the village, but Campbell said village police had supplied a list of its applicants for crossing guards. None was found for the Cypress crossing.

Early Closing

Offices and plant of Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell St., Arlington Heights, will be closed from noon Friday to 8 a.m. Monday for the New Year's holiday.

Story of 1965

Surging Growth, Problems

REMEMBER THE ICE STORM? Probably the biggest single news event of 1965 in Arlington Heights was the great ice storm of late January. Few of the village's stately old trees were undamaged. Wires were downed, and many residents were without heat or light for days. Cleanup took months, and a dramatic increase in the number of trees infected by the Dutch elm beetle was blamed on the storm damage. (Staff Photo)

Population growth — and efforts to cope with it — again was the major, continuing news story of Arlington Heights during 1965.

The village added 3,587 people between a special February census and an estimate (44,100) made early this month. That 10-month growth rate was greater than the total village population in 1920. (By contrast, the population was supposed to reach 35,325 based on a projection made in 1961.)

AS IN PAST years, citizens made several trips to the polls to keep municipal services on a par with the new tide of people. They approved a $465,000 program for acquisition of park lands and a $2.5 million elementary school building program. And they approved the creation of a new junior college district to improve prospects for a higher education for their youngsters.

Showing their mood, they rejected a referendum to finance swimming pools at the five high schools of District 214.

They will be asked to approve construction of a new library and expanded library services in a referendum planned Jan. 8.

ORDERLY development of new areas and redevelopment of the downtown section were a major concern throughout the year, both made critical by the unprecedented growth rate. The village board approved two significant zoning ordinances for the downtown area and its fringes.

One large building already is well under way as a result of the zoning changes; another should start in early spring.

The executive committee of ACTION and the Tec-Search planning firm gave birth to a proposed downtown plan. Unhappily, the village still has not received the necessary technical data to begin hearings to implement the plan.

When the village finally adopts a downtown plan, it will be a major tool in guiding downtown development during the next 20 years. But even the preparation of a plan, and the related zoning ordinances have spurred interest of investors and developers, and a number of private developments are at some stae in the plannin,Nap some stage in the planning process.

STEPS TO ease traffic congestion were initiated with new traffic signal installations at State Road and Sigwalt and the now-under-construction lights at three other locations. Rush hour parking was restricted on congested portions of State Road, and negotiations were begun with the Chicago & North Western Railway which could lead to depression of the tracks and elimination of grade crossings.

Private investments have been heavy: more than 700 building permits were issued, along with permits for more than 400 multiple family units. Major new construction was started or completed by Buhrke Tool & Die, Weber Marking Systems, Ginn & Co., and Northwestern Mutual Insurance Co., all new to the village, Paddock Publications, Schneller Furniture, Morton Pontiac and Lattof Chevrolet, St. James and Faith churches, Northwest Community Hospital and others.

LARGE INDUSTRIAL parks were begun on both ends of town, holding promise of future growth — and a reduction of the residential tax burden.

Two major street improvements — Northwest Highway and Campbell Street — and a number of lesser projects, were completed during the year.

The Arlington Heights American Legion post sent its boys baseball team all the way to national finals, and the Arlingtones barbershop singing chorus again represented Illinois in international competition.

PERHAPS THE largest single news story was the Jan. 24 ice storm, which left many residents without heat or light for days. It took months to clean

Schools Consider Library Purchase

The Arlington Heights District 25 school board has agreed to consider purchase of the Memorial Library building at Belmont and Miner.

The schools have been offered the building for $50,000 by a negotiating committee appointed to dispose of the 13-year-old library. A $1,425,000 library expansion referendum is scheduled Jan. 8, and sale of the present building would be contingent on passage of that referendum.

THE NEGOTIATING committee said the library board has a firm offer from a private group for more than $50,000 but would be willing to sell the building for less to a public agency.

The library had offered the building to the park board last summer, but that group was uninterested.

The school board expects to have a recommendation from Supt. R. E. Clabaugh on Jan. 10, taking into account possible use of the building, necessary alterations and possible financing.

CLABAUGH suggested tentatively last week the building could be used for area educational programs, with District 25 holding title.

Three such programs, he said, are the northwest suburban special education district and the two projects proposed by Arlington area school districts under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. They are a diagnostic learning center and a materials center.

Evolves From 5-Year Talks

An ordinance approving the planned development of Park Manor subdivision was passed by the Arlington Heights Village Board Monday, apparently ending five years of negotiations among the village, developers and residents of the old subdivision.

The ordinance implements an agreement signed a year ago with developer George Wallach, president of the Wallach Corp. It affects the development of hundreds of lots in covering properties in 25 blocks. Wallach is now free to begin development of the area, east of Scarsdale subdivision.

The board had planned to act at its meeting a week earlier but deferred to a special 20-minute meeting Monday to be sure Park Manor residents had adequate time to review the ordinance.

NO OBJECTIONS were voiced at the final session on the prolonged and usually controversial development. Only resident of the subdivision who appeared at the session was Mrs. Walter J. Damm, who has been the leading spokesman for the residents. The board's approval was unanimous.

Park Manor originally was subdivided in Cook County on 50-foot building lots, far below current village minimum standards. It remained largely undeveloped.

The village annexed it and halted building permits pending extension of sewer and water lines, improvement of streets and adoption of a development plan aimed at reducing the number of lots to increase their size.

An agreement to implement those goals was signed in January, but subsequent disputes arose—particularly in the lot reduction formula to be used on land acquired after the date of the agreement. The planned development ordinance spells out, by lots, the handling of any future land acquisitions by the Wallach Corp.

WHILE THE planned development was moving from the plan commission to a special committee, to the village board, to a special committee, work on a mammoth $800,000 special assessment program for streets, sewer and water, was completed last summer.

In accordance with the January agreement, the ordinance creates R5 (multiple) zoning in the northeast and eastern areas of the subdivision and R3 (single family) zoning on 14 blocks, including those abutting Scarsdale. It rezones from B4 (commercial) to R5 several blocks in the northern part of Park Manor, with the provision Wallach not develop them as R5 until next June 24, a requirement originally intended to encourage him to develop the area as B4, if possible.

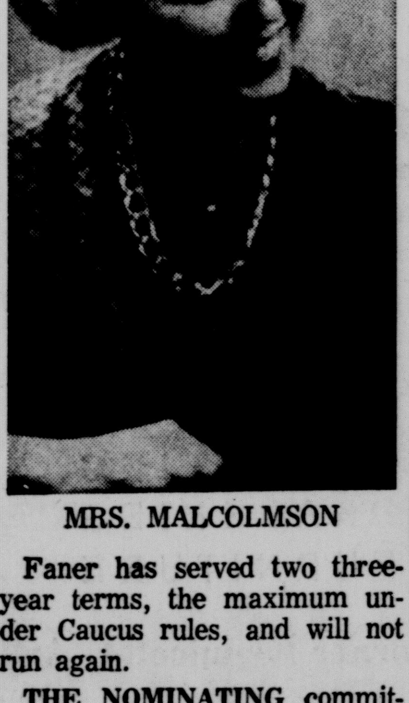
THE ORDINANCE also grants Wallach the option of developing the new R5 areas for single family purposes, and Trustee John White, head of the special village board committee which has had the development under consideration since June, said Wallach presently plans single family rather than multiple housing in that area.

A major concern voiced by Mrs. Damm Monday was assurances for residents of a park proposed for the subdivision. White, noting land for the park had been reserved, said the park district apparently has "cooled" towards its purchase because of the cost of the land and improvements. The village board last week approved a resolution urging the park district to acquire the site.

First School Caucus Meeting Set Jan.6

The nominating committee for candidates for the board of education of Arlington Heights School District 25 will hold the first of three scheduled meetings next Thursday, Jan. 6, to pick a slate for two board positions expiring next spring.

The terms of Mrs. Dennis R. Malcolmson and Joseph Faner expire in April. Mrs. Malcolmson, who has served one three-year term, has announced she will run again if slated by the group, commonly known as the School Caucus.



MRS. MALCOLMSON

Faner has served two three-year terms, the maximum under Caucus rules, and will not run again.

THE NOMINATING committee is composed of two delegates from each participating local organization, which are civic or educational in interest and which have no religious or political affiliation.

More than 50 organizations have been invited to participate, according to James W. Warriner, chairman of the nominating committee.

He invited other interested organizations to contact him. The first of three meetings, Warriner said, will be devoted primarily to orientation. A screening committee of eight members must be chosen from the large body.

THE SCREENING group must then review all candidates for the two vacancies and make recommendations for a slate upon which the entire committee will vote. The Nominating Committee is not bound by its screening committee recommendations.

The Caucus has successfully nominated candidates in the district's elections since it was created in 1954. Its candidates generally run unopposed.

Chamber Elects 9 Directors

Nine persons have been elected to expiring posts on the board of directors of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce.

The new board will take office at a meeting Jan. 4, when 1966 officers will be chosen. Elected to three-year trms were H. G. Holmes, Mrs. Helen Schmidt, Thomas Novotny, Guy Anderson, James Warriner and Victor Beisler.

Ed Keegan was elected to a two-year term. Elected to one-year terms were Herb Carl and Ed Hardy.

A Herald Editorial

Library Expansion Needed

The Herald recommends a "Yes" vote in the Jan. 8 referendum to construct a new library and expand library services in Arlington Heights.

The village has a tradition of maintaining high standards of community service in the face of a rapid population growth. New parks have been acquired and developed, new schools have been added and municipal services have been expanded to meet the needs of this fast-growing city.

The one major exception has been the Arlington Heights Memorial Library. The building, constructed 13 years ago to serve a community of 9,000, now serves a population of more than 44,000.

That figure is expected to reach 50,000 in about a year, and the projected maximum population of 75,000 within a decade.

The need for library expansion is obvious. Beyond that, the Herald believes the details of the proposed expansion reflect careful planning.

—The library board has decided to sell its present building, rather than attempt an addition. The decision was a good one. The present building, even if remodeled, would impose restrictions on the efficiency of the new facility. Furthermore, the location is inferior to the new site.

—The planned library would be completed at this time to serve a population of 57,000, with space to later serve the projected maximum of 75,000. There's $80,000 in the referendum to complete that additional space.

Of equal importance, should the village expand beyond present expectations—and actual growth has exceeded previous estimates—the new building is designed to be expanded further at relatively small cost.

—The new site should be easy to reach and, once there, residents will find ample parking.

—A careful review by professional library planning consultants indicates the library board has attempted to meet the standards recommended for a new facility.

Construction costs are expected to be in the $20-$22 per square foot range, commensurate with other new libraries, which are always faced with stress problems not usually found in school buildings. We believe this figure to be reasonable.

—The referendum provides money for a good start in accumulating the kind of book stock the community should have.

—The library board has indicated it will apply for federal library construction funds to lessen the effect on local property taxes. Projected tax increase is 5 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. That will be reduced, up to 25 per cent, if a federal grant is approved.

—At the urging of its citizens committee, the board agreed to increase its regular operating levy roughly 2 cents to the legal maximum of 12 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. The library consultants' report was frankly critical of the amount Arlington Heights had been earmarking for library books and services.

The new building, and the planned expansion of services, will give Arlington Heights the outstanding library it should have.

Jack Pyett of Prospect Heights placed an inexpensive want ad and sold his Pontiac the day the paper came out. "Received the price I asked," said Jack.

Library Referendum

Volunteers Needed For Vote Campaign

Volunteers are being sought for a telephone chain to "get out the vote" on Saturday, Jan. 8, date of the village's library bond referendum.

Norval B. Stephens and George C. (Bud) Beacham, co-chairmen of a citizens committee organized to boost the library referendum, are asking anyone interested in helping to contact them.

Stephens' number is CL 5-2242 and Beacham's number is 392-4434.

Volunteers can also sign up at the public library.

Citizens committee efforts to inform Arlington Heights residents of the need for a new library were outlined by the two men at a meeting Tuesday, Dec. 21, in the Municipal Building's council chambers.

"We're blessed with a pretty exciting concept for a building," Stephens told the 30 committee members at the meeting. It is designed, he said for the suburban "automobile society," providing under-building parking and a route by which parents can easily drop off and pick up their children.

THE PROPOSED building will be put up on a block-square site at Euclid and Dunton and will replace facilities designed to serve a population of 9,000, less than one-fourth the present village size.

Beacham assured the citizens committee that the proposed new library is greatly needed and adequate to serve the mature community the village will become by 1975.

His remarks were seconded by Village Pres. John G. Woods: "All of us appreciate the need for a library here," said Woods. "Every community needs first-class library service and this is an area where we haven't kept pace."

Stephens said displays showing the way the new library would look are being set up in local banks, the library and the village hall. He said that posters will be put up reminding Arlington Heights residents to vote and that a brochure describing the proposal would go to each resident.

A postcard campaign is also planned. Members of the citizens committee received the postcards at the Tuesday meeting.

New Year's Eve Film Scheduled

"Anything Can Happen" is the title of a new 40-minute motion picture scheduled for public showing at The Evangelical Free Church of Arlington Heights, N. Dunton and St. James, at 9 p.m. New Years Eve.

Produced by the National Association of Evangelicals, the film is a candid probe into the attitudes and actions of Christians in today's churches. Characterized by some as startling, this new black and white documentary uses on-the-spot interviews in a concerned examination of church membership.

Gas Station On Agenda For Jan. 3

Rezoning and a special use permit to build a service station at the northwest corner of Palatine and Arlington Heights roads will be considered by the Arlington Heights Village Board at its Jan. 3 meeting.

The matter was deferred last week, when all trustees were not present to vote on it and when the property owner could not be present. Earlier, the board had deadlocked 3 to 3 on the zoning and members had delayed action until a full board could act. (A

Two Ceramic Instruction Classes Set

With increasing interest in ceramics, the Arlington Heights Park District has scheduled two classes of instruction at Pioneer Park.

Children over 10 years of age may learn to make useful and decorative pieces for the home. The class for boys and girls will begin on Friday Jan. 7 and continue for 10 weeks. The fee for the instruction is $3 and does not include materials.

Adults may also learn to work with ceramics one night each week. Instructions will be given on Mondays, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. for an 8-week period. The first class will be held on Jan. 24, directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer. The fee is $3 without materials.

To register, notify the park district office, CL 3-0620. (A

Knitting Classes To Start Monday

Knitting classes of the Arlington Heights Park District will begin on Monday at Pioneer Park.

The winter session of classes for beginning knitters may register for the six week course for $10. The evening classes, held from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, will be instructed by Mrs. Helen Klotz.

Early registration is encouraged as there will be a class limit. No less than 15 will compose a class. The number to call for enrolling is CL 3-0620. (A

Car Skids Off Road, Man Hurt

He is Joel S. Bernstein, 19, 475 E. Merle Lane. Arlington Heights police said Bernstein was driving south on Arlington Heights Road when his car left the road and struck a culvert. The accident occurred at about 7:30 p.m. (A(W

Okay Subdivision On Waterman Ave.

Preliminary plat of a 12-lot residential subdivision on Waterman Avenue, between Euclid and Miner Streets, has been approved by the Arlington Heights Village Board.

The subdivision, known as Minardi's resubdivision, had been on the village board's agenda since October. Eleven of the lots are contiguous. The 12th is between two other properties.

The village board had asked the village manager to attempt to have those property owners join in the extension of Waterman. Both appeared at last week's meeting and said the cost would be onerous because of the width of their lots.

IN APPROVING the preliminary plat, the board indicated it would ask the board of local improvements to begin special assessment proceedings to improve that portion of Waterman.

Village Atty. Jack M. Siegel said the Circuit Court will determine what portion of the road's cost would be assessed against the two property owners, (A

Winter Safety Stressed

Maintenance of automotive safety features becomes doubly important in winter when "bad weather complicated by the misjudgment of drivers" causes accident rates to soar, the Arlington Heights Safety Commission was told last week.

Joseph F. Fitzgerald, district director for the National Safety Council's Chicago field service department, told the safety commission it is a misconception that winter driving accidents are fewer than those in summer. While there are fewer fatal accidents in winter, he said, people drive less and "winter is not safer in relation to the total miles of travel."

Fitzgerald urged cyclists and pedestrians to wear light colored clothing. That is particularly important in winter, he said, because early dusk finds many vehicles, pedestrians and bicycles on the streets. (A

Man Injured In Collision

A Mount Prospect man was treated for facial cuts at Northwest Community Hospital last Thursday after an accident at Algonquin Road and Briarwood, Arlington Heights.

He is Ronald M. Zadrozny, 24, 1905 Heather Leigh Court.

Police said Zadrozny was westbound on Algonquin, turning left onto Briarwood, when his car collided with one driven east by John F. Kating, 29, 1307 Heather Lane, Arlington Heights. The accident happened at 6:10 p.m.

Zadrozny was charged with negligent driving. (A(M

R. A. Cowan To Direct Dimes Drive

The Metropolitan Chicago Chapter of the March of Dines has announced the appointment of Richard A. Cowen as chairman for the March of Dimes fund raising campaign for 1966 in Arlington Heights.

Cowen lives at 124 N. Gibbons, is married and has four children. The actual fund drive will be held during January.

While the March of Dimes has been best known for its efforts in fighting polio, only a small part of its funds are now spent in this area. Since all forms of polio have virtually vanished from the United States, the March of Dines now spends approximately $2,200,000 for the care of those still paralyzed or in some way crippled by polio.

THE MARCH of Dimes major effort is now in combating birth defects. It is estimated that birth defects affect 250,000 babies born in the U.S. each year — 700 per day — one every other minute. Nearly one out of ten American families experience the anguish of having a child born damaged in mind or body.

Almost 80 per cent of these birth defects can be treated, and in many cases completely corrected, but modern, specialized comprehensive care is needed. In 1965 the National Foundation spent over 13 million dollars in medical care, research, and professional and public education projects aimed at combating birth defects. (A

Bridge Lessons Offered Adults

The Arlington Heights Park District will sponsor bridge lessons for adults on Tuesday evenings.

This winter, beginning on Jan. 11, Chester Rumpf, life master player, will give instructions. Various phases of bridge will be covered, including hand evaluation, bidding, counting, discarding and playing the hand.

A series of 10 lessons at the beginner and advanced beginner level will be given at Pioneer Park Fieldhouse from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Registrations are being taken at the park district office, where the $10 fee may be paid. (A

Library Referendum

Volunteers Needed For Vote Campaign

Volunteers are being sought for a telephone chain to "get out the vote" on Saturday, Jan. 8, date of the village's library bond referendum.

Norval B. Stephens and George C. (Bud) Beacham, co-chairmen of a citizens committee organized to boost the library referendum, are asking anyone interested in helping to contact them.

Stephens' number is CL 5-2242 and Beacham's number is 392-4434.

Volunteers can also sign up at the public library.

Citizens committee efforts to inform Arlington Heights residents of the need for a new library were outlined by the two men at a meeting Tuesday, Dec. 21, in the Municipal Building's council chambers.

"We're blessed with a pretty exciting concept for a building," Stephens told the 30 committee members at the meeting. It is designed, he said for the suburban "automobile society," providing under-building parking and a route by which parents can easily drop off and pick up their children.

THE PROPOSED building will be put up on a block-square site at Euclid and Dunton and will replace facilities designed to serve a population of 9,000, less than one-fourth the present village size.

Beacham assured the citizens committee that the proposed new library is greatly needed and adequate to serve the mature community the village will become by 1975.

His remarks were seconded by Village Pres. John G. Woods: "All of us appreciate the need for a library here," said Woods. "Every community needs first-class library service and this is an area where we haven't kept pace."

Stephens said displays showing the way the new library would look are being set up in local banks, the library and the village hall. He said that posters will be put up reminding Arlington Heights residents to vote and that a brochure describing the proposal would go to each resident.

A postcard campaign is also planned. Members of the citizens committee received the postcards at the Tuesday meeting.

New Year's Eve Film Scheduled

"Anything Can Happen" is the title of a new 40-minute motion picture scheduled for public showing at The Evangelical Free Church of Arlington Heights, N. Dunton and St. James, at 9 p.m. New Years Eve.

Produced by the National Association of Evangelicals, the film is a candid probe into the attitudes and actions of Christians in today's churches. Characterized by some as startling, this new black and white documentary uses on-the-spot interviews in a concerned examination of church membership.

Gas Station On Agenda For Jan. 3

Rezoning and a special use permit to build a service station at the northwest corner of Palatine and Arlington Heights roads will be considered by the Arlington Heights Village Board at its Jan. 3 meeting.

The matter was deferred last week, when all trustees were not present to vote on it and when the property owner could not be present. Earlier, the board had deadlocked 3 to 3 on the zoning and members had delayed action until a full board could act. (A

2-Lot Plat Gets Tentative Okay

Preliminary approval of a two-lot resubdivision at the northeast corner of George Street and Kennicott Avenue was given by the Arlington Heights Village Board last week.

School Board Meets Challenge of Growth

(Following is a year-end review of activities of the board of education of Arlington Heights Elementary District 25, prepared by Board Pres. Harold E. Sorter.)

Another year is passing and it seems appropriate that we look back to see what has been accomplished. It is the responsibility of the superintendent and his professional staff to provide the educational program for the district under policies adopted by the board of education.

It is the board of ecucation's responsiblity as representatives of the public working with the administration to provide the necessary funds and facilities and establish policy. This must be done so as to encourage our professionals to continue to provide the educational leadership which is largely reponsible for our fine school system. It is the accomplishments of the board of education of School District 25 which I have been asked to review.

WE ARE VERY proud of our fine dedicated teaching staff. We believe that in order to maintain and to continue to attract qualified teachers a professional salary schedule is essential. Early this year the board adopted such a schedule which provided substantial salary increases for most teachers. This schedule also provides greater increments for additional education and experience. We also provided salary increments for the able administrative staff and non-certificated personnel.

The board takes very seriously its responsiblity to adopt policies and take actions which will enhance the quality for our educational program. In this connection the board and administration studied very carefully how we should participate in the current federal aid to education programs. For some time we have been participating in a small way on particular programs under the National Defesne Education Act.

After considerable study we agreed to join other local districts in applying for assistance in establishing a center for diagnosing severe learning difficulties and a center for production of supplementary educational material. If these are approved, they are expected to make a significant contribution to the education program of the community which would not otherwise be possible.

IN A GROWING school district such as ours a major portion of the board's time is spent in planning for new facilities. During 1965 we started construction on Ivy Hill School and additions to Thomas Junior High' Patton' Olive and Dunton schools. These will be completed in 1966 at a cost in excess of $1,250,000 and will provide 40 new classrooms. We are now in the process of approving plans for construction in 1966 at Greenbrier School and additions to South Junior High and Dryden Schools as well as an addition to the Administration Building. The cost of this will exceed $1,000,000 and will provide 18 additional classrooms.

School District 25 has been able to meet the increased financial burden of providing quality education for a growing community. There are some indications that the financial resources of the district may not continue to grow at a rate sufficient to maintain the educational standards desired by the

This community problem has received considerable attention of the board and the administration. It became evident that a detailed study of the problem was necessary. Also it soon became obvious that this could best be done by an expert not presently connected with this district.

THE MATTER was investigated and the board retained the University of Chicago to make such a study. We are very pleased that they have undertaken this project which is being done at a minimum cost to the district. The University of Chicago accepted this challenge largely because it is a problem faced by many other districts.

The principal object of the study is to measure the educational aspiration of the community against its financial resources. This study will b pleted by mid-1966. A advisory committee ha appointed to assist in th dertaking. It is expected t this will be of great assistance to the future planning of the school district. (A

Civil War Movie For 'Watch Night'

BILL PEARCE

A fast-moving Civil War film, "Red Runs the River," will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 31, at the watch night service at Meadows Baptist Church, 2401 Kirchoff Road, Rolling Meadows.

The program will be open to the public at no charge.

The story is one of conflict, of brother against brother, of strong will against deep conviction.

The principal characters in the film are Southerners, but this is not a tale of the South, comments Rev. Michael Green, pastor of the church. "It is more than a saga of the tragic war. It is a moving, personal drama of the warfare raging within the soul of a man."

DR. BOB JONES JR., versatile president of Bob Jones University, plays the part of Gen. Richard Stoddert Ewell. Gen. Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson is played by Jack Buttram and Bob Jones III appears as the flamboyant cavalry officer, Jeb Stuart.

The 90-minute color production has a cast of more than 600 students, faculty and staff of Bob Jones University.

A concert by Bill Pearce of radio station WMBI will follow the movie. (AKP

The cost of this will exceed $1,000,000 and will provide 18 additional classrooms.

School District 25 has been able to meet the increased financial burden of providing quality education for a growing community. There are some indications that the financial resources of the district may not continue to grow at a rate sufficient to maintain the educational standards desired by the

This community problem has received considerable attention of the board and the administration. It became evident that a detailed study of the problem was necessary. Also it soon became obvious that this could best be done by an expert not presently connected with this district.

THE MATTER was investigated and the board retained the University of Chicago to make such a study. We are very pleased that they have undertaken this project which is being done at a minimum cost to the district. The University of Chicago accepted this challenge largely because it is a problem faced by many other districts.

The principal object of the study is to measure the educational aspiration of the community against its financial resources. This study will b pleted by mid-1966. A advisory committee ha appointed to assist in th dertaking. It is expected t this will be of great assistance to the future planning of the school district. (A

BILL PEARCE

A fast-moving Civil War film, "Red Runs the River," will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 31, at the watch night service at Meadows Baptist Church, 2401 Kirchoff Road, Rolling Meadows.

The program will be open to the public at no charge.

The story is one of conflict, of brother against brother, of strong will against deep conviction.

The principal characters in the film are Southerners, but this is not a tale of the South, comments Rev. Michael Green, pastor of the church. "It is more than a saga of the tragic war. It is a moving, personal drama of the warfare raging within the soul of a man."

DR. BOB JONES JR., versatile president of Bob Jones University, plays the part of Gen. Richard Stoddert Ewell. Gen. Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson is played by Jack Buttram and Bob Jones III appears as the flamboyant cavalry officer, Jeb Stuart.

The 90-minute color production has a cast of more than 600 students, faculty and staff of Bob Jones University.

A concert by Bill Pearce of radio station WMBI will follow the movie. (AKP

Gems of Thought

You've got to admire the fellow who hits the nail squarely on the head for keeping his eye on his thumb.

An enterprising young man is one who becomes interested in a company because the owner would make a good father-in-law.

Of all the tonics devised by man none is as stimulating as a good day's work.

People should learn from mistakes — that's why the eraser on a pencil is made so small.

Nothing puts zest into planning a trip like the knowledge that it is going to be on an expense account.

'Part-time' Job Demands Full-time Efforts

Village President Has Heavy Schedule

by Dan Baumann
Staff Writer

One of the most demanding "part-time" jobs in suburbia is that of village president of Arlington Heights, among the largest suburbs and fastest growing communities in the state.

The job requires long hours at night and Saturday meetings, luncheons and phone conferences. It pays $2,000 a year, which in terms of an hourly salary is probably far below federal minimum wage standards.

Present holder of the job is John G. Woods, 214 S. Belmont Ave., now nearing the end of his fifth year in office. Woods is general counsel for Universal Oil Products, his "livelihood" job. His third job is as father in a household of five children.

A REVIEW of weekly village calendars indicates the direct scope of the village president's job. He presides at village board meetings held the first and third Mondays of each month and frequently on a third night. In addition, he is an ex officio member of all village board standing committees and attends most of their sessions, usually held on week nights or Saturday mornings.

Many direct duties don't show up on any but Woods' personal calendar:

Government is splintered in suburbia, with many agencies handling specialized functions. That requires occasional meetings with school district people, park people, junior college people, sanitary district people, township people and people from other agencies of the village government: library, board of local improvements, plan commission, and the like, if coordination of policies is to be achieved.

MEETINGS WITH ANY of these individual groups may not be frequent, but taken as a whole they create a steady stream of special gatherings.

Each meeting requires planning, review of relevant data and other preparation time.

Then there are lunches, scheduled several times a week, with developers and others interested in the village.

ANOTHER DIRECT duty is as ceremonial chief of the village. Ribbon cuttings, appearances, ground breakings and other ceremonial functions form a steady stream of activity.

Ceremonies "do not require a tremendous amount of time," said Woods, "but they often come at awkward times." They often cut into his working day.

"But they are quite important: they provide an occasion to become acquainted with people and organizations and people who are new to the village, and provide an occasion to exchange information."

THERE ARE MANY "indirect" functions of the job. Woods is a member of the Northwest Municipal Conference and this year's president; he is also chairman of the northwest suburban region of the Chicago Area Transit Study, a coordinating organization required for federal highway aid programs. He is an ex officio representative on the technical committee on air pollution control, a member of the boards of Northwest Community Hospital, YMCA, Clearbrook School and United Fund, where the degree of his actual participation varies with the organization.

In addition, his appearance even if brief is sought and expected, by a number of civic groups. Such groups may want advice, friendly support or simply a chance to meet the village's elected head.

PAY FOR THE village manager wasn't always so "lucrative." During Woods' first term, which ended last spring, he was eligible to receive $840 a year as village president and $840 as liquor commissioner, a concurrent job.

Woods accepted the president's pay but refused, because of foggy language in the state statute, to take the $840 liquor commissioner's pay.

Woods has admittedly excellent resources to do his job. Arlington Heights has a strong village manager system. Its village board and village president are policy makers; administration is in the hands of the manager.

"The manager (L. A. Hanson) and the village attorney (Jack Siegal) are the two most important individuals that we, as policy makers, must depend on. We are fortunate to have excellent men in both jobs."

WOODS FEELS the extremely rapid growth of Arlington Heights has placed unusual demands on the village president —enough to justify having a full time man in that policy-making role. But he isn't about to propose such a change, because as the village matures he feels the policy problems now facing it will level off.

One "resource" Woods feels he needs and may ask for: a part-time secretary to keep records and correspondence files. For convenience sake, he does not maintain an office in the village hall but has turned over one bedroom in his home for municipal business.

President Woods was attracted to the job, when he first ran in 1961, because he was active in civic affairs and interested in politics. He said he ran a second time because he enjoys seeking civic improvements he helped bring about and because some major undertakings of his first term remained to be completed. (A

An ordinance designed to clear up the responsibilities of a driver making a left turn was approved by the Arlington Heights Village Board last week.

Village Atty. Jack M. Siegel said the wording of the ordinance conforms to a recent change in state law and, apparently, common practice. It was recommended by Police Chief L. W. Calderwood.

Under the former ordinance, Siegel said, a driver making a left turn had the right-of-way after yielding to an oncoming vehicle. Under the amendment, he must wait until all oncoming traffic has cleared before making the turn. (A

Mr. and Mrs. John Beystehner of Chicago spent the weekend with their daughter and family, the Don Larsons, W. Algonquin Road. They celebrated Christmas Eve with Mrs. Larson's brother and family, the Don Beystehners of Zion.

LAKE BRIARWOOD

Miss Pamela Powell, a student at Lincoln College, and Paul VanEikeren, who attends Columbia University in New York, are spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Powell of Elaine Count.

The Gordon Dunders, Elaine Court, entertained family and friends at dinner on Christmas Eve. Due to the power failure, it was a candlelight supper with the coffee made in the fireplace and a cold supper was served.

The Jacob Grosches, Elaine Court, entertained their family on Christmas Eve. Bob Grosch was home for the holidays from Concordia College in Indiana.

John Guziec, Briarwood West, is home from Carthage College in Kenosha.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

The Roy E. Whites and Henry Victor Nystroms of Chicago were Christmas weekend guests of the Carl Baardsens on Estates Drive. After dinner the Nystroms and Baardsens went to Norwood Park to visit the Clyde A. Kuhles family. Later they went to Chicago to see the Adam Snows and the George Schaaf family, where they had a late Christmas supper.

The Frank Martellari family, Myrtle Drive, and August Neitzel family, Martha Lane, attended the Teletype Christmas party at Lane Tech High School Sunday afternoon. Later the Mortellari family went to Scotts for dinner.

The Dominick Cipriani family, Estates Drive, spent Christmas Eve at his mother's, in Elmwood Park. The Cipriani's and Mary's mother, Mrs. Katherine Hastings of Chicago, spent Christmas Day with Mary's brother and family, the Jim Hastings in Elmhurst.

Al and Ro Morey, Kim Avenue, attended the wedding of Ro's sister, Carol Maier to John Burnham of Chicago on Dec. 18 in Riverside. They also attended the dinner reception at the Oak Park Arms.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gale, Estates Drive, had a Christmas Eve gathering for the neighbors.

On Christmas Eve, dinner guests of the Dave Andersons, Estates Drive, were Dave's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson of Chicago, the John Wojtal family from Arlington Heights and the Ronald Andersons of Des Plaines; Christmas Day was spent with Virginia's family in Chicago; Sunday they entertained the Frank Waxman family from Geneva.

Christmas Day Mrs. Betty Strand, Ted and Bill, Harlen Avenue, drove to Wilmot, Wis. to have Christmas dinner with another son and family, the George Hartmans.

ELK RIDGE VILLA

The Leonard Kiobassas had a club Christmas party at their home on Dec. 19. Attending were the Al Bahnsen family of Morton Grove, Robert Mallians and son of Carpenterville and Mr. and Mrs. B. Jarosz and daughter from Northfield.

THE GOLDEN YEARS

WIDOW PUTS $100 A MONTH INTO A NEW LEASE ON LIFE

She was 69, and a widow. Her children were married and far away. Old friends were passing from the scene.

Her health was failing, and as she tried to cope with her loneliness and the old home her husband had left her she was largely unnoticed.

In a period of five months this widow has made over her life, apparently regained her health, and is now virtually a queen who is referred to as "Miss Bless-You."

She did it by spending a little of her money.

Miss Bless-You, whose actual name is Mrs. W. R. Blessing, changed her life without planning to. Her existence had finally become so miserable that, in complete resignation, she sold her house and moved into a small retirement home where she could be taken care of.

She made a $7,500 down-payment to the home under a plan which required her to pay a further $94 a month for life care. Lifetime income left to her by her husband was sufficient for that. Money from the sale of her house and from her husband's savings took care of the $7,500 down-payment and there was $18,000 left.

Mrs. Blessing, once she was settled in the home, started giving the $18,000 away to the 51 other residents at the rate of $100 a month.

This is how a friend describes the development:

"She came into the home with all of her small personal possessions — jewelry, handkerchiefs, scarves, etc. She began passing some of these to other woman residents as gifts.

"The reaction of the women, most of whom had virtually nothing, was surprising to Mrs. Blessing. And very gratifying. She continued giving, and as her personal items diminished she began ordering small gifts from the stores . . . ."

Out of all this Mrs. Blessing got the idea of establishing a monthly "Gift Day" at the home. She set it for the 12th day of each month, which was the date of the month her husband died. She decided to buy $100 worth of gifts for each "Gift Day." She figured that to continue this for five years would cost her a third of her savings, or $6,000, and in the process she would have given out more than 3,000 gifts . . . if she lived that long.

"She worked out an unusual plan," the friend continues. "Each month she would give 45 residents a $1 gift, then would choose six gifts with the remaining $55 for special cases in the home. She made arrangements with a department store to send a clerk to her room once a month with gift suggestions . . . ."

Miss Bless-You made her first distribution of "Gift Day" presents from her bed in her room. She made the second by riding down the halls in her wheel chair. She made the third by walking from room to room.

She has 51 people praying for her health.

New GOLDEN YEARS 32-page booklet now ready. Send 50c in coin to Dept. CSPS, care of this newspaper, to Box 1672, Grand Central Station, New York 17, N.Y.

EAGLE SCOUT BADGE is pinned on John McDonald by his mother during Court of Honor held by Boy Scout Troop 159 at St. Simon Episcopal Church in Arlington Heights. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDonald, 215 N. Patton, John is 14 and a freshman at Arlington High School. Father, looking on at pinning ceremony, is Scoutmaster of troop.

Q. When conserves and jellies are served, are they placed on the butter plate or on the dinner plate?

A. These may be served at dinner or lunch with meat and are placed on the side of the plate, as are horseradish, cranberry sauce, relish, etc. They are incorporated onto the fork as the food is taken into the mouth. Liquid sauces especially meant for the meat are poured only on it.

Mrs. Blessing, once she was settled in the home, started giving the $18,000 away to the 51 other residents at the rate of $100 a month.

This is how a friend describes the development:

"She came into the home with all of her small personal possessions — jewelry, handkerchiefs, scarves, etc. She began passing some of these to other woman residents as gifts.

"The reaction of the women, most of whom had virtually nothing, was surprising to Mrs. Blessing. And very gratifying. She continued giving, and as her personal items diminished she began ordering small gifts from the stores . . . ."

Out of all this Mrs. Blessing got the idea of establishing a monthly "Gift Day" at the home. She set it for the 12th day of each month, which was the date of the month her husband died. She decided to buy $100 worth of gifts for each "Gift Day." She figured that to continue this for five years would cost her a third of her savings, or $6,000, and in the process she would have given out more than 3,000 gifts . . . if she lived that long.

"She worked out an unusual plan," the friend continues. "Each month she would give 45 residents a $1 gift, then would choose six gifts with the remaining $55 for special cases in the home. She made arrangements with a department store to send a clerk to her room once a month with gift suggestions . . . "

Miss Bless-You made her first distribution of "Gift Day" presents from her bed in her room. She made the second by riding down the halls in her wheel chair. She made the third by walking from room to room.

She has 51 people praying for her health.

Vacancies Listed by Post Office

Arlington Heights Postmaster Virginia F. Dodge reports that mail carrier and postal clerk positions are open at the Arlington Heights Post Office and the Elk Grove Village and Rolling Meadows branches.

Starting pay is $2.57 an hour plus benefits, including vacation, sick leave, uniform allowance, part payment of hospitalization costs and term life insurance.

For information contact Mrs. Kolling, personnel clerk, or Robert J. Proebstle, assistant postmaster, at the Arlington Heights office between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Q. When conserves and jellies are served, are they placed on the butter plate or on the dinner plate?

A. These may be served at dinner or lunch with meat and are placed on the side of the plate, as are horseradish, cranberry sauce, relish, etc. They are incorporated onto the fork as the food is taken into the mouth. Liquid sauces especially meant for the meat are poured only on it.

Houser Won't Fight Graham for Senate

HOUSER

Wheeling Township GOP Committeeman Thomas J. Houser this week put an end to speculation about his immediate political future by announcing he will not run for the State Senate.

An attorney and resident of Arlington Heights, Houser said he will spend all his "political time in 1966 working for the election of Charles H. Percy to the U.S. Senate and for Percy's running mates on the state and local level."

This means he will serve again as campaign manager for Percy, provided he gets the okay from his employer, the Burlington Railroad, which recently promoted him to the position of commerce counsel. Houser managed Percy's unsuccessful 1964 campaign against Gov. Otto Kerner.

"RIGHT NOW I'm trying to get myself in a position where I can manage the campaign. The problem most immediate at hand is my corporate responsibilities," Houser commented.

Houser has been mentioned frequently during the past several months as the most likely person to take on incumbent Republican Sen. John Graham of Barrington in the GOP primary. Houser held up his announcement pending the official declaration of candidacy from Percy, which came Dec. 16.

The conservative Graham does not hold high favor among the more moderate Percy-style Republicans in the district.

WHETHER he will be challenged at all, however, remains to be seen — the key decision probably will come in a meeting of committeemen from the townships in the district sometime before the end of January.

The meeting is coincidental, a technicality required by state statute for committeemen within a House district. Lines of the new House and Senate districts for this area coincide, and as long as the committeemen will be getting together anyway to talk about the House, they will doubtless discuss the Senate.

The committeemen may decide to endorse a candidate — or they may not. They may back Graham, another candidate, or no one.

"I would be very much influenced by what my colleagues think," Houser said.

Concerning the possibility of other candidates, he said, "Right now I don't know of anyone who's planning to run."

PROBABLY the strongest potential candidate is Eugene Schlickman, state representative from Arlington Heights, who's reported undecided about definitely running again for the House, in light of the possible shot at the Senate candidacy. However, he's a shoo-in for the House, and could be left completely out in the cold if he lacked firm backing for a fight against Graham.

"I haven't discussed this with Gene," Houser said, "but I intend to have a long talk with him in the near future."

And he repeated, "I wouldn't support anyone without sitting down with my colleagues," the other committeemen.

While qualifying in this fashion, Houser said, "I don't feel there is an incumbent in this new district. Graham has the inside track because he's been in the Senate, but I don't feel that once a man is in he should always be in."

He pointed out that the new district is about twice the population of the old one served by Graham, "and the voters are entitled to take a look at him in the primary."

IN THE meantime, as Houser noted, the Republicans have to take first things first.

State leaders meet in Springfield the end of January to endorse candidates for the top posts, and a slate-making committee is at work now to determine candidates on the Cook County level.

"Time is in our favor, since the primary has been delayed until June. We need to take time for evaluation," Houser said. (B-10

Feeling of Guilt Topic of Institute

One of the most complex human emotions, the feeling of guilt, will be examined by a panel of clergymen and psychiatrists during the third annual Clergymen's Institute Jan. 12 at Forest Hospital, Des Plaines.

The theme of the all-day seminar at the psychiatric hospital is "The Uses and Abuses of Guilt." Speakers will examine the meaning of guilt from the religious and psychiatric points of view and then discuss how clergymen and psychiatrists should counsel people who are experiencing guilt feelings. Some 150 Chicago-area clergymen will attend.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER for the seminar is Dr. Louis J. West, professor and chairman, department of psychiatry, University of Oklahoma Medical Center, Oklahoma City. Following Dr. West's discussion of the psychiatric interpretation of guilt, Rudolph Schade, Th.D., will discuss guilt from the religious viewpoint. The Rev. Mr. Schade is professor and chairman, department of history, Elmhurst College.

Dr. Truman Esau, director of Covenant Counseling Center, Chicago, and vice-president of the medical staff, Forest Hospital, will describe how psychiatrists handle persons who are suffering from guilt feelings. He will be followed by Rabbi Fred Hollander, director of chaplaincy services, New York Board of Rabbis, who will discuss how clergymen counsel parishioners who are burdened with guilt.

Six workshop groups, each led by a psychiatrist and a clergyman, will discuss the speaker's remarks following both the morning and afternoon programs.

THE SEMINAR is sponsored by the hospital's social leadership committee, Dr. Dover Roth, chairman, and supported by the Forest Hospital Foundation, a non-profit affiliate of the hospital. Dr. Rudolph G. Novick, hospital medical director, will moderate the program. (B10

Sheriff's Movies Meet Good Response

More than 300 requests from various church, school and civic organizations for the new law enforcement and safety films have been received by the Cook County sheriff's office since the start of the film library program one month ago.

According to officials, the six new 16mm films — created to spotlight the problems of juvenile delinquency and traffic safety for youngsters — have been especially successful with school and church groups, where up-to-date information is extremely important.

EACH MOVIE was screened and approved by the youth division of the sheriff's police. They are provided as a public service in cooperation with the Sheriff's Youth Foundation, a group of civic minded business leaders who financed the program.

The films stress respect for the law, point out the dangers in narcotic addiction and demonstrate the cardinal rules in street safety. Before each movie, there is a short introduction by Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie which is designed to further impress upon the viewer the local nature of the dangers associated with carelessness and disrespect.

The movies are made available on a loan basis, free of charge. Speakers to accompany the films are also provided, if requests are made far enough in advance. Interested individuals can contact Youth Division Director Nathan Klein at 321-6484 or write him at Room 600, 118 N. Clark St., Chicago, for more information.

THE FILMS available are: "Youth and the Law" (38 minutes), "Why Vandalism" (19 minutes), "Drug Addiction" (31 minutes), "I'm No Fool With a Bicycle" (color-12 minutes), "Safe Bicycling" (color-15 minutes), and "Safety on the Street (13 minutes). (B10

Teletype Aids Needy Children

This Christmas, over 2,600 unfortunate children in 10 Chicagoland institutions will have a happier holiday season made possible by "Operation Santa Claus," a program in which the employes of Skokie's Teletype Corp. undertake to furnish them with gifts.

Since the program was initiated in 1958, over 20,000 needy children have received gifts from Teletype employes through "Operation Santa Claus."

The Teletype participants can choose from a list of names indicating sex and age and on which each child has specified the gift he or she would most like to have. This quality of individual selection allows the donor a more personal interest in the purchase of the request. The company volunteers its time, storage space, transportation as well as many materials to the project. (B10

EDWARD WEBER AND MOTHER

Infant Becomes 50,000th Patient

Edward Weber, 4-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Weber, 115 S. Walnut, Arlington Heights, recently became the 50,000th patient entered at Northwest Community Hospital since the first patient was admitted Dec. 2, 1959.

Little Edward's admission Dec. 9, 1965, was his third since being born in the hospital as a premature baby Aug. 18, 1965. Latest hospitalization was to surgically correct an inguinal hernia. Edward's parents are pleased that in spite of a stormy beginning, their only child is now on the way to perfect health.

WEBER IS EMPLOYED by Cockrell Coffee Service, a vending company with headquarters in Arlington Heights. Both Mr. and Mrs. Weber are lifelong residents of Arlington Heights.

Earlier this year Weber was treated in the emergency room following an auto accident.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weber and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmidt, all long-time residents of Arlington Heights.

Edward has one living great-grandmother and three living great-grandfathers.

Concert Set Sunday By Moody Chorale

KERCHAL ARMSTRONG

Moody Chorale, the a cappella choir of Moody Bible institute, Chicago, will sing Sunday at the Mount Prospect Bible Church, 505 W. Golf Road, two blocks west of Route 83.

The time of the concert will be 7 p.m.

Moody Chorale is heralded on two continents as outstanding in its field. In 1954 and 1958 the group presented more than 100 concerts in six European countries. Newspapers dubbed them "missionaries in song."

THE CHORALE tours parts of the United States and Canada twice yearly, presenting masterworks of sacred choral music, gospel songs and hymn arrangements. Five record albums featuring their work have been released by Word Records, Inc., of Waco, Texas.

The director of the group, Kerchal Armstrong, instructs in church music, voice and brass instruments in the institute's department of sacred music. He also conducts the orchestra.

Armstrong is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute, Wheaton College and the Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University. Among the radio and recording groups with which he performs are the Anthony Choristers and the Sixteen Singing Men. He has served in several churches and is currently music director of Skokie Valley Baptist church, Wilmette.

No admission will be charged for the concert, but free will offering will be taken. (A-15

New Library to Mean Expansion of Service

(Following is the last in a series of special reports on the Arlington Heights Library referendum Saturday, Jan. 8. This article is concerned with expanded services planned by the library board when the new facility is opened, as well as those services not currently being considered. Next week's Herald will carry details on voting precincts, etc.)

Arlington Heights can benefit from a widely expanded range of library services if voters approve a proposed library bond referendum on Saturday, Jan. 8.

Thirty members of a citizens committee formed to boost the referendum were assured of this Tuesday by library board members, co-chairmen of the citizens committee, and Mrs. Mary Lee Ewalt, head librarian.

The referendum on Jan. 8 asks Arlington Heights citizens to approve issuing of $1.4 million in bonds to build and equip a new 40,000 square foot library building at Euclid and Dunton. The new building would replace the present overcrowded structure at Miner and Belmont.

BOOKS—AND more books—will be the big need for Arlington Heights in the next few years, the citizens committee was told.

But at the same time, Mrs. Ewalt and Robert Blackburn, board treasurer, assured questioners, the library board is planning ahead to provide the range of increased services recommended in a library consultant's report given them last year.

The recommended services included separate library areas for young children, greatlye xpanded in-library study space, a separate young adults section, well-supplied reference sections, a technical services department and a fine arts and audio-visual department.

Blackburn and George C. (Bud) Beacham, committee co-chairman, both told the citizens' group that the library architects are working with the library consultants to provide space for those services in the new library building.

Copies of the consultant's report, projections of library income and operating needs, and recommendations of Beacham and Norval B. Stephens, the other chairman of the citizens committee, will be available for public inspection at the library between now and the Jan. 8 referendum date. Drawings of the proposed building will also be on display there, Beacham said.

MRS. EWALT promised as soon as the library building program is approved by village voters the library will start to stockpile books needed for the new building. The book need is acute, she said, and must be met first.

Mrs. Ewalt added, "It would be misleading to say now that we will open the doors of the new building complete with microfilm, phonograph records and the like." These will come later, however, the citizens committee was assured.

One citizens committee member pressed for longer library hours without getting very far.

Longer opening hours are not being considered by the library board at this time, Blackburn said. He made the statement in response to a question from Doublas Johnson, 350 E. Frederick, who asked, "Why should we build a new library when the present library doesn't stay open when adults can use it?"

Johnson mentioned Sunday hours and a weekday 10 p.m. closing instead of the present 9 p.m. (and 8 p.m. in the summer). He was told by Blackburn that "there's never been any pressure for longer hours." Stephens backed up Blackburn, saying he found library hours here "competitive."

THE DEMAND most often felt by library staff members, Mrs. Ewalt said, is not for longer hours but for longer loan periods. She said every summer people urge her to set up a vacation loan arrangement where books can be borrowed for one or two months instead of the present three week period.

The decision has always been not to do this, she said, because of the greatly limited book collection, 45,000 for a population of about the same size instead of the 90,000 to 130,000 recommended under American Library Association standards.

Accused of Possessing Explosives

A Mount Prospect man is being held in DuPage County jail this week in lieu of $2,800 bond on charges of "possession of stolen auto accessories and explosives."

He is Edward L. Rosenblatt, 24, 1105 Cottonwood Lane.

Roselle police arrested Rosenblatt at Suburban Plastics, where he is employed, early Dec. 24 after receiving a call from authorities in Arlington Heights.

Officer Robert Felice said Rosenblatt admitted taking the explosives and accessories from cars parked in a lot near Euclid and Northwest Highway in Arlington Heights.

POLICE IN Roselle said authorities in Rolling Meadows and Arlington Heights both have complaints against Rosenblatt.

A hearing on the charges has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Jan. 5 in magistrate court in the DuPage County Courthouse in Wheaton.

Tax Spiral Continues; 48-Cent Hike in Year

One thing that didn't change in 1965, and will undoubtedly be the same in 1966, was that taxes continued to go up at an accelerating rate.

Wheeling voters approved additional real estate taxes amounting to a minimum of about 38 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Another 10 cents in real estate taxes which didn't require referendum approval was also added by Wheeling-Buffalo School District 21, bringing the minimum total real estate hike to 48 cents.

ACTUALLY the maximum tax increase could be much higher, 81 cents rather than 48 cents. But although a 40-cent fire tax was authorized, it is expected that only the same amount will be levied in 1966 as in 1965, 7.5 cents.

Real estate taxes from all sources went up 39 cents on 1965's tax bills, from $5.40 cents per $100 assessed valuation to $5.79.

And there are numerous other sources of real estate taxes besides the village and elementary school district. Main ones are the county, High School District 214, Northwest Mosquito Abatement District, Library District, and Metropolitan Sanitary District.

And the real estate tax hikes are entirely separate from any tax hikes that may be imposed by the federal and state governments.

DISTRICT 21 tax hikes came from a $600,000 state loan approved by the voters Dec. 18, and two five-cent levies adopted by the board to set up a working cash fund and for building changes to meet the new state safety code.

Rejected in local referendums were a 20-cent hike in the library tax, a police tax of 15 cents, and a $2,000,000 swimming pool construction program proposed by High School District 214.

Q. Sometimes I see people at a dinner table helping themselves to a slice of bread by spearing it with their forks. Is this proper?

A. Definitely not! Help yourself to the bread with your fingers. Never, never use your fork or any other of your personal pieces of silver to help yourself from any common serving dish.

Q. Must a man, while dining in a restaurant with his wife, always rise whenever another couple stops at their table for a few words?

A. He must always rise when a woman stops at his table.

up the debris completely. And a major increase in Dutch elm disease (361 trees were lost, compared with 145 the previous year) was blamed at least partially on the storm damage.

Politically, voters had no surprises up their sleeves. They easily returned the Caucus party to office in the village and the Republican party in the township.

The Park Manor subdivision problem, subject of serious negotiations for about five years, apparently was settled this week, when passage of a planned development ordinance was scheduled. Last summer, the entire subdivision was improved with streets, sewer and water in the largest special assessment program in village history.

EVENTS DURING the year also highlighted some important village problems. An ordinance was passed limiting lawn sprinkling to alternate days, underscoring both the problems of maintaining an adequate system in the face of growth and the likelihood that the village will have to supplement its ground water supply with Lake Michigan water in a few years.

The village made an effort, rather unsuccessfully, to eliminate billboards which it considers illegal and unattractive. It had little support from the county, where most of the signs are located, or sign companies.

With the village's help, a Weller Creek drainage improvement was killed. The village and its neighbors will have to find a solution to the problem.

THE NIKE BASE appears headed for the federal "surplus" property rolls, and its development will be a significant challenge. Both the park and junior college districts have indicated an interest in acquiring it.

Youth activities, constructive and destructive, were a subject of frequent discussion, as they were in most towns. Providing an adequate youth program, and teaching civic responsibility to parents and children, will continue as a major civic problem.

Many neighboring communities now count Negro families among their citizens, and Arlington Heights can expect such token integration in the not-too-distant future.

Its "problem" to date has been in deciding whether an official human relations commission or a private citizens effort is more successful in improving relations among races. Its real problem, still in the future, will be the quiet integration of Negroes into the community's life.

BG Asks Wheeling To Allow Hook-on

In the interest of "orderly development" of its newly annexed area adjacent to Wheeling, the Buffalo Grove Village Board is seeking to assist the developer in obtaining permission to hook onto Wheeling's storm sewer system.

It also hopes to negotiate with the Wheeling Village Board for an adjacent 17 acres the developer wants transferred from Wheeling to Buffalo Grove.

A letter from the Buffalo Grove Village Board requesting negotiations on these two points was received by Wheeling last week.

BUFFALO Grove's officials stated they were not interceding in behalf of the developer, but only for the orderly development of the newly annexed area.

The letter also, by implication, tied the request to the future success of a joint committee established this month by the two boards to seek mutually agreeable land uses for the unincorporated area between the two villages.

Developer Richard Brown, formerly associated with Westbrook Farms subdivision in Wheeling, has annexed 118 acres of land along Dundee Road and adjacent to Wheeling's west boundary with Buffalo Grove. He also desires to include another 17 acres he owns that lies within Wheeling.

PLANNED for the area are about 420 apartments, 304 single family homes, 164 duplex residences, and an eight-acre business area.

The letter was not drafted during an official meeting of the Buffalo Grove Village Board, it was reported.

New Library to Mean Expansion of Service

(Following is the last in a series of special reports on the Arlington Heights Library referendum Saturday, Jan. 8. This article is concerned with expanded services planned by the library board when the new facility is opened, as well as those services not currently being considered. Next week's Herald will carry details on voting precincts, etc.)

Arlington Heights can benefit from a widely expanded range of library services if voters approve a proposed library bond referendum on Saturday, Jan. 8.

Thirty members of a citizens committee formed to boost the referendum were assured of this Tuesday by library board members, co-chairmen of the citizens committee, and Mrs. Mary Lee Ewalt, head librarian.

The referendum on Jan. 8 asks Arlington Heights citizens to approve issuing of $1.4 million in bonds to build and equip a new 40,000 square foot library building at Euclid and Dunton. The new building would replace the present overcrowded structure at Miner and Belmont.

BOOKS—AND more books—will be the big need for Arlington Heights in the next few years, the citizens committee was told.

But at the same time, Mrs. Ewalt and Robert Blackburn, board treasurer, assured questioners, the library board is planning ahead to provide the range of increased services recommended in a library consultant's report given them last year.

The recommended services included separate library areas for young children, greatlye xpanded in-library study space, a separate young adults section, well-supplied reference sections, a technical services department and a fine arts and audio-visual department.

Blackburn and George C. (Bud) Beacham, committee co-chairman, both told the citizens' group that the library architects are working with the library consultants to provide space for those services in the new library building.

Copies of the consultant's report, projections of library income and operating needs, and recommendations of Beacham and Norval B. Stephens, the other chairman of the citizens committee, will be available for public inspection at the library between now and the Jan. 8 referendum date. Drawings of the proposed building will also be on display there, Beacham said.

MRS. EWALT promised as soon as the library building program is approved by village voters the library will start to stockpile books needed for the new building. The book need is acute, she said, and must be met first.

Mrs. Ewalt added, "It would be misleading to say now that we will open the doors of the new building complete with microfilm, phonograph records and the like." These will come later, however, the citizens committee was assured.

One citizens committee member pressed for longer library hours without getting very far.

Longer opening hours are not being considered by the library board at this time, Blackburn said. He made the statement in response to a question from Doublas Johnson, 350 E. Frederick, who asked, "Why should we build a new library when the present library doesn't stay open when adults can use it?"

Johnson mentioned Sunday hours and a weekday 10 p.m. closing instead of the present 9 p.m. (and 8 p.m. in the summer). He was told by Blackburn that "there's never been any pressure for longer hours." Stephens backed up Blackburn, saying he found library hours here "competitive."

THE DEMAND most often felt by library staff members, Mrs. Ewalt said, is not for longer hours but for longer loan periods. She said every summer people urge her to set up a vacation loan arrangement where books can be borrowed for one or two months instead of the present three week period.

The decision has always been not to do this, she said, because of the greatly limited book collection, 45,000 for a population of about the same size instead of the 90,000 to 130,000 recommended under American Library Association standards.

Accused of Possessing Explosives

A Mount Prospect man is being held in DuPage County jail this week in lieu of $2,800 bond on charges of "possession of stolen auto accessories and explosives."

He is Edward L. Rosenblatt, 24, 1105 Cottonwood Lane.

Roselle police arrested Rosenblatt at Suburban Plastics, where he is employed, early Dec. 24 after receiving a call from authorities in Arlington Heights.

Officer Robert Felice said Rosenblatt admitted taking the explosives and accessories from cars parked in a lot near Euclid and Northwest Highway in Arlington Heights.

POLICE IN Roselle said authorities in Rolling Meadows and Arlington Heights both have complaints against Rosenblatt.

A hearing on the charges has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Jan. 5 in magistrate court in the DuPage County Courthouse in Wheaton.

GOP to Push for Human Investment Act

Support Sought From Democrats

by Dan Pribilski
Staff Writer

Washington Republicans in 1966 will be throwing their strength behind a 1965 GOP-introduced House bill which is sure to become in some form another step in the Great Society.

It is the Human Investment Act of 1965 which was introduced by Rep. Donald Rumsfeld (R., 13th) toward the end of the first session of the 89th Congress.

The bill provides for a seven per cent tax credit to business for job training and retraining of lower skilled employes.

If adopted, it would be a natural followup to the 1962 investment credit act where business is granted a tax writeoff for capital improvements.

THE HUMAN Investment Act "is unique in that it has over 110 (Republican) sponsors in the House and Senate," commented Bruce Ladd, legislative assistant to Rumsfeld and chairman of public relations for the bill.

"We're now working specifically in the Senate side, especially to get Democratic sponsorship," he said.

According to Ladd, the bill is favored by Democratic congressmen, but so far none has joined the Republicans in sponsorship of the bill. The bill is now in the House Committee on Ways and Means.

Lack of support by Democrats stems from the fact that the White House has not expressed its intentions yet, Ladd said.

IN 1965, PRES. Johnson had tremendous success—so much that all the important legislation proposed by the administration has been adopted.

The President in 1966 is likely to be looking for such a bill as the Human Investment Act to keep the sparkle sparkling in his Great Society program.

Ladd said no one would be surprised if the Human Investment Act did not end up becoming an administration bill.

This is fine with the Republicans as long as they get some credit for it, Ladd commented. The GOP would not like the bill to go down in history as the "Johnson Human Investment Act."

IN A VERY broad sense, the bill could be considered another aspect of the war on poverty.

However, making the provisions effective would be mainly in the hands of private business. A new bureaucratic structure would not have to be implemented to carry it out as is necessary in the war on poverty legislation.

Ladd said it has not been determined yet whether the bill if enacted would fit within the Department of Labor or the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

In view of the success of the 1962 investment credit act, the Human Investment Act seems likely to have the general support of the business community.

REPORTEDLY, the national Chamber of Commerce is strongly interested in the bill.

The basic idea behind the bill was aptly summed up at its introduction into the House by GOP Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri. He is one of the mainsprings behind the bill.

He said, "It has been proven that a substantial amount of our present unemployment is not because of too few jobs, but because a large portion of our manpower is untrained in the skills that are actually at this moment in serious demand.

"These structurally unemployed persons need only additional training to become employable."

Safeguards have been provided in the bill so that the credit is limited to the lower skilled jobs, not middle management or professional. (A15

How Would It Work? Here's Capsule Story

Here is a capsule explanation of the Human Investment Act of 1965 and how it will work:

It provides a seven per cent tax credit to employers for six types of expenses incurred in training their employes in new job skills.

1. Wages and salaries of employes who are apprentices in registered programs.

2. Wages and salaries of employes enrolled in on-the-job training projects under the 1962 manpower development and training act.

3. The wages and salaries of employes participating in cooperative education programs involving alternate periods of work and study.

4. TUITION AND course fees paid by the employer to colleges or business or trade schools for the training of employes and prospective employes.

5. Home study course fees paid by the employer to colleges or accredited correspondence schools for the training of employes and prospective employes.

6. And expenses to the taxpayer of organized group instruction including classroom instruction, of employes and prospective employes, including such things as instructors' salaries, books and equipment, but not the salaries of trainees.

THIS IS HOW the maximum tax credit would be computed:

The maximum amount of credit that a taxpayer may claim for one taxable year is $25,000 plus 25 per cent of his tax liability in excess of $25,000.

Example: Suppose an employer has a tax liability to the federal government of $425,000 for a tax year. The maximum amount of credit he could claim under the act is $25,000 plus 25 per cent of the tax liability in excess of the $25,000. The tax liability in excess of $25,000 is $400,000. Twenty-five per cent is $100,000. The maximum that could be claimed then is $125,000.

The taxpayer then adds up his allowable employe training expenses. Suppose this figure amounts to $2 million. Seven per cent of $2 million is $140,000. Since this is in excess of the maximum allowable—$125,000—the most the taxpayer can claim would be $125,000.

BUT SUPPOSE the training figure is only $1 million. Seven per cent of $1 million is $70,000. Since this figure is less than the $125,000 allowable, the taxpayer can claim the full $70,000.

It should also be noted that the training expenses remain deductible as a business expense. (A15

Parks to Sponsor Boys Swim Club

Boys who are interested in improving their swimming during the winter months have that opportunity through an activity of the Arlington Heights Park District. A boys' competitive swim club will be formed and have access to the facilities at the St. Viator High School pools.

Charles Mondi will instruct and train all boys who are over seven years of age and can swim 25 yards.

THIS 10 WEEK session on Saturday mornings will give each boy a chance to learn and develop in this water sport. Class times are 9 a.m. for 8 to 10 year olds, 10 a.m. for 11 and 12 year olds and 11 a.m. for those 13 years and over.

Instructions begin on Saturday, Jan. 8, and extend to March 12. Fee is $5. This activity is not restricted to Arlington Heights residents. (A

Police Lecture Bulb Snatchers

Three Arlington Heights boys who chose light bulb snatching over caroling last week got a strong lecture from police and parents after they were caught removing decorative lights at St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

The boys, all 13, were caught by church custodian Ralph Taege, who turned them over to police. They released the boys to their parents, who agreed to compensate the church for its loss.

The church incident was one in a string of annual Christmas bulb snatching reports. (A

ONE TRIP SERVICE
by ED LANDWEHR

When you have your auto tuned up for the season, there are several things like plugs, points, condensers, etc. that are replaced or serviced for the best efficiency of the engine. You wouldn't think of servicing only one part because you know that soon after you would be returning to the mechanic to complete the job.

When your television set wears down after many months, you can be sure that, although a replacement of one part will get it going again, there are several nearly worn-out parts that will follow soon after. It is less expensive in the long run to have the whole set tuned-up like new again.

It doesn't take us at LANDWEHR TV, 218 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights too much longer with the proper instruments to completely check out a TV set and put it at its best efficiency. And the cost is less over the life of the set. Your viewing will be the best, too. Phone CLearbrook 5-0700 next time and see what we mean.

Thinking of selling?

We will be very happy to estimate a selling price for your home based on present real estate values. GOP to Push for Human Investment Act

Support Sought From Democrats

by Dan Pribilski
Staff Writer

Washington Republicans in 1966 will be throwing their strength behind a 1965 GOP-introduced House bill which is sure to become in some form another step in the Great Society.

It is the Human Investment Act of 1965 which was introduced by Rep. Donald Rumsfeld (R., 13th) toward the end of the first session of the 89th Congress.

The bill provides for a seven per cent tax credit to business for job training and retraining of lower skilled employes.

If adopted, it would be a natural followup to the 1962 investment credit act where business is granted a tax writeoff for capital improvements.

THE HUMAN Investment Act "is unique in that it has over 110 (Republican) sponsors in the House and Senate," commented Bruce Ladd, legislative assistant to Rumsfeld and chairman of public relations for the bill.

"We're now working specifically in the Senate side, especially to get Democratic sponsorship," he said.

According to Ladd, the bill is favored by Democratic congressmen, but so far none has joined the Republicans in sponsorship of the bill. The bill is now in the House Committee on Ways and Means.

Lack of support by Democrats stems from the fact that the White House has not expressed its intentions yet, Ladd said.

IN 1965, PRES. Johnson had tremendous success—so much that all the important legislation proposed by the administration has been adopted.

The President in 1966 is likely to be looking for such a bill as the Human Investment Act to keep the sparkle sparkling in his Great Society program.

Ladd said no one would be surprised if the Human Investment Act did not end up becoming an administration bill.

This is fine with the Republicans as long as they get some credit for it, Ladd commented. The GOP would not like the bill to go down in history as the "Johnson Human Investment Act."

IN A VERY broad sense, the bill could be considered another aspect of the war on poverty.

However, making the provisions effective would be mainly in the hands of private business. A new bureaucratic structure would not have to be implemented to carry it out as is necessary in the war on poverty legislation.

Ladd said it has not been determined yet whether the bill if enacted would fit within the Department of Labor or the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

In view of the success of the 1962 investment credit act, the Human Investment Act seems likely to have the general support of the business community.

REPORTEDLY, the national Chamber of Commerce is strongly interested in the bill.

The basic idea behind the bill was aptly summed up at its introduction into the House by GOP Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri. He is one of the mainsprings behind the bill.

He said, "It has been proven that a substantial amount of our present unemployment is not because of too few jobs, but because a large portion of our manpower is untrained in the skills that are actually at this moment in serious demand.

"These structurally unemployed persons need only additional training to become employable."

Safeguards have been provided in the bill so that the credit is limited to the lower skilled jobs, not middle management or professional. (A15

How Would It Work? Here's Capsule Story

Here is a capsule explanation of the Human Investment Act of 1965 and how it will work:

It provides a seven per cent tax credit to employers for six types of expenses incurred in training their employes in new job skills.

1. Wages and salaries of employes who are apprentices in registered programs.

2. Wages and salaries of employes enrolled in on-the-job training projects under the 1962 manpower development and training act.

3. The wages and salaries of employes participating in cooperative education programs involving alternate periods of work and study.

4. TUITION AND course fees paid by the employer to colleges or business or trade schools for the training of employes and prospective employes.

5. Home study course fees paid by the employer to colleges or accredited correspondence schools for the training of employes and prospective employes.

6. And expenses to the taxpayer of organized group instruction including classroom instruction, of employes and prospective employes, including such things as instructors' salaries, books and equipment, but not the salaries of trainees.

THIS IS HOW the maximum tax credit would be computed:

The maximum amount of credit that a taxpayer may claim for one taxable year is $25,000 plus 25 per cent of his tax liability in excess of $25,000.

Example: Suppose an employer has a tax liability to the federal government of $425,000 for a tax year. The maximum amount of credit he could claim under the act is $25,000 plus 25 per cent of the tax liability in excess of the $25,000. The tax liability in excess of $25,000 is $400,000. Twenty-five per cent is $100,000. The maximum that could be claimed then is $125,000.

The taxpayer then adds up his allowable employe training expenses. Suppose this figure amounts to $2 million. Seven per cent of $2 million is $140,000. Since this is in excess of the maximum allowable—$125,000—the most the taxpayer can claim would be $125,000.

BUT SUPPOSE the training figure is only $1 million. Seven per cent of $1 million is $70,000. Since this figure is less than the $125,000 allowable, the taxpayer can claim the full $70,000.

It should also be noted that the training expenses remain deductible as a business expense. (A15

Parks to Sponsor Boys Swim Club

Boys who are interested in improving their swimming during the winter months have that opportunity through an activity of the Arlington Heights Park District. A boys' competitive swim club will be formed and have access to the facilities at the St. Viator High School pools.

Charles Mondi will instruct and train all boys who are over seven years of age and can swim 25 yards.

THIS 10 WEEK session on Saturday mornings will give each boy a chance to learn and develop in this water sport. Class times are 9 a.m. for 8 to 10 year olds, 10 a.m. for 11 and 12 year olds and 11 a.m. for those 13 years and over.

Instructions begin on Saturday, Jan. 8, and extend to March 12. Fee is $5. This activity is not restricted to Arlington Heights residents. (A

Police Lecture Bulb Snatchers

Three Arlington Heights boys who chose light bulb snatching over caroling last week got a strong lecture from police and parents after they were caught removing decorative lights at St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

The boys, all 13, were caught by church custodian Ralph Taege, who turned them over to police. They released the boys to their parents, who agreed to compensate the church for its loss.

The church incident was one in a string of annual Christmas bulb snatching reports. (A

ONE TRIP SERVICE
by ED LANDWEHR

When you have your auto tuned up for the season, there are several things like plugs, points, condensers, etc. that are replaced or serviced for the best efficiency of the engine. You wouldn't think of servicing only one part because you know that soon after you would be returning to the mechanic to complete the job.

When your television set wears down after many months, you can be sure that, although a replacement of one part will get it going again, there are several nearly worn-out parts that will follow soon after. It is less expensive in the long run to have the whole set tuned-up like new again.

It doesn't take us at LANDWEHR TV, 218 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights too much longer with the proper instruments to completely check out a TV set and put it at its best efficiency. And the cost is less over the life of the set. Your viewing will be the best, too. Phone CLearbrook 5-0700 next time and see what we mean.

Thinking of selling?

We will be very happy to estimate a selling price for your home based on present real estate values. VIRGINIA TERRACE

A number of Terrace young people have returned to their homes for the holidays — some arriving from college, others on leave from the armed forces.

Richard Munk, son of the Donald Munks, 1230 N. Race, and Hart Schluntz, son of the John Schluntzes, 1240 N. Chicago, arrived Thursday from Ft. Knox, Ky., where they had completed nine weeks of basic training. They will be leaving in the near future for Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, Tex., to enter medical training school.

Arriving early last week from Northern Illinois University in De Kalb were Jean Guderley, 1228 N. Yale, and Ed Broderick, 1233 N. Illinois; Doug Duss, 1322 N. Race, arrived Dec. 16 from University of Iowa, and coming from Western Illinois University in Macomb to spend the holidays is Stanley Koller, 1258 N. Yale.

ON DEC. 16, the Bob Cooks, 1321 N. Chicago, entertained the Franklin Hankins family of Western Springs. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Hankins' birthday.

Sunday evening the Cooks entertained three couples after the choir concert at the First Methodist Church. Guests were the Ken Lemmels, Bob Bateses and the Harold Jenkinses.

Arriving from Los Angeles the Wednesday before Christmas to visit Donald and Ann Kennedy, 1425 N. Chicago, were Ann's sister, Mrs. Charles Conner and her daughter, Laura. They stayed until Friday and then went to Decatur with the Kennedy family to visit the women's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker. Mrs. Conner planned to stay an additional week in Decatur before returning home.

A combination birthday and Christmas celebration was enjoyed at the Walter Leckie home, 1429 N. Chicago, on Christmas Day. Helping celebrate Bruce Leckie's Dec. 23 15th birthday and Christmas were grandparents, the Stephen Leckies of Evanston, and aunt, uncle and cousin, the Bill Balow family of the Terrace.

PAUL AND JANET Krewer, 1256 N. Illinois, attended a Christmas party at the Hartman House in Wheeling on Dec. 17 given by the Ritzenthaler Bus Lines Inc., for their employees and spouses. Dinner, musical entertainment and a grab bag exchange were highlights of the evening.

On Dec. 21 Billy Buonincontro, son of the Donn Buonincontros, 1247 N. Race, was 2. To celebrate, Billy, his mother and brother, Bobby, went to Howard Johnson's for dinner on Dec. 20. Highlight of the dinner was seeing and visiting with Santa Claus.

Hostess at a neighborhood coffee and Christmas cookie exchange on Dec. 21 was Janet Manthei, 1321 N. Wilke. Guests were Bonnie Misch, Rosemary Shellander, Kay Platte, Lena Duss, Ann Mandarino and Beverly De Quaker.

Several pre-Christmas parties were given by Jack and Donna Garland, 1317 N. Chicago, the week before Christmas. On Sunday, after a program at the First Methodist Church, they entertained a group of friends; on Tuesday a Christmas breakfast was given for relatives and friends from Des Plaines and Donna entertained at a Christmas coffee for neighbors to complete the round of parties.

JIM AND JANICE Murphy, 1326 N. Chicago, attended a Christmas party at the Ivanhoe in Chicago on Dec. 17. The dinner and dance was sponsored by the Roosevelt Paper Co.

Entertaining at a family Christmas dinner were Paul and Janet Krewer, 1256 N. Illinois. Guests were Paul's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Krewer, and Jan's mother and brother, Mrs. Erma Carlson and Arnie Carlson, all of Skokie.

On Sunday, Paul, Jan and Johnny and Jo Anne, went to the home of Janet's mother in Skokie for a family celebration.

Dining with Bill and Freya Jones, 1227 N. Illinois, on Dec. 19 was Bob Resseger of Chicago.

ON THE FOLLOWING Wednesday the Joneses took their Sunday School class of St. Simon Episcopal Church out caroling. Afterwards the carolers were entertained at the Jones' residence.

Friday the Bill Plattes, 1318 N. Race, attended a Christmas program at St. Peter Lutheran School in which their son, Paul, took part.

Christmas Eve the Plattes entertained Bill's parents, the Charles Plattes and his cousin and family, the Charles Websters, of Chicago, and Mrs. Emma Kettenbach of Arlington Heights. On Christmas Day the Plattes went to the Websters' in Chicago for dinner.

Wayne and Janet Manthei and children, Rebecca and Jeffry, 1321 N. Wilke, spent Christmas Day at the home of Wayne's sister and family, the Paul Gerhardts in Glen Ellyn.

Arriving Thursday to spend Christmas with their daughter and family, the Albert Shellanders, 1716 W. Olive, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jonas of Lake Geneva. They returned home Tuesday. (A

Mrs. John Coward of North Dryden was hostess for the December meeting of her ladies bridge group Dec. 15. Grab bag gifts and partyfare added a festive touch for the gathering.

On Dec. 18, the Cowards left for a weekend visit in the LaPorte, Ind. home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Albright, who had the Christmas party for members of their card club.

Six-year-old Daryl Reed of North Hickory celebrated her Dec. 15 birthday with a dinner party in her home. Helping observe the occasion were Tammy Farnan, Nancy Saemrow, Eileen and R. J. Hoffman, Scott Evans and Steve Wilczynski. That Thursday her sister, Laura, celebrated her 15th birthday. Their grandmother, Mrs. C. Petrillo, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Hink, attended her dinner party.

Four-year-old Carol Bengal of N. Haddow Court celebrated her birthday Dec. 14 at a family party.

AN AFTERNOON party Dec. 18 celebrated the Funk twins' eighth birthdays. Helping Rick and Ron observe the occasion were 17 school chums and neighborhood friends in their N. Beverly Lane home. A Christmas theme, games and favors added the festive touch.

Still another birthday celebrant that weekend was 14-year-old George Roby of N. Beverly Lane. A few friends joined him that Friday evening for the movies, snacks and birthday cake before settling down for the night. On Saturday morning, they and their pilot, the senior George Roby, enjoyed an airplane ride to Rockford and back to Sky Harbor, climaxing the birthdaying.

Houseguest in the Ron Luehrs' home on E. Clarendon for the holidays is the grandmother, Mrs. Clayton G. Maxwell of Buffalo. She flew here Dec. 17.

MR. AND MRS. George Lett of N. Belmont greeted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammell from North Arlington, N.J. on Dec. 19 for a Christmas visit.

The Gary Waffles of N. Dryden hosted a holiday open house Dec. 19. There were 20 neighborhood friends in attendance at the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCook also gave a holiday open house in their N. Douglas home that Sunday. Fifty-some friends and co-workers were guests.

Miss Lori Zanetti of Los Angeles arrived by plane Dec. 19 to begin a Christmas visit with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Pettenuzzo in their N. Dryden home.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. Ray Harrison at Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago.

Eastwood Events

Eastwood rolls out the welcome mat to Hal and Mava Maertz and their daughters, Kelli, 4, and Kerri, 18 months, who moved from Detroit to their new home at 502 N. Hickory on Dec. 23, just in time to spend Christmas in Eastwood. Hal is a public relations man with Gardner, Jones and Cowell in Chicago.

The Sam Cullisons, 511 N. Hickory, spent Christmas Day in Kenilworth with Eleanor's sister and family, the Sam Witwers.

On Dec. 26, Sam's birthday, the birthday celebrant was treated to surprise greetings by several neighbors who had gathered for a Christmas potluck supper in the home of Joseph and Vi Corcoron, 507 N. Hickory. Special treat of the evening was when John Cullsion, home on vacation from post graduate studies at the University of Indiana, showed colored slides he had taken in Europe last summer. His slides of Leningrad, Russia, and East Berlin were scenes not often viewed by American tourists.

TOM AND RUTH White and children, Tammy, John, Timmy and Tracy, spent Christmas Eve in their home at 634 N. Dryden with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rubel of Chicago as their dinner guests.

Christmas Day found the Whites guests in the Chicago home of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ziomek.

Other Eastwooders who enjoyed Christmas Day family celebrations in Chicago were Ronald and Anita Drake and children, Terry, Jeffrey and Kimberly, of 510 N. Hickory, as guests of Ronald's grandfather and two aunts.

Marian Heniken of Hickory Avenue enjoyed a pre-Christmas flight to Washington, D. C., where she attended an editor's meeting at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Joseph and Vi Corcoron, attended the Bear's game Dec. 19 and unhappily saw the team lose to the Minnesota Vikings.

Dec. 21 Doris Stueber entertained friends with a pre-Christmas evening punch and coffee party in her decorated home at 414 Beverly Lane.

STEVE AND Dolores Bartolone and children, Steve, Michael, Billy, Susan and Julie, spent Christmas Eve at the home of Dolores' sister and family, the Ronald Kellers of Chicago. They stayed overnight after enjoying the Christmas Eve fun with the Keller family, Dolores' brother and his fiance and their parents, the Waldmuellers of Chicago. On Christmas Day they returned home to 408 N. Hickory.

Christmas Eve the Albrecht Kochs were joined by Yvonne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mercier of Evanston. The Merciers stayed overnight and the traditional Christmas goose dinner was eaten at 420 E. Hickory.

Tuesday the Kochs had their former next door neighbors, Karl and Jean Nowack and children, Julie, Liz, Mary Robin and Steve, now of 720 N. Hickory, as dinner guests. Tonight the Kochs are entertaining some of Albrecht's business associates from the Miehle Co. with a buffet supper.

As 1965 comes to an end, this reporter wishes all Eastwooders a most happy new year! (A

Notes from Arlington Acres

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

The holiday season got an early start with a party at the Norman Wright home, 413 S. Forrest, a week ago Saturday. More than forty guests, friends from the neighborhood as well as many from greater distances, started off the evening with conventional party entertainment when guest, Eddy Davis, announced that he "just happened to bring his banjo" and would play if the hostess would accompany him at the piano. He was joined by Jack Brown with his trumpet and Dave Melcher, who also "happened to bring" his tuba. The trio has entertained singly and together at the Showboat Sari-S, the Velvet Swing and Bourbon Street, and their appearance at the party was a surprise planned by the Wrights for their guests' dancing pleasure.

PAMI MERCER, daughter of the James Mercers, 436 S. Waterman, celebrated her eighth birthday Dec. 20, by inviting Karen and Laura Post, Cindy Christiansen, Laurie Johnson, Lorel Henning, Diana Garris and Nancy Klinger for dinner. Birthday cake and ice cream were held in reserve to be served to the girls as the wind-up of an evening of party games.

Welcome house guests at the James Glynn home, 2123 E. Grove, are Rennie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Reynolds of Sacramento, Calif., who arrived in time to help Rennie and Jim celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary, Dec. 21, as well as to enjoy Christmas with their grandchildren, Jim and Robin.

A CHRISTMAS Eve custom at the Ray Fritz home, 420 S. Phelps, is to celebrate their daughter Madeline's birthday and the holiday with a family dinner that day. Guests were Grandmas Fritz and Manning together with the James Mannings of Chicago.

Another celebration of Madeline's 15th birthday took place last Saturday, when a group of friends gathered at her home early in the evening to embark on a scavenger hunt. Since it was a cold night, their foraging was of short duration and they gave up the hunt in favor of returning to the Fritz home for Sloppy Joes and a birthday cake. Guests were Greg Hege, Chuck Shell, Mary Ann Wellbank, Pat Eisentraut, Barbara Duda, Paul Pokuta, Paul Travosek and Greg Dormal.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Switzer, 413 S. Gibbons, who were married six years Dec. 21. They celebrated by joining friends from Cincinnati in the Loop for a night on the town. First stop was at Kon-Tiki for cocktails, followed by dinner at the Embers and a nightcap at the Red Garter.

MAX BRITTAIN JR., 409 S. Gibbons, arrived home from Bradley University at Peoria for his Christmas vacation in time to celebrate his Dec. 22 birthday with his parents. After a quiet family dinner, a few of his friends dropped in for cake and to spend the evening.

PO Tom Curtin, son of the Jack Curtins, 420 S. Forrest, has been home on leave and returned to duty last week. Tom had been aboard the rescue and salvage vessel, Windlass, which was recently decommissioned. He has been reassigned to the tanker, Waccamaw, at Norfolk.

Lisa Morgan, daughter of the Robert Morgans, 412 S. Forrest, shared the celebration of her seventh birthday with eight of her friends by giving a party Thursday. Neighborhood playmates present were Kathy and Laurie Fussell and Lori Spagnoli. (A

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS By C. D. Smith

Mother 'Doesn't Have Time' To Help Daughter

MY MOTHER DOESN'T HAVE TIME TO TALK TO ME...

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am a seventeen year old girl. My mother works and has never discussed anything with me, so any questions that I wanted answered I have always found in books. I am now going out with boys and I need help in deciding if I should go out with certain boys or not. You see, even though they live in my home town, I don't know much about them because I've always been kept home to take care of the younger kids. My mother does not have the best reputation in town as she goes out a lot. What I want to know is whether the boys who want to go out with me are the right kind of boys. I've tried to talk to my mother, but she says she doesn't have time to talk to me. What can I do?"

OUR REPLY: If you cannot get advice from your mother, is there not some relative, family friend or otherwise responsible adult to whom you can turn?

If your mother's reputation is not the best, this is a handicap you must overcome. If she cannot find the time to talk to you, to help you, then you must help yourself, and you have already done so by realizing that a good reputation is important. If your mother has not shown you what to do, she has, perhaps, shown you what NOT to do.

The "right" boys usually come from good families, are active in school and church groups. The wise girl avoids boys with a questionable reputation and gives a rapid "brush-off" to any boy who proves himself to be anything but a gentleman.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS. COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Second Ski Session Set For Jan. 13

The second session of ski lessons, as sponsored by the Arlington Heights Park District, will begin on Thursday, Jan. 13.

Persons who are interested in learning to ski may register for the group of four trips, each consisting of two hours of lessons per trip, which are given at the Fox Trails Sports Area in Cary.

COST OF THE lessons is $18 basic fee, with a charge of $2 per trip for ski equipment. Bus fees will be collected each trip.

VIRGINIA TERRACE

A number of Terrace young people have returned to their homes for the holidays — some arriving from college, others on leave from the armed forces.

Richard Munk, son of the Donald Munks, 1230 N. Race, and Hart Schluntz, son of the John Schluntzes, 1240 N. Chicago, arrived Thursday from Ft. Knox, Ky., where they had completed nine weeks of basic training. They will be leaving in the near future for Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio, Tex., to enter medical training school.

Arriving early last week from Northern Illinois University in De Kalb were Jean Guderley, 1228 N. Yale, and Ed Broderick, 1233 N. Illinois; Doug Duss, 1322 N. Race, arrived Dec. 16 from University of Iowa, and coming from Western Illinois University in Macomb to spend the holidays is Stanley Koller, 1258 N. Yale.

ON DEC. 16, the Bob Cooks, 1321 N. Chicago, entertained the Franklin Hankins family of Western Springs. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Hankins' birthday.

Sunday evening the Cooks entertained three couples after the choir concert at the First Methodist Church. Guests were the Ken Lemmels, Bob Bateses and the Harold Jenkinses.

Arriving from Los Angeles the Wednesday before Christmas to visit Donald and Ann Kennedy, 1425 N. Chicago, were Ann's sister, Mrs. Charles Conner and her daughter, Laura. They stayed until Friday and then went to Decatur with the Kennedy family to visit the women's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker. Mrs. Conner planned to stay an additional week in Decatur before returning home.

A combination birthday and Christmas celebration was enjoyed at the Walter Leckie home, 1429 N. Chicago, on Christmas Day. Helping celebrate Bruce Leckie's Dec. 23 15th birthday and Christmas were grandparents, the Stephen Leckies of Evanston, and aunt, uncle and cousin, the Bill Balow family of the Terrace.

PAUL AND JANET Krewer, 1256 N. Illinois, attended a Christmas party at the Hartman House in Wheeling on Dec. 17 given by the Ritzenthaler Bus Lines Inc., for their employees and spouses. Dinner, musical entertainment and a grab bag exchange were highlights of the evening.

On Dec. 21 Billy Buonincontro, son of the Donn Buonincontros, 1247 N. Race, was 2. To celebrate, Billy, his mother and brother, Bobby, went to Howard Johnson's for dinner on Dec. 20. Highlight of the dinner was seeing and visiting with Santa Claus.

Hostess at a neighborhood coffee and Christmas cookie exchange on Dec. 21 was Janet Manthei, 1321 N. Wilke. Guests were Bonnie Misch, Rosemary Shellander, Kay Platte, Lena Duss, Ann Mandarino and Beverly De Quaker.

Several pre-Christmas parties were given by Jack and Donna Garland, 1317 N. Chicago, the week before Christmas. On Sunday, after a program at the First Methodist Church, they entertained a group of friends; on Tuesday a Christmas breakfast was given for relatives and friends from Des Plaines and Donna entertained at a Christmas coffee for neighbors to complete the round of parties.

JIM AND JANICE Murphy, 1326 N. Chicago, attended a Christmas party at the Ivanhoe in Chicago on Dec. 17. The dinner and dance was sponsored by the Roosevelt Paper Co.

Entertaining at a family Christmas dinner were Paul and Janet Krewer, 1256 N. Illinois. Guests were Paul's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Krewer, and Jan's mother and brother, Mrs. Erma Carlson and Arnie Carlson, all of Skokie.

On Sunday, Paul, Jan and Johnny and Jo Anne, went to the home of Janet's mother in Skokie for a family celebration.

Dining with Bill and Freya Jones, 1227 N. Illinois, on Dec. 19 was Bob Resseger of Chicago.

ON THE FOLLOWING Wednesday the Joneses took their Sunday School class of St. Simon Episcopal Church out caroling. Afterwards the carolers were entertained at the Jones' residence.

Friday the Bill Plattes, 1318 N. Race, attended a Christmas program at St. Peter Lutheran School in which their son, Paul, took part.

Christmas Eve the Plattes entertained Bill's parents, the Charles Plattes and his cousin and family, the Charles Websters, of Chicago, and Mrs. Emma Kettenbach of Arlington Heights. On Christmas Day the Plattes went to the Websters' in Chicago for dinner.

Wayne and Janet Manthei and children, Rebecca and Jeffry, 1321 N. Wilke, spent Christmas Day at the home of Wayne's sister and family, the Paul Gerhardts in Glen Ellyn.

Arriving Thursday to spend Christmas with their daughter and family, the Albert Shellanders, 1716 W. Olive, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jonas of Lake Geneva. They returned home Tuesday. (A

Mrs. John Coward of North Dryden was hostess for the December meeting of her ladies bridge group Dec. 15. Grab bag gifts and partyfare added a festive touch for the gathering.

On Dec. 18, the Cowards left for a weekend visit in the LaPorte, Ind. home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Albright, who had the Christmas party for members of their card club.

Six-year-old Daryl Reed of North Hickory celebrated her Dec. 15 birthday with a dinner party in her home. Helping observe the occasion were Tammy Farnan, Nancy Saemrow, Eileen and R. J. Hoffman, Scott Evans and Steve Wilczynski. That Thursday her sister, Laura, celebrated her 15th birthday. Their grandmother, Mrs. C. Petrillo, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Hink, attended her dinner party.

Four-year-old Carol Bengal of N. Haddow Court celebrated her birthday Dec. 14 at a family party.

AN AFTERNOON party Dec. 18 celebrated the Funk twins' eighth birthdays. Helping Rick and Ron observe the occasion were 17 school chums and neighborhood friends in their N. Beverly Lane home. A Christmas theme, games and favors added the festive touch.

Still another birthday celebrant that weekend was 14-year-old George Roby of N. Beverly Lane. A few friends joined him that Friday evening for the movies, snacks and birthday cake before settling down for the night. On Saturday morning, they and their pilot, the senior George Roby, enjoyed an airplane ride to Rockford and back to Sky Harbor, climaxing the birthdaying.

Houseguest in the Ron Luehrs' home on E. Clarendon for the holidays is the grandmother, Mrs. Clayton G. Maxwell of Buffalo. She flew here Dec. 17.

MR. AND MRS. George Lett of N. Belmont greeted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammell from North Arlington, N.J. on Dec. 19 for a Christmas visit.

The Gary Waffles of N. Dryden hosted a holiday open house Dec. 19. There were 20 neighborhood friends in attendance at the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCook also gave a holiday open house in their N. Douglas home that Sunday. Fifty-some friends and co-workers were guests.

Miss Lori Zanetti of Los Angeles arrived by plane Dec. 19 to begin a Christmas visit with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Pettenuzzo in their N. Dryden home.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. Ray Harrison at Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago.

Eastwood Events

Eastwood rolls out the welcome mat to Hal and Mava Maertz and their daughters, Kelli, 4, and Kerri, 18 months, who moved from Detroit to their new home at 502 N. Hickory on Dec. 23, just in time to spend Christmas in Eastwood. Hal is a public relations man with Gardner, Jones and Cowell in Chicago.

The Sam Cullisons, 511 N. Hickory, spent Christmas Day in Kenilworth with Eleanor's sister and family, the Sam Witwers.

On Dec. 26, Sam's birthday, the birthday celebrant was treated to surprise greetings by several neighbors who had gathered for a Christmas potluck supper in the home of Joseph and Vi Corcoron, 507 N. Hickory. Special treat of the evening was when John Cullsion, home on vacation from post graduate studies at the University of Indiana, showed colored slides he had taken in Europe last summer. His slides of Leningrad, Russia, and East Berlin were scenes not often viewed by American tourists.

TOM AND RUTH White and children, Tammy, John, Timmy and Tracy, spent Christmas Eve in their home at 634 N. Dryden with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rubel of Chicago as their dinner guests.

Christmas Day found the Whites guests in the Chicago home of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ziomek.

Other Eastwooders who enjoyed Christmas Day family celebrations in Chicago were Ronald and Anita Drake and children, Terry, Jeffrey and Kimberly, of 510 N. Hickory, as guests of Ronald's grandfather and two aunts.

Marian Heniken of Hickory Avenue enjoyed a pre-Christmas flight to Washington, D. C., where she attended an editor's meeting at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Joseph and Vi Corcoron, attended the Bear's game Dec. 19 and unhappily saw the team lose to the Minnesota Vikings.

Dec. 21 Doris Stueber entertained friends with a pre-Christmas evening punch and coffee party in her decorated home at 414 Beverly Lane.

STEVE AND Dolores Bartolone and children, Steve, Michael, Billy, Susan and Julie, spent Christmas Eve at the home of Dolores' sister and family, the Ronald Kellers of Chicago. They stayed overnight after enjoying the Christmas Eve fun with the Keller family, Dolores' brother and his fiance and their parents, the Waldmuellers of Chicago. On Christmas Day they returned home to 408 N. Hickory.

Christmas Eve the Albrecht Kochs were joined by Yvonne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mercier of Evanston. The Merciers stayed overnight and the traditional Christmas goose dinner was eaten at 420 E. Hickory.

Tuesday the Kochs had their former next door neighbors, Karl and Jean Nowack and children, Julie, Liz, Mary Robin and Steve, now of 720 N. Hickory, as dinner guests. Tonight the Kochs are entertaining some of Albrecht's business associates from the Miehle Co. with a buffet supper.

As 1965 comes to an end, this reporter wishes all Eastwooders a most happy new year! (A

Notes from Arlington Acres

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

The holiday season got an early start with a party at the Norman Wright home, 413 S. Forrest, a week ago Saturday. More than forty guests, friends from the neighborhood as well as many from greater distances, started off the evening with conventional party entertainment when guest, Eddy Davis, announced that he "just happened to bring his banjo" and would play if the hostess would accompany him at the piano. He was joined by Jack Brown with his trumpet and Dave Melcher, who also "happened to bring" his tuba. The trio has entertained singly and together at the Showboat Sari-S, the Velvet Swing and Bourbon Street, and their appearance at the party was a surprise planned by the Wrights for their guests' dancing pleasure.

PAMI MERCER, daughter of the James Mercers, 436 S. Waterman, celebrated her eighth birthday Dec. 20, by inviting Karen and Laura Post, Cindy Christiansen, Laurie Johnson, Lorel Henning, Diana Garris and Nancy Klinger for dinner. Birthday cake and ice cream were held in reserve to be served to the girls as the wind-up of an evening of party games.

Welcome house guests at the James Glynn home, 2123 E. Grove, are Rennie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Reynolds of Sacramento, Calif., who arrived in time to help Rennie and Jim celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary, Dec. 21, as well as to enjoy Christmas with their grandchildren, Jim and Robin.

A CHRISTMAS Eve custom at the Ray Fritz home, 420 S. Phelps, is to celebrate their daughter Madeline's birthday and the holiday with a family dinner that day. Guests were Grandmas Fritz and Manning together with the James Mannings of Chicago.

Another celebration of Madeline's 15th birthday took place last Saturday, when a group of friends gathered at her home early in the evening to embark on a scavenger hunt. Since it was a cold night, their foraging was of short duration and they gave up the hunt in favor of returning to the Fritz home for Sloppy Joes and a birthday cake. Guests were Greg Hege, Chuck Shell, Mary Ann Wellbank, Pat Eisentraut, Barbara Duda, Paul Pokuta, Paul Travosek and Greg Dormal.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Switzer, 413 S. Gibbons, who were married six years Dec. 21. They celebrated by joining friends from Cincinnati in the Loop for a night on the town. First stop was at Kon-Tiki for cocktails, followed by dinner at the Embers and a nightcap at the Red Garter.

MAX BRITTAIN JR., 409 S. Gibbons, arrived home from Bradley University at Peoria for his Christmas vacation in time to celebrate his Dec. 22 birthday with his parents. After a quiet family dinner, a few of his friends dropped in for cake and to spend the evening.

PO Tom Curtin, son of the Jack Curtins, 420 S. Forrest, has been home on leave and returned to duty last week. Tom had been aboard the rescue and salvage vessel, Windlass, which was recently decommissioned. He has been reassigned to the tanker, Waccamaw, at Norfolk.

Lisa Morgan, daughter of the Robert Morgans, 412 S. Forrest, shared the celebration of her seventh birthday with eight of her friends by giving a party Thursday. Neighborhood playmates present were Kathy and Laurie Fussell and Lori Spagnoli. (A

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS — By C. D. Smith

Mother 'Doesn't Have Time' To Help Daughter

MY MOTHER DOESN'T HAVE TIME TO TALK TO ME...

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am a seventeen year old girl. My mother works and has never discussed anything with me, so any questions that I wanted answered I have always found in books. I am now going out with boys and I need help in deciding if I should go out with certain boys or not. You see, even though they live in my home town, I don't know much about them because I've always been kept home to take care of the younger kids. My mother does not have the best reputation in town as she goes out a lot. What I want to know is whether the boys who want to go out with me are the right kind of boys. I've tried to talk to my mother, but she says she doesn't have time to talk to me. What can I do?"

OUR REPLY: If you cannot get advice from your mother, is there not some relative, family friend or otherwise responsible adult to whom you can turn?

If your mother's reputation is not the best, this is a handicap you must overcome. If she cannot find the time to talk to you, to help you, then you must help yourself, and you have already done so by realizing that a good reputation is important. If your mother has not shown you what to do, she has, perhaps, shown you what NOT to do.

The "right" boys usually come from good families, are active in school and church groups. The wise girl avoids boys with a questionable reputation and gives a rapid "brush-off" to any boy who proves himself to be anything but a gentleman.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS. COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Women Voters' Work Aids 50,000 Persons

Close to 50,000 northwest suburban residents received factual and helpful voter service material from the nonpartisan League of Women Voters during 1965.

That record is pointed to with pride by Mrs. Frank Moore of Arlington Heights, president of the LWV.

Under her direction the League of Women Voters organization printed and distributed 9,000 copies of a "Local Government Guide" giving voter information and listing names of local officials in the Wheeling and Elk Grove Townships.

The 9,000 "Local Government Guide" booklets were prepared by the voter service chairman, Mrs. Donald Krezek of Arlington Heights, and hand-folded and hand-stapled by league volunteers. They were distributed at local government offices, through community organizations and by "welcome neighbor" hostesses.

MANY AREA residents saw the LWV nonpartisan voter service efforts at close range when they attended one of three public candidates meetings sponsored by the LWV last spring.

Mount Prospect members of the LWV sponsored a candidates meeting in April at Mount Prospect Country Club for candidates for village offices and Arlington Heights leaguers did the same for their village election candidates that month.

The Palatine and Arlington Heights Leagues joined forces in Arpil to sponsor a candidates meeting at which the public could question the 48 candidates for the first Community College District 301 board.

More than 200 persons attended the junior college candidates meeting at Prospect High School. Many others consulted LWV-compiled information on the 48 candidates before casting their ballots. The LWV information on the junior college candidates was carried to 35,000 area voters in Paddock Publications; the same material was also published by the LWV and made available to other area papers.

"VOTER SERVICE work is the center of League of Women Voters activities," points out Mrs. Moore, "because the LWV is dedicated to helping citizens become more effective in influencing their government. Informed voters are essential to the successful operation of this democracy."

A growing league in a growing area, the local LWV reached 100 members during 1965. The membership includes residents of Mount Prospect, Elk Grove Village, Wheeling, Buffalo Grove, Prospect Heights, and Rolling Meadows in addition to Arlington Heights.

League members cover a wide variety of government-oriented topics, ranging from foreign trade to state child welfare services to annexation policies, at their meetings. Visitors are always welcome and arrangements to attend may be made by calling Mrs. Paul Richardson, membership chairman, at CL 9-2658. (B10

Deposit $100, Get Churchill Crown

A Churchill commemorative crown will be the New Year's gift to depositors of $100 or more or those who open a new account with at least $100 at The Bank of Arlington Heights, Arlington Market shopping center.

The Churchill commemorative crown is the first United Kingdom coin to have the head of a commoner in addition to that of the sovereign. It is also the first time that the head of a commoner, if Cromwell is excepted, has appeared on the coin of the realm since at least the 12th century.

It was issued in honor of the late Sir Winston Churchill. The obverse of the coin bears the effigy of H.M. Queen Elizabeth and the reverse, that of Sir Winston Churchill.

WHILE commemorative coins are rare in the United Kingdom, the crown piece has been chosen for recent special issues. There were strikings in 1935 of King George V's Jubilee, in 1937 for the coronation of King George VI, in 1951 for the Festival of Britain and in 1953 for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth.

The first crown, a gold coin, was issued in 1526, the first silver crown in 1551 and the first cupro-nickel crown in 1951.

The coin will be given by the bank from Jan. 1 until Jan. 10.

Meeting Monday

The next meeting of the Lynn Lakin Students Organ Club will be held Monday in the Town Hall at Randhurst.

At the organ will be Marion Gamenthaler, Ron Cook, Grace Baumhardt, Corene Stahnke, Bonnie Timm and Walter Timm.

Refreshments will be served at the Lyon-Healy Store. (B10

Call 4-H Leaders To Training Meet

More than 100 North Cook County 4-H members serving as officers of local 4-H clubs will receive special training at a meeting to be held next Wednesday.

This announcement is according to Merlyn Heyen, Cook County Associate Farm Adviser.

The meeting will be held at the Cook County Truck Gardeners Association Building, 2120 E. Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights, starting at 7:30 p.m

Each group of officers will be assigned to a specialist to learn how to carry out the responsibility of their office.

Harold Bergman, Palatine chairman of the Agricultural Extension Council will be in charge of the presidents and vice presidents.

LARRY MILLER, secretary of organization for the Cook County Farm Bureau will work with the 4-H members serving as secretary or treasurer of their local club.

Joan Lorensen, editor, Paddock Publications, will be in charge of the reporters group.

Recreation leaders will be instructed by Jean Rushton, assistant home adviser. Heyen will be in charge of the junior leader and adult leader section.

Slate Felony Cases At Arlington Court

The Circuit Court's Arlington Heights branch has been expanded to include felony cases, formerly heard in Evanston.

Presiding Judge Harold W. Sullivan said the change is effective immediately. The branch serves Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Wheeling, Buffalo Grove, Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights.

FORMERLY, both the defendant and police officers had to appear in Evanston for arraignment proceedings on felony charges, those involving serious crimes.

Judge Sullivan also announced that an assistant state's attorney will be at the Arlington Heights court from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Thursdays to receive complaints signed by citizens.

The court is in the Arlington Heights Municipal Building, 33 S. Arlington Heights Road.

FAITH QUABIUS stars as Jacqueline in Country Club Theatre's Midwest premiere of "Boeing Boeing," which opened at the Mount Prospect dinner theatre Dec. 22 and will play through Jan. 30. Performances are at 8:30 p.m. nightly except Monday with an early curtain Sundays at 7:30.

At Southern Illinois

John Rush, 1012 N. Vail, Arlington Heights, has been named a student commissioner representing the Spirit Council in the Carbondale Campus Student Government at Southern Illinois University.

The student government structure was developed at Southern to provide channels for communicating ideas, suggestions, and opinions, to plan activities and programs to enrich the campus culture; and create opportunities for experience in mature handling of responsibility. (10CC

At East Carolina

John Roland Haderly Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Haderly, 510 N. Wille St., Mount Prospect, is a member of the 120-voice choral union of East Carolina College music school. A Christmas Oratorio, of works by Bach and Schubert, was presented on the campus, prior to the holiday. (10CC

Suburbs Top Fund Goals

Arlington Heights, Des Plaines and Mount Prospect are among 12 suburbs whose community and united funds were cited recently for achieving or exceeding their local quotas as part of the first Metropolitan crusade of Mercy.

As of Dec. 20, the Arlington Heights United Fund had raised $26,640, Des Plaines Community Chest, $28,003, and Mount Prospect Combined Appeal, $17,893.

AT A RECOGNITION luncheon held Dec. 16, Herbert P. Heath, chairman of the Metropolitan Crusade's Campaigns Division, said the division has raised $900,351 in an area-wide drive, exceding its $800,000 quota by $100,351.

The total Metro Crusade stands at 92 per cent of its goal of $20,937,000.

Heath noted "The participating chests and funds also will receive part of every contribution to the crusade — corporate nad individual — made throughout the metropolitan area."

Women Voters' Work Aids 50,000 Persons

Close to 50,000 northwest suburban residents received factual and helpful voter service material from the nonpartisan League of Women Voters during 1965.

That record is pointed to with pride by Mrs. Frank Moore of Arlington Heights, president of the LWV.

Under her direction the League of Women Voters organization printed and distributed 9,000 copies of a "Local Government Guide" giving voter information and listing names of local officials in the Wheeling and Elk Grove Townships.

The 9,000 "Local Government Guide" booklets were prepared by the voter service chairman, Mrs. Donald Krezek of Arlington Heights, and hand-folded and hand-stapled by league volunteers. They were distributed at local government offices, through community organizations and by "welcome neighbor" hostesses.

MANY AREA residents saw the LWV nonpartisan voter service efforts at close range when they attended one of three public candidates meetings sponsored by the LWV last spring.

Mount Prospect members of the LWV sponsored a candidates meeting in April at Mount Prospect Country Club for candidates for village offices and Arlington Heights leaguers did the same for their village election candidates that month.

The Palatine and Arlington Heights Leagues joined forces in Arpil to sponsor a candidates meeting at which the public could question the 48 candidates for the first Community College District 301 board.

More than 200 persons attended the junior college candidates meeting at Prospect High School. Many others consulted LWV-compiled information on the 48 candidates before casting their ballots. The LWV information on the junior college candidates was carried to 35,000 area voters in Paddock Publications; the same material was also published by the LWV and made available to other area papers.

"VOTER SERVICE work is the center of League of Women Voters activities," points out Mrs. Moore, "because the LWV is dedicated to helping citizens become more effective in influencing their government. Informed voters are essential to the successful operation of this democracy."

A growing league in a growing area, the local LWV reached 100 members during 1965. The membership includes residents of Mount Prospect, Elk Grove Village, Wheeling, Buffalo Grove, Prospect Heights, and Rolling Meadows in addition to Arlington Heights.

League members cover a wide variety of government-oriented topics, ranging from foreign trade to state child welfare services to annexation policies, at their meetings. Visitors are always welcome and arrangements to attend may be made by calling Mrs. Paul Richardson, membership chairman, at CL 9-2658. (B10

Deposit $100, Get Churchill Crown

A Churchill commemorative crown will be the New Year's gift to depositors of $100 or more or those who open a new account with at least $100 at The Bank of Arlington Heights, Arlington Market shopping center.

The Churchill commemorative crown is the first United Kingdom coin to have the head of a commoner in addition to that of the sovereign. It is also the first time that the head of a commoner, if Cromwell is excepted, has appeared on the coin of the realm since at least the 12th century.

It was issued in honor of the late Sir Winston Churchill. The obverse of the coin bears the effigy of H.M. Queen Elizabeth and the reverse, that of Sir Winston Churchill.

WHILE commemorative coins are rare in the United Kingdom, the crown piece has been chosen for recent special issues. There were strikings in 1935 of King George V's Jubilee, in 1937 for the coronation of King George VI, in 1951 for the Festival of Britain and in 1953 for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth.

The first crown, a gold coin, was issued in 1526, the first silver crown in 1551 and the first cupro-nickel crown in 1951.

The coin will be given by the bank from Jan. 1 until Jan. 10.

Meeting Monday

The next meeting of the Lynn Lakin Students Organ Club will be held Monday in the Town Hall at Randhurst.

At the organ will be Marion Gamenthaler, Ron Cook, Grace Baumhardt, Corene Stahnke, Bonnie Timm and Walter Timm.

Refreshments will be served at the Lyon-Healy Store. (B10

Call 4-H Leaders To Training Meet

More than 100 North Cook County 4-H members serving as officers of local 4-H clubs will receive special training at a meeting to be held next Wednesday.

This announcement is according to Merlyn Heyen, Cook County Associate Farm Adviser.

The meeting will be held at the Cook County Truck Gardeners Association Building, 2120 E. Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights, starting at 7:30 p.m

Each group of officers will be assigned to a specialist to learn how to carry out the responsibility of their office.

Harold Bergman, Palatine chairman of the Agricultural Extension Council will be in charge of the presidents and vice presidents.

LARRY MILLER, secretary of organization for the Cook County Farm Bureau will work with the 4-H members serving as secretary or treasurer of their local club.

Joan Lorensen, editor, Paddock Publications, will be in charge of the reporters group.

Recreation leaders will be instructed by Jean Rushton, assistant home adviser. Heyen will be in charge of the junior leader and adult leader section.

Slate Felony Cases At Arlington Court

The Circuit Court's Arlington Heights branch has been expanded to include felony cases, formerly heard in Evanston.

Presiding Judge Harold W. Sullivan said the change is effective immediately. The branch serves Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Wheeling, Buffalo Grove, Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights.

FORMERLY, both the defendant and police officers had to appear in Evanston for arraignment proceedings on felony charges, those involving serious crimes.

Judge Sullivan also announced that an assistant state's attorney will be at the Arlington Heights court from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Thursdays to receive complaints signed by citizens.

The court is in the Arlington Heights Municipal Building, 33 S. Arlington Heights Road.

FAITH QUABIUS stars as Jacqueline in Country Club Theatre's Midwest premiere of "Boeing Boeing," which opened at the Mount Prospect dinner theatre Dec. 22 and will play through Jan. 30. Performances are at 8:30 p.m. nightly except Monday with an early curtain Sundays at 7:30.

At Southern Illinois

John Rush, 1012 N. Vail, Arlington Heights, has been named a student commissioner representing the Spirit Council in the Carbondale Campus Student Government at Southern Illinois University.

The student government structure was developed at Southern to provide channels for communicating ideas, suggestions, and opinions, to plan activities and programs to enrich the campus culture; and create opportunities for experience in mature handling of responsibility. (10CC

At East Carolina

John Roland Haderly Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Haderly, 510 N. Wille St., Mount Prospect, is a member of the 120-voice choral union of East Carolina College music school. A Christmas Oratorio, of works by Bach and Schubert, was presented on the campus, prior to the holiday. (10CC

Suburbs Top Fund Goals

Arlington Heights, Des Plaines and Mount Prospect are among 12 suburbs whose community and united funds were cited recently for achieving or exceeding their local quotas as part of the first Metropolitan crusade of Mercy.

As of Dec. 20, the Arlington Heights United Fund had raised $26,640, Des Plaines Community Chest, $28,003, and Mount Prospect Combined Appeal, $17,893.

AT A RECOGNITION luncheon held Dec. 16, Herbert P. Heath, chairman of the Metropolitan Crusade's Campaigns Division, said the division has raised $900,351 in an area-wide drive, exceding its $800,000 quota by $100,351.

The total Metro Crusade stands at 92 per cent of its goal of $20,937,000.

Heath noted "The participating chests and funds also will receive part of every contribution to the crusade — corporate nad individual — made throughout the metropolitan area."

Village-Wide 'Active Growth' Cited by Woods in '65 Review

Following is a text of the year-end report submitted to the Arlington Heights Village Board this week by Village Pres. John G. Woods.

1965 was a year of active growth in all departments for Arlington Heights. Population passed the 44,000 mark. Some of the major achievements of 1965 consisted of the following:

1. EFFORTS TO REVITALIZE DOWNTOWN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS:

A. ACTION Committee approved Tec-Search Central Business District Plan after extensive study.

B. Engineering feasibility study conducted on depression of Chicago and North Western railroad tracks and preliminary meeting held with railroad officials.

C. Approved $1¼ million planned development for old St. Peter site.

D. The Arlington Savings & Loan acquired the Gieseke property and demolished obsolete buildings, clearing the way for new construction on site.

E. Approved half-million-dollar Babbin R-6 multiple family construction (opposite Paddock's).

F. Paddock's quarter-million-dollar addition well advanced.

G. Trustee Jack Walsh and Manager L. A. Hanson met frequently with developers and representatives of financial community re CBD opportunities.

2. SECURED LOCATION OF BUHRKE TOOL AND WEBER MARKINGS SYSTEMS.

The regional office of Ginn Publishing Co. moved into their new building on Algonquin Road next to A. O. Smith Harvestore, and Northwest Mutual Insurance Co. dedicated new facilities on North Arlington Heights Road.

Several current prospects should result in additional fine organizations locating in Arlington Heights in 1966.

3. Approved preliminary plats of subdivision for Clearbrook Industrial Park and Arlington Heights Research and Industrial Park. Construction on both sites is scheduled to begin in 1966.

4. Annexation of 273 acres of which 43 acres were zoned M-1; 20 acres were zoned commercial; 52 acres were zoned R-5 multiple, with 158 acres being zoned single family residential.

5. For the second consecutive year Arlington Heights led the state in single family residential construction. Permits for 700 homes were issued at a total value of $18.25 million (exclusive of land) or $26,000 per home. Assuming an average lot value of $6,500 this amounts to an average sale price for new homes of $32,500.

Permits were issued for 430 apartment units having a total value of $6.5 million dollars or an average of $15,000 per unit (exclusive of land cost).

6. OTHER NEW CONSTRUCTION:

A. Expansion of Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and Kelly Oldsmobile.

B. Mayfair Interiors remodeled old roller rink on Northwest Highway and moved there from Palatine.

C. $4 million expansion program of Northwest Community Hospital neared completion.

D. Dr. Lidge's $315,000 doctor's clinic built at Central and Arthur.

E. Northwest Medical Center expansion program began with projected buildings to cost well over one-half-million dollars.

F. $1 million Lutheran Home and Service for Aged expansion program completed.

G. Faith Lutheran built $185,000 addition to existing church edifice.

H. St. James convent was built at a cost of $280,000.

In addition, Polk Brothers location in Arlington Market will benefit sales tax receipts.

7. APPROVED $7 million planned development project at Rand and Camp MacDonald Roads. Approved zoning for $9 million planned development project at Central and Wilke Roads.

8. Completed Campbell Street and Grove-Pine improvements. Several streets resurfaced at a cost of $170,000. The half-million dollar Northwest Highway program completed. Arlington Park Manor streets and underground improvements installed. Devoted much time and effort with township officials and board of local improvements on complex Thomas Street paving.

9. Approved concept of MacDonald Creek parkway.

10. Improved traffic control by installation of traffic signals at State and Sigwalt. Traffic signals at State and Miner, State and Euclid, State and Oakton and Northwest Highway and Kensington to be installed in 1966. Completed traffic survey for northwest quadrant of village. Entered into contract with state department of public works and buildings for continuous comprehensive transportation planning.

11. Adopted comprehensive village code.

12. Adopted revised capital improvement budget. Improved budgetary procedures and fiscal controls, emphasized efficiency and economy.

13. Worked closely with library board and set date for library referendum.

14. Formation of Arlington Safety Commission.

15. Completed million-gallon reservoir in connection with Well No. 9.

16. Entered into lease purchase contract for Arlington Vista water system and annexed Arlington Vista.

17. Activated Board of Health.

18. Held successful Youth Week in cooperation with Junior Woman's Club and Arlington Youth Council.

19. Cooperated with Metropolitan Sanitary District in location of sanitary sewer at Hintz Road.

20. Conducted special census which resulted in an additional $25,000 annual income in motor fuel tax funds.

ARLINGTON IS proud of its American Legion baseball team which won the state and regional championships and finished fifth in the nation under the inspired coaching of Lloyd Meyer.

For the first time the United Fund met its campaign goal, for which thanks go to Fred Leydig, president of the United Fund, Paul Collins, campaign chairman, and all of the others who worked so hard to make the United Fund a success.

For the third straight year the Arlingtones won the state championship (and also placed seventh in the nationals).

The citizens of Arlington Heights approved a $465,000 referendum for one new school and seven additions to existing schools. In addition, Arlington Heights supported the new junior college.

THE PLAN commission, board of local improvements, zoning board of appeals, fire and police commission and the DAMP commissioner are all to be commended for their hard work and civic interest. Their efforts are especially important during this period of dramatic growth.

Harold Carlson, chairman of the plan commission, is to be especially commended for his long record of distinguished service, having devoted over a decade to the advancement of Arlington Heights.

Our school, park and library boards continued to serve our community well. Arlington Heights Progress and the Inter-American Friendship Committee carried on their important programs. The Chamber of Commerce increased its activity. The Village Theatre and the Countryside Art Gallery enjoyed successful seasons. The League of Womens Voters, Community Council and other civic, service and homeowners associations contributed to the betterment of the village.

During the year over 1,100 building permits were processed under the capable direction of Harold (Red) Best, who has made a valuable contribution in upholding high building standards.

A WORD OF special thanks is in order to Jack Walsh for his able and untiring efforts as chairman of the ACTION Committee; to John White who, as chairman of the legal committee, worked diligently to complete the comprehensive village code; to L. A. Hanson, village manager, and Jack Siegel, village attorney, for their continued fine work on behalf of the village.

In May we bid a fond farewell to our friends and colleagues George (Bud) Beacham, William J. Moore and Norval Stephens, who left the board of trustees with the knowledge that they had contributed significantly to the civic progress of Arlington Heights. We welcomed Roy Bressler, Tom Hanlon and Frank Palmatier to the board. John White (now as an elected official), Carl Mees and Jack Walsh continue their valuable service.

It has been a real privilege to serve with the dedicated men of this board and I look forward to our continued close association in 1966. (A

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Mrs. John Trudell, Wayne, Ohio: I have treasured my wonderful memories of my early childhood. When I was quite small, I would spend one to three weeks at my great grandparents' homestead. It was a big, rambling brick with a hallway and open stairway, with a wonderful banister.

They had a large brick Summer House where they did their butchering and canning. A plank stairway led upstairs. In one corner on the ground level was a fireplace where my great-aunts hung large iron kettles to heat water for the family washing. Rain water was drawn from the cistern with a wooden bucket.

There are handmade benches to sit on, two wooden tubs and a tub with a wringer on it (cogs unprotected) and I well remember getting my thumb caught in it.

They kept wood ashes in a wooden barrel to make lye and made their own soap. They kept large crocks of soft soap in addition to the hard soap.

When my great-aunt hung up the clothes, I handed her the clothespins. Some were made, I think, of basswood, or Linden Tree. I also enjoyed a whistle my great-aunt made me from the Linden Tree.

In the cellar were rows of benches lined with flat crocks filled with milk. They skimmed the cream with ladles and churned two times a week.

The Accepted Influence in the Northwest Suburban Area

Village-Wide 'Active Growth' Cited by Woods in '65 Review

Following is a text of the year-end report submitted to the Arlington Heights Village Board this week by Village Pres. John G. Woods.

1965 was a year of active growth in all departments for Arlington Heights. Population passed the 44,000 mark. Some of the major achievements of 1965 consisted of the following:

1. EFFORTS TO REVITALIZE DOWNTOWN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS:

A. ACTION Committee approved Tec-Search Central Business District Plan after extensive study.

B. Engineering feasibility study conducted on depression of Chicago and North Western railroad tracks and preliminary meeting held with railroad officials.

C. Approved $1¼ million planned development for old St. Peter site.

D. The Arlington Savings & Loan acquired the Gieseke property and demolished obsolete buildings, clearing the way for new construction on site.

E. Approved half-million-dollar Babbin R-6 multiple family construction (opposite Paddock's).

F. Paddock's quarter-million-dollar addition well advanced.

G. Trustee Jack Walsh and Manager L. A. Hanson met frequently with developers and representatives of financial community re CBD opportunities.

2. SECURED LOCATION OF BUHRKE TOOL AND WEBER MARKINGS SYSTEMS.

The regional office of Ginn Publishing Co. moved into their new building on Algonquin Road next to A. O. Smith Harvestore, and Northwest Mutual Insurance Co. dedicated new facilities on North Arlington Heights Road.

Several current prospects should result in additional fine organizations locating in Arlington Heights in 1966.

3. Approved preliminary plats of subdivision for Clearbrook Industrial Park and Arlington Heights Research and Industrial Park. Construction on both sites is scheduled to begin in 1966.

4. Annexation of 273 acres of which 43 acres were zoned M-1; 20 acres were zoned commercial; 52 acres were zoned R-5 multiple, with 158 acres being zoned single family residential.

5. For the second consecutive year Arlington Heights led the state in single family residential construction. Permits for 700 homes were issued at a total value of $18.25 million (exclusive of land) or $26,000 per home. Assuming an average lot value of $6,500 this amounts to an average sale price for new homes of $32,500.

Permits were issued for 430 apartment units having a total value of $6.5 million dollars or an average of $15,000 per unit (exclusive of land cost).

6. OTHER NEW CONSTRUCTION:

A. Expansion of Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and Kelly Oldsmobile.

B. Mayfair Interiors remodeled old roller rink on Northwest Highway and moved there from Palatine.

C. $4 million expansion program of Northwest Community Hospital neared completion.

D. Dr. Lidge's $315,000 doctor's clinic built at Central and Arthur.

E. Northwest Medical Center expansion program began with projected buildings to cost well over one-half-million dollars.

F. $1 million Lutheran Home and Service for Aged expansion program completed.

G. Faith Lutheran built $185,000 addition to existing church edifice.

H. St. James convent was built at a cost of $280,000.

In addition, Polk Brothers location in Arlington Market will benefit sales tax receipts.

7. APPROVED $7 million planned development project at Rand and Camp MacDonald Roads. Approved zoning for $9 million planned development project at Central and Wilke Roads.

8. Completed Campbell Street and Grove-Pine improvements. Several streets resurfaced at a cost of $170,000. The half-million dollar Northwest Highway program completed. Arlington Park Manor streets and underground improvements installed. Devoted much time and effort with township officials and board of local improvements on complex Thomas Street paving.

9. Approved concept of MacDonald Creek parkway.

10. Improved traffic control by installation of traffic signals at State and Sigwalt. Traffic signals at State and Miner, State and Euclid, State and Oakton and Northwest Highway and Kensington to be installed in 1966. Completed traffic survey for northwest quadrant of village. Entered into contract with state department of public works and buildings for continuous comprehensive transportation planning.

11. Adopted comprehensive village code.

12. Adopted revised capital improvement budget. Improved budgetary procedures and fiscal controls, emphasized efficiency and economy.

13. Worked closely with library board and set date for library referendum.

14. Formation of Arlington Safety Commission.

15. Completed million-gallon reservoir in connection with Well No. 9.

16. Entered into lease purchase contract for Arlington Vista water system and annexed Arlington Vista.

17. Activated Board of Health.

18. Held successful Youth Week in cooperation with Junior Woman's Club and Arlington Youth Council.

19. Cooperated with Metropolitan Sanitary District in location of sanitary sewer at Hintz Road.

20. Conducted special census which resulted in an additional $25,000 annual income in motor fuel tax funds.

ARLINGTON IS proud of its American Legion baseball team which won the state and regional championships and finished fifth in the nation under the inspired coaching of Lloyd Meyer.

For the first time the United Fund met its campaign goal, for which thanks go to Fred Leydig, president of the United Fund, Paul Collins, campaign chairman, and all of the others who worked so hard to make the United Fund a success.

For the third straight year the Arlingtones won the state championship (and also placed seventh in the nationals).

The citizens of Arlington Heights approved a $465,000 referendum for one new school and seven additions to existing schools. In addition, Arlington Heights supported the new junior college.

THE PLAN commission, board of local improvements, zoning board of appeals, fire and police commission and the DAMP commissioner are all to be commended for their hard work and civic interest. Their efforts are especially important during this period of dramatic growth.

Harold Carlson, chairman of the plan commission, is to be especially commended for his long record of distinguished service, having devoted over a decade to the advancement of Arlington Heights.

Our school, park and library boards continued to serve our community well. Arlington Heights Progress and the Inter-American Friendship Committee carried on their important programs. The Chamber of Commerce increased its activity. The Village Theatre and the Countryside Art Gallery enjoyed successful seasons. The League of Womens Voters, Community Council and other civic, service and homeowners associations contributed to the betterment of the village.

During the year over 1,100 building permits were processed under the capable direction of Harold (Red) Best, who has made a valuable contribution in upholding high building standards.

A WORD OF special thanks is in order to Jack Walsh for his able and untiring efforts as chairman of the ACTION Committee; to John White who, as chairman of the legal committee, worked diligently to complete the comprehensive village code; to L. A. Hanson, village manager, and Jack Siegel, village attorney, for their continued fine work on behalf of the village.

In May we bid a fond farewell to our friends and colleagues George (Bud) Beacham, William J. Moore and Norval Stephens, who left the board of trustees with the knowledge that they had contributed significantly to the civic progress of Arlington Heights. We welcomed Roy Bressler, Tom Hanlon and Frank Palmatier to the board. John White (now as an elected official), Carl Mees and Jack Walsh continue their valuable service.

It has been a real privilege to serve with the dedicated men of this board and I look forward to our continued close association in 1966. (A

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Mrs. John Trudell, Wayne, Ohio: I have treasured my wonderful memories of my early childhood. When I was quite small, I would spend one to three weeks at my great grandparents' homestead. It was a big, rambling brick with a hallway and open stairway, with a wonderful banister.

They had a large brick Summer House where they did their butchering and canning. A plank stairway led upstairs. In one corner on the ground level was a fireplace where my great-aunts hung large iron kettles to heat water for the family washing. Rain water was drawn from the cistern with a wooden bucket.

There are handmade benches to sit on, two wooden tubs and a tub with a wringer on it (cogs unprotected) and I well remember getting my thumb caught in it.

They kept wood ashes in a wooden barrel to make lye and made their own soap. They kept large crocks of soft soap in addition to the hard soap.

When my great-aunt hung up the clothes, I handed her the clothespins. Some were made, I think, of basswood, or Linden Tree. I also enjoyed a whistle my great-aunt made me from the Linden Tree.

In the cellar were rows of benches lined with flat crocks filled with milk. They skimmed the cream with ladles and churned two times a week.

FOR THE FAMILY MANAGER

ITEM: If fresh coconut is a favorite around your house, now is the time to use it in a variety of ways. You can use it as toppings or as nutmeats in cookies, cakes, and pies. Coconut cream is used for sauces and to make ice cream.

ITEM: Because of the battery or cell, cordless appliances are heavier than conventional ones. This weight can work against you. With a drill, the extra weight may be helpful. With a mixer, the weight may tire you.

ITEM: If you have a garment with the woolen fabric laminated to foam, never let the iron touch the foam side. Use a pressing cloth or paper strips to protect the foam while pressing.

ITEM: To make a bed —without moving it from the wall-allow 22 inches at either side and at the foot.

* * *

ITEM: Keep zippers closed when pressing garments. Cover a zipper with a press cloth. If the fastener is metal, the soleplate of the iron is protected. If the fastener is nylon coil, the cloth protects it from damage because of the high heat.

Camp Fire Served 600 Local Girls in 1965

Camp Fire has had an active and successful 1965 in Mount Prospect. There are more than 600 girls participating in over 60 groups.

The annual dinner of the Chicago Council was held in January and several local leaders received national awards. The winter Blue Bird play day was also held in January.

In March a puppet show was held in the Arlington Theatre for all Camp Fire girls and their families. March is also birthday month for Camp Fire. Six birthday dinners, either father-daughter or mother-daughter affairs, were held. Each girl contributes a penny for every year of her age on her birthday. The money raised this year bought a gas log for the fireplace in the Mount Prospect Public Library. Camp Fire also donated funds to buy books of interest to girls.

MARCH AND APRIL also brought the annual candy sales. Almost 9,000 boxes were sold by Mount Prospect girls, which made the village the leading district in the Chicago area.

May began with a leader-girl breakfast at Deer Grove. The Grand Council Fire was held the last of May. This is the big ceremonial of the year, where awards are given for work accomplished by the girls.

Most of the leaders gathered in June for a spring luncheon at Old Orchard Country Club. As soon as school was out in June, day camp was opened. This was attended by more than 400 girls.

Camp Fire was proud in July when their float won first prize in the Mount Prospect Fourth of July parade. Fifty-four girls also attended Camp Tiyalaka.

The beginning of school in September brought an increase in Camp Fire activities. There was a Blue Bird picnic at Lions Park. For the junior high girls there was a mother-daughter tea at the country club. For girls graduating from Blue Bird to Camp Fire there was a Fly Up Ceremony in October.

NOVEMBER BROUGHT the candlelighting ceremony for all new Blue Birds. A first for Mount Prospect was the formation of a junior high cabinet to plan activities for all junior high girls in the village. Since the formation of the cabinet, they have held a hayride and baked almost 5,000 cookies for U. S. servicemen in Viet Nam.

At Thanksgiving time 900 tray favors were made and sent to Cook County Hospital. Additional favors were made for the Presbyterian Home and Northwest Community Hospital. Cookies were also baked for a Christmas party for migrant children.

Two groups of Camp Fire Girls carolled during the Christmas season. Junior High and Horizon Club girls went by bus and carolled at two hospitals and three nursing homes.

Plans are now being made for upcoming events. In February the Junior High Cabinet is planning a winter overnight. There will be an area-wide camporee in May. (M

Driver of Empty Bus Dies at Wheel

A school bus driver, who Mount Prospect police found slumped over the steering wheel of his bus last Tuesday morning, was pronounced dead on arrival at Northwest Community Hospital.

He was Andrew Bromund, 66, of 5590 River Road, Rosemont, a driver for Davidsmeyer Bus Service, 2513 E. Higgins Road, Elk Grove Village. Police said he had passed a physical examination last August and was reported to be in good health.

POLICE CAME upon the bus on Cottonwood Lane near Birch Drive. A passerby said the empty bus had rolled up over the curb and stopped.

The body was taken to a Chicago funeral home, police reported. (M

TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously foreited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

PALATINE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

WHEELING TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

PALATINE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

ELK GROVE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

BARRINGTON TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Modern Etiquette

Q. In a home where there is no service, and where the serving dishes are put on the table, how are the dishes started around the table?

A. Properly, the host starts by offering a dish to the woman on his right, and the hostess from her end of the table starts another dish on its way around the table to her right.

Q. We recently moved into a new neighborhood, and some of our neighbors have been kind enough to call on us. How soon should these calls be returned?

A. Within two weeks or thereabouts. Failure to return these calls could indicate to your neighbors that their friendship means nothing.

LEGAL NOTICE

HANOVER TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

ELK GROVE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL NOTICE

BARRINGTON TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Modern Etiquette

Q. In a home where there is no service, and where the serving dishes are put on the table, how are the dishes started around the table?

A. Properly, the host starts by offering a dish to the woman on his right, and the hostess from her end of the table starts another dish on its way around the table to her right.

Q. We recently moved into a new neighborhood, and some of our neighbors have been kind enough to call on us. How soon should these calls be returned?

A. Within two weeks or thereabouts. Failure to return these calls could indicate to your neighbors that their friendship means nothing.

LEGAL NOTICE

HANOVER TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

SCHAUMBURG TOWNSHIP DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Ordinance No. 1120

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE MOUNT PROSPECT MUNICIPAL CODE TO REQUIRE THE REGISTRATION OF OPERATORS OF TAXICABS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT, ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: Article XIX of the Municipal Code of Mount Prospect of 1957 is hereby amended by renumbering Section 15.1918 so that the said Section 15.1918 shall hereafter be numbered Section 15.1919, and by inserting, after Section 15.1917, a new Section 15.1918, the said new section to be and read as follows:

Section 15.1918. Registration of Operators of Taxicabs.

(a) No person shall operate a hack, taxicab or public passenger vehicle for hire, for which a license is required by Section 15.1901, other than a person operating a bus on a fixed route, without first having applied for and secured a registration card, as herein provided. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a hack, taxicab or public passenger vehicle for hire, other than a bus operated on a fixed route, unless such person has in his possession a registration card as herein required.

(b) Application for registration cards pursuant to the requirements of this Section 15.1918 shall be in writing and upon such form as shall be prescribed from time to time by resolution of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village.

(c) Registration cards issued pursuant to this Section 15.1918 shall bear the name and address of the person to whom the card is issued, the picture of such person, and the registration number.

(d) Upon receipt of an application for registration pursuant to this Section 15.1918, the Chief of Police of the Village shall make, or cause to be made by some person designated by him, an investigation into the character and reputation of the applicant for such registration card. No such registration card shall be issued to any person who has been convicted of a felony or who shall otherwise be determined by the Chief of Police to be a person who is not of good moral character.

In determining whether an applicant is of good moral character the Chief of Police shall take into consideration:

(1) Whether the applicant has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor opposed to decency and morality;

(2) Whether the applicant has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving a breach of the peace or an offense against the person or property of another;

(3) Whether the applicant has been convicted of a violation of any Federal or State law concerning possession or sale of alcoholic beverages or narcotics;

(4) Whether the applicant has been convicted of a violation of any Federal or State law prohibiting gambling or wagering, or the possession of records with respect to the same;

(5) Whether the applicant has an arrest record and the nature and extent of the same;

(6) Whether the applicant has been declared to be a sexually dangerous person pursuant to Section 105.01 through 105.12 of Chapter 38 of the Illinois Revised Statutes;

(7) Whether the applicant is of good character and reputation in the community in which he resides.

An appeal may be taken to the President and Board of Trustees of the Village by any person aggrieved by the decision of determination of the Chief of Police on an application for registration pursuant to this Section 15.1918.

(e) Registration cards issued pursuant to this Section 15.1918 shall be placed in a conspicuous place within the vehicle and shall be in plain view of all passengers within such vehicle.

(f) A registration fee in the amount of $5 per year, payable at the time at which application for a registration card is made shall be paid by each person who applies for a registration card pursuant to this Section 15.1918.

SECTION TWO: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in the manner provided by law.

SCHAUMBURG TOWNSHIP DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1964, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

Dec. 30, 1965

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of January, A.D., 1966, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, to-wit, the 24th day of Jan., A.D., 1966, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1964. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk.," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Competitive Examinations For Mt. Prospect Patrolmen

The Village of Mount Prospect, Illinois, announces open competitive examinations for the position of Patrolmen which will be filled by appointment from a list of candidates, established by the Fire and Police Commissioners. Selection will be based upon the results of competitive examinations, oral, written and physical. Successful candidates not appointed shall be maintained on a Candidacy Register for consideration at future appointments.

EXAMINATION DATE: Saturday, January 8, 1966, 2:00 P.M. at Prospect High School, southwest entrance, Room 133, 801 W. Kensington, Mount Prospect, Illinois.

AGE: Not less than 21 years of age or have reached the 34th birthday on the day of examination (this requirement may be waived for candidates having previous Police experience on a regularly constituted paid department); must have completed their military obligation or have been reclassified to status exemption.

HEALTH: Must undergo a physical examination by Police and Fire Commission Doctor at applicant's expense; condition of the candidate must be free of any bodily or mental defects; deformities or diseases that might incapacitate him from the performance of his duties.

CHARACTER: Must be of good character; must not have been convicted of any crime or guilty of infamous or notoriously disgraceful conduct; must be approved by investigation as to proper background and character.

EDUCATION: Must be high school graduate or equivalent thereof. Credit for military service will be given on the basis of five points if the candidate has received an honorable discharge or release under honorable conditions.

MISCELLANEOUS: Must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Illinois. Must qualify as to alertness, good judgment in emergencies, good power of observation and courage.

SALARY: Annual salary, $7,140.00 Hiring rate $60.00 per month less than full rate. Upon completion of six months, rate increased $10.00 per month on merit. Upon completion of each succeeding six months, rate increase of $10.00 per month until at the end of 36 months the full annual salary will be reached.

APPLICATIONS: For the above positions applications are available at either the Fire or Police Department at the Village Hall, 112 E. Northwest Highway, Mount Prospect, Illinois. Those desiring to take the above entrance examinations must file application with the Mount Prospect Fire and Police Commission not later than noon of January 3, 1966.

Ordinance No. 1120

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE MOUNT PROSPECT MUNICIPAL CODE TO REQUIRE THE REGISTRATION OF OPERATORS OF TAXICABS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT, ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: Article XIX of the Municipal Code of Mount Prospect of 1957 is hereby amended by renumbering Section 15.1918 so that the said Section 15.1918 shall hereafter be numbered Section 15.1919, and by inserting, after Section 15.1917, a new Section 15.1918, the said new section to be and read as follows:

Section 15.1918. Registration of Operators of Taxicabs.

(a) No person shall operate a hack, taxicab or public passenger vehicle for hire, for which a license is required by Section 15.1901, other than a person operating a bus on a fixed route, without first having applied for and secured a registration card, as herein provided. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a hack, taxicab or public passenger vehicle for hire, other than a bus operated on a fixed route, unless such person has in his possession a registration card as herein required.

(b) Application for registration cards pursuant to the requirements of this Section 15.1918 shall be in writing and upon such form as shall be prescribed from time to time by resolution of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village.

(c) Registration cards issued pursuant to this Section 15.1918 shall bear the name and address of the person to whom the card is issued, the picture of such person, and the registration number.

(d) Upon receipt of an application for registration pursuant to this Section 15.1918, the Chief of Police of the Village shall make, or cause to be made by some person designated by him, an investigation into the character and reputation of the applicant for such registration card. No such registration card shall be issued to any person who has been convicted of a felony or who shall otherwise be determined by the Chief of Police to be a person who is not of good moral character.

In determining whether an applicant is of good moral character the Chief of Police shall take into consideration:

(1) Whether the applicant has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor opposed to decency and morality;

(2) Whether the applicant has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving a breach of the peace or an offense against the person or property of another;

(3) Whether the applicant has been convicted of a violation of any Federal or State law concerning possession or sale of alcoholic beverages or narcotics;

(4) Whether the applicant has been convicted of a violation of any Federal or State law prohibiting gambling or wagering, or the possession of records with respect to the same;

(5) Whether the applicant has an arrest record and the nature and extent of the same;

(6) Whether the applicant has been declared to be a sexually dangerous person pursuant to Section 105.01 through 105.12 of Chapter 38 of the Illinois Revised Statutes;

(7) Whether the applicant is of good character and reputation in the community in which he resides.

An appeal may be taken to the President and Board of Trustees of the Village by any person aggrieved by the decision of determination of the Chief of Police on an application for registration pursuant to this Section 15.1918.

(e) Registration cards issued pursuant to this Section 15.1918 shall be placed in a conspicuous place within the vehicle and shall be in plain view of all passengers within such vehicle.

(f) A registration fee in the amount of $5 per year, payable at the time at which application for a registration card is made shall be paid by each person who applies for a registration card pursuant to this Section 15.1918.

SECTION TWO: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in the manner provided by law.

God's Will

"Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God! Let they good spirit lead me on a level path."
— Psalms 143:10

We need not always walk the rocky path of indecision. Instead, we can reach out for faith. We can pray for patience, for guidance, and for understanding. And we will soon come to know that faith makes us strong, that doubt lingers not when we feel the reassurance of having done that which was right and not that which was easy.

Let God's will guide your footsteps and you will know that darkness is followed by a sunrise and that within the remnants of a shattered dream are building blocks for a better tomorrow.

"Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God! Let they good spirit lead me on a level path."
— Psalms 143:10

We need not always walk the rocky path of indecision. Instead, we can reach out for faith. We can pray for patience, for guidance, and for understanding. And we will soon come to know that faith makes us strong, that doubt lingers not when we feel the reassurance of having done that which was right and not that which was easy.

Let God's will guide your footsteps and you will know that darkness is followed by a sunrise and that within the remnants of a shattered dream are building blocks for a better tomorrow.

Local Initiative Essential To Tackling Welfare Needs

By HAROLD STREET

Meeting the unmet social welfare needs of the northwest suburbs of Chicago must be a do-it-yourself project by citizens of the area.

That, in essence, was the recommendation of a panel of professional workers in the fields of health, welfare and education at a public meeting Dec. 14, called to weigh area social needs.

In some cases, the experts agreed, facilities exist to meet the needs. In other cases, facilities are inadequate or lacking entirely.

And, they agreed, lay people must take the lead in obtaining services from existing agencies or in forming new agencies.

REPRESENTATIVE of their statements was that of Lynn Unterbrink, school social worker from Township High School District 214 and a member of the Northwest Community Welfare Council.

"You have to do it," he said, addressing the audience and strongly emphasizing the word "you."

"The person who has a vendetta, the one who recognizes a problem, goes out and gets something done," Unterbrink added. "You say people don't get interested. Let 10 per cent of the people get out and work—the other 90 per cent will get involved."

The panelists and the audience approached the problem through the technique of "brainstorming," which encourages free exchange of ideas without destructive criticism. The moderator was Glenn A. Wells of Palatine, who teaches the "brainstorming" technique in courses in creative thinking in the adult education program at Arlington and Prospect High Schools.

Charles Krause, president of the Buffalo Grove Community Council, described the Northwest suburbs, particularly Buffalo Grove and Wheeling, as a "virtual wasteland" from the standpoint of welfare services that are offered.

Clarence Luther described the suburbs as an area where families no longer "stay together, play together, or pray together." Luther is a school social worker for District 21.

"The primary concern of people who are trying to pay off their homes is the resale value of the home, not becoming people who put down roots in the area," Luther said.

IN THE northwest suburbs, Luther added, "Private welfare agencies are no different from the public agencies — they all have long waiting lists." And, he added, some agencies formerly located in the area no longer exist.

One of the panelists, Gordon Gilkey, director of suburban programs for the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, supported Luther's definition.

In this area, Gilkey said, "It is just about impossible for persons at the lower end of the economic scale to get adequate medical care."

Gilkey also cited the need for housing for low-income families in the Northwest suburbs. "Industry is turning away from the northwest suburbs because the labor market is tight as far as the lower income groups are concerned," he said.

Unterbrink's statement that lay people must take the initiative in obtaining welfare services drew support from panelists Paul Kliger, director of community organization for Charles F. Read Zone Center of Chicago, one of a network of present and proposed regional centers of the Illinois Mental Health Dept.; Ethan Janove, principal of Brentwood School in District 59 (Elk Grove) and a director of NORWESCO (Northwest Cook) Opportunity Council; and Dr. David F. Busby of Niles, a psychiatrist in private practice and staff member of Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, and Forest Hospital, Des Plaines.

"The lay person must provide the go-ahead signal for the professional to become active," Kliger said. And, Busby said, "The professional may be a little reluctant to volunteer his services. I feel the citizen should make the first move, but the professional should make it known that he is available."

"Private citizens can, ought to, and should wake up to the need for services," Janove said. "If they don't believe the need exists, let them do a little research."

"People must demand services from existing agencies," Unterbrink said. "they must apply pressure to get these services through any means available."

JANOVE SUGGESTED that private citizens work within existing organizations, or work to form new organizations. Formation of the Northwest Mental Health Clinic, Janove said, was "an example of a group of citizens working together to develop a facility to meet a need."

Several panelists suggested the formation of a steering committee to determine the needs that exist in the Northwest suburbs, inform citizens of the needs, and determine ways of meeting them. "The idea of waking the community up to the needs that exist," Janove said, "is almost as important as working toward the goal of meeting them."

Kliger cited the specific need of lay people trained to help returned mental patients, and to take preventive action to help prospective mental patients avoid trouble.

A member of the audience, Peter Urban of Wheeling, stressed the need of giving by private citizens to support welfare services. Urban is co-chairman of the Wheeling-Buffalo Grove United Fund.

A suggestion by District 21 School Supt. Kenneth Gill, that "The professional should speak in English to the people he works with," drew applause from the audience.

"School teachers should quit speaking in cliches and pedagese," Gill said. "Ministers should quit speaking in stained glass voices. Medical doctors should quit saying umm-hmm. I don't even know what they call the words psychiatrists and social workers use. They couldn't even be used in Mary Poppins — they can't even be pronounced."

THE MEETING, Rev. William R. King of Prospect Heights, said, showed a concern about problems in the area and a willingness on the part of those who attended "to do something if they knew what to do."

King, who summarized the meeting, is pastor of John Calvin United Presbyterian Church. Another minister, Edward L. Harding of St. Mark United Church of Christ in Wheeling, opened the meeting with a prayer that called for wisdom, understanding and the spirit of brotherhood necessary to find answers and solve problems.

The consensus, King said, was that the needs must be narrowed down and sharply defined by a steering committee, and that action must be planned to remedy the needs. (B10

Suburban Boy Scout Membership Expands

Suburban Boy Scout 3-48 Bold

Membership in the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, grew to nearly 13,000 by November, 1965, according to the council's report of the year's activities.

Cub Scout membership was 8,024, up from the 7,723 cub membership in 1964, but short of the 1965 estimate of 8,209 made at the beginning of the year. Membership in the Boy Scout troops was 4,501, a slight decline from the 4,528 reported in 1964, and short of the estimate or goal for the year of 4,846. Explorer Scouts numbered 469 by November, 1965, down from the 1964 figure of 566.

Total units in each category for 1965 were: Cub packs, 155 (154 in 1964); Boy Scout troops, 136 (135); and Explorer posts, 41 (47).

Camp Napowan, located outside Wild Rose, Wis., 223 miles from dristrict headquarters in Des Plaines, was again awarded an "A" rating by the regional inspection team. The 320 acre tract is owned and operated by the council.

NAMEKAGON Scout Reservation, 1,120 acres with three lakes near Spooner-Hayward, Wis., opened last summer with 11 troops and over 200 Scouts and Explorers and leaders in attendance. Camp development included 16 canoes, 12 rowboats, four wells, three camp sites, one showerhouse, bus and trailer for canoe trips, walk-in cooler, freezer, and improvements on roads, power lines, wiring and quartermaster building.

The number of troops in attendance at both summer camps was greater than any previous year, according to the annual report.

Four weekend camp sites operated by the council in 1965 were: Camp Baden Powell in Mount Prospect and Camp Dan Beard outside of Wheeling, both leased from the Cook County Forest Preserve District; and Lakota Reservation outside of Woodstock, and Herzog Reservation near West Bend, Wis., both sites owned by the Northwest Suburban Council.

The weekend campsites were used by 5,660 Scouts and leaders in 1965, reports Frank B. Newton, scout executive for the council. Attendance at other camps and on trips included: Napowan summer camp, 1,221 scouts, 92 troops; Namekagon reservation, 185 scouts and explorers, 11 troops; National Camp School, two staff members; Region 7 canoe base, 21 explorers and scouts, three leaders; Philmont Scout Reservation expedition, 88 scouts and explorers, ten leaders; and Explorer expeditions, totaling five days and nights of camping, 283 Explorers and 37 leaders, and 23 Explorer units.

Val Fishburn of Des Plaines, chairman of the activities committee, reported a regular pattern of activities for the year, starting with the special Scout Week plans in February. Other events included the Scout-O-Rama, district camporees and Webelos Days, Klondike Derbies, rallies and special Explorer events.

THE EAGLE Board of Review, chaired by John Bell of Barrington, presented 77 Eagle awards in the seven council districts in 1965.

Other committee chairman for the year were: LeRoy Stoehr of Arlington Heights, advancement committee; Walter Franzen of Des Plaines, camping; Leonard Shure of Skokie, health and safety; Fredrick Meythaler of Barrington, finance; Robert Smith of Lake Forest, leadership training; Arthur Fink of Prospect Heights, council vice president and acting chairman of the organization and extension committee; Walter T. Craigle of Niles, public relations; and A. A. Rose of Arlington Heights, chairman Catholic Committee on Scouting; James Williams of Des Plaines, Episcopal committee; Morton Z. Levine of Skokie, Jewish committee; Philip Lindahl of Des Plaines, Lutheran committee; and Ralph Kort of Park Ridge, Protestant committee.

The council's 1965 budget was $271,367. Largest single source of income is $98,976 from the 11 United Funds, Combined Appeals and the Crusade of Mercy conducted in areas of the council.

THE NORTHWEST Suburban Council serves boys in the following area villages and cities: Arlington Heights, Barrington, Barrington Hills, Buffalo Grove, Deer Park, Des Plaines, Elk Grove Village, Feehanville, Forest River, Hatlen Heights, Hawthorne Woods, Hoffman Estates, Kildeer, Lake Barrington, Lake Zurich, Lexington Fields, Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Mount Prospect, Niles, North Barrington, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Prospect Meadows, Park Ridge, Rolling Meadows, Roselle, Rosemont, Schaumburg, Schiller Park, Skokie, Timber Lakes, Tower Lake, Twinbrook, Weathersfield and Wheeling.

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

ILLINOIS LAW OF CHECKS

Carol Stevens wrote an $8 check, payable to "Cash," and used it to pay for some groceries. When the bank returned the check with the monthly bank statement, Carol was shocked to find that someone had altered the $8 check to $80.

Her husband, John, immediately called the bank. A quick investigation showed that the bank had indeed cashed the check for $80. Someone had altered the check before it was presented to the bank for payment.

Several days later, John discovered that another check returned by the bank was a complete forgery. An imposter had drawn a check for $100 on John's bank, signing John's name to it. Checking with the bank, he learned that the full amount had been paid from his account.

Who Takes the Loss?

The bank is the loser. Under Illinois law, the bank cannot charge the Stevens for money it paid by reason of fraud.

In the case of the $100 forgery, the law requires the bank to know the signatures of its own depositors, even against the most clever forgeries. Since John was the depositor, the bank wrongfully paid the check.

Carol is also protected under Illinois law. In the incident concerning her $8 check, which was raised to $80, the law provides that the bank must pay checks drawn on it according to the original "tenor" of the instrument — in other words, the amount for which the check was originally drawn.

The Bank Protected

If the bank can show that Carol's negligence led to the alteration, she must stand the loss. Otherwise, the bank can only charge the Stevens account for $8 — the amount of the check originally intended by the depositor.

However, the Stevens have a duty to examine their bank statements and cancelled checks within a reasonable time after they are returned to them. Failure to do so could prevent them from recovering their loss from the bank — if the bank proves that it suffered the loss due to the Stevens' failure to notify it within a reasonable time.

Where there is more than one forgery by the same wrongdoer, the customer must notify the bank within 14 days after the first forged check and statement are available to him. Otherwise, the Stevens have within one year to notify the bank unless negligence on their part can be proved.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. ..(A15

'Leftovers' Requested By Goodwill

Jan. 3 signals the start of Goodwill Industries' annual after-Christmas drive for used materials.

The toys, clothing, appliances and other used items that were replaced or "put on the shelf" by new Christmas gifts are the targets of Goodwill's January drive.

Rehabilitative job training for Goodwill's handicapped workers results from the public's donations of used materials. By learning to repair and renovate used materials, handicapped men and women are given a chance to prepare for jobs in outside industry.

THE REPAIRED and renovated materials are offered for sale in one of Goodwill's 13 retail outlets. From the sales of these items come the major source of wages to the handicapped workers of the non-profit welfare agency.

The public is asked to support Goodwill's after-Christmas drive by dropping used clothing into a convenient Goodwill collection booth or by calling SE 8-3860 or the nearest area representative to arrange for a truckp ickup at home. (A15

Home Building Rise Continues

According to the Bell Savings and Loan Association's survey of new building in the Chicago Metropolitan area, permits for both homes and apartments increased in the area during November.

Single family homes exceeded last year's level for the eighth consecutive month, and reached the highest November volume since 1958. Apartments increased 20 per cent from last year.

The entire metropolitan area reported 1,786 permits for single family homes in November, a 34 per cent increase over November 1964 (1,334). A higher home permit volume for November was reported seven years ago in 1958 (3,296). Home building improved throughout the area: 17 per cent in Chicago, 35 per cent in the suburbs and 38 per cent in the unincorporated areas.

Permits were issued for 1,724 apartment units in the six-county metropolitan area, 20 per cent above a year ago (1,432 units). Apartments increased 60 per cent in the City of Chicago with 789 units, against 493 last November. Apartments also rose in the suburbs from 855 units to 870 units, but declined in the unincorporated areas from 84 to 65 units.

The total value of all building permits slightly exceeded last year's level ($101,396,469 compared with $99,318,470). Permit values rose 9 per cent in the suburbs, 10 per cent in the unincorporated areas, but declined 11 per cent in Chicago.

BREAKDOWN by communities of building of all types in November, 1965 compared with November 1964 and October 1965, is as follows:

Lane Bryant Bonus Slated For Employes

Some 3,700 employees of Lane Bryant, Inc. will receive a profit-sharing bonus from the corporation's plan. Lane Bryant operates 114 stores and women's specialty shops throughout the country.

The bonus totals $285,000 this year, as compared with $255,000 in 1964. Lane Bryant distributes the bonus among its employees solely on the basis of length of service with the company. Each employee with more than one year of service is given one unit and an additional ten percent for each successive full year of service.

The profit-sharing bonus originated in 1941, and is only one segment of Lane Bryant's extensive employee security program. (Rh

Local Initiative Essential To Tackling Welfare Needs

By HAROLD STREET

Meeting the unmet social welfare needs of the northwest suburbs of Chicago must be a do-it-yourself project by citizens of the area.

That, in essence, was the recommendation of a panel of professional workers in the fields of health, welfare and education at a public meeting Dec. 14, called to weigh area social needs.

In some cases, the experts agreed, facilities exist to meet the needs. In other cases, facilities are inadequate or lacking entirely.

And, they agreed, lay people must take the lead in obtaining services from existing agencies or in forming new agencies.

REPRESENTATIVE of their statements was that of Lynn Unterbrink, school social worker from Township High School District 214 and a member of the Northwest Community Welfare Council.

"You have to do it," he said, addressing the audience and strongly emphasizing the word "you."

"The person who has a vendetta, the one who recognizes a problem, goes out and gets something done," Unterbrink added. "You say people don't get interested. Let 10 per cent of the people get out and work—the other 90 per cent will get involved."

IN THE northwest suburbs, Luther added, "Private welfare agencies are no different from the public agencies — they all have long waiting lists." And, he added, some agencies formerly located in the area no longer exist.

One of the panelists, Gordon Gilkey, director of suburban programs for the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, supported Luther's definition.

In this area, Gilkey said, "It is just about impossible for persons at the lower end of the economic scale to get adequate medical care."

Gilkey also cited the need for housing for low-income families in the Northwest suburbs. "Industry is turning away from the northwest suburbs because the labor market is tight as far as the lower income groups are concerned," he said.

Unterbrink's statement that lay people must take the initiative in obtaining welfare services drew support from panelists Paul Kliger, director of community organization for Charles F. "The lay person must provide the go-ahead signal for the professional to become active," Kliger said. And, Busby said, "The professional may be a little reluctant to volunteer his services. "People must demand services from existing agencies," Unterbrink said. "they must apply pressure to get these services through any means available."

JANOVE SUGGESTED that private citizens work within existing organizations, or work to form new organizations. Formation of the Northwest Mental Health Clinic, Janove said, was "an example of a group of citizens working together to develop a facility to meet a need."

Several panelists suggested the formation of a steering committee to determine the needs that exist in the Northwest suburbs, inform citizens of the needs, and determine ways of meeting them. "The idea of waking the community up to the needs that exist," Janove said, "is almost as important as working toward the goal of meeting them."

Kliger cited the specific need of lay people trained to help returned mental patients, and to take preventive action to help prospective mental patients avoid trouble.

A member of the audience, Peter Urban of Wheeling, stressed the need of giving by private citizens to support welfare services. Urban is co-chairman of the Wheeling-Buffalo Grove United Fund.

A suggestion by District 21 School Supt. Kenneth Gill, that "The professional should speak in English to the people he works with," drew applause from the audience.

"School teachers should quit speaking in cliches and pedagese," Gill said. "Ministers should quit speaking in stained glass voices. Medical doctors should quit saying umm-hmm. I don't even know what they call the words psychiatrists and social workers use. They couldn't even be used in Mary Poppins — they can't even be pronounced."

Membership in the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, grew to nearly 13,000 by November, 1965, according to the council's report of the year's activities.

Cub Scout membership was 8,024, up from the 7,723 cub membership in 1964, but short of the 1965 estimate of 8,209 made at the beginning of the year. Membership in the Boy Scout troops was 4,501, a slight decline from the 4,528 reported in 1964, and short of the estimate or goal for the year of 4,846. Explorer Scouts numbered 469 by November, 1965, down from the 1964 figure of 566.

Total units in each category for 1965 were: Cub packs, 155 (154 in 1964); Boy Scout troops, 136 (135); and Explorer posts, 41 (47).

Camp Napowan, located outside Wild Rose, Wis., 223 miles from dristrict headquarters in Des Plaines, was again awarded an "A" rating by the regional inspection team. The 320 acre tract is owned and operated by the council.

NAMEKAGON Scout Reservation, 1,120 acres with three lakes near Spooner - Hayward, Wis., opened last summer with 11 troops and over 200 Scouts and Explorers and leaders in attendance. Camp development included 16 canoes, 12 rowboats, four wells, three camp sites, one showerhouse, bus and trailer for canoe trips, walk-in cooler, freezer, and improvements on roads, power lines, wiring and quartermaster building.

The number of troops in attendance at both summer camps was greater than any previous year, according to the annual report.

Four weekend camp sites operated by the council in 1965 were: Camp Baden Powell in Mount Prospect and Camp Dan Beard outside of Wheeling, both leased from the Cook County Forest Preserve District; and Lakota Reservation outside of Woodstock, and Herzog Reservation near West Bend, Wis., both sites owned by the Northwest Suburban Council.

The weekend campsites were used by 5,660 Scouts and leaders in 1965, reports Frank B. Newton, scout executive for the council. Attendance at other camps and on trips included: Napowan summer camp, 1,221 scouts, 92 troops; Namekagon reservation, 185 scouts and explorers, 11 troops; National Camp School, two staff members; Region 7 canoe base, 21 explorers and scouts, three leaders; Philmont Scout Reservation expedition, 88 scouts and explorers, ten leaders; and Explorer expeditions, totaling five days and nights of camping, 283 Explorers and 37 leaders, and 23 Explorer units.

Val Fishburn of Des Plaines, chairman of the activities committee, reported a regular pattern of activities for the year, starting with the special Scout Week plans in February. Other events included the Scout-O-Rama, district camporees and Webelos Days, Klondike Derbies, rallies and special Explorer events.

THE EAGLE Board of Review, chaired by John Bell of Barrington, presented 77 Eagle awards in the seven courcil districts in 1965.

Other committee chairman for the year were: LeRoy Stoehr of Arlington Heights, advancement committee; Walter Franzen of Des Plaines, camping; Leonard Shure of Skokie, health and safety; Fredrick Meythaler of Barrington, finance; Robert Smith of Lake Forest, leadership training; Arthur Fink of Prospect Heights, council vice president and acting chairman of the organization and extension committee; Walter T. Craigle of Niles, public relations; and A. A. Rose of Arlington Heights, chairman Catholic Committee on Scouting; James Williams of Des Plaines, Episcopal committee; Morton Z. Levine of Skokie, Jewish committee; Philip Lindahl of Des Plaines, Lutheran committee; and Ralph Kort of Park Ridge, Protestant committee.

The council's 1965 budget was $271,367. Largest single source of income is $98,976 from the 11 United Funds, Combined Appeals and the Crusade of Mercy conducted in areas of the council.

THE NORTHWEST Suburban Council serves boys in the following area villages and cities: Arlington Heights, Barrington, Barrington Hills, Buffalo Grove, Deer Park, Des Plaines, Elk Grove Village, Feehanville, Forest River, Hatlen Heights, Hawthorne Woods, Hoffman Estates, Kildeer, Lake Barrington, Lake Zurich, Lexington Fields, Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Mount Prospect, Niles, North Barrington, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Prospect Meadows, Park Ridge, Rolling Meadows, Roselle, Rosemont, Schaumburg, Schiller Park, Skokie, Timber Lakes, Tower Lake, Twinbrook, Weathersfield and Wheeling.

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

ILLINOIS LAW OF CHECKS

Carol Stevens wrote an $8 check, payable to "Cash," and used it to pay for some groceries. When the bank returned the check with the monthly bank statement, Carol was shocked to find that someone had altered the $8 check to $80.

Her husband, John, immediately called the bank. A quick investigation showed that the bank had indeed cashed the check for $80. Someone had altered the check before it was presented to the bank for payment.

Several days later, John discovered that another check returned by the bank was a complete forgery. An imposter had drawn a check for $100 on John's bank, signing John's name to it. Checking with the bank, he learned that the full amount had been paid from his account.

Who Takes the Loss?

The bank is the loser. Under Illinois law, the bank cannot charge the Stevens for money it paid by reason of fraud.

In the case of the $100 forgery, the law requires the bank to know the signatures of its own depositors, even against the most clever forgeries. Since John was the depositor, the bank wrongfully paid the check.

Carol is also protected under Illinois law. In the incident concerning her $8 check, which was raised to $80, the law provides that the bank must pay checks drawn on it according to the original "tenor" of the instrument — in other words, the amount for which the check was originally drawn.

The Bank Protected

If the bank can show that Carol's negligence led to the alteration, she must stand the loss. Otherwise, the bank can only charge the Stevens account for $8 — the amount of the check originally intended by the depositor.

However, the Stevens have a duty to examine their bank statements and cancelled checks within a reasonable time after they are returned to them. Failure to do so could prevent them from recovering their loss from the bank — if the bank proves that it suffered the loss due to the Stevens' failure to notify it within a reasonable time.

Where there is more than one forgery by the same wrongdoer, the customer must notify the bank within 14 days after the first forged check and statement are available to him. Otherwise, the Stevens have within one year to notify the bank unless negligence on their part can be proved.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. ..(A15

Big Three

First states to exceed a million in population appeared in the 1820 census. They were New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Unique Position

Detroit is the only U.S. border city from which one may drive south into Canada.

FAITH PUKSZTA, Arlington Heights, president of the North Cook County 4-H Federation explains the 4-H Club program to a group of new members. The induction ceremony took place at the 4-H Christmas party held recently at the Palatine Fire Station. Nearly three hundred young people attended. (B-10

'Leftovers' Requested By Goodwill

Jan. 3 signals the start of Goodwill Industries' annual after-Christmas drive for used materials.

The toys, clothing, appliances and other used items that were replaced or "put on the shelf" by new Christmas gifts are the targets of Goodwill's January drive.

Rehabilitative job training for Goodwill's handicapped workers results from the public's donations of used materials. By learning to repair and renovate used materials, handicapped men and women are given a chance to prepare for jobs in outside industry.

THE REPAIRED and renovated materials are offered for sale in one of Goodwill's 13 retail outlets. From the sales of these items come the major source of wages to the handicapped workers of the non-profit welfare agency.

The public is asked to support Goodwill's after-Christmas drive by dropping used clothing into a convenient Goodwill collection booth or by calling SE 8-3860 or the nearest area representative to arrange for a truckp ickup at home. (A15

Home Building Rise Continues

According to the Bell Savings and Loan Association's survey of new building in the Chicago Metropolitan area, permits for both homes and apartments increased in the area during November.

Single family homes exceeded last year's level for the eighth consecutive month, and reached the highest November volume since 1958. Apartments increased 20 per cent from last year.

The entire metropolitan area reported 1,786 permits for single family homes in November, a 34 per cent increase over November 1964 (1,334). A higher home permit volume for November was reported seven years ago in 1958 (3,296). Home building improved throughout the area: 17 per cent in Chicago, 35 per cent in the suburbs and 38 per cent in the unincorporated areas.

Permits were issued for 1,724 apartment units in the six-county metropolitan area, 20 per cent above a year ago (1,432 units). Apartments increased 60 per cent in the City of Chicago with 789 units, against 493 last November. Apartments also rose in the suburbs from 855 units to 870 units, but declined in the unincorporated areas from 84 to 65 units.

The total value of all building permits slightly exceeded last year's level ($101,396,469 compared with $99,318,470). Permit values rose 9 per cent in the suburbs, 10 per cent in the unincorporated areas, but declined 11 per cent in Chicago.

BREAKDOWN by communities of building of all types in November, 1965 compared with November 1964 and October 1965, is as follows:

Martin Marty In TV Series

A new television series, "Call to Question," will feature church historian Dr. Martin E. Marty and Chicago inter-faith leaders of the new theology discussing their personal ethical and social actions in the light of the Christian faith.

Former pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit in Elk Grove Village, Dr. Marty is now on the faculty of University of Chicago Divinity School. He is widely-known as a scholar, author, and lecturer.

The series will appear on WBKB-Channel 7 from 2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Saturday for 13 weeks, beginning January 8. The program is produced by the department of radio and television of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago. (A-15

Lane Bryant Bonus Slated For Employes

Some 3,700 employees of Lane Bryant, Inc. will receive a profit-sharing bonus from the corporation's plan. Lane Bryant operates 114 stores and women's specialty shops throughout the country.

The bonus totals $285,000 this year, as compared with $255,000 in 1964. Lane Bryant distributes the bonus among its employees solely on the basis of length of service with the company. Each employee with more than one year of service is given one unit and an additional ten percent for each successive full year of service.

The profit-sharing bonus originated in 1941, and is only one segment of Lane Bryant's extensive employee security program. (Rh

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS
BY LINDA NORRIS

The Christmas albums are out in all their glory and record companies have really outdone themselves in presenting the holiday atmosphere through all its magic music, old and new . . . The always popular Tennessee Ernie Ford has a new LP, Sing We Now of Christmas on the Capitol label . . . He sings of Christmas in an album that includes such songs as The Little Drummer Boy, Caroling, Caroling, Good King Wenceslas, The 12 Days of Christmas and Away In a Manger. This is the second Christmas-oriented album Ernie has recorded and it is the first time he has recorded an album of all-traditional holiday songs.

The orchestra that instrumentally introduced adults to the hits of the Beatles and Beach Boys, Hollyridge Strings, presents a collection of Christmas songs for its first Yuletide-oriented album in Christmas Favorites . . . As before, the arranger-conductor for the group is Stu-Phillips . . . The songs include Winter Wonderland, Jingle Bells, Christmas Song, Santa Claus Is Coming to Town, Santa's Got a Brand New Bag, Jingle Bell Rock, Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, White Christmas, I'll Be Home for Christmas, Little Saint Nick and Do You Hear What I Hear?

Buck Owens, who has been the No. 1 country and western entertainer in the country for the past two years, comes up with his first holiday album for Capitol in Christmas With Buck Owens and His Buckaroos . . . Eight of the songs were written by Buck especially for the album.

A MESSAGE TO CLASSIFIED USERS

Before you call an ad-visor to place your

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS AD

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

7. DON'T OVERLOOK OUR LOWER RATE FOR CONSECUTIVE INSERTIONS

You'll get the biggest parade of readers at the lowest price. Your Needs Satisfied thru Paddock Publications Classified.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS
BY LINDA NORRIS

The Christmas albums are out in all their glory and record companies have really outdone themselves in presenting the holiday atmosphere through all its magic music, old and new . . . The always popular Tennessee Ernie Ford has a new LP, Sing We Now of Christmas on the Capitol label . . . He sings of Christmas in an album that includes such songs as The Little Drummer Boy, Caroling, Caroling, Good King Wenceslas, The 12 Days of Christmas and Away In a Manger. This is the second Christmas-oriented album Ernie has recorded and it is the first time he has recorded an album of all-traditional holiday songs.

The orchestra that instrumentally introduced adults to the hits of the Beatles and Beach Boys, Hollyridge Strings, presents a collection of Christmas songs for its first Yuletide-oriented album in Christmas Favorites . . . As before, the arranger-conductor for the group is Stu-Phillips . . . The songs include Winter Wonderland, Jingle Bells, Christmas Song, Santa Claus Is Coming to Town, Santa's Got a Brand New Bag, Jingle Bell Rock, Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, White Christmas, I'll Be Home for Christmas, Little Saint Nick and Do You Hear What I Hear? Buck Owens, who has been the No. 1 country and western entertainer in the country for the past two years, comes up with his first holiday album for Capitol in Christmas With Buck Owens and His Buckaroos . . . Eight of the songs were written by Buck especially for the album.

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

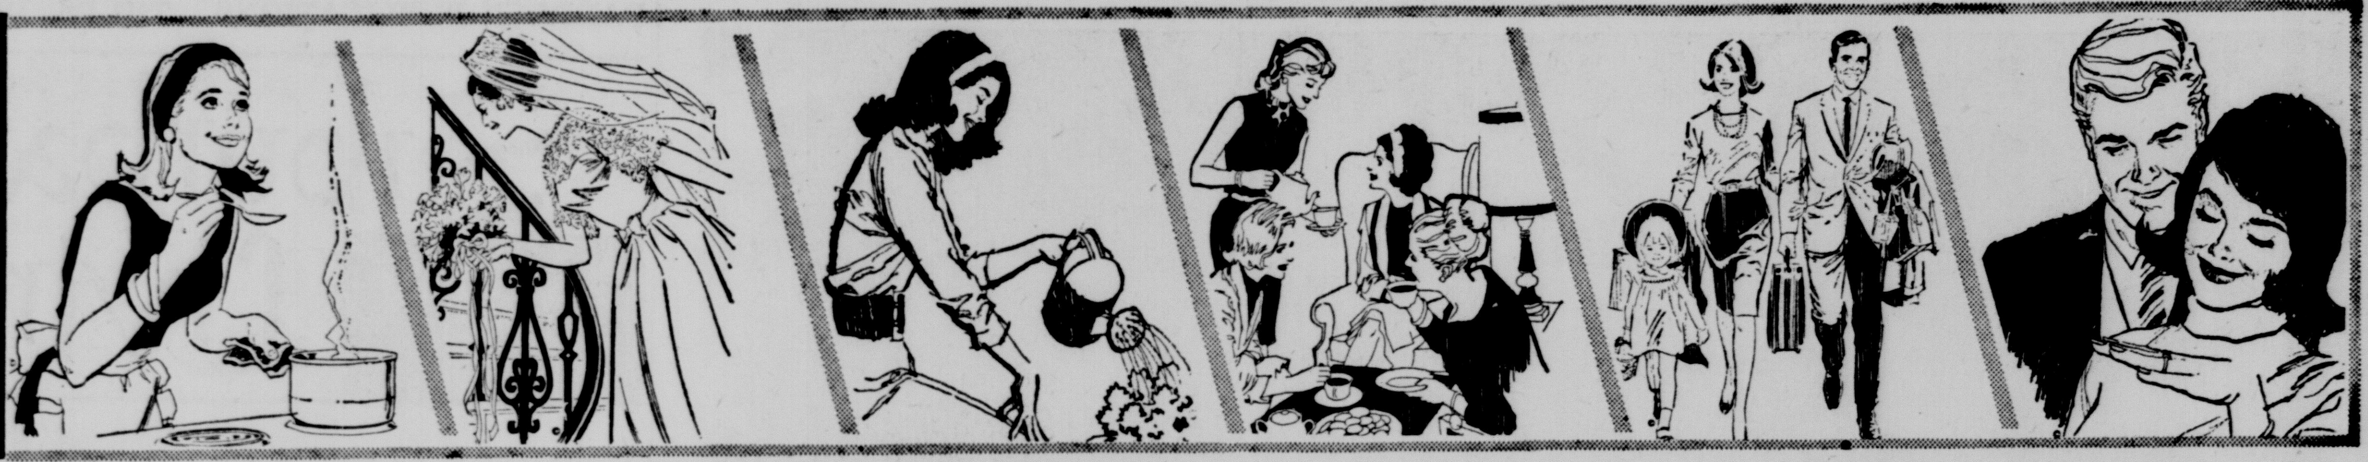
Suburban Living
Especially for Women



PART A THURS., DEC. 30, 1965

Groups Provide Way to Trimmer Figure

Women Helped to Reduce, Exercise

by Pat Adam
Staff Writer

Having a trim figure is of concern to most women 365 days a year, but after the holiday season with all its extra partying, it may be on their minds more than usual. Many a gal's No. 1 New Year's resolution very likely is to shed pounds.

If she isn't blessed with a naturally slim shape and appetite to match, what can the northwest suburban woman do to rid herself of unwanted pounds and make herself more trim?

Park districts, the YMCA and TOPS clubs try to meet this need, either through weight losing programs or exercise activities.

The Arlington Heights Park District has several programs designed either to "move it and lose it," or at least keep it where it should be.

"Move It and Lose It" is the name of the fall and spring exercise class run by Demaree Sunkel of the park board staff.

BESIDES REGULAR exercises, the women play volleyball, jump rope, use the trampoline and play coordinating games. In between the spring and fall terms there is a regular weekly volleyball program, and many women who attend the exercise sessions also participate in the volleyball play.

Among the most enthusiastic is Mrs. Jim Johnson, 805 E. Oakton, Arlington Heights, who admits she needs systematic exercising if she's going to keep an even weight.

"The housewife doesn't get enough exercise in the right spots," in her opinion.

Regular weekly exercising together with about 30 other women serves as both discipline and stimulus and it sets a good example for a woman's children, too, she thinks.

"I FEEL A lot better and much more alert after that workout," said Mrs. Johnson, "and that's after a day of looking after four children and driving a school bus."

For the woman who wants to combine exercising and dancing the Arlington Heights District has another class, taught by dance teacher Delores Eiler.

While this class attracts mostly young mothers, Mrs. Eiler said, she's also had some grandmothers enrolled. Numbering between 20 and 25 women, the weekly session starts out with ballet exercises to tone up muscles, proceeds next to modern jazz exercises — "fun and good for the figure," said Mrs. Eiler — and then to actually learning a dance.

PALATINE'S SLIM and trim class runs from October to early April. Besides the basic exercises, each woman gets individual instruction on her particular needs. They use the trampoline and play volleyball and occasionally take a recreational field trip.

In the exercise class of Rolling Meadows Recreation Department, the women measure and weigh in at the start of each fall and winter term and also are tested on their capabilities in each exercise. At the end of the session they are again weighed, measured and tested to see what's been accomplished. Usually the winter class attracts about 20 per cent more women than the fall one, according to recreation director Jack Fogel.

FOR WOMEN who aren't so concerned with losing weight but feel the need for regular exercise, there is volleyball. A woman can put just as much into the play as she wants, said Helen Coryell, women's and girl's director at Northwest Suburban YMCA, Des Plaines, which has only one of several volleyball programs going in the area.

Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect all have volleyball in their recreation programs.

"It's exercise and it's fun, and I enjoy the contact with other women," commented Mrs. Robert Olson, 2805 St. James, Arlington Heights.

The companionship mentioned by Mrs. Olson is an important aspect of the programs at Northwest Suburban "Y," according to Miss Coryell.

"THE CLASS AT the 'Y' is a break in their everyday routine," she explained. "Very often the women will talk over a cup of coffee after their class, discussing mutual problems."

At both Northwest Suburban and Elmhurst "Y" there are several programs open to women wanting to reduce or just exercise.

The weight losing program includes instruction in grooming, makeup and hairstyling as well as diet and exercise. The women weigh in and take their measurements and then exercise together. Northwest Suburban has had as many as 100 women in this program, which is offered five times a year.

"Slim and Swim" is another "Y" way to keep trim. It's designed for those women who want to exercise first and then take a pool plunge.

REGULAR "Y" members may participate in a twice-weekly session of exercising and swimming. If they prefer, they may play volleyball instead of swimming, said Miss Coryell.

Yoga on a co-educational basis is available to women wanting a less strenuous and more concentrating type of exercise. Most who enroll for yoga are curious about it, said the "Y" secretary. Elmhurst "Y" also teaches yoga.

TOPS clubs are intended for women who need the encouragement and discipline of other women with a weight problem. There are several in the area, including Mount Prospect, Wheeling, Arlington Heights, Elk Grove Village and Addison .

EACH WOMAN wanting to join TOPS — its letters mean "Take Off Pounds Sensibly"— must set a goal of at least 20 pounds that she wants to lose. Members weigh in at each weekly session, and it can be a real "face losing" experience if that scale has gone up even one quarter of a pound, said Mrs. Morris Kaplan, 917 Pebble, who served as leader of the Wheeling Weight Watchers the past year.

The philosophy behinds TOPS is that sympathetic understanding of those with a similar problem is more likely to have results than the "pointing finger," she explained.

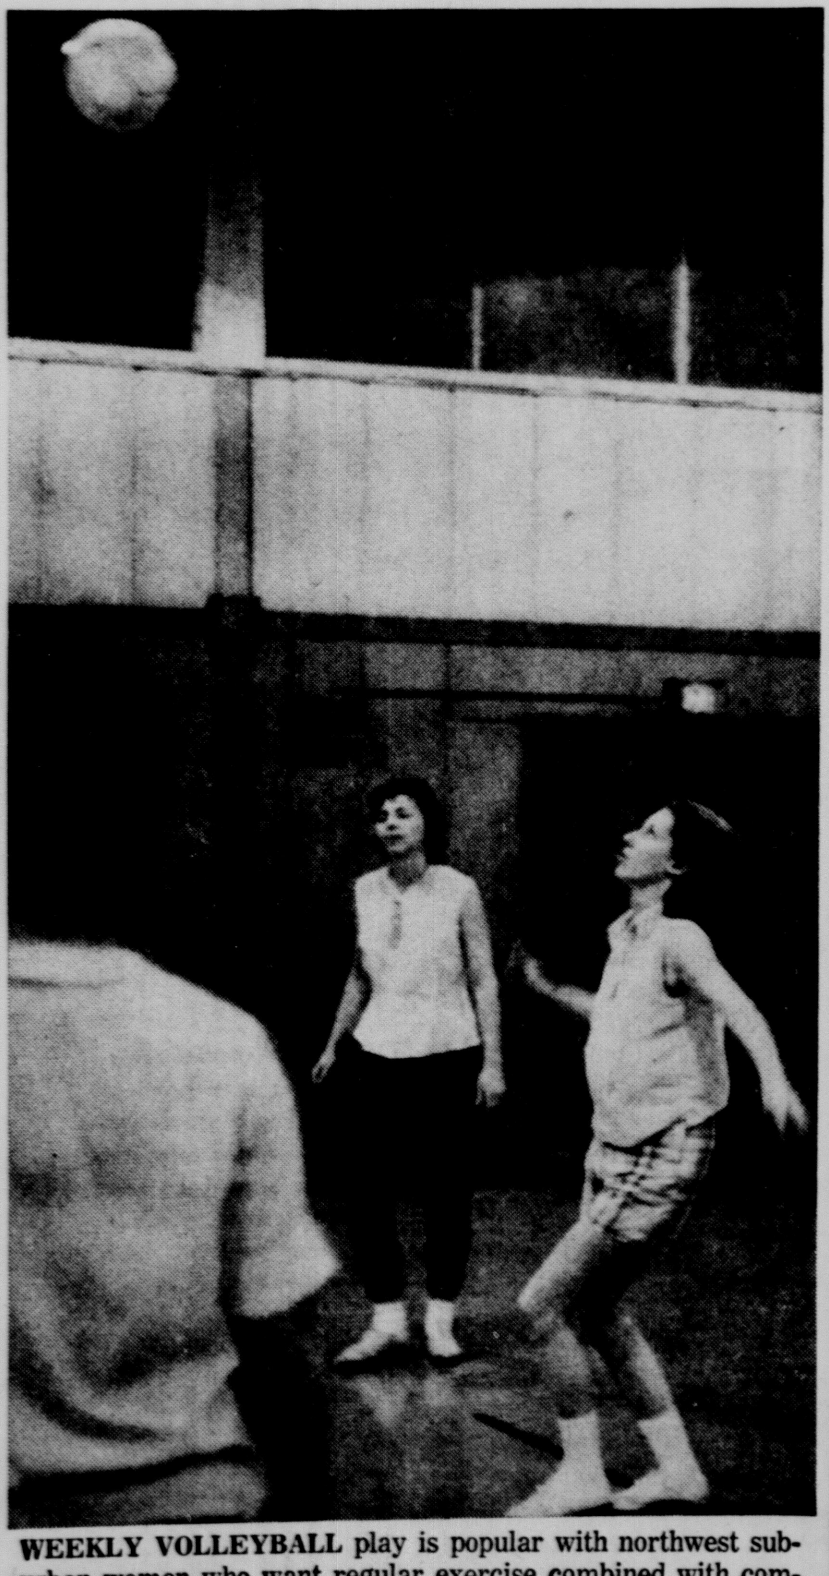
Once a woman attains her desired weight loss and keeps it there for a required period of time, she becomes a KOPS, "Keep Off Pounds Sensibly."

THE DISCIPLINE of the weekly meeting is necessary, said Mrs. Kaplan. There is usually a gain in weight if a member misses even one session .

Good grooming is stressed, too, "because looking nice means a lot."

So whether you want to lose only a few pounds or a lot of them, ladies, there is someone around to help you.

WOMEN ENROLLED in the reducing class at Northwest Suburban YMCA check their weight. The class, offered five times a year, also includes instruction in proper diet, good grooming, hair styling and make-up and regular exercising. For those who are satisfied with their figures but want to keep trim the "Y" offers a combination session of exercises and swimming or volleyball. Some park districts offer exercise and weight losing programs, too.



WEEKLY VOLLEYBALL play is popular with northwest suburban women who want regular exercise combined with companionship. Mothers of small children particularly like the "night out" afforded by participation in the volleyball programs of park districts and the "Y." (Staff Photo)

Operalogue To Be January Program

An operalogue, "Madame Butterfly," will be presented at the regular monthly meeting of the Arlington Heights Woman's Club at Recreation Park Field House at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 5, The production by the Northwest Opera Showcase will be in costume and will be sung in English.

A combination of narrative and scenes from the opera distinguishes the operalogue form. Lois Palermo, director of the production, is also the narrator. Mrs. Palermo was formerly a star of the WGN Theatre of the Air and other radio shows. Helen Shockley, a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Music, worked out the musical continuity and will play the piano accompaniment.

ERMA BARTLING, a choir director and soloist, will sing the part of Butterfly. Suzuki, Butterfly's faithful servant, will be performed by Betty Stroh. All participants live in Barrington and develop these operalogues to make opera more intelligible for local audiences.

January hostesses are Mrs. Gilbert Krohn and Mrs. F. G. Helmbold, who will assist hospitality chairman, Mrs. Samuel Wit.

Some Safety Tips For Winter Sports

With good sense and some forethought, many of the accidents associated with winter sports can be avoided. The first common sense rule is that all equipment used be in A-1 condition. Check your child's sled before he goes whooshing downhill. Is the steering mechanism in good shape? Does it respond quickly to the directing hand?

Are the ice skate blades sharp enough so that junior doesn't find himself partly immobilized when he expects to be waltzing gracefully around the rink? Do the skate shoes fit properly? This is important, because balance is affected if the feet don't have enough room and the shoe doesn't hug the ankle properly.

Are the skis the right length for the height of the user? Do the boots fit well? Does the binding holding the boot to the ski hold fast? Are the ski pole loops secure?

GOOD SENSE also requires that the sportsman do what he can do—and not try fancy stuff too advanced for him. Going up and down the intermediate slope until its incline is handled perfectly is better than trying the advanced run too soon, with maybe a broken leg as a souvenir.

Skate, sled and ski in the proper surroundings. A supervised skating rink is better than an unsupervised lake which may or may not be thoroughly frozen. A hill in a park is better for sledding than a hill letting out into the street, where the traffic may be a problem. Skiing down a run that may have stumps or rocks too close to the surface is asking for trouble.

Former Legion Commander to Speak Jan. 6

Ray Hudson, past commander of the 11th District American Legion, will be guest speaker Thursday, Jan. 6, at a joint meeting of the DuPage County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Legion.

All legionnaires and auxiliary members are invited to attend the joint meeting at the Downers Grove Legion home.

Hudson, who will be introduced by Mrs. Joseph Solch of Glen Ellyn, Americanism chairman, will speak on the role of the American Legion and its auxiliary in today's world. His talk is titled "Keepers of the Flame."

B'nai B'rith To Organize New Chapter

Fifty women from the northwest suburbs will have the honor of becoming charter member of a new B'nai B'rith chapter now being formed. Next meeting of the proposed chapter will be held Thursday, Jan. 13, in the Hoffman Estates home of Mrs. L. Graff, 321 Newport Road.

The first step in organizing the chapter came Dec. 12 when women of B'nai B'rith District 6, gave an inaugural petite luncheon in honor of area women. Attending was Mrs. Julius Berke, fifth vice president of District 6, who reported on the youth groups sponsored by the organization and gave a resume of other services rendered. She told the women that the B'nai B'rith is the world's largest service organization.

Also attending the luncheon was Mrs. Kalman Sadur, vice president of membership and retention, North Suburban Council, and Mrs. Harold Shulman, a member of the board of directors, District 6. Mrs. Sadur and Mrs. Shulman will be advisers of the new chapter. Interested women may phone Mrs. Graf at 529-4778.

Be Ready for Power Failures This Winter

Blackouts that affect 30 million people are about as rare as the still mysterious chain of events that caused the first one But regional power failures are as common as their main cause: bad weather.

With winter coming, most of us can expect either snow storms, electrical storms, floods or maybe fallen trees that will leave us without electricity for anywhere from two to 24 hours.

Here is some advice on preparations for safety and comfort when there is no electricity.

First of all, know just how dependent upon electricity is your household — and then be prepared with substitutes.

THE VALUE of candles and flashlights was never more obvious than on the night of last Nov. 9 in the northeastern part of the country. But how many candles had safe holders? And how many flashlights were in working order?

The best candles are the sturdy, long-lasting type plumbers use, votive lights or insect repellent candles. But save the stubs of your dinner candles—they're useful in an emergency. The best candle holder is a hurricane lamp with a glass funnel to protect the flame. Some precautions: insert candle firmly into holder; when walking with a candle, grasp the candle as well as the holder, shield the flame with your other hand, and hold the candle away from your body. Walk slowly.

Flashlights are safer than candles. Having one for each member of the family is not extravagant; it may prevent a burn or a fall and is good for children's morale. Check flashlights often and keep spare batteries and bulbs where they're easy to find in the dark. Keep a stock of matches in a waterproof box there, too.

IF YOU MUST walk in the dark, move slowly. Hold your arms out in front of you with wrists crossed and palms out.

If your heating source is cut off, don't try to heat your whole house; just keep yourselves warm. Extra blankets and warm clothing should be on hand. Blankets will help keep something cold, too. Covering your freezer will insulate it.

Maintain a small stock of canned foods that need no cooking: tuna, peanut butter, luncheon meats, tinned crackers, powdered milk and fruit juices. Extra baby food, canned milk and special dietary foods, if needed, are a must.

Canned heat stoves are inexpensive and quite adequate for heating coffee, tea, soups or the variety of ready-to-use canned foods available. Keep on hand a supply of those your family especially likes. Do you have a hand-operated can opener? Don't starve because yours is electric.

WILL YOUR water supply be cut off? Don't forget the water you have on hand in the form of ice cubes and frost in your refrigerator, and the water in your hot water tank. Tap water stored in glass jars with rubber seals will remain potable for six weeks.

Top on your list should be a first aid book and kit. Don't wait for the lights to go out before you read the book. Learn what to do in case of burns, breaks or shock before the emergency arises. And make sure fresh supplies are in your kit.

Never reach for medicine in your medicine cabinet in the dark. Remember to set out any pill or medication (for diabetes, nervous tension, birth control or other) that is to be taken on a regular basis—but only in the quantity prescribed.

THE WHOLE family can become a responsible team with specific duties in case of a power failure. If these jobs are discussed or rehearsed beforehand, there will be a feeling of "normalcy" about the situation when it arises.

Telling stories or having games that can be played by candlelight are not only happy diversions for children, but keep them close to you. Above all, don't panic. Telling the children in a shaking voice not to be frightened won't work, but remaining calm yourself will.

Choir Entertains St. Colette Ladies

The choir of St. Colette grammar school, under the guidance of Anthony Citrona, choirmaster, presented a Christmas program for the ladies of the St. Colette Catholic Women's Club at their Dec. 14 meeting.

Prizes were later awarded to Mrs. Ralph Beaudin, first, Mrs. Dwight Reader, second, Mrs. Otto Elbe, third, for their holiday center pieces entered in the contest that evening.

The Medical Mission Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Dannhausen, conducted a Christmas sale after the meeting. Proceeds will be used to purchase medical supplies for the Missionary Sisters of the Holy Spirit at Techny for distribution throughout their missions in 23 countries. This is a new committee in the club this year and it is open to any ladies in the organization interested in medical mission work. Mrs. Dannhausen, chairman, may be reached at 358-0560.

Many small items were brought to this meeting in preparation for the penny social to be featured at the January meeting. This event yearly draws the largest attendance of any other regular meeting.

A spring fashion show is also on the club calendar. It will be presented March 2 by Sears Rosebuck and Co. with professional models. (S

Arboretum Is Offering Winter Classes

Area gardeners are invited to attend winter classes starting at the Morton Arboretum Thursday, Jan. 6.

Landscaping, care of trees, nature study for teachers and youth leaders, plant families, economic botany, watercolor are among the classes in which registrations are open. A series of four alternate Thursday evening programs featuring "Plantsmen and Naturalists in America" will be offered starting Jan. 6.

Of special interest will be the classes offered in the Sterling Morton Library. A nominal registration fee is being charged. Those wishing a copy of the winter program may phone 969-5682.

Elk Grove Newcomers Meet Jan. 5

The first meeting of the new year for Elk Grove Village Newcomers' Club will be held at 8 p.m. on Jan. 5 at Salt Creek Country Club, located on Thorndale Road between Arlington Heights and Wood Dale Roads.

The speaker will be Dr. Thad Xelowski, who has served as a family physician, marriage counselor and lecturer for 27 years. His topic will be "Marriage for Moderns," which will be followed with a question and answer period.

DR. XELOWSKI, who is currently teaching three adult evening classes Maine Township High School, is married and the father of 10 children.

The newcomers' club, a service and social organization, is open to all women in Elk Grove and surrounding communities, regardless of length of residency. Further information is available from the membership chairman, Mrs. Richard Nelson, at 439-4741.

Suburban Living

Groups Provide Way to Trimmer Figure

Women Helped to Reduce, Exercise

by Pat Adam
Staff Writer

Having a trim figure is of concern to most women 365 days a year, but after the holiday season with all its extra partying, it may be on their minds more than usual. Many a gal's No. 1 New Year's resolution very likely is to shed pounds.

If she isn't blessed with a naturally slim shape and appetite to match, what can the northwest suburban woman do to rid herself of unwanted pounds and make herself more trim?

Park districts, the YMCA and TOPS clubs try to meet this need, either through weight losing programs or exercise activities.

The Arlington Heights Park District has several programs designed either to "move it and lose it," or at least keep it where it should be.

"Move It and Lose It" is the name of the fall and spring exercise class run by Demaree Sunkel of the park board staff.

BESIDES REGULAR exercises, the women play volleyball, jump rope, use the trampoline and play coordinating games. In between the spring and fall terms there is a regular weekly volleyball program, and many women who attend the exercise sessions also participate in the volleyball play.

Among the most enthusiastic is Mrs. Jim Johnson, 805 E. Oakton, Arlington Heights, who admits she needs systematic exercising if she's going to keep an even weight.

"The housewife doesn't get enough exercise in the right spots," in her opinion.

Regular weekly exercising together with about 30 other women serves as both discipline and stimulus and it sets a good example for a woman's children, too, she thinks.

"I FEEL A lot better and much more alert after that workout," said Mrs. Johnson, "and that's after a day of looking after four children and driving a school bus."

For the woman who wants to combine exercising and dancing the Arlington Heights District has another class, taught by dance teacher Delores Eiler.

While this class attracts mostly young mothers, Mrs. Eiler said, she's also had some grandmothers enrolled. Numbering between 20 and 25 women, the weekly session starts out with ballet exercises to tone up muscles, proceeds next to modern jazz exercises — "fun and good for the figure," said Mrs. Eiler — and then to actually learning a dance.

PALATINE'S SLIM and trim class runs from October to early April. Besides the basic exercises, each woman gets individual instruction on her particular needs. They use the trampoline and play volleyball and occasionally take a recreational field trip.

In the exercise class of Rolling Meadows Recreation Department, the women measure and weigh in at the start of each fall and winter term and also are tested on their capabilities in each exercise. At the end of the session they are again weighed, measured and tested to see what's been accomplished. Usually the winter class attracts about 20 per cent more women than the fall one, according to recreation director Jack Fogel.

FOR WOMEN who aren't so concerned with losing weight but feel the need for regular exercise, there is volleyball. A woman can put just as much into the play as she wants, said Helen Coryell, women's and girl's director at Northwest Suburban YMCA, Des Plaines, which has only one of several volleyball programs going in the area.

Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect all have volleyball in their recreation programs.

"It's exercise and it's fun, and I enjoy the contact with other women," commented Mrs. Robert Olson, 2805 St. James, Arlington Heights.

The companionship mentioned by Mrs. Olson is an important aspect of the programs at Northwest Suburban "Y," according to Miss Coryell.

"THE CLASS AT the 'Y' is a break in their everyday routine," she explained. "Very often the women will talk over a cup of coffee after their class, discussing mutual problems."

Suburban Living

Especially for Women

AS GRANDMOTHER of 10 and a former worker with young people for the Chicago YMCA, Mrs. Arthur E. Cather of Arlington Heights brings plenty of experience to her post as regent of Eli Skinner chapter of the DAR. The patriotic organization is trying to increase its membership of those from 18 to 35, and her experience is valuable. With Mrs. Cather are two of her ten grandchildren, Pamelo Jo and John Alan Cather Jr. (Staff Photo)

Madame President

Grandmother of Ten Guides DAR Chapter

Mrs. Arthur E. Cather, regent of Eli Skinner chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has a long record of experience in working with teenagers and young people.

Before moving to the suburbs seven years ago, the Cathers were South Shore residents for 37 years. There Mrs. Cather was a long-time worker for the Chicago YMCA, first as a volunteer and then for eight years as a paid professional group worker, trained at George Wil-r liams College. She thoroughly enjoyed her work with young people.

"I love working with teenagers. I just look forward to it!" says Mrs. Cather. "Teenagers have such potential in anything they do!"

AS A YMCA worker the DAR regent helped build that potential — by working to organize Tri-Hi-Y clubs and train their leaders.

Her switch from Chicago "Y" groups to the suburban DAR shows no inconsistency. The DAR, too is stressing the need to bring in young members, attempting to build up its dues payers in the 18 to 35-year range and to develop Children of the American Revolution clubs for the even younger.

The DAR emphasis on education, patriotism and remembrance of our U. S. heritage was well served in a WYCA program which Mrs. Cather helped pioneer. This was the Y's "Youth in Government" program, a statewide program in which "Y" clubs help draft mock bills, elect state youth officers and conduct a mock state legislature, taking over the House and Senate at the Illinois state capitol building for one day.

THE YMCA activities gave Illinois young people vivid experience in governmental workings, designed to make them better understand and cherish the republic which the DAR members' ancestors helped to found.

The Cathers live at 623 N. Wilshire, Arlington Heights, their home backed by a park where their 10 grandchildren love to play. The home decor is enhanced by colored glass and many ceramic pieces, some of them made by Mrs. Cather. A watercolor done by their son, John, a resident of Glen Ellyn, hangs over the sofa.

Mrs. Cather was once a member of another DAR chapter, DeWalt Mechlin Chapter in Beverly Hills. After moving here, she transferred her membership to Eli Skinner, a 72-member chapter which serves an area reaching from Barrington to Des Plaines. The local DAR membership roll includes 20 non-residents and 20 junior members 35 years or under. Another 20 women have applied for membership but still have geneological papers uncompleted.

Mrs. Cather is proud in displaying her DAR regeant's pin, for this is the second time she's worn it. She was regent before, in 1963, leaving the post when it seemed that she and her husband, then retiring, would soon move. But they didn't, and Mrs. Cather was tagged for leadership again this year.

A Diary Is Wonderful Way to File Memories

by BETTY AINSLIE

Generally about Jan. 1, I decide to start keeping a diary again. Now all goes well through January. Diligently I write all sorts of entries containing lengthy descriptions and my own opinions on life in general.

February, the penned lines become briefer and a day or two is skipped now and then.

Along comes March, and maybe there will be only three or four statements for the entire month.

Finally April is a total blank, and there goes my diary keeping for another year.

Possibly this denotes something seriously missing from my make-up — stick-to-itiveness or the drive to see something through — or maybe it's just plain laziness.

SO WITH THE New Year almost here again and Pop bringing home those intriguing, bound line-a-day or page-a-day diaries I'm tempted to start diary keeping all over again .

There's something about the crisp new pages edged in reds, greens or gold that have my fingers itching to place words of wisdom on the blank sheets. All I need is some kind of a special push to keep up with that first enthusiasm.

Didn't you start your own first diary keeping about the age of nine? My early attempts were just a few lines consisting mainly of items about our dog or the mention of friends — principally ones I'd had fights with. High school entries were more descriptive mostly about boys. "Jim is wonderful. He smiled at me today." or "Tom asked me to the senior dance — so I think I'll ask him to the turnabout."

THE NOTATIONS were thick for the first of the year and thinned out near Spring, but they all bring back a flood of memories.

College started out fine for the first of the year months and dwindled rapidly, and I've never kept a diary more than fitfully ever since.

But this year I've made a New Year's resolution a bit early. I plan to keep a record of daily doings in this new 1966 leather bound diary Pop brought home, even if it is a terse comment about the weather.

By recording what happens every day there won't be any uncertainty over when we had the first snowfall, or when Aunt Jane came for a visit. Now these small arguments spring up in any family and can be nicely settled by a quick look into your diary.

ONE THING I've found with this business of writing in a diary — if you're mad at something you can write out all your unhappiness to "Dear Diary," lock it up and suddenly you feel better because you've written off your anger.

Too, I'm told, keeping a diary is a wonderful way to observe life more keenly. As you think back over the day's happenings before you start writing, you'll find that trip to an antique store needs to be described and you'll discover every year has a number of highlights which need to be written down for future use.

A diary is a great place to place your own thoughts or a place to jot down a bit of poetry you want to remember.

NOW BROTHERS are probably a big reason why the teenage girl stops diary writing. Son no. 1 found daughter's diary and laughed gleefully over all the girlish ravings about the boys. But diaries can be purchased with a sturdy lock, and your thoughts may be completely your own.

Writing in a diary is a nice way to end the day. By this quick review of the 24-hour happenings you may be able to see where you've been at fault or even find the solution to a problem by giving it written concern in your diary.

Besides it's a wonderful way to file away memories for the future. (SSD

Vacuum Will Ease Your Work Load

Science has finally come to the support of housewives who say that housekeeping is no light occupation.

Studies made at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago show that making beds takes more energy than brick-laying, cleaning windows more than driving a cag, wringing out or hanging up wash more than plowing a field.

But while housework may be harder than many male professions, many housewives, can make it easier on themselves by learning to make proper use of modern cleaning equipment. These five tips may help ease your work load:

1. CARPETS — At least once a week vacuum clean with a powerful modern cleaner. Make sure that the cleaner doesn't lose power with a dust-clogged bag.
2. DRAPES — Use small attachment on vacuum and adjust the control to make suction gentle enough so that fabric won't be "sucked in."
3. ASH TRAYS — Just a touch of the vacuum takes care of these.
4. LAMP SHADES — Regular vacuuming with a soft-brush attachment keeps dirt from baking into delicate shades.
5. WOOD FLOORS — Regular vacuuming and a waxing with good floor polisher and scrubber give your wood floors "professional quality" care.

Blue Cheese Adds Tanginess to Sauce

Here is a delicious sauce that will turn ordinary vegetables into elegant fare. Beautiful white heads of cauliflower, bright green broccoli and tender asparagus spears all will be enhanced with this crowning glory.

The flavor accent of this cream sauce is tangy blue cheese. This peppy specialty cheese lends a nice salt and pepper flavor to the vegetables.

After crowning the cooked vegetables with this zippy sauce sprinkle top with crumbles of blue cheese and buttered bread crumbs colored with a bit of paprika.

BLUE CHEESE SUPREME SAUCE

(Makes about 1½ cups)

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
1 cup milk
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons cream
¼ cup Parmesan cheese, grated
¼ cup crumbled blue cheese

Melt butter over low heat. Stir in flour and seasonings. Slowly stir in milk. Cook until thickened and smooth.

Beat egg and cream together. Add a little of the hot cream sauce to the egg mixture. Then return to the hot cream sauce. Mix well.

Serve on hot vegetables. May be made ahead of time and reheated in double boiler over hot water.

Area Collegians Dance at Benefit

DANCING TO FRANKIE MASTERS, plus two teenage bands Dec. 20, were John Anderson of Palatine and Lucy Iber of Inverness, who were among the youth attending the annual benefit for Henrotin Hospital at the Ambassador West Hotel.

Nearly 400 Chicago area college students, including several from Inverness, danced Dec. 20 to benefit Henrotin Hospital. The affair was the hospital's second annual ball and was held in the Ambassador West.

While the young people were partying in the Guildhall, the adults were holding their own party in the Four Georges and Chippendale Rooms of the hotel. Music for the two affairs was by Frankie Masters and his orchestra, the Rivieras, a teen age recording group, and the Windjammers with their "blo-blo" jazz.

HEADING the list of Inverness young people at the ball were John Moore Anderson and Lucy Iber, who served as junior committee members. John is the son of the Francis M. Andersons and Lucy is the daughter of the William J. Ibers.

Other dancers included John Borgmeier, son of the Paul J. Borgmeiers, Theodore Wachs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Wachs, Jeff Carnal, son of the Jake Edward Carnals, Fred Postle, son of the Merton Postles, Bruce McIntosh, son of the Gilbert McIntoshes, Carolyn Wilken, daughter of the G. A. Wilkens, and David Swingeley, son of the C. E. Swingeleys of 144 S. Linden, Palatine, (S

Color Blind Persons Have Their Problems

Imagine a world without color in which everything is only a shade of gray.

That is the world of the totally color blind person.

Fortunately, total color blindness (monochromatism) is rare. It is fact, however, that one of every 25 men are either partially or totally without true color perception. Women are more fortunate in that only about one in every 200 are so handicapped.

THE MILDEST and most common form is called anomalous trichromatism and, in this case, a person sees some of the 130 hues of colors in the spectrum as abnormally dark.

More familiar to us are persons — technically known as dichromatopes — who are really "color confused." Other types of color blind persons include: protanopes who are red-blind; deuteranopes, green-blind; trianopes, who can't distinguish blue from green, or recognize violet and see yellow as gray; tetartnopes, who see the entire spectrum in red or green.

Color blindness is usually hereditary, passed on from generation to generation of male offspring through genes of the mother.

But it can also be acquired—through infection, intoxication or aging of the optic nerve.

BECAUSE of the problems of the color-blind, the world has made innumerable adjustments to help them cope with their handicap.

Engineers, for example, universally design traffic lights with the red light above the green, so the color blind can "read" them merely through their illumination.

But color blindness can cause definite hardships. For example:

The Navy and Air Force reject men who are color blind. And serious color blindness can cause problems when searching for a job with railroads on ships or with airlines.

Jobs in paint and dye industries, positions as telephone repairmen or radio and television engineers (because electronic wiring is color-coded), sometimes in farming (selection of ripe fruit, for example) may be hard to get for the seriously afflicted person.

ORIDNARILY, most "color blind" persons adjust to their condition by learning to recognize common objects more by their relative brightness and shape than by the color itself.

There are cases, in fact, where persons who see colors darker or more vividly than normal are used to detect military or other camouflage invisible to normal vision.

Actually the color blind stigma is more apt to cause marital arguments over who is "color blind" than to cause any serious health problems.

So if it ever comes to a showdown between you and your wife — don't bet. Chances are she'd be right. (S

No matter how big a dynamo a man may be, he still needs a good wife to provide the spark.

Usually a man can tell how much his wife really cares for him by the size of the bills that arrive each month.

Suburban Living

Especially for Women

AS GRANDMOTHER of 10 and a former worker with young people for the Chicago YMCA, Mrs. Arthur E. Cather of Arlington Heights brings plenty of experience to her post as regent of Eli Skinner chapter of the DAR. The patriotic organization is trying to increase its membership of those from 18 to 35, and her experience is valuable. With Mrs. Cather are two of her ten grandchildren, Pamelo Jo and John Alan Cather Jr. (Staff Photo)

Madame President

Grandmother of Ten Guides DAR Chapter

Mrs. Arthur E. Cather, regent of Eli Skinner chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has a long record of experience in working with teenagers and young people.

Before moving to the suburbs seven years ago, the Cathers were South Shore residents for 37 years. There Mrs. Cather was a long-time worker for the Chicago YMCA, first as a volunteer and then for eight years as a paid professional group worker, trained at George Williams College. She thoroughly enjoyed her work with young people.

"I love working with teenagers. I just look forward to it!" says Mrs. Cather. "Teenagers have such potential in anything they do!"

AS A YMCA worker the DAR regent helped build that potential — by working to organize Tri-Hi-Y clubs and train their leaders.

Her switch from Chicago "Y" groups to the suburban DAR shows no inconsistency. The DAR, too is stressing the need to bring in young members, attempting to build up its dues payers in the 18 to 35-year range and to develop Children of the American Revolution clubs for the even younger.

The DAR emphasis on education, patriotism and remembrance of our U. S. heritage was well served in a WYCA program which Mrs. Cather helped pioneer. This was the Y's "Youth in Government" program, a statewide program in which "Y" clubs help draft mock bills, elect state youth officers and conduct a mock state legislature, taking over the House and Senate at the Illinois state capitol building for one day.

THE YMCA activities gave Illinois young people vivid experience in governmental workings, designed to make them better understand and cherish the republic which the DAR members' ancestors helped to found.

The Cathers live at 623 N. Wilshire, Arlington Heights, their home backed by a park where their 10 grandchildren love to play. The home decor is enhanced by colored glass and many ceramic pieces, some of them made by Mrs. Cather. A watercolor done by their son, John, a resident of Glen Ellyn, hangs over the sofa.

Mrs. Cather was once a member of another DAR chapter, DeWalt Mechlin Chapter in Beverly Hills. After moving here, she transferred her membership to Eli Skinner, a 72-member chapter which serves an area reaching from Barrington to Des Plaines. The local DAR membership roll includes 20 non-residents and 20 junior members 35 years or under. Another 20 women have applied for membership but still have geneological papers uncompleted.

Mrs. Cather is proud in displaying her DAR regeant's pin, for this is the second time she's worn it. She was regent before, in 1963, leaving the post when it seemed that she and her husband, then retiring, would soon move. But they didn't, and Mrs. Cather was tagged for leadership again this year.

Suburban Living

Especially for Women

MR. AND MRS. as of Nov. 26 are the former Grace Seffens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seffens of Mount Prospect, and Howard Engnell, son of Mrs. V. B. Engnell of Minneapolis. The pair was married in Elim Baptist Church in Minneapolis. The bride studied at Bethel College in St. Paul and the groom at the University of Minnesota.

Gwendolyn White Is Wed in Home Rites

Bouquets of fall flowers decorated the living room of the Boyd E. White home at 515 S. Pine St., Arlington Heights, for the Nov. 24 wedding of Gwendolyn Ruth White and Avery Dair Furbee, son of the Roy G. Furbees of Weirton, W. Va.

Seven-branch candelabra entwined with flowers illuminated the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Isaac H. Strain at one end of the room. The mantel was also trimmed with fall bouquets, and arrangements were placed on several tables in the room. The 6 o'clock nuptials were followed by a dinner for 25 guests in the White home, and the couple then left for a wedding trip to Pittsburgh.

MR. WHITE gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an off-white peau de soie gown, designed and made especially for her and featuring a scooped neckline, empire waist and full train. Re-embroidered lace flowers were appliqued on the long sleeves and formed a garland motif on the skirt. Her floor-length illusion veil fell from a peau pillbox and blossom circlet.

Her bouquet was a cascade of daisies.

THE NEWLYWEDS are now "at home" at 2136 S. 97th St., Milwaukee. The bride, who is associated with the West Allis schools, directs the orchestra in the junior highs and teaches strings in the grade schools. She is a graduate of Northwestern University.

The groom was graduated from the University of West Virginia and is manager of advanced industrial projects and analytical instruments for General Electric in Milwaukee. (S

Spritely Santa Salutes Saturka

FESTIVITIES AT THE Saturka Dance Club's annual Crystal Ball were enjoyed by Mrs. Warren Pursell and Arnold Young. Held Dec. 11 in Long Grove Country Club, chairman of the affair was Mrs. Carl DeKoatz. Dick Judson's Orchestra furnished the dance music.

SANTA CLAUS and his pretty helper, Barbara Benedict, distributed gifts to all when the Saturka Dance Club held its annual Crystal Ball. Mrs. Jack R. Piper, retiring president of the dance club, welcomed Santa and Barbara as they arrived at Long Grove Country Club, where table and room decorations carried out the theme of the Crystal Ball. New president is Mrs. James Insolia. (S

Winter Driving Takes Patience, Persistence

Probably winter's greatest unkindness comes when, looking and feeling like an Eskimo, you trundle out to the car in the morning, slide across the cold seat, turn the key in the ignition and — nothing. Any time this happens it's a good idea to check the obvious first: that you have gasoline, that (with an automatic shift) the gear selector is in neutral or park and, by testing your horn and lights, that the battery is working.

If the battery has suffered a series of these cold-morning starts, it might simply be run down. Dim lights and a dull, grinding sound from the starter are pretty good indications of this. With a rundown battery you have to call for a quick-charge or — unless the car has automatic transmission — get a push.

If the engine won't start but does have a spark of life, there's hope — and a formula you can follow. (The engine may only be flooded.) Turn off everything electrical — lights, radio, heater— and wait a few moments. With the car in neutral, push the accelerator all the way to the floor, hold it down, and count slowly to 10. Then try the starter in bursts of two or three seconds. Once the car starts, press the accelerator hard till the motor roars and there's no danger it will die.

THERE ARE other winter emergencies you can handle quickly and easily:

The engine stalls: Stalling can mean that ice has formed in the carburetor. You may have to restart the car several times until the engine finally warms up enough to run smoothly. To help prevent stalling, use a seasonally controlled gasoline.

The door lock freezes. Just the warmth of your hand or breath on the lock may unfreeze it. Otherwise, you can warm the key with a cigarette lighter, a match, or hot water and work it around in the lock till the ice melts.

You're stuck in the snow. First try rocking the car. Point the front wheels straight ahead, start slowly, and go as far forward as you can. Shift quickly, then go as far back as you can. If this doesn't swing you up and out of the rut, you may need more traction under the rear wheels. Cinders, boards, branches, folded newspapers, or that sand that should be standard winter equipment in your car will often do the trick. Letting some air out of the tires helps, too. If your wheels just keep spinning, don't dig in deeper. Call for a tow.

THE TRICK in getting through snow is to go slowly and keep moving. On the highway stay about 20 car lengths behind the driver ahead. If he has to stop you'll have time and room to maneuver around. In hill-climbing shift before you start upward so you won't have to break momentum on the hill.

There are two general rules that will keep you from slipping and skidding through winter: On both snow and ice use low gear sparingly and avoid abrupt stops. Just dab or feather the brakes. Sudden braking can throw you into a real tailspin.

If you do feel the car skidding, lift your foot from the brake and turn the wheel in the direction the rear end is slipping. As the car straightens, straighten the wheel to compensate for apossible skid in the other direction. (S

At Luncheon

Mrs. A. L. Beltran, 910 W. St. James, Arlington Heights, and her daughter, Patricia, are attending a Christmas luncheon today, (Wednesday) in the Four George's Room of the Ambassador West Hotel. Sponsored by the Chicago Chapter of the Mount Mary College Club, Milwaukee, the luncheon is called "Holly Holiday," and honored guests will be college officials.

Janet Collins Becomes Mrs. Hiram Kennicott

A local girl who has been teaching at Walt Whitman School in Wheeling was married Nov. 27 in St. Simon's Episcopal Church. The bride is the former Janet Sue Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Collins, 800 S. Emerson St., Mount Prospect. The groom is Hiram Wilder Kennicott, whose parents, the junior Hiram L. Kennicotts, reside in Highland Park.

Five attendants preceded the bride down the aisle for the 11 a.m. ceremony, all attired in American Beauty chiffon over taffeta, Their floor-length gowns were empire styled with a matching satin cummerbund and streamers. They also wore hats made of bunches of red satin roses and carried American Beauty and pink roses and carnations in a nosegay arrangement.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Barbara Collins, was her maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Susan Kennicott, sister of the groom; Constance Collins of Indianapolis and Mrs. Chris Gruthesen of Chicago, cousins of the bride, and Carol Wells of Denver.

Rev. Samuel Keys and Rev. Ray Holder performed the double ring rites before an altar decked with vases of white mums, and huckleberry leaves tied with white bows trimmed the pews.

A TRADITIONAL white satin wedding gown was chosen by the bride, with appliques of alencon lace and pearl beading on the bodice and chapel train. Her short veil of illusion was held by a crown of lace and pearls.

Carrying white roses in a cascade bouquet, the bride was given in marriage by her father. As her mother witnessed the double ring ceremony, she wore a silk brocade suit in shades of gray, turquoise and gold with matching accessories and a turquoise cymbidium corsage. Mrs. Kennicott chose a turquoise crepe dress, matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

THE GROOM'S brother, David Kennicott, was his best man, while his cousin, Donald Kennicott of Lexington, Tenn., Richard Deitch of Skokie, Joseph Piersen of Oak Park and James Conzelmar of Waukegan ushered.

After the ceremony the couple was feted by 170 guests at a luncheon at Arlington Carousel Restaurant.

The newlyweds are now at home in an apartment at 185 N. Wildwood Lane, Wheeling. The bride, a graduate of Highland Park High School as is her husband, received her degree from Cornell College in Iowa and teaches fourth grade at Whitman School. The groom, a Lake Forest College graduate, is a safety engineer for Kemper Insurance Co.

AT A RECENT DINNER at the Patio Restaurant in Wheeling, Meadowbrook Woman's Club installed new officers. Mrs. Michael Valenza is shown accepting her position as chairman of the group and accepts the gavel from Mrs. Henry Klien, retiring chairman. Other officers include Mrs. Klien as co-chairman, Mrs. David Wright as secretary, Mrs. Paul Doetsch, treasurer, and Mrs. William Mencci, membership chairman. Mrs. Jack Woods acted as mistress of ceremonies for the event.

Modern Etiquette

Q. When two girls are walking together on the street and meet a boy who is a friend of one of the girls and he stops to chat for a few minutes, does the other girl stand by or does she walk on slowly?

A. If her friend happens to introduce her to the boy, she of course remains — but if not, she should walk on slowly until her friend rejoins her.

If you do feel the car skidding, lift your foot from the brake and turn the wheel in the direction the rear end is slipping. As the car straightens, straighten the wheel to compensate for apossible skid in the other direction. (S

At Luncheon

Mrs. A. L. Beltran, 910 W. St. James, Arlington Heights, and her daughter, Patricia, are attending a Christmas luncheon today, (Wednesday) in the Four George's Room of the Ambassador West Hotel. Sponsored by the Chicago Chapter of the Mount Mary College Club, Milwaukee, the luncheon is called "Holly Holiday," and honored guests will be college officials.

Janet Collins Becomes Mrs. Hiram Kennicott

A local girl who has been teaching at Walt Whitman School in Wheeling was married Nov. 27 in St. Simon's Episcopal Church. The bride is the former Janet Sue Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Collins, 800 S. Emerson St., Mount Prospect. The groom is Hiram Wilder Kennicott, whose parents, the junior Hiram L. Kennicotts, reside in Highland Park.

Five attendants preceded the bride down the aisle for the 11 a.m. ceremony, all attired in American Beauty chiffon over taffeta, Their floor-length gowns were empire styled with a matching satin cummerbund and streamers. They also wore hats made of bunches of red satin roses and carried American Beauty and pink roses and carnations in a nosegay arrangement.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Barbara Collins, was her maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Susan Kennicott, sister of the groom; Constance Collins of Indianapolis and Mrs. Chris Gruthesen of Chicago, cousins of the bride, and Carol Wells of Denver.

Rev. Samuel Keys and Rev. Ray Holder performed the double ring rites before an altar decked with vases of white mums, and huckleberry leaves tied with white bows trimmed the pews.

A TRADITIONAL white satin wedding gown was chosen by the bride, with appliques of alencon lace and pearl beading on the bodice and chapel train. Her short veil of illusion was held by a crown of lace and pearls.

Carrying white roses in a cascade bouquet, the bride was given in marriage by her father. As her mother witnessed the double ring ceremony, she wore a silk brocade suit in shades of gray, turquoise and gold with matching accessories and a turquoise cymbidium corsage. Mrs. Kennicott chose a turquoise crepe dress, matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

THE GROOM'S brother, David Kennicott, was his best man, while his cousin, Donald Kennicott of Lexington, Tenn., Richard Deitch of Skokie, Joseph Piersen of Oak Park and James Conzelmar of Waukegan ushered.

After the ceremony the couple was feted by 170 guests at a luncheon at Arlington Carousel Restaurant.

The newlyweds are now at home in an apartment at 185 N. Wildwood Lane, Wheeling. The bride, a graduate of Highland Park High School as is her husband, received her degree from Cornell College in Iowa and teaches fourth grade at Whitman School. The groom, a Lake Forest College graduate, is a safety engineer for Kemper Insurance Co.

AT A RECENT DINNER at the Patio Restaurant in Wheeling, Meadowbrook Woman's Club installed new officers. Mrs. Michael Valenza is shown accepting her position as chairman of the group and accepts the gavel from Mrs. Henry Klien, retiring chairman. Other officers include Mrs. Klien as co-chairman, Mrs. David Wright as secretary, Mrs. Paul Doetsch, treasurer, and Mrs. William Mencci, membership chairman. Mrs. Jack Woods acted as mistress of ceremonies for the event.

Modern Etiquette

Q. When two girls are walking together on the street and meet a boy who is a friend of one of the girls and he stops to chat for a few minutes, does the other girl stand by or does she walk on slowly?

A. If her friend happens to introduce her to the boy, she of course remains — but if not, she should walk on slowly until her friend rejoins her.

Opening devotions will be led by Mrs. Gerald Andrews speaking on "Joy to the World." All women are asked to bring their "mite boxes" in which money is saved and used to aid missions.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Arthur Streccius, Mrs. Edward Rodriguez and Mrs. Elmer Staufenbiel.

For further information readers may call Mrs. Alex Liesik at CL 3-2434. (S

Can't Cook an Egg? Here's Right Way

Do you know how to boil an egg? If this sounds ridiculous, the next time check your boiled eggs to see if they have a greenish coating around the yoke, a cracked shell, or are hard to peel. If any of these characteristics appear, you don't know how to boil an egg properly.

There are two methods of boiling an egg; one is the cold water method, the other the boiling water method.

Steps in the cold water method are: cover eggs in pan with enough water to come at least one inch above the eggs. Bring rapidly to the boiling point, then either turn off heat or remove pan from surface unit. Cover the pan and allow the eggs to stand in hot water for 15 minutes. Finally, cool in cold water.

IN THE BOILING water method the homemaker should place cold eggs in a dish of lukewarm water to prevent cracked shells. Bring water in pan to a rapid boiling point, making sure there is enough to cover the eggs one inch. Transfer eggs from dish to pan with a spoon, reduce heat to keep water below simmering, and hold for 20 minutes. Cool eggs promptly in cold water to make shells easier to remove.

The greenish cast on the yoke is caused by cooking the eggs at too high a temperature, for too long a time or not cooling them directly after cooking. If this happens, the sulphur and iron compounds in the egg form the greenish coating. The egg, however, is still wholesome and nutritious.

A small hole drilled in the large end of the egg shell will prevent cracking. To remove the shell, crack it with a knife, roll egg between hands to loosen it, then peel. Holding the egg under cold running water or dipping in a bowl of water helps to ease off the shell. (S

Leslie O'Dor

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. O'Dor, 636 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, announce the engagement of their daughter, Leslie Renee, to David E. Shepard, son of the David W. Shepards of Aurora.

Miss O'Dor is employed by Trans Continental Life Insurance Co. in Evanston. She is a graduate of Arlington High School and attended Monmouth College where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi social fraternity. Mr. Shepard, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, will receive his B.A. degree from Monmouth in June '66.

A September wedding is planned. (S

Suzanne Miller

The Charles W. Millers of 193 S. Wolf Road, Wheeling, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne Laura, to James P. Jensen, son of the senior J. P. Jensens of 7089 Edgebrook Lane, Hanover Park.

Miss Miller, a Prospect High School graduate, attended Northern Illinois University and is now working in Lake Zurich for Dearborn Chemicals. Her fiance attended Barrington High School and is now at Northern Illinois University in his third year.

No wedding date has been set.

Janet Sternberg

The James Sternbergs of Prospect Heights are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Harold Oldinski, son of Decatur residents, the August Oldinskis.

Miss Sternberg is employed by Mount Prospect State Bank and is a graduate of Prospect High School. Her fiance attends Valparaiso University.

The date for the couple's wedding has been set for June 11.

Georgene Hall

July 30 is the date set for the wedding of Georgene Marian Hall and Frank R. Renner of Arlington Heights. Miss Hall's mother, Mrs. Irene F. Hall of 215 W. Miner St., is announcing her engagement and approaching marriage to the son of the Frank J. Renners of 1710 Surrey Ridge Drive.

Both young people have graduated from Arlington High School and are now attending Northwestern University. Miss Hall is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta Sorority and her fiance with Theta Xi Fraternity. She will be graduated in March, and Mr. Renner will be graduated in June, then will continue at law school. (S

Sandra Smith

The engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee to Robert Allen Johnson, son of the Oscar E. Johnsons, 647 N. Beverly Lane, Arlington Heights, is announced by the Leo G. Smiths, of St. Paul.

Miss Smith attended Mankato State College in Minnesota and is now employed by a federal credit union in Denver, where her fiance is stationed with the Navy. Mr. Johnson was graduated from Arlington High School and attended Southern Illinois University.

The couple is planning a Feb. 5 wedding.

Holiday Dinner for Senior Citizens

SENIOR CITIZENS of Mount Prospect were treated to a turkey dinner on Dec. 14 by Mount Prospect Woman's Club. The Christmas event took place in St. Paul Lutheran Church, with community singing and a musical program by Arlington High School Choraliers after the meal. Three of the guests were John Gonko, Jennie McInnes and Katherina Schuttner, shown at the table during the sing.

MRS. RICHARD WHITING SR. and Mrs. Henry Williams are shown at the reservations table at the Mount Prospect Senior Citizens' Christmas dinner on Dec. 14 in St. Paul Lutheran Church. In gratitude to the hosts, Mount Prospect Woman's Club, the senior citizens presented each member of the committee with a large musical bell. Mrs. Robert Petersen, department chairman, was also given a gift for heading the arrangements for the party.

Make Home Safe for That Party

Partying should be as much fun for the hostess and her family as for her guests. Whether preparing a New Year's celebration, a birthday party of just a fun bash, it's important to keep the "safety quotient" high. Here are some useful hints:

Plan the party days ahead of time so that there's no last minute rush. Fatigue is often a cause of accidents.

Make sure the house is not an obstacle course for guests: eliminate sliding rugs, stow toys, leave nothing in driveways, entryways or on stairs.

Keep decorations safe. Make sure candles are not too close to an inflammable centerpiece, that matches are kept out of reach of toddlers, that decorations are fireproof — or kept away from flame.

Warn your guests if the punch is spiked; serve lots of food, as well as coffee, with liquor or wine — remember that some of your guests will be driving home.

Have fun! (S

BETTE STROH and Erma Bartling as Suzuki and Madame Butterfly, will sing in the operalogue, "Madame Butterfly," Jan. 5 for Arlington Heights Woman's Club. The program will be given in Recreation Park Field House, Arlington Heights, at the club's regular meeting.

Sorority Activities

Alpha Gamma Delta will start the new year by continuing to help others. The first meeting of '66 is slated for Tuesday Jan. 4, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. C. R. Morey, 1108 Orchard, Prospect Heights.

Bryn Witt, executive director of Clearbrook Center, formerly known as Clearbrook School for Retarded Children, will explain the many new roles of the center.

CLEARBROOK CENTER is newly located at 3201 Campbell Road, Rolling Meadows. Mr. Witt, who has a master degree from Northwestern University and was director of South West School for Retarded Children, Chicago, for four years prior to coming to Clearbrook two years ago, has titled his talk "The New Role of Clearbrook Center." The center is a day school for children from 3 to 15 and also a sheltered whorkshop and vocational training center for those 16 and over.

A donation will be given to the center by the local Alpha Gams after learning how they can be of assistance.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Jerry Lynn of Arlington Heights, Mrs. J. W. Regitz of Prospect Heights and Mrs. E. H. Domke of Elk Grove Village.

Information on the area Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club is available by calling La 9-1915.

PHI GAMMA PHI

Young patients at Children's Memorial Hospital were entertained Dec. 17 with Christmas carols sung by Phi Gamma Phi's from the Paddock area. The sorority girls also gave scrapbrooks to the children.

The group held its monthly meeting Dec. 16. (S

She is a graduate of Arlington High School and attended Monmouth College where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi social fraternity. Mr. Shepard, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, will receive his B.A. degree from Monmouth in June '66.

A September wedding is planned. (S

Suzanne Miller

The Charles W. Millers of 193 S. Wolf Road, Wheeling, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne Laura, to James P. Jensen, son of the senior J. P. Jensens of 7089 Edgebrook Lane, Hanover Park.

Miss Miller, a Prospect High School graduate, attended Northern Illinois University and is now working in Lake Zurich for Dearborn Chemicals. Her fiance attended Barrington High School and is now at Northern Illinois University in his third year.

No wedding date has been set.

Janet Sternberg

The James Sternbergs of Prospect Heights are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Harold Oldinski, son of Decatur residents, the August Oldinskis.

Miss Sternberg is employed by Mount Prospect State Bank and is a graduate of Prospect High School. Her fiance attends Valparaiso University.

The date for the couple's wedding has been set for June 11.

Georgene Hall

July 30 is the date set for the wedding of Georgene Marian Hall and Frank R. Renner of Arlington Heights. Miss Hall's mother, Mrs. Irene F. Hall of 215 W. Miner St., is announcing her engagement and approaching marriage to the son of the Frank J. Renners of 1710 Surrey Ridge Drive.

Both young people have graduated from Arlington High School and are now attending Northwestern University. Miss Hall is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta Sorority and her fiance with Theta Xi Fraternity. She will be graduated in March, and Mr. Renner will be graduated in June, then will continue at law school. (S

The engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lee to Robert Allen Johnson, son of the Oscar E. Johnsons, 647 N. Beverly Lane, Arlington Heights, is announced by the Leo G. Smiths, of St. Paul.

Miss Smith attended Mankato State College in Minnesota and is now employed by a federal credit union in Denver, where her fiance is stationed with the Navy. Mr. Johnson was graduated from Arlington High School and attended Southern Illinois University.

The couple is planning a Feb. 5 wedding.

Holiday Dinner for Senior Citizens

SENIOR CITIZENS of Mount Prospect were treated to a turkey dinner on Dec. 14 by Mount Prospect Woman's Club. The Christmas event took place in St. Paul Lutheran Church, with community singing and a musical program by Arlington High School Choraliers after the meal. Three of the guests were John Gonko, Jennie McInnes and Katherina Schuttner, shown at the table during the sing.

MRS. RICHARD WHITING SR. and Mrs. Henry Williams are shown at the reservations table at the Mount Prospect Senior Citizens' Christmas dinner on Dec. 14 in St. Paul Lutheran Church. In gratitude to the hosts, Mount Prospect Woman's Club, the senior citizens presented each member of the committee with a large musical bell. Mrs. Robert Petersen, department chairman, was also given a gift for heading the arrangements for the party.

Make Home Safe for That Party

Partying should be as much fun for the hostess and her family as for her guests. Whether preparing a New Year's celebration, a birthday party of just a fun bash, it's important to keep the "safety quotient" high. Here are some useful hints:

Plan the party days ahead of time so that there's no last minute rush. Fatigue is often a cause of accidents.

Make sure the house is not an obstacle course for guests: eliminate sliding rugs, stow toys, leave nothing in driveways, entryways or on stairs.

Keep decorations safe. Make sure candles are not too close to an inflammable centerpiece, that matches are kept out of reach of toddlers, that decorations are fireproof — or kept away from flame.

Warn your guests if the punch is spiked; serve lots of food, as well as coffee, with liquor or wine — remember that some of your guests will be driving home.

Have fun! (S

BETTE STROH and Erma Bartling as Suzuki and Madame Butterfly, will sing in the operalogue, "Madame Butterfly," Jan. 5 for Arlington Heights Woman's Club. The program will be given in Recreation Park Field House, Arlington Heights, at the club's regular meeting.

Sorority Activities

Alpha Gamma Delta will start the new year by continuing to help others. The first meeting of '66 is slated for Tuesday Jan. 4, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. C. R. Morey, 1108 Orchard, Prospect Heights.

Bryn Witt, executive director of Clearbrook Center, formerly known as Clearbrook School for Retarded Children, will explain the many new roles of the center.

CLEARBROOK CENTER is newly located at 3201 Campbell Road, Rolling Meadows. Mr. Witt, who has a master degree from Northwestern University and was director of South West School for Retarded Children, Chicago, for four years prior to coming to Clearbrook two years ago, has titled his talk "The New Role of Clearbrook Center." The center is a day school for children from 3 to 15 and also a sheltered whorkshop and vocational training center for those 16 and over.

A donation will be given to the center by the local Alpha Gams after learning how they can be of assistance.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Jerry Lynn of Arlington Heights, Mrs. J. W. Regitz of Prospect Heights and Mrs. E. H. Domke of Elk Grove Village.

Information on the area Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club is available by calling La 9-1915.

PHI GAMMA PHI

Young patients at Children's Memorial Hospital were entertained Dec. 17 with Christmas carols sung by Phi Gamma Phi's from the Paddock area. The sorority girls also gave scrapbrooks to the children.

The group held its monthly meeting Dec. 16. (S

Orange Fruit Cup Good for Brunch or Lunch

Sandwich Combines Asparagus, Cheese

By LOIS SEILER

Planning to wind up the holiday season with a brunch, luncheon or buffet supper? Then you'll be particularly interested in the intriguing recipes featured today. They have been shared with us by Mrs. Robert L. Lundstedt of Arlington Heights and are among her perennial favorites.

One, a versatile orange fruit cup, is appropriate to serve for any of these occasions. It is ideal for a brunch where fruit is an essential part of the menu, and it is equally appealing as the salad course for a luncheon or buffet supper.

An original recipe, the cups are made from hollowed-out orange halves, with edges pinked to make them more attractive. Mrs. Lundstedt combines a variety of fruits, depending on what is in season with orange sherbet and heaps the mixture into the shells. Placed in muffin tins, they can be stored in the freezer until ready to serve.

Adept at garnishing foods, this good cook gives her flavorful orange cups a festive touch by decorating each with a bing cherry. Mint leaves make a nice garnish during the summer months.

"Any dish is more appetizing when it looks pretty," she commented.

The tasty fruit cups are a refreshing accompaniment for a brunch or lunch featuring Open Face Asparagus Souffle Sandwiches.

Either cooked or canned asparagus can be used in assembling the individual sandwiches. The spears are placed on bread slices and a well-seasoned cheese-egg mixture is spooned on top.

Baked for 15 minutes, the asparagus sandwiches have a souffle-like topping and delicious cheese flavor. Mrs. Lundstedt dresses them up with bits of parsley or green pepper and serves them piping hot.

"In addition to brunches and luncheons, they are good for Sunday night suppers or as a meatless meal," Mrs. Lundstedt said.

Another of her favorites for luncheons is a Tuna Rice Mold which is also as attractive in appearance as it is appealing to taste.

In addition to tuna, rice and eggs, this recipe calls for grated carrots, cheese and onion which add color and zest to the dish.

Baked in individual molds, a ring mold or casserole, the tuna is served with green peas.

"This recipe is fast and easy to prepare," said Ruth Lundstedt, "and can easily be doubled or tripled for a large group."

In addition to her culinary interests, Mrs. Lundstedt is active in several organizations. She is treasurer for the Lutheran Church Women at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, a member of the Northwest Community Hospital Women's Auxiliary, a den mother for the Cub Scouts and a room mother at Windsor School.

The Lundstedts live at 218 S. Gibbons in Arlington Heights. They have four children: Tom, 16, a junior at Prospect High; David, 13, a seventh grader; Bobby, 9, a fourth grade student, and Paul, 5, who is in kindergarten.

"ARE THOSE FOR US, MOM?" young Paul Lundstedt inquires hopefully of his mother as she arranges the garnish on her festive Orange Fruit Cups. Mrs. Robert L. Lundstedt likes to serve these appealing fruit and sherbet-filled orange shells as the fruit course for a brunch or as the salad for a luncheon or buffet supper.

ORANGE FRUIT CUPS

3 large thick-skinned oranges
1 small can fruit cocktail, drained
1 crisp, tart apple including skin, chopped
Pieces of orange, chopped and drained
10 whole grapes (green, or any that are in season)
1 quart orange sherbet, softened
1 can pitted Bing cherries

Cut the oranges in half and hollow them out using a grapefruit knife. Chop the meat from the oranges and drain well. Set aside. Pink the edges of the orange shells.

Combine the pieces of orange with the fruit cocktail, apple and grapes. Fold in the sherbet. Pile high in the orange shells, place in muffin tins and store in the freezer. Remove from freezer about a half hour before serving and place in the refrigerator. Garnish with the Bing cherries. Serves 6.

OPEN FACE ASPARAGUS SOUFFLE SANDWICHES

6 slices buttered bread
18 asparagus spears, cooked or canned
½ teaspoon salt
3 egg whites
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
3 egg yolks
¾ cup grated sharp cheese

Place 3 asparagus spears on each slice of buttered bread. Place on a buttered baking sheeet.

Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff but not dry.

Add pepper, paprika, Worcestershire sauce and mustard to egg yolks and beat until light. Fold into the stiffly-beaten egg whites. Fold in the grated cheese. Spoon over asparagus and bread.

Bake 15 minutes at 350 degrees or until light brown. Garnish with parsley bits or green pepper. Serve immediately. Serves 6.

TUNA RICE MOLDS

1½ cups boiled carrots, grated, or mashed canned carrots
1 cup cooked rice
1 cup grated cheese (mild cheddar)
1 7-ounce can tuna fish, drained well
2 whole eggs, beaten
Grated onion, salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients together and turn into individual buttered molds or a large casserole or ring mold. Bake for 45 to 60 minutes at 350 degrees. Serves 4.

If using a large mold, bake it in a pan of water. Unmold onto serving plate and garnish with parsley.

Fruit Topping Gives Elegance To Meat Loaf

Fruit-topped meat loaf turns thrifty ground beef into elegant family meal.

APRICOT-CRANBERRY MEAT LOAF

2 lb. ground beef
1¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 slice stale bread
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup minced parsley
2 tbsp. A.1. Steak Sauce
½ cup hot water
1 cube beef bouillon
1/3 cup minced onion
8 canned apricot halves
4 tsp. cranberry sauce

Dissolve bouillon cube in hot water, mix together lightly all ingredients except last 2. Shape into loaf, place in 9x5x3" loaf pan. Press fruit halves into meat, hollow side up, put ½ tsp. cranberry sauce in center of each. Bake 50 min. in 350 degree oven. Serves 6-8. (SH

Put Leftover Fowl Into Sandwich Loaf

While roast turkey has become a holiday tradition, so has the problem of what to do with the leftovers. But here's a tasty suggestion, your family will be sure to "gobble up," the sandwich loaf, a perfect hot dish for those cold winter days when the family comes home hungry.

GOURMET SANDWICH LOAF

4 hardooked eggs
1 cup finely chopped cooked turkey
¼ cup chopped sweet pickles or pickle relish
1 can (10 to 12 oz.) cream of mushroom soup
Salt and pepper
12 slices bread
2 tbsp. soft butter or margarine
¼ cup milk

Chop 2 of the eggs. Combine with turkey, pickles and half of the soup. Season to taste and salt and pepper. Trim crusts from bread and cut slices in half to make 24 pieces. Place 6 pieces of bread close together on baking sheet or heat-proof serving platter. Spread with turkey mixture. Top with layer of bread. Repeat until there are 3 layers of turkey and 4 layers of bread. Brush top with softened butter. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) until lightly browned, 15 minutes. Blend milk with remaining soup. Heat to boiling. Add remaining chopped eggs. Serves over 6 sandwiches. (SH

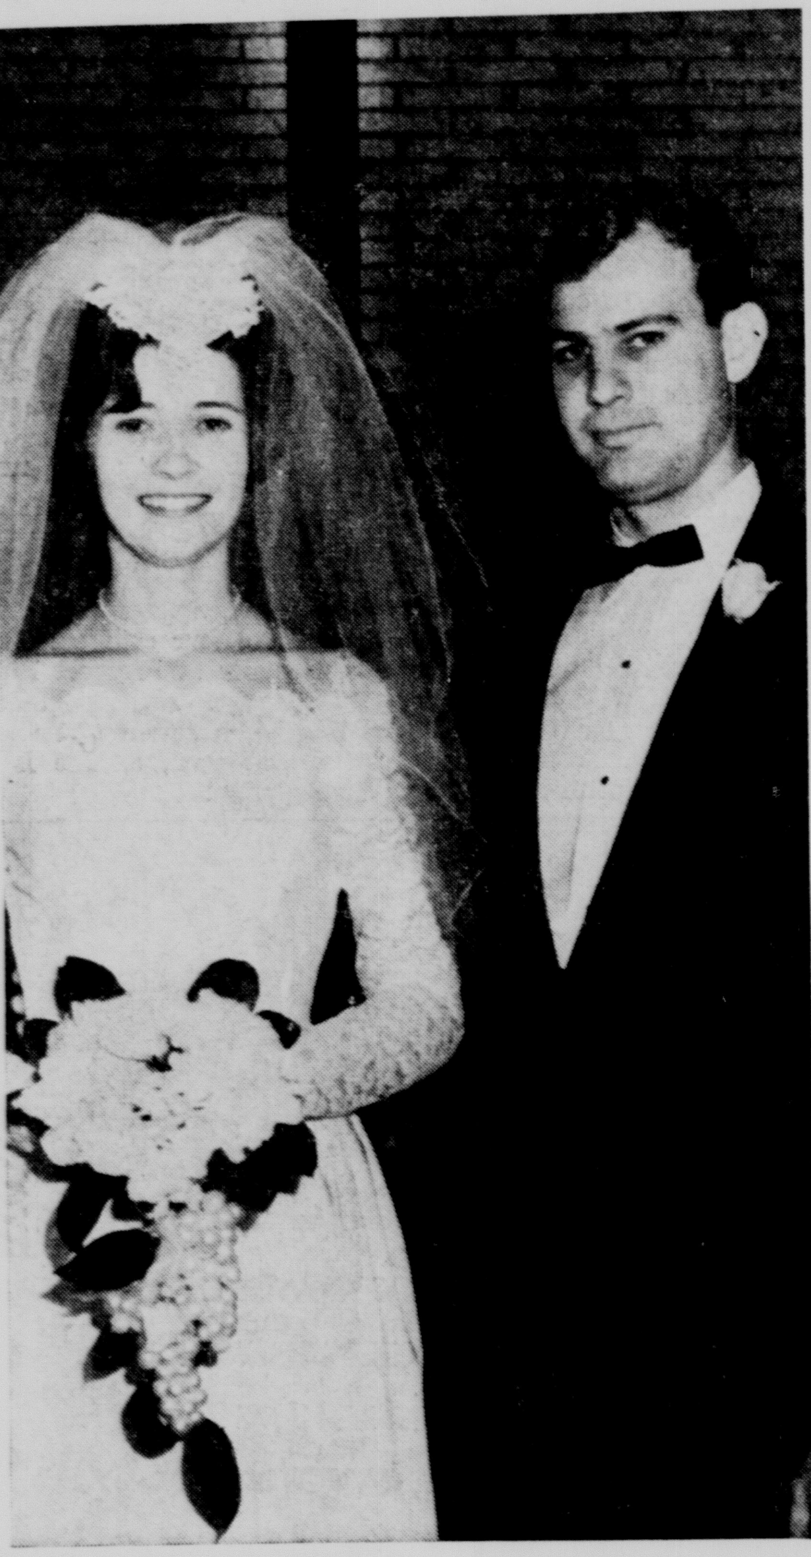
B'Ann Bradshaw and Groom Living in Fresno, Calif.



Southminster United Presbyterian Church in Arlington Heights was the setting for the Nov. 27 wedding of B'Ann Bradshaw, daughter of the Harold B. Bradshaws of Arlington Heights, and Donald Nicholas Rupp of Quincy.

The couple both attended Culver Stockton College in Canton, Mo., but recently were employed in Fresno, Calif., where they will make their first home. Their address will be 3334 N. Fruit St.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Rupp of Quincy.

DR. WILLIAM T. Jones officiated at the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony which took place by candlelight in a setting of white mums. White bows with greenery decorated the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her brother, William. She wore a floor-length white satin peau gown, the bodice styled in contrasting re-embroidered lace. A controlled dome skirt ended in a watteau train. Her headpiece was a bridal cap of organdy flowers trimmed with pearls and held a 2-tiered veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of white Duchess roses with pearl grapes.

KAY DODGE of Mount Prospect was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Marian Glade of Mount Prospect and Mrs. Raymond Matulis of Columbia, Mo.

Their gowns were floor-length with powder blue crepe skirts and modified empire bodices of peacock blue chiffon. A band of darker blue accented the waistline and ended in a bow at the back. They wore matching flat bow headpieces and carried cascade bouquets of wood roses, statice and heather in the blue, lilac and purple tones.

Grant Rupp of Portsmouth, Va., served his brother as best man, while another brother, Douglas Rupp, and the bride's brother, William Bradshaw of Denver, were groomsmen. Ushers included William Closset of Mount Prospect and John Rumble of Detroit.

WITNESSING the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a 3-piece powder blue brocaded suit with matching accessories and had a blue iris and purple heather purse corsage. Mrs. Rupp wore a royal blue wool dress with matching accessories and had a corsage of white feathered camellias and carnations.

The bride's two grandmothers were special guests at the wedding, Mrs. Emma La Bounty of Watseka, Ill., attired in a wine colored ribbon knit dress and Mrs. Lutie Bradshaw of Canton, Mo., in a 3-piece blue silk and wool suit. Each had a cymbidium corsage.

A reception followed the rites in the church hall, 150 guests greeting the newlyweds before they left for California.

THE BRIDE IS a graduate of Arlington High School, and while at Culver Stockton was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta Sorority. She worked at Northern Trust Bank, Chicago, for 3½ years before moving to Fresno where she is now employed by Dave Dunshee, a real estate appraiser.

The groom has his degree from Culver Stockton and then served for two years in the Marine Corps. He is with National Cash Register Co. in Fresno. (S

Carol Moehling Carries Hanky Made from Old Wedding Gown

A hanky made from her mother's wedding dress and veil was the "something old" carried by Carol J. Moehling when she became the bride of Alan K. Hattendorf on Nov. 20. The service took place in St. John Lutheran Church, Mount Prospect with all the attendants being members of the bridal couple's family.

The new Mrs. Hattendorf is the daughter of Mrs. John A. Moehling and the late Mr. Moehling, 1213 Linneman Road, Mount Prospect, and the groom is the son of the Alvin C. Hattendorfs, 154 N. Fremont, Palatine.

Vases of white glads and mums and bronze gold daisy pompons were used as the altar setting for the 5 o'clock, double ring service at which Rev. W. B. Streufert officiated.

AN A-LINE empire gown was the choice of the bride. Made of peau de soie with re-embroidered alencon lace, the gown featured a carriage back and chapel train, scooped neckline and long sleeves. A forward headpiece held her imported silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis with miniature carnations and roses. She also wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from her bridegroom.

The bride's uncle and godfather, William Lacina, gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Judith A. Berschet of Rolling Meadows and Miss Rose L. Moehling of Mount Prospect, both sisters of the bride, served as matron and maid of honor while another sister, Miss Betty L. Moehling, also of Mount Prospect, served as one of the bridesmaids. Other bridesmaids were the groom's sister, Mrs. Diane Rogala of Princeton, Ill. and Mrs. Lou Ann Altergott of Des Plaines, a cousin of the bride.

Their sheath gowns were of sweet apple green satin fashioned with scoop necklines and three-quarter sleeves trimmed with Venice lace. Lace also trimmed the waistilnes which were marked with back bows. Their flowers were cascades of daisy bronze gold pompons centered with light green carnations. For headpieces they wore double bows with rosettes and 4-tiered veils.

THE BRIDE'S 2½-year-old niece and godchild, Sara Berschet of Rolling Meadows, served as flower girl. Her gown was styled like the other attendants but with a full skirt, and she carried a basket of petals with flowers on the handle.

The groom's brother, Ronald of Fox River Grove, served as best man, and ushers were three other brothers, Warren, Marvin and Terry, all of Palatine, and the groom's brother-in-law, Richard Rogala of Princeton.

The service was followed by a buffet reception for 350 guests at the Redwood Banquet Hall in Mount Prospect. Mrs. Moehling received the guests in a floor-length coral sheath with brocade bodice and crepe skirt. Her corsage was a coral camellia and sweetheart roses. The groom's mother chose a floor-length blue brocade with two gold-lipped ivory cymbidiums.

THE NEWLYWEDS met on a hayride while the groom was home on leave. Married during another leave, the couple honeymooned for 10 days in San Francisco before the groom left Dec. 18 for a 4-month tour of duty in Germany. The bride is now at home with her parents and, at the conclusion of Mr. Hattendorf's service in Germany, expects to join him in Savannah, Ga. where he will be stationed at Hunter Air Force Base. An Airman second class, Mr. Hattendorf is in electronics and communications.

The bride was graduated from Prospect High School and is with United Air Lines. The groom is a graduate of Palatine High School. (S

Snowflake Theme For Bethel Rites

Against a background of pink and white snowflakes, Miss Sue Hoigard, daughter of the Arthur C. Hoigards, 179 W. Aldridge Ave., Palatine, was installed as honored queen of bethel 107, Job's Daughters, Palatine, Dec. 17.

Guests of honor were Miss Hoigard's third grade teacher, Mrs. Dorothy Mair of Palatine, and her uncle and godfather, Elmer Hoigard of Stickney.

Line officers installed with Miss Hoigard were Miss Linda Anagnos, senior princess; Miss Vicky Hardy, junior princess; Miss Lynn Hyvari, guide; and Miss Lora Hyvari, marshal.

ODE TO THE flag was given by Miss Linda Frank and the rose ceremony taken from the Order of Builders Ritual, was given by Richard K. Fredericksen of Park Ridge Chapter 113, grand marshal of the state of Illinois. Escort and Nine O'clock Interpolation was provided by the Prospect chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Benediction was offered by Rev. Sheldon B. Foote, Palatine, and soloists were Horace Barton and his daughter, Judi.

Following the installation, entertainment and dancing were offered by The Shillings of Arlington Heights. (S

Donna Lee Sears Attended By 5 of Her Close Friends

When Donna Lee Sears of Mount Prospect became the bride of William J. Adamski of Chicago on Dec. 4, her four bridesmaids were all senior students at Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing, where the bride is also a senior.

The four girls, Miss Gloria Simonelli of Elmwood Park, Miss Jacque Thorsen of Dubuque, Mrs. Nancy Soprano of Arlington Heights and Miss Jennifer Underwood of Morton Grove, preceded the maid of honor, Miss Vicki Schwieger of Mount Prospect, down the aisle of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Mount Prospect, for the 6 o'clock ceremony.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert L. Sears of 10 N. School St. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Adamski of Chicago.

Escorted by her father in a candlelight setting, the bride chose a candle white floor-length gown of peau de soie for the double ring rites. The bodice and long sleeves were appliqued in a seed pearl motif, and the square-cut train had a lace insertion for accent. The Bride's shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and crystals, and her only jewelry was a pair of opal earrings, a gift from the groom.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

HER ATTENDANTS were gowned alike in avocado velvet and off-white brocade. The bodice of the dresses was of the avocado, and the skirt of the off-white and sheath-styled to the floor with a slight train. The maid of honor's dress varied only in the train, hers of pure white and the bridesmaids' trimmed with avocado green velvet.

The attendants all carried white feathered mums with satin streamers which were adorned with pink rosebuds and ivy.

MISS SCHWIEGER is a friend of the bride's since grammar school days and came from her studies at Valparaiso University to be in the wedding party.

Ben Mical Jr. of Chicago served as best man, while Thomas and Alan Adamski, the groom's brothers; Roland Kokes, his cousin from Mount Prospect, and Ted Krakowski of Chicago seated the guests. Pastor Roland Redder united the couple in marriage, and the bride's twin cousins, Randall and Ronald Landeck of Bensenville presented guests with wedding programs.

WITNESSING the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a powder blue crepe dress with beaded bodice and matching accessories. Mrs. Adamski wore a beige ribbon knit dress, brown accessories, and both mothers had cymbidium corsages.

Attending the ceremony was the bride's 83-year-old grandfather, Miles Sears of Bingham, Ill. She is also a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kroll, who operated Kroll's Tailor Shop on Busse Avenue for 26 years.

A reception for the couple followed at Mount Prospect VFW Hall, where 230 guests gathered for a sit-down dinner and evening of dancing.

After a short honeymoon at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton, the bride is back to her studies at nursing school and the groom attends Morton Junior College.

Marjorie Frerichs Is Bride Of Dennis Kotowski on Nov. 20

A dozen pale yellow roses accented the all-white attire of bride Marjorie Susan Frerichs as she was married Nov. 20 to Dennis Leon Kotowski of Palatine in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Chicago. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James B. Frerichs of St. Charles, and the groom is the son of the Leon Kotowskis of 1320 S. Vermont, Palatine.

Wearing a white silk peau de soie gown with a fitted waistline of alencon lace and a full skirt ending in a cathedral train, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The lace accent was repeated in appliques on the train and on bows which formed a headpiece to hold her very full silk illusion veil in place.

With the yellow roses, she carried white carnations and a trail of English ivy.

PRECEDING HER down the aisle for the 2 o'clock double ring rites were three attendants and her 5-year-old brother, Nicky Frerichs, as ring bearer.

Maid of honor Dorothy Frerichs, her sister, was attired in a floor-length moire gown styled with a vanilla shade bodice and bell-shaped olive green skirt, with matching olive shoes and vanilla kid gloves. She carried a crescent of reddish bronze and gold fuji mums.

THE TWO bridesmaids, Barbara Buck and Charlene Hanlon of Chicago, were attired exactly as the maid of honor.

Kenneth Kulas, the groom's cousin, was best man, while Blair Raftree and Dave Riff, both Chicagoans, seated the guests.

Rev. Eugene J. Galvin performed the afternoon ceremony. Later in the day a reception feted the pair at Sokol Hall, Chicago. Greeting the 225 guests, the bride's mother was attired in turquoise lace over silk and had a yellow tearose corsage, and the groom's mother wore salmon lace and chiffon and had a yellow tearose corsage. Dancing followed a sit-down dinner.

THE NEWLYWEDS spent a week in the Virgin Islands and are now living in an apartment at 55 W. Stratford Place, Chicago, where the bride had been residing while working in the city. She is executive secretary to the president of Clarkson Engineering Co.

A graduate of Palatine High School and Bradley University, the groom is a cryogenic engineer for National Cylinder Gas Co., Chicago. (S

FAMILY POT LUCK

BY HELEN HALE

Festive Foods

Tomato juice can come to a guest dinner if you heat it with some bay leaves, whole cloves, finely chopped onion and a bit of sugar. Serve with a lemon slice.

Fluffs of whipped cream and peppermint stick stirrups will be welcomed by the younger set with their hot cocoa.

What sweets can be served at a holiday buffet? Thin slices of fruit cake, assorted butter cookies, date and cream cheese sandwiches, party mints and homemade fudge.

Like to serve nippy snacks? Try shrimps speared in cocktail sauce, a cream and blue cheese ball with potato chips and crackers, chicken livers wrapped in bacon and broiled, olives, salted nuts and pretzels.

A little dessert that pleases? Fill small to medium cream puffs with ice cream and serve with sauce, vanilla with fudge sauce, strawberry ripple with crushed strawberries, etc.

Helen's Favorite:

Peach Melba
(6 servings)

- 6 peach halves (canned or poached fresh)
- toasted almonds
- 1 Package frozen raspberries, thawed
- 1 pint vanilla ice cream

Stud peach halves with almonds. Place each one in an individual dessert dish. Spoon raspberries over peaches. Chill. Whip ice cream to pouring consistency, pour over peaches and serve at once.

Santa Visits Clearbrook Center Dec. 21

Following through with a tradition they began eight years ago, the Rolling Meadows Juniors again sponsored the Christmas party for the Clearbrook Center for Retarded Children. The party was held at 1 p.m. Dec. 21 in the school's new building on Campbell Street in Rolling Meadows.

Sant aClaus, played by Mrs. Beth Wallner, presented the children with coloring books, crayons, story books, stuffed dolls for the girls and little cars for the boys. Those enrolled in the Adult Workshop program received ball point pens.

The club also presented the school with a check to enable them to buy records for their teaching program. Wooden puzzles for use in the classroom were also presented to the school.

THE COMMUNITY Achievement Committee made Christmas place mats and tree ornaments for the children. Also helping was the junior Girl Scout Troop 808 of Rolling Meadows, who made place cards and the Campfire Girls Group "Kaelutachi," who made stuffed toys which were presented to the children. A donation was also received from the Mount Prospect Senior Citizens Club.

Mrs. Joseph Hayer, chairman, and her committee members, Mrs. Richard Schar, Mrs. Joseph Guthrie, Mrs. John Stein and Mrs. Paul Puhl, served refreshments to the children, their parents and teachers. (S

CHRISTMAS WAS A BIT MERRIER for children of the Clearbrook Center by Santa's pre-Christmas visit. Children and adults in the center received gifts and the school was presented with puzzles for classroom work and a check to cover the cost of records for the teaching program. Snowflake Theme For Bethel Rites

Against a background of pink and white snowflakes, Miss Sue Hoigard, daughter of the Arthur C. Hoigards, 179 W. Aldridge Ave., Palatine, was installed as honored queen of bethel 107, Job's Daughters, Palatine, Dec. 17.

Guests of honor were Miss Hoigard's third grade teacher, Mrs. Dorothy Mair of Palatine, and her uncle and godfather, Elmer Hoigard of Stickney.

Line officers installed with Miss Hoigard were Miss Linda Anagnos, senior princess; Miss Vicky Hardy, junior princess; Miss Lynn Hyvari, guide; and Miss Lora Hyvari, marshal.

ODE TO THE flag was given by Miss Linda Frank and the rose ceremony taken from the Order of Builders Ritual, was given by Richard K. Fredericksen of Park Ridge Chapter 113, grand marshal of the state of Illinois. Escort and Nine O'clock Interpolation was provided by the Prospect chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Benediction was offered by Rev. Sheldon B. Foote, Palatine, and soloists were Horace Barton and his daughter, Judi.

Following the installation, entertainment and dancing were offered by The Shillings of Arlington Heights. (S

FAMILY POT LUCK

BY HELEN HALE

Festive Foods

Tomato juice can come to a guest dinner if you heat it with some bay leaves, whole cloves, finely chopped onion and a bit of sugar. Serve with a lemon slice.

Fluffs of whipped cream and peppermint stick stirrups will be welcomed by the younger set with their hot cocoa.

What sweets can be served at a holiday buffet? Thin slices of fruit cake, assorted butter cookies, date and cream cheese sandwiches, party mints and homemade fudge.

Like to serve nippy snacks? Try shrimps speared in cocktail sauce, a cream and blue cheese ball with potato chips and crackers, chicken livers wrapped in bacon and broiled, olives, salted nuts and pretzels.

A little dessert that pleases? Fill small to medium cream puffs with ice cream and serve with sauce, vanilla with fudge sauce, strawberry ripple with crushed strawberries, etc.

Helen's Favorite:

Peach Melba
(6 servings)

- 6 peach halves (canned or poached fresh)
- toasted almonds
- 1 Package frozen raspberries, thawed
- 1 pint vanilla ice cream

Stud peach halves with almonds. Place each one in an individual dessert dish. Spoon raspberries over peaches. Chill. Whip ice cream to pouring consistency, pour over peaches and serve at once.

Santa Visits Clearbrook Center Dec. 21

Following through with a tradition they began eight years ago, the Rolling Meadows Juniors again sponsored the Christmas party for the Clearbrook Center for Retarded Children. The party was held at 1 p.m. Dec. 21 in the school's new building on Campbell Street in Rolling Meadows.

Sant aClaus, played by Mrs. Beth Wallner, presented the children with coloring books, crayons, story books, stuffed dolls for the girls and little cars for the boys. Those enrolled in the Adult Workshop program received ball point pens.

The club also presented the school with a check to enable them to buy records for their teaching program. Wooden puzzles for use in the classroom were also presented to the school.

THE COMMUNITY Achievement Committee made Christmas place mats and tree ornaments for the children. Also helping was the junior Girl Scout Troop 808 of Rolling Meadows, who made place cards and the Campfire Girls Group "Kaelutachi," who made stuffed toys which were presented to the children. A donation was also received from the Mount Prospect Senior Citizens Club.

Mrs. Joseph Hayer, chairman, and her committee members, Mrs. Richard Schar, Mrs. Joseph Guthrie, Mrs. John Stein and Mrs. Paul Puhl, served refreshments to the children, their parents and teachers. (S

CHRISTMAS WAS A BIT MERRIER for children of the Clearbrook Center by Santa's pre-Christmas visit. Children and adults in the center received gifts and the school was presented with puzzles for classroom work and a check to cover the cost of records for the teaching program. Sponsoring the party was Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's Club. (Staff Photo)

NEW DEVELOPMENTS in education for 1966 were discussed at a Northern Illinois University conference by Dr. Frances Horwich (left), noted authority on pre-school education and hostess on more than 1,900 "Ding Dong School" TV programs. Palatine residents Jan Bone and Al Mawicke talk over with Dr. Horwich the "how" and "why" questions children ask. (P

Child's Development Told By Pre-School Authority

"By the time a child is four years old, he will have reached 50 per cent of his adult intelligence," said Dr. Frances Horwich, noted authority on pre-school education.

"By the time he is eight, he will have achieved 70 per cent of his mental development," Dr. Horwich continued.

Dr. Horwich spoke at a Northern Illinois University educational conference attended by Palatine residents Mrs. Jan Bone, 353 N. Morris Drive, and Al Mawicke, 283 Park, the district manager of World Book Encyclopedia Childcraft books.

STATING THAT there are more than 37 million children under 10 in this country, Dr. Horwich said that the desire to know is the greatest hunger children have.

Learning about themselves and the world, she felt, is necessary for children to be able to work together and live happily wit people.

A feeling for books is "caught, not taught," she said, discussing success in school and relating it to everyday experiences.

In a home where both parents read, and obviously enjoy books, the child is far more likely to look upon books as a delight, a source of information, and entertainment, she said.

In addition to the figures above, based on a report by Dr. Benjamin Blum titled "Stability and Change in Human Characteristics," Dr. Horwich quoted studies which show that about one-third of the nation's children today repeat first grade because they have not learned to read. (P

The Way We See It

Slum Housing Still Shame of Suburbs

Eight years ago, Paddock Publications called attention to the plight of Mexican-American migrant and ex-migrant farm workers in its series, "Shame of the Suburbs." Those articles revealed that relatively prosperous and affluent suburbanites were tolerating in their midst pockets of poverty and human degradation in which migrants and ex-migrants lived.

Three years ago, we concluded another series, "Harvest's End," which revisited the plight of the Mexican-American to re-examine the problem, the people, and to assess the progress, if any. While some hopeful steps forward had been made, we discovered that suburbia was still condoning exploitation of the weak and uninformed. We found that while it takes shock tactics to generate emotion and to shake public apathy, it is far too easy for the public to become inured to the presence of persistent and chronic insecurity, vulnerability, discrimination and poverty . . . for others.

Last week we were reminded again of the lack of progress in northwest suburbs in relieving the burden of squalid housing for these families.

A chicken coop converted to living quarters became a blazing death trap for two Elk Grove infants when a leaky gas heater exploded. Killed in the fire were Albert Espinosa, 17 months, and his brother, Ignacio Jr., 5 months. Their mother had stepped outside the 8 by 12 foot wooden shack to fetch water when the fire broke out.

Shocked suburbanites immediately began donating food and clothing, and a temporary home was quickly located for the grief-stricken parents.

This was but one family among 500 such families in the northwest area, however, who are ghettoed by economic necessity in tumbledown colonies of trailers and shacks clustered in farmyards. Their slum housing violates most county zoning and building regulations and all standards of human decency.

The Espinosa home was typical of many. Their one-room shack had no toilet or running water. Its sparse furnishings included a bed, a table, a couch, and the faulty heater which was also used for cooking.

In their struggle to get out of slum living conditions, these families encounter the barriers of prejudice and cost. Rents are either too high or rental quarters unavailable to them. They can't pay the rent in suburbia — or the city — for decent housing, and there is no public housing available to them here. For most, a down payment on a house is completely out of reach.

They are forced to jam their children into decayed trailers, chicken brooder houses, or converted corn cribs without heat, ventilation, water or sanitation. It's the only rental housing they can afford.

Our communities cannot afford to condone such despair any longer. By turning away from the problem in indifference we are inviting another tragedy in which more infants could die in slum fires. And with an ever-increasing demand for low-cost labor in northwest suburbs, the problem will continue to grow faster than available community resources can cope with it.

Public pressure must be exerted to enact more rigid state fire and health laws. County officials must not only enforce building and health codes but also assist in development of decent housing alternatives for low-income families.

Low-rent family housing can be provided in the northwest area through a combination of local initiative and federal assistance. Financing is available to communities which can demonstrate need; such feasibility studies are now being developed by NORWESCO Opportunity Council, but this organization cannot accomplish the task alone. It needs the interest and support of county, township, and village officials, civic and business leaders.

Northwest suburbs have the equipment to solve this problem and to insure against another Espinosa tragedy. We have among us the will and the skill. What is lacking is a concerned and aroused citizenry, organization and leadership.

Douglas vs. Percy: A Campaign of Issues

The coming U.S. Senate race in Illinois promises to be one of the most important political contests the state has seen in many years.

Charles H. Percy almost surely will get the Republican nomination. The incumbent Democrat, Paul H. Douglas, seems certain to be a candidate for reelection.

In contrast to recent Senate races in Illinois, both men are well-known from Waukegan to Cairo. A one-sided victory for either seems out of the question.

Both men have made important political contributions.

Sen. Douglas, while not exactly a maverick Democrat, has distinguished himself by his willingness to adopt worthy although unpopular causes and stick with them until they gain the support needed to become law. This independence of action is valued by voters.

Percy's main political effort, of course, was his narrow loss to Otto Kerner for the governorship in 1964. Although defeated, Percy ran far ahead of his party's Presidential candidate, Barry Goldwater, and demonstrated that his ideas for a Republican action program have enormous popular support.

In a Percy-Douglas campaign, the voters can expect to hear the real issues discussed in terms which make sense for 1966. Such a campaign can lift the level of public understanding of new and complex issues, many of which have not been debated enough.

Illinois is fortunate in having two men so admirably qualified to conduct this type of campaign.

Suburbanites Speak Up!

Traffic Trouble Spots

by LEE SECHLER
Staff Writer

The Christmas season seemed to have a mellowing affect on suburban drivers last week who were contacted to express their opinions for this week's column.

Several of them had to stop and think before responding to the question "Where is the worst traffic bottleneck which should be corrected?"

SECHLER

Others who were asked to speak refused to comment in any manner—apparently doing their last minute shopping — and others were more than willing to talk, but didn't want to give their name or community.

Charles Hickman, of Addison, was able to name immediately two locations in his community which were trouble spots during the morning and evening rush hour times.

"Villa Avenue and Lake Street in the morning and Lake Street and Addison Road in the evening," said Hickman.

A heavy flow of eastbound traffic in the morning, he went on to explain, made turning from Villa Avenue on to Lake Street a problem at best.

In the evening, said Hickman, a left turn from Lake Street to Addison Road is nearly impossible.

"The people who are turning tie up the inside lane of traffic reducing the westbound movements to one lane.

"This means that people caught in that lane are attempting to jump into the other lane," the resident said.

HICKMAN'S ANSWER to the evening problem: a left turn light.

Henry Miller, of Mount Prospect, and Mrs. William Tobin, of Prospect Heights, agreed on the bottleneck which caused them the most problem.

Both pointed to the intersection of three highways — Rand Road, Rte. 83 and Foundry Road — near the Randhurst shopping center.

"I don't know what can be done," said Miller. "I think they have handled it the best they can."

"We've both discussed the problem," said Mrs. Tobin, speaking of her husband's feeling, too, "and don't know of anything better than there is now."

SHE OBSERVED that there had been improvements made in the lights governing both the highway traffic and the exits from the huge shopping center.

Mrs. Tobin felt the timing of the lights late at night should be changed.

"Many times," she said, "the light would be red for the highway to allow traffic to leave the shopping center when there just was not any there to leave."

The Prospect Heights resident said she and her husband felt it was much safer to fly than to drive in the area of the three road intersection.

JOHN VARBLE, of Bensenville, said the widening of Irving Park Road to the west was the worst need in the area.

Varble cited the westbound traffic backup which resulted daily, and the increased flow of traffic using the road because of O'Hare Field and the industrial plants in the area.

The Kennedy Expressway, Varble said, needed an additional eastbound lane to allow drivers to enter the system during the evening rush hour. This, he explained, despite the fact most of the traffic is moving in the other direction.

Frank Munch, of Palatine, singled out the section of the expressway system where the Kennedy Expressway forks to the left and the Edens Expressway to the right.

Drivers getting on at Irving Park Road have "two and one-half blocks to get across four lanes of traffic to hit the Kennedy Expressway." Munch said the problem was just as great for people leaving the express lanes and trying to get on the Edens.

"This is something we have to live with," he said.

"I think it is a tribute to the drivers that you don't have more accidents there than you do."

MRS. JACK Hackney, of Wood Dale, said she couldn't think of any bottleneck offhand. However, some other Wood Dale people were quick to point to the Wood Dale Road-Irving Park Road intersection in the village as a trouble spot.

Village officials are currently debating just what steps should be taken to correct the problem: widen just the intersection or the length of Irving Park Road through the village.

Delores Brausch, of Mount Prospect, felt the trains created a problem for drivers in Arlington Heights where she works.

She must cross the tracks to get to work and many times has been held up by the trains and the lights.

Educating Leadership

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

John W. Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, thinks the nation's schools are doing poorly in educating leaders.

"We are immunizing a high proportion of our most gifted young people against any tendencies to leadership," he says.

CUMMINS

Mr. Gardner sees the scholarly world "approaching a point at which everyone will want to educate the technical expert who advises the leaders, or the intellectual who stands off and criticizes the leader, but no one will want to educate the leader himself."

I SUPPOSE when this becomes reality it will be pretty bad. Still, it will be interesting. I can imagine a meeting in the office of a huge biscuit corporation.

A group of a dozen or so people are seated in the conference room. No one says anything for a long while, until finally one man named Tom speaks.

"Uh, I wonder who is going to call this meeting to order. How about you, Joe?

"Gosh, Dick, you know I'm not cut out for the leadership role. My specialty is finance.

"How about you, Larry? No? Sam? Rather stick to marketing, huh?

"We may have to adjourn this meeting without discussing the rye wafer report. Wait! I have an idea!"

TOM DASHES into the hallway where the outline of a man pushing a broom can be seen dimly through the frosted glass window. In a moment he returns, arm in arm with Henry, the janitor.

"Just sit down, Henry. No, no . . . in the chair at the head of the table. That's right. Now if you will kindly pick up that piece of paper and read Item One.

Henry picks up the paper and reads:

"Item One, Rye Wafer Report. Mr. Carrigan."

And thus a leader is born.

Political conventions will be somewhat different than past ones.

The usual huge crowd will be packed in the convention amphitheatre. All the television networks will send their roving crews with portable mikes to every corner of the hall, ready for the great moment.

A MAN will go to the podium and in 102,000 well-chosen words will nominate Sen. Fungwort as the "next president." There will be seconding speeches galore. Then, through a door in the rear of the hall, a white-maned gentleman appears. He is escorted to the microphone. He clears his throat. A hush falls over the hall.

"I decline," he says.

Immediately, pandemonium breaks loose. Delegates stampede into the aisles waving their state banners. Some wear funny hats. Some play Dixieland music. They all shout themselves hoarse.

"Not Fungwort!" they shout. "Fungwort — never! "You can't pin it on our hero."

AFTER A 20-minute demonstration, another nominating speaker tries again. He nominates Gov. Todblister. But Todblister's supporters stage an even more fervent demonstration in support of their man's refusal to run.

Things look dark. The convention is deadlocked. The refusals go on far into the night, while the party bosses huddle in a smoky room, searching for the name of a man who will run.

Finally, they find him. An alderman from Rolling Meadows, who has never been inoculated with the anti-leadership vaccine.

And thus another leader is born.

Critic's Corner

A Challenge To Reporters

by PAT HENSEL
Staff Writer

Traditionally, it's bad manners to ask your neighbor how he voted in the last political election.

It's a social disgrace to ask him how he's going to vote in the next political election.

Lately, it's even dynamite to discuss politics with your closest friends, unless you're sure they're unthinking, non-reading, old-fashioned Republicans or Democrats.

I don't think politicians or mass media reporters ought to be allowed to enjoy this immunity.

As a politically-emotional new year approaches, it seems appropriate now to demand an open, honest performance.

HENSEL

Politicians and political reporters, in varying degrees, are either wise, intelligent, smart (there's a difference) or dumb.

They are either humbly anxious to do a good job or arrogantly anxious to wield power.

THEY ARE either sincere and honest, or insincere and dishonest. They are either non-phonies or phonies.

Naturally, the people want to elect a wise, intelligent, humble, sincere, honest, non-phony politician.

Each politician, of course, is responsible for his own public image, but each also is better off if his words, actions and aspirations are accurately reported to the people.

The good politician is better off because chances are there are enough astute reporters around to spot him and to translate his qualities through newspaper, radio and television reporting.

THE BAD politician is equally well off because chances are he, too, will be spotted before he spends too much time, money and effort on his campaign.

(The politician who is good but acts bad, or who is bad but acts good — or who is a little bit but not quite enough of everything— is and always will be a bugaboo to everyone.)

Just as a politician is required to expose himself to public view, so should a reporter be open and above board. Then he, too, can be spotted for what he's worth.

A perfect example comes to mind of what a political columnist, for instance, can do without half trying.

A HIGHLY reputed columnist from Chicago last spring observed a dramatic moment on the floor of the state senate — when a west suburban senator became somewhat traumatic in his speech during a floor fight over taxes.

The columnist tsk-tsked, recalling how much he had previously admired that particular senator, and what a shame it was the senator had thrown such a tantrum in public.

"I wish he hadn't done it," wrote the columnist.

The senator's prestige fell noticeably among readers of that particular newspaper.

A NORTH suburban state senator has been almost ruthlessly chopped to bits by one Chicago television channel, if you ask me.

The average voter cannot possibly know how much of this man, in his better moments, is left on the cutting-room floor.

Television, in fact, can wield greater power over a politician than can any other form of mass media, in my opinion.

A man's makeup, the camera's range, the splicing of film, the brevity of news reports — all these can make or break an election without so much as a single editorial comment.

IT WOULD behoove every political reporter—if he wants to be worth his salt—to develop to the highest degree one of two qualities:

If he has definite political leanings, he should make darned sure not a single word of it creeps into his straight reporting, and he should somehow declare his leanings if called upon to do any editorializing.

The more reliable political reporter, in my opinion, is the one to whom the politician and not the party is the guide.

This type of reporter looks at the man and not at the issues, and he reports on the man only insofar as the man relates himself to an issue. In this way he can more impartially convey the message to the public.

Above all, I think all political reporters have an obligation to declare themselves— either to the boss, the politician, or to the people—and to heck with Emily Post.

Ousted Republican Charges Lehman Run One-Man Show

Jesse Lehman's removal of Mike Bartnett and myself from the Republican Organization is another example of what is wrong with the local party — it is too much a one man show.

His timing was beautiful. The firings occurred just one week after Mr. Lehman's new organization president issued a statement in which he hoped "to unite all the factions of the party and start everybody pulling in the same direction." Perhaps Mr. Lehman did not read his president's remarks.

I admire Mike Bartnett's reserve in accepting his dismissal, and I am proud of him for urging his supporters to join the Republican Voters' Organization. Certainly the entire party needs new blood badly.

But I must admit to a feeling of irritation at my own discharge. As chairman of the Precinct Reorganization Committee, I was due to present a new program of precinct organization at the next executive board meeting. Six months' work on this plan convinced me that it would substantially increase the strength of the neighborhood unit, by far the most important segment of the party growth, not Republican strength. The criterion is purity Lehman purity.

Mr. Lehman, however, has decided to throw away the fruits of all that work because he knew its chief author favored another man for the committeeman's post. It is obvious, therefore, that the criterion by which Mr. Lehman judges an individual Republican's efforts is not Republican unity, not Republican growth, not Republican strength The criterion is purity Lehman purity.

Nevertheless, Republicans must realize that the problems of the G.O.P. will never be solved unless voters of all persuasions take an active part in resolving the factional difficulties which have resulted from the committeeman's present and past purges. Republicans within the Voters' Organization will have greater influence in the resolution of factional differences than those without.

I therefore join Mr. Bartnett in a plea to all Republicans to pay their dues and join the Voters' Organization during the January membership drive.

Mother Feels Village Needs

Hardly a week goes by that a member of our family does not use the town's library. My daughter, who is a student at Miner Junior High School, uses it with even greater frequency. We all feel the town needs and should have a new library.

The present facilities are inadequate, in my opinion, for a number of reasons.

The collection is too small for a city the size of Arlington Heights and too limited in scope. This situation will be even worse as the community grows.

Because of the size of the present building, it is almost always crowded, and Saturdays it becomes so overcrowded it is practically impossible for students who must use the library as a research center to concentrate properly.

I also feel the present location is inconvenient. As everyone knows, parking space is non-existent and during busy times of the day it is even difficult to let people off or pick them up without obstructing traffic. This is a situation that would be aggravated rather than improved should the existing facilities be enlarged.

For these reasons I plan to support the library's building referendum on Jan. 8 and I hope a majority of the residents will join with me.

On behalf of our entire steering committee, numbering 28 clergy and laity of all faiths around Du Page County, I want to thank you for the fine advance and follow-up publicity you gave us in your Du Page Editions on our Nov. 19 public forum.

The meeting in Lombard attracted 500 to 600 people and I know personally that many of them came from areas in the north sectors of the county where I myself reside, and benefited from the Paddock papers' stories.

I think there are few problems — civic, political, even interracial — that cannot be solved when a responsible press, of which you are a good example, is on the job supplying all the public with all the facts.

Driver Devises Game to Ease Daily Boredom

As an expressway user between Arlington Heights and Chicago I am but one of an army from our town that makes the daily 50-mile trip month after month. In order to avoid the boredom that this kind of driving produces, I have come upon an interesting game that makes the chore more palatable, and I would like to share this with my many neighbor drivers.

I believe a common annoyance to most drivers of conventional-sized vehicles is the dearth of small foreign cars that infest the roads. Their drivers assume that a dispensation exists for them, whereby the common rules of safe driving and courtesy to other drivers do not apply, once the safety belt has been fastened, and the darn thing is starting to roll.

My little game is a competition with a self scoring feature, and it lends itself to all sorts of possibilities.

The object of the game is to run over at least one of these small cars a day, with this jackpot earning 20 points for the scorer. In the process, points on a graduated scale are earned for the following situations:

—Causing one to run off the road.

—Causing one to run into a tree or post.

—Sideswiping.

—Striking one broadside.

—Causing one to run into another of the same make, but completely destroying only one.

—Causing the complete destruction of more than one.

An association could be formed, with membership cards and windshield stickers. Periodic contests, with prizes furnished by the major American car manufacturers, or national run-offs with appropriate newspaper and TV coverage are further possibilities.

The game could even become another major national sport, unless the Automobile Associations would step in and set up a daily or seasonal limit, which might tend to take some of the spirit of competition out of the game.

Low Pay Kept Husband from Job Near Home

I certainly agree with Mr. James Davidson's letter of December 9, concerning the manpower shortage in Elk Grove's Centex Industrial Park.

When we first moved out here not too long ago, my husband who is a highly specialized machinist, thought he'd like to work at a job close to home.

So he went a-looking!

The highest he was offered was an insulting $1.75 an hour! Try raising a family and paying off the mortgage on such a pay-check.

He too, like Mr. Davidson works outside the village.

Disheartened By Defeat of Referendum

I was disheartened when I heard the results of the Dec. 4 vote on the elementary school referendum. As a resident of Roselle for less than one year it is likely that I am ignorant of the facts. As a father for seven years it is even more likely that I am prejudiced in favor of education.

While I am not Roselle's best salesman, I am responsible for one family's purchasing a house in this village. I am also guilty of being responsible for four other families actively seeking residence in the community.

Forgive me of these transgressions — the families all have children. I shall amend my ways and ask these families to search elsewhere as we do not want their offspring in Roselle.

In fact it is obvious that there are now too many undesirables here, eg., children. It is unforgivable that we request the taxpayers to give up the price of one martini a week just for the sake of educating children.

The "no" voter reasoning which I have heard most often is that current and past mismanagement is responsible for our present situation. I level no charges since I am ignorant of the facts. If it is true that mismanagement is responsible, then the "no" votes must be an attempt to show elected officials that the taxpayers cannot be pushed. If we really want to show them, why don't we just take our children out of the schools. That would really show them! Our children could then rank with the most principled illiterates in the country.

I am confident that most of the proud "no" voters will petition as candidates for public office next election. They will then be in positions to apply the modern business techniques they learned while graduate students at Harvard. If they run for office in enough communities, it may be that they can enlighten other areas also. Perhaps Mr. L. B. Johnson could even use some of them as financial consultants, as mismanagement of his job has been rumored.

I must take leave of my pen now and console my weeping children.

Calls Lunch Changes Angry Reaction to Referendum Loss

Recently the Roselle School District had a referendum as to whether to raise the school tax rate. It was turned down. The school board was saddened by such a turn of events as were most of us parents with children in school.

Now the board has voted in a bunch of new regulations designed to trim expenses. These measures include the ending of all after school activities and forcing all children who eat lunch at school to go home for lunch.

Personally speaking, the road on which I live is over two miles from school. I have four children going to school and there are five neighbor children. They all take the school bus. This costs me $12 per month which figures out to $100 per year besides my real estate taxes.

Now the school board says my children can't eat lunch at school. For them to walk takes one hour and 20 minutes each way plus time for eating. The lunch hour is from 12 to 1 p.m. What they are demanding is a physical impossibility.

No doubt we live the farthest from school, but there are many who live from a half to one and a half miles away. To ask children as young as six years old to walk such distances as this in sub-freezing and sub-zero weather is downright cruel.

By curtailing after school activities and lunch hours the board figures to save $3,000 per year and will cause incalcuable misery and aggravation to people.

Were the board sincere in their efforts to save money, there are other measures they could take that could save substantially more than a piddling $3,000. One can only conclude that their primary aim is to give people a hard time rather than economy.

I doubt that their action will enhance their stature with their fellow citizens. I can only hope that they don't so antagonize people to the point where their program will win them more no votes than yes. I think the board is acting rather immaturely and that education, publicity and perserverance will achieve a favorable vote, not only a lot faster but avoid a lot of hard feelings. Certainly they shouldn't take out their anger on the children

Hopes to See 'Non-Partisan' Cloak Removed

The recent controversy over the Mugalian conflict-of-interest issue has been read with much interest in these quarters.

Being good Republicans, we hope the controversy continues.

There is no doubt that Mr. Mugalian's actions have led to or will lead to the United Citizens Party becoming the United Democrat Citizens Party. We think this would be most interesting for the next village election and would put politics on the local level with the Democrats facing the Republicans, which is as it should be.

Thus, the local citizens will be able to vote for the philosophy of government they really favor and not have to vote for a so-called "non-partisan" group which is merely a cloak for the political ambitions of its members.

Ousted Republican Charges Lehman Run One-Man Show

Jesse Lehman's removal of Mike Bartnett and myself from the Republican Organization is another example of what is wrong with the local party — it is too much a one man show.

His timing was beautiful. The firings occurred just one week after Mr. Lehman's new organization president issued a statement in which he hoped "to unite all the factions of the party and start everybody pulling in the same direction." Perhaps Mr. Lehman did not read his president's remarks.

I admire Mike Bartnett's reserve in accepting his dismissal, and I am proud of him for urging his supporters to join the Republican Voters' Organization. Certainly the entire party needs new blood badly.

But I must admit to a feeling of irritation at my own discharge. As chairman of the Precinct Reorganization Committee, I was due to present a new program of precinct organization at the next executive board meeting. Highlights Staff Adds Up Busy Year's Achievements

by Jim Moran

1965 was the year. In 1965, the Gemini space program was successfully carried on, the Vatican Council closed, the Beatles toured America, and the Dodgers won the World Series. It was also the first complete year for Paddock Publications' High School Highlights Section.

The Highlights section was started in the fall of 1964, but it had been in the planning stages for many months before that.

Charles E. Hayes, executive editor of Paddock Publications, said, "In the spring of that year, we were informed that between 55 and 60 per cent of all the people in the communities we serve were under the age of 18. It was then that we realized that we had no really adequate coverage of their activities and interests. . ."

So, in April of 1964, the faculty advisors of area school newspapers were contacted and asked to select four top student journalists to represent each school at the press club that was being formed. Two students would act as regular writers for the section and two as alternates.

JACK MARTIN, an English and journalism teacher at Arlington High School, was chosen to be the coordinator of the project. His job was to edit the copy turned in to him, and to develop a format, style and personality for the new section.

"We owe very much to Mr. Martin," said Richard Carey, the present Highlights coordinator, "and even though it was difficult, he did an admirable job."

When Martin was promoted to the assistant to the superintendent for public relations of Township High School District 214, Carey, an English and journalism teacher at Forest View, replaced him.

Since its genesis, the Highlights section has been presenting from week to week news, feature, and roundup stories from ten area high schools: Arlington, Conant, Forest View, Palatine - William Fremd, Lake Park, Prospect, Sacred Heart of Mary, St. Viator, Wheeling, and Fenton.

The Highlights section has presented quite a few "in-depth" features, especially in the past year. One of the larger ones, which won the staff much praise, dealt with foreign students in the area. It was commended by both the American Field Service and International Fellowship for the coverage of their work.

Several series are also being currently run: the Senior Spotlight, honoring outstanding seniors in the area; the School of the Week, focusing on each one of the area high schools; interviews with local village presidents; and a weekly feature on a high school newspaper in the area.

THE PRINCIPLE on which the section works is the same as any newspaper: writers write, and the editor edits. Every Saturday morning, from 9 a.m. until noon, the Highlighters work at the Paddock offices at 217 W. Campbell in Arlington Heights. Here they write and turn in their articles to Carey and plan features and roundups for future issues.

"I would like to emphasize that it is the students themselves who do the actual writing," Carey said. "We try to publish the articles the way the Highlighters turn them in."

All in all, the Highlights section seems to be a very successful project. "It accomplishes several things," said Editor Hayes. "For us at Paddock, the Highlights section keeps our papers responsive to the interests of a majority of our readership. This helps to improve our circulation."

Beyond that, Hayes said, it serves the community by helping to form good reading habits among the young, and it keeps adults informed on what teenagers are really doing.

Agreeing with this, Carey said "We intend this section to be of interest to everyone."

THE HIGHLIGHTS Section also is training future journalists now. The experience should prove invaluable to any of the Highlighters who intend to make journalism a career.

And though the section may not have reached its ultimate development yet, it has become an important part of the concept of the newspaper in the United States: serving the paper itself and the community which that newspaper serves. (15Y

When several people get involved in an argument about world affairs, nothing helps to settle it like a good night's sleep.

A woman usually objects to being dictated to by a man who also is her husband.

When a woman is out shopping she usually makes up her mind on the spur of a purchase.

A happy marriage is one in which a man kisses his wife at the door when he leaves in the morning as well as when he returns in the afternoon.

32 Area Students Hear Holiday Science Lectures

Thirty-two area high school students from seven local schools are participating in the Holiday Science Lectures held today (Wednesday) and Thursday at the Chicago Natural History Museum.

They are among approximately 800 students from public, private and parochial schools attending this fourth annual series of lectures sponsored by the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the museum.

LECTURER FOR the science students is Dr. Polycarp Kusch, noted scientist and teacher and winner of the 1955 Nobel Prize in Physics for his work on the atom. He is an atomic physicist at Columbia University.

Following are the students from this area attending the lectures:

Lake Park High School: Edward Gorka, Edward Willer and Wesley Struebing.

Arlington High School: Bonnie Marks, Dale Kluesing and Gary Fichter.

Forest View High School: Donald Gunter, Bill Kowaleski, Steven Yakes, Pam Van Hine, Marcia Ross, George Mells, Barbara Mulack, Edward Elesson, Mike Szezepanik and Steve Press.

PROSPECT HIGH School: Kathy Urbanus, Paul Zander, Mary Chakoian, Kim Schier and Jim Brasic.

Wheeling High School: Donald Savage, Robert Johnson, Barbara Astman and Mark Murizyk.

St. Viator High School: Raymond Koss, Edward Brown and Michael Stiglianese.

Sacred Heart of Mary High School: Michelle Prasnikar, Beverly Balkey, Judy Bevacqua and Linda McMahon.

DR. KUSCH WILL present four talks on the developing knowledge of the electron, one of the fundamental particles of the universe. He will also discuss the general environment in which physics has been done in the past 30 years, tracing and commenting upon some of the very startling changes that have occurred.

After the morning and afternoon sessions, Dr. Kusch will participate in a question-and-answer exchange with the students.

Lectures are given in major cities throughout the United States. (15Y

Clothing and Books Collected for Needy

Two collections of used goods occupied the minds of Lake Park High School students this Christmas season.

A clothing drive in mid-December directed by the Student Council and the Save the Children Federation netted 15 bundles of clothes.

The Future Nurses of America club conducted a book drive the last of this month, collecting 400 books for pre-school through junior high school age children.

The clothing will be distributed by the Save the Children Federation to the Appalachian area, so that youngsters there will have clothes to wear to school. Many who stay away from school do so because they have no clothes to wear to school, according to the Federation.

THE REST OF THE clothing will go to the American Indians, to Mexico, Greece, France, Korea, Italy, Lebanon, West Germany, South America, Austria, Finland, and Africa. Rather than being given away, the clothes will be sold for a few pennies.

The books collected will be given to the Chicago State Hospital. FNA club members will deliver the books Dec. 30 and while at the hospital will give a party for the children and will tour the hospital.

Directors for the Save the Children Federation Bundle Days were Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction; Angus B. Rothsell, state superintendent; and Glen Leet, Executive Director of the SCF.

Directors at Lake Park were Student Body President James Rusche, 401 N. Elm, Itasca; Secretary Kathryn Benysh, 23W-636 Goodridge Terr., Roselle; and adviser to the Student Council, Peter Roller, social studies teacher.

Co-chairmen of the FNA book drive were Diana Cox, 370 Foster, Roselle and Donna Tegtmeier, 225 S. Oak, Itasca. All members worked on the drive. (5Y

New Year Meaning

By JUDY RICHTER

The year 1965 is almost history and we will soon be faced with the challenge of a new year.

What will this new year hold for us? No one knows for sure the answer to this question but it is customary to dedicate the first day of the new year to both hope and prayers for a happy and prosperous 365 days.

And so, New Year's Day is more than a time of year for having parties and spreading gaiety. It means more than just making a few predictions and resolutions. New Year's is a time of challenge and opportunity. In a way it is an invitation to start over again with a clean slate—past mistakes forgotten.

NEW YEAR'S IS A TIME for looking at the future with optimism. It is a time for renewing old friendships and making new ones. It is a time to be thankful for all we have.

Also, this day is a time for hope for without hope the future can be bleak.

Most of all, New Year's is a time for prayer: a prayer for peace and understanding; a prayer for guidance; a prayer for love; and a prayer for the well-being of all mankind.

Elks Honor Two For Leadership

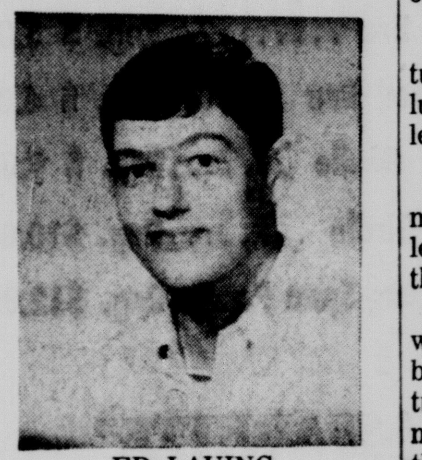
By KATHY MAINZER

Seniors Cathy Hurley and Ed Lauing, both from Forest View High School, were chosen as the two winners of the Youth Leadership Contest sponsored by the Elks Club of this area.

The guidance department of each of the four District 214 high schools selected three students they thought of as outstanding leaders. Each student submitted a notebook containing a completed form listing all school and community activities.

IN ADDITION to this list, three letters were required to verify their qualifications. One was a letter written by the student, another by his parents, and the last one by a person other than an educator.

CATHY HURLEY



ED LAUING

Newspaper clippings and pictures were also collected to illustrate their roles as student leaders.

With these notebooks, the members of the Elks Club selected one boy and one girl as the winners of their contest.

As the winners, Cathy and Ed will receive a $100 bond at a banquet planned in the near future, and their "leadership" notebooks will be forwarded to the state contest. (Y10

Returning Graduates Interviewed

Seven Lake Park High School graduates returned to the school last week and were interviewed by biology teacher Leonard Boone and a group of students.

The seven were Peggy Upstrom '66, Swedish Covenant School of Nursing; Sharon Walker '64, Michigan State major in social science; Judy Volkmann '65, French major at C.W. Post College; Ronald Gronewold '64, mechanical engineer major at Valparaiso University; James Wegmann '62, biology and chemistry major at Carroll College; Carolyn Carstens '64, speech major at Florida State University; and Jane Simmons '65, biology and pharmacology major at Aurora College.

WHEN ASKED WHAT they got at Lake Park which was most beneficial to them in college, they agreed on the courses in mathematics and English. Sharon Walker said high school students should be forced to take more mathematics and science courses.

Jane Simmons said she had had "more French than anyone in my French class at college," a junior level course. Peggy Upstrom mentioned that the memory work she did for French in high school has helped her in memorizing for other college classes.

Judy Volkman thought there should be "more long papers assigned in high school — research or analytic papers."

THE GROUP SPENT some time discussing Lake Park's Responsibility - Privilege pass, whereby a senior is given his study hall time as his own, to do with it what he wants. They all said the experience was of great help to them, because as one graduate put it, "I learned to budget my time."

The alumni seemed to agree with Judy Volkmann's statement that in college you "learn more about people than about anything else." And most of all, "you get to know yourself."(5Y

Hootenanny Helps School Bus Safety

Indifference may have been the mood when students of Forest View High School, last year reported to the assembly hall for a safety program, but they soon found this would not be a dull safety lecture.

In fact, they laughed when Ray Martinez, National Safety Council school transportation specialist, began conducting one of his popular bus safety "hootenannies." And when it was over they applauded for more.

On hand to record the program was Gilbert Altschul Productions, Inc., Chicago-based film production studio. The resulting film, "School Bus Safety — With Strings Attached," has just received a bronze plaque top award from the National Committee on Films for Safety.

OF THE 64 film entries, 11 were given top awards. Gilbert Altschul Productions, Inc. is the only Chicago film producer to receive a bronze plaque for an "outstanding safety film" for the year.

The National Committee on Films for Safety, which represents 25 national organizations, makes the awards annually in recognition of outstanding new business films and TV subjects on occupational, traffic and transportation, general and home safety. This is the third such top award Altschul Productions has won for making outstanding safety films.

"School Bus Safety — With Strings Attached," is a documentary of the 30-minute safety assembly with simulated bus situations. It is sponsored and distributed by the National Safety Council and Journal Films, both Chicago.

MARTINEZ, A GIFTED entertainer, utilizes humor, pantomine, audience participation and even folk singing, complete with guitar, to tell students the right and wrong ways to wait for a bus, to board, get off and behave on it to insure safety. Using the bare stage and a few folding chairs as props, he has students demonstrate such rules as "Always Obey the Driver," "Don't Eat on the Bus," "Stay in Your Seat," "Keep Limbs and Head Inside the Bus," "Always Use the Handrail," and many more.

Although the mood of the filmed assembly is humor and good fun, the safety specialist underscores his message with true stories of what can happen when safety rules are disregarded. Appealing to the high schoolers' sense of maturity, Martinez urges them to pass on good safety habits to their younger brothers and sisters.

The film was made in response to a growing demand for an educational film of Martinez' popular safety lecture.

Teachers to Attend Science Institute

Two area high school teachers have been selected to participate in the National Science Foundation 1965-66 Seventh In-Service Institute for High School Teachers at Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago.

They are Marie Geraldine King (Sr.), RSHM, 3000 Central Road in Rolling Meadows, a teacher at Sacred Heart of Mary High School; and William G. Dolak, 1457 Reynolds Drive in Palatine, a teacher at Maine West High School.

THE PRIMARY objectives of (15Y the NSF-sponsored and IIT-conducted program is to generate higher levels of mathematics and science teaching in secondary schools; to develop increased subject-matter mastery and hence greater competence on the part of the teachers; and to aid teachers in attaining additional levels of qualification.

Courses meet at IIT on Saturday throughout the academic year. Programs of study are offered in mathematics, chemistry and physics. Tuition is paid by the National Science Foundation with allowances given to help cover expenses for transportation and books.

Queen Kay Reigns Over Forest View Yule Ball

By JUDY ARNOLD

Senior Kay Hester reignel as queen over Forest View High School's annual Christmas Ball, "Sleigh Ride to the Stars," on December 18.

Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hester, 2803 Fremont, Rolling Meadows. The dance was held in the boy's gym from 9 p.m. until midnight.

Kay's activities throughout high school include Student Council, choir, girls' leaders physical education, secretary-treasurer of the senior class, over-all chairman this year of the Variety Show and a member of the 1965 homecoming court.

Kay was also in charge of decorations for the Christmas Ball and for the prom last spring. Presently she is also a member of the folk club, the Spanish club, Pep Club, and class board.

KAY SAID, "It was such a neat feeling and I just could not believe it really happened. It was a truly great honor."

Each class elected an attendant to Queen Kay: Alicia Salazar represented the senior class; Terrie Hysell was the junior attendant; Peg Amon, the sophomore delegate; and Tena Guritz, the freshman participant.

Alicia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Salazar, 3718 Bluebird, Rolling Meadows. Alicia hal been a member of Student Council for three years and is presently chairman of the elections committee.

She is also a member of girls' leaders physical education, of the folk song club, of French club, and of the pep club. She was a calendar girl for the 1963-64 school year.

TERRIE HYSELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hysell, 800 S. William, Mount Prospect, was the junior representative. Terrie was the director of this year's Variety Show and is a member of orchesis.

Her other activities include dramatics, National Forensics League, Student Council, executive board, and a calendar girl.

Peg Amon, sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Amon, 707 Glendale Lane, Mount Prospect. Peg is a junior varsity cheerleader and served on Student Council and class board her freshman year.

Tena Guritz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Guritz, 545 Verde Lane, Elk Grove Village, was the freshman attendant. Tena is a Student Council member and also a cheerleader. She is captain of the freshman cheerleading squad.

AROUND 300 couples attended the "Sleigh Ride to the Stars." The dance was sponsored by the senior class.

The president of the class, Jim Moroni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reno Moroni, 509 Oak St., Elk Grove Village, commented, "I think everyone who attended the Christmas Ball agreed that the dance was a big success and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves."

Sponsors for the senior class, Mr. Floyd Hillman and Mrs. Virginia Kercheval, felt that the dance was a huge success and the decorations were well done.

Class Slated In Appraisal

Applications for enrollment are now being accepted for the Real Estate Appraisal II course, sponsored jointly by the Chicago Real Estate Board and the Illinois Chapter of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

The course will be presented Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning Tuesday, Feb. 1, and concluding on April 7, with examinations scheduled for April 14 and 16. Sessions will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. at First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Chicago, Dearborn and Madison Streets.

THE COURSE is similar to those taught at universities on a full-time basis, strictly case-studies dealing with the essential appraising procedures regarding specific types of properties. Successful completion of Appraisal II gives credit toward M.A.I. designation.

For additional information, contact CREB headquarters, CE 6-4688.

New Copier By Bruning

A new diazo copier capable of producing copies at a rate of over 30 per minute has been announced by the Charles Bruning Co., Mount Prospect.

The automated Bruning 255 is a close kin to an earlier Bruning machine, the 250, except that it adds high speed and automated feed. Bruning is a division of Addressograph Multigraph Corp.

THE BRUNING 255 produces multiple copies of letter-size originals or small engineering drawings. It has a maximum mechanical speed of 50 feet per minute. In production, the original is placed in a plastic carrier and fed into the machine, a dial is set for the number of copies desired—from one to 80— and the automatic feed button is pressed. After that, there is no need to re-feed the original into

Airline Asks Youth Fare Plan

American Airlines has announced that it has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to approve a youth fare plan which would allow 33 million young Americans to travel for half the regular fare.

The plan would give those in the 12 through 21 age group a 50 per cent discount on all of the airline's flights that have space available at departure time. If approved by the C.A.B. it will go into effect on Jan. 27.

Together with the fare discounts for family travel and the half-fare standby plan for military passengers, the new plan would enable 128 million Americans — 67 per cent of the total U.S. population — to travel by air at reduced rates. (TR

By JUDY ARNOLD

Senior Kay Hester reignel as queen over Forest View High School's annual Christmas Ball, "Sleigh Ride to the Stars," on December 18.

Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hester, 2803 Fremont, Rolling Meadows. The dance was held in the boy's gym from 9 p.m. until midnight.

Kay's activities throughout high school include Student Council, choir, girls' leaders physical education, secretary-treasurer of the senior class, over-all chairman this year of the Variety Show and a member of the 1965 homecoming court.

Kay was also in charge of decorations for the Christmas Ball and for the prom last spring. Presently she is also a member of the folk club, the Spanish club, Pep Club, and class board.

KAY SAID, "It was such a neat feeling and I just could not believe it really happened. It was a truly great honor."

Each class elected an attendant to Queen Kay: Alicia Salazar represented the senior class; Terrie Hysell was the junior attendant; Peg Amon, the sophomore delegate; and Tena Guritz, the freshman participant.

Alicia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Salazar, 3718 Bluebird, Rolling Meadows. Alicia hal been a member of Student Council for three years and is presently chairman of the elections committee.

She is also a member of girls' leaders physical education, of the folk song club, of French club, and of the pep club. She was a calendar girl for the 1963-64 school year.

TERRIE HYSELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hysell, 800 S. William, Mount Prospect, was the junior representative. Terrie was the director of this year's Variety Show and is a member of orchesis.

Her other activities include dramatics, National Forensics League, Student Council, executive board, and a calendar girl.

Peg Amon, sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Amon, 707 Glendale Lane, Mount Prospect. Peg is a junior varsity cheerleader and served on Student Council and class board her freshman year.

Tena Guritz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Guritz, 545 Verde Lane, Elk Grove Village, was the freshman attendant. Tena is a Student Council member and also a cheerleader. She is captain of the freshman cheerleading squad.

AROUND 300 couples attended the "Sleigh Ride to the Stars." The dance was sponsored by the senior class.

The president of the class, Jim Moroni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reno Moroni, 509 Oak St., Elk Grove Village, commented, "I think everyone who attended the Christmas Ball agreed that the dance was a big success and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves."

Sponsors for the senior class, Mr. Floyd Hillman and Mrs. Virginia Kercheval, felt that the dance was a huge success and the decorations were well done.

Airline Asks Youth Fare Plan

American Airlines has announced that it has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to approve a youth fare plan which would allow 33 million young Americans to travel for half the regular fare.

The plan would give those in the 12 through 21 age group a 50 per cent discount on all of the airline's flights that have space available at departure time. If approved by the C.A.B. it will go into effect on Jan. 27.

Together with the fare discounts for family travel and the half-fare standby plan for military passengers, the new plan would enable 128 million Americans — 67 per cent of the total U.S. population — to travel by air at reduced rates. (TR

Moehling Has Sharp Round . . .

ED MOEHLING

Ed Moehling, a former golf standout at Arlington High and Northern Illinois University and now teaching pro at Glenview Country Club in Golf, Ill., had one of those fantastic rounds recently that every golfer dreams about.

Moehling, a lanky 25-year-old, carded a brilliant 60 for 18 holes with a 29 back nine in the annual Scottsdale, Ariz., Country Club Roadrunner pro-amateur.

Moehling appeared out of contention for the individual title until he came up with his superb round in the concluding activity of the 72-hole event.

Ed played the back nine first for 29 and he came home in 31 for his 10-under-par 60 over the 6,015 yard course. Moehling's 60 put him in a first place tie with Bill Ogden of Chicago's North Shore Country Club.

Moehling and Ogden parred the first two holes of the playoff to stay even. On the 355-yard third, Ed's wedge approach was to the right fringe, but Ogden, trying to get close for a winning birdie, hit a sand wedge shot over the green.

Moehling chipped close for his par and Ogden, after his pitch went past, missed the putt. The victory was worth $1,000 for Moehling, who has been a frequent winter tour player.

That 29 back nine deserves special mention. It's a par 35, 3,024 yards, and Moehling fashioned an eagle three on the par five 464-yard 12th (only four inches from a two) and four birdies. He had three birds on the first nine and needed 25 putts altogether with his chips saving pars on the three greens he missed.

Prospect High grad George Freeland, a freshman at Yankton College in South Dakota, topped the field at 145 pounds in the recent University of South Dakota Invitational wrestling tournament. Freeland was unbeaten for the season on a varsity level at the last report.

Holiday Play Can Deceive . . .

Do the holiday basketball tournaments serve as an accurate gauge of the top schoolboy teams in Illinois, the quintets most likely to succeed by "March Madness" time?

Basketball buffs certainly will have a better idea on the class of some teams in Illinois by the time the tournaments conclude this week, but success in December doesn't insure success in March.

Not one of the Elite Eight finalists in the 1964-65 hardwood campaign won a holiday basketball tournament. Collinsville, the state champion, lost in the title tussle at East St. Louis in December, and that was the last setback of the season for the powerful Kahoks.

Quincy finished second in the state last March but fell in the second round to Mt. Vernon in the Centralia holiday tournament. Marshall's Commandoes, third place squad in the Illinois finals, were belted by 21 points by Crane Tech in the Chicago Public League holiday meet.

Thornton finished fourth in Illinois but only third in the Centralia holiday tournament.

That Centralia tourney is generally regarded as the strongest holiday attraction in Illinois, but only once in 22 years has the Centralia champion gone on to capture the state title.

Coach Dolph Stanley's powerful Taylorville team won the Centralia tourney in 1943 and went on to become the first school in state tournament history to post an unbeaten record (45-0).

In checking over the results of eleven 1964 holiday tournaments we found that the eleven champions failed to show up in Champaign at state tourney time in March.

East St. Louis whipped Collinsville in the East St. Louis holiday tourney but couldn't make it out of the regional in March.

Freeport won the DeKalb holiday tourney with a 49-37 conquest of host DeKalb, and the Pretzels did reach super-sectional status before falling to Moline by 17 points.

Proviso East belted Morton East, 62-50, for the championship of the Proviso West holiday tourney, and Tom Milliken's Pirates advanced to the sectional title game before falling to Thornton by three points.

DeLaSalle whipped St. Patrick for the Chicagoland Prep League tourney crown, and both clubs advanced to sectional action but failed to gain Elite Eight berths. DeLaSalle lost its first sectional outing to Proviso East, 72-64, and St. Pat's whipped Arlington before bowing to New Trier.

Prospect toppled Wheaton Central for the Joliet tourney title and Forest View won the Fenton meet, but these two District 214 entries didn't survive regional firing.

Peoria Central knocked off Arlington 51-43 for the Kankakee holiday title, and Central was ousted from the state series in the regional firing.

Centralia won its own holiday tournament with a 30-point victory over Mt. Vernon but lost to Marion by 14 points in a sectional game. Danville topped the Danville holiday tourney in 1964 and reached super-sectional play before falling to Decatur.

Jacksonville topped the 16-team Carbondale Christmas tourney and also reached super-sectional play before putting the uniforms away for the year.

One of the most shocking turnabouts involved Pekin, the 1963-64 state champion, and Lockport Central. Pekin blasted Lockport, 71-44, for the Pontiac holiday tourney title last winter, but three months later Lockport shaded Pekin by six points for the super-sectional crown.

Eleven holiday tournaments and eleven champs . . . and not one titlist made the trip to Champaign in March for the state finals.

Maybe there will be a different story to report this year.

Happy New Year

May we take this opportunity to wish everyone a happy and prosperous New Year. For the many coaches and athletes in the Paddock Publications circulation area, we can only hope that 1966 is a year filled with success in all endeavors.

We want to thank everyone for their cooperation in helping Paddock Publications bring to the public each week a complete sports picture. Our papers are unique in their thorough coverage of high school sports.

We need help to maintain this high level of coverage, and we've always received excellent cooperation from the schools involved — administrators, coaches, and the athletes themselves.

Thanks.

Homewood's Hot Shooting Prevails

Cards Are Vanquished 64-47 In Kankakee Tourney Action

One of the inevitables of basketball is this: mix a good performance with a bad performance and you will assuredly get a one-sided result.

Ted Wissen, whose Arlington Cardinals were the Vikings' opposition, thought his hopefuls had one of their poorest efforts.

The result: a 64-47 Homewood victory, and a trip into the losers' bracket at Kankakee for Arlington, the team that ended second at Kankakee a year ago. The Cards were to play again yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon against the loser of Monday's clash between Kankakee and University High of Normal.

HOMEWOOD, which upped its season standard to 6-3 with the win, cashed in on hot shooting—especially a torrid first quarter—to stroll to the win.

In that first quarter, when the Vikings burst to a 21-6 lead, they cashed in on 10 of 14 shots from the floor. Arlington, in the same stretch, could convert only two of 14 shots into points. For the game, the breakdowns were similar. Homewood hit 29 of 61, a .475 mark, while Arlington was 15 for 60 in field goal accuracy, a .250 achievement.

That slick shooting, combined with quick Homewood play and early dominance of the rebounding by the victors, dictated the result. The Cards, though they cut the margin to 10 during period two, were never in close contention.

THE ONE AREA where Arlington did profit was at the free throw line. The Cardinals took considerable advantage of 17 HF fouls, getting 17 one-pointers from them, while missing nine. The Vikings were six for 13.

Balanced scoring was a special feature of both clubs, but Homewood had much the better of it. Tops for the game was the Vikings' 6-4 senior center Mike Lockhart, who hit eight shots from the floor and added a free throw for 17 points. Junior forward Steve Niems, the team's scoring leader going into the game, added 13, while Rick Harbeck had 12.

For Arlington — whose record dipped to 5-3 — the best was Bruce Hubbard with 10 points.

'Cat Quintet Beaten By Ridgewood 61-51

by Michael Hess

A mirage can be just as torturous on a basketball court as it is on a desert.

Wheeling cagers had a vision of victory on Monday. That image was rudely snatched away however, and the 'Cats fell to Ridgewood 61-51.

After one quarter the forces of coach Mike Owens were ahead of the Rebels 16-11. Midway in period two the Wildcats were on top 21-12 and were still in front at the half 26-25.

A faint glimmer of hope remained entering the final eight minutes of play. Wheeling trailed by just two, at 40-38. Then the roof gave way, the mirage cruelly vanished and Ridgewood won going away.

What must have made the defeat especially galling was that it came in tournament action. That 'Cats-Rebels contest opened Fenton's 1965 Holiday Tournament.

WHEELING REMAINS alive in the tourney, going into the consolation bracket and met a host Bisons aggregation last night (Tuesday), too late to make this edition. The winner of last night's battle will play next, tomorrow (Thursday) at 6 p.m.

Against Ridgewood, no one could blame the 'Cats for grabbing at even the ghost of triumph. Thus far in this campaign headman Owens' squad has managed only a 1-7 record and finding win number two has proven to be quite a chore.

Regardless of past performances however, Wheeling turned in a creditable showing against the Rebels.

That initial quarter Wildcats advantage was built on scoring done mainly by Scott Bischoff and Tom Neuckranz. Bischoff threw in eight and Neuckranz four of their teams points to open 7-2, 11-4 and the period closing 16-11 margins.

Ridgewood had been kept in the game on six points from Churck Fabian. In quarter two though the entire Rebels band got into the act to gradually close the gap to one point at intermission.

Forest View Advances In Cage Action at Danville

by Michael Hess

Supply and demand was the cage technique used by Forest View. . . . It worked!

FV's quintet won the opening game of Danville's holiday basketball tournament on Monday. The Falcons topped Naperville 54-48.

What method the charges of coach Ken Arneson used next isn't known. . . . Perhaps it worked and perhaps it didn't!

Forest View was to meet Tinley Park yesterday (Tuesday) for its following tourney contest. Results from that battle can't be reported here due to an early deadline.

If the Falcons have whipped TP their next game will be today (Wednesday) at 10:15 a.m. Losing that game would put FV in third place competition at 6:30. A win this morning advances Forest View to championship endeavors tonight at 8:15.

ANY SUCH speculation becomes meaningless of course if Tinley flattened the Falcons. But, back to supply and demand.

The showing of FV against Naperville wasn't good but it wasn't really bad either. Headman Arneson's forces played well enough but only well enough to win. Nothing Forest View did was brilliant or totally bumbling.

Falcons players produced on offense and defense only as much as was required by the demands of Naperville's defense or offense, no more, no less. When the Redskins scored FV put out enough to slow them down and when the Redskins pressed FV put out enough to gain some points. Forest View supplied just enough talent and met just enough demands to gain triumph.

Prime example of this method of play was the Falcons forward Pat Dunnigan. He was the game's high producer with 19 points and he put his squad back in front after FV had trailed for almost three quarters. However, Dunnigan was guilty of numerous violations and "blew" many easy shots.

The battle opened with each quintet working slowly. Forest View led 4-2 on points by Dunnigan and Byron Borgardt and then 8-4 on two baskets by center Jim Baumgardt. Baumgardt was back in action following a lengthy sideline stay due to injuries.

NAPERVILLE began a rally midway through period one, was on top 12-11 when the quarter ended, and continued to race in front during the next eight minutes. With only three minutes left in the half the Redskins had established a 21-13 margin.

Pacing those go-ahead efforts were Terry Stunden and Gary Winrow. Those two had accounted for 13 of their team's points when the eight point advantage was on the score boards.

Then Forest View began to meet the demands. Jim Buckholz made a lay-up, Dunnigan a short jumper, Steve Mueller a six footer and Buckholz a push from 20 feet. At the intermission the totals were closer, 24-21.

Prospect's basketball team played its first game in the holiday tournament at Pontiac yesterday (Tuesday) morning. Due to an early press deadline, results of that game vs. Granite City cannot be reported at this time.

Schedule of games for the Pontiac tourney called for the Knights quintet to play their second game at either 9 a.m. or 2:30 p.m. today (Wednesday). Opponent in the second game will be either Bloomington or LaSalle Peru.

For results of all Prospect holiday tournament cage contests phone Paddock's sports bulletin service. For complete details of all games consult next week's (Jan. 6) Paddock sports section.

Unbeaten St. Joseph Tops St. Viator Five

One period, one horrendous period, gave Larry Nomellini nightmares Monday evening.

Nomellini's St. Viator Lions, struggling to knock off an unbeaten St. Joseph quintet, fell victim to a second period Charger blitz and suffered a 69-63 setback in the Chicagoland Prep League holiday tourney.

The fans were treated to an interesting tussle for three of the four quarters as St. Viator and St. Joseph tangled for the second time in the young season.

THE HOST chargers, now riding along with a handsome 7-0 record, delivered the knockout punch in the second period with a comfortable 25-9 bulge, and St. Viator was fighting from behind the rest of the way.

Nomellini's outfit caught fire again in the second half thanks to some deadly shooting by junior guard Frank Hogan, but fouls shelved 6-4 Paul Dumke and 6-7 Paul Pomplun to make things easy for St. Joseph.

Pomplun left first in the fourth quarter and Dumke soon followed to take away the Lions' main rebounding strength.

ST. JOSEPH, a 68-52 conqueror of St. Viator earlier in the season, shot off to an 11-2 lead in the opening period Monday before the Lions made some noise.

Everyone got into the act as St. Viator gained a 15-15 tie at the break, but the Lions couldn't buy a basket in the second quarter and the Chargers, sparked by 5-9 John Vosicky and 6-4 Tom Miller, coasted to a 40-24 bluge at the intermission.

Hogan started to warm up in points, showing a hot hand on his 15-20 foot jumpers, and the Lions moved to within eight, 49-41, with only eight minutes remaining.

Hogan continued to fire in the points in the concluding stanza as the Lions caught up with the hosts, then fell behind again with the loss of the two big men.

Hogan was high for the game with 24 points, 18 in the final half. Miller collected 20 for St. Joseph.

ST. VIATOR was slated to meet St. Mel last night (Tuesday) for consolation honors at St. Joseph. The Chargers and St. Francis of Wheaton, a 76-67 winner over St. Mel in the first game Monday, battled for the tourney crown.

The winner of the St. Joseph tourney advanced into the finals at St. Patrick High School.

Falcon Five Win First Tourney Game

KICKIN' IT AROUND

BOB FRISK

Moehling Has Sharp Round . . .

Ed Moehling, a former golf standout at Arlington High and Northern Illinois University and now teaching pro at Glenview Country Club in Golf, Ill., had one of those fantastic rounds recently that every golfer dreams about.

Moehling, a lanky 25-year-old, carded a brilliant 60 for 18 holes with a 29 back nine in the annual Scottsdale, Ariz., Country Club Roadrunner pro-amateur.

Moehling appeared out of contention for the individual title until he came up with his superb round in the concluding activity of the 72-hole event.

Ed played the back nine first for 29 and he came home in 31 for his 10-under-par 60 over the 6,015 yard course. Moehling's 60 put him in a first place tie with Bill Ogden of Chicago's North Shore Country Club.

Moehling and Ogden parred the first two holes of the playoff to stay even. On the 355-yard third, Ed's wedge approach was to the right fringe, but Ogden, trying to get close for a winning birdie, hit a sand wedge shot over the green.

Moehling chipped close for his par and Ogden, after his pitch went past, missed the putt. The victory was worth $1,000 for Moehling, who has been a frequent winter tour player.

That 29 back nine deserves special mention. It's a par 35, 3,024 yards, and Moehling fashioned an eagle three on the par five 464-yard 12th (only four inches from a two) and four birdies. He had three birds on the first nine and needed 25 putts altogether with his chips saving pars on the three greens he missed.

ED MOEHLING

Prospect High grad George Freeland, a freshman at Yankton College in South Dakota, topped the field at 145 pounds in the recent University of South Dakota Invitational wrestling tournament. Freeland was unbeaten for the season on a varsity level at the last report.

Holiday Play Can Deceive . . .

Do the holiday basketball tournaments serve as an accurate gauge of the top schoolboy teams in Illinois, the quintets most likely to succeed by "March Madness" time?

Basketball buffs certainly will have a better idea on the class of some teams in Illinois by the time the tournaments conclude this week, but success in December doesn't insure success in March.

Not one of the Elite Eight finalists in the 1964-65 hardwood campaign won a holiday basketball tournament. Collinsville, the state champion, lost in the title tussle at East St. Louis in December, and that was the last setback of the season for the powerful Kahoks.

Quincy finished second in the state last March but fell in the second round to Mt. Vernon in the Centralia holiday tournament. Marshall's Commandoes, third place squad in the Illinois finals, were belted by 21 points by Crane Tech in the Chicago Public League holiday meet.

Thornton finished fourth in Illinois but only third in the Centralia holiday tournament.

That Centralia tourney is generally regarded as the strongest holiday attraction in Illinois, but only once in 22 years has the Centralia champion gone on to capture the state title.

Coach Dolph Stanley's powerful Taylorville team won the Centralia tourney in 1943 and went on to become the first school in state tournament history to post an unbeaten record (45-0).

In checking over the results of eleven 1964 holiday tournaments we found that the eleven champions failed to show up in Champaign at state tourney time in March.

East St. Louis whipped Collinsville in the East St. Louis holiday tourney but couldn't make it out of the regional in March.

Freeport won the DeKalb holiday tourney with a 49-37 conquest of host DeKalb, and the Pretzels did reach super-sectional status before falling to Moline by 17 points.

Proviso East belted Morton East, 62-50, for the championship of the Proviso West holiday tourney, and Tom Milliken's Pirates advanced to the sectional title game before falling to Thornton by three points.

DeLaSalle whipped St. Patrick for the Chicagoland Prep League tourney crown, and both clubs advanced to sectional action but failed to gain Elite Eight berths. DeLaSalle lost its first sectional outing to Proviso East, 72-64, and St. Pat's whipped Arlington before bowing to New Trier.

Prospect toppled Wheaton Central for the Joliet tourney title and Forest View won the Fenton meet, but these two District 214 entries didn't survive regional firing.

Peoria Central knocked off Arlington 51-43 for the Kankakee holiday title, and Central was ousted from the state series in the regional firing.

Centralia won its own holiday tournament with a 30-point victory over Mt. Vernon but lost to Marion by 14 points in a sectional game. Danville topped the Danville holiday tourney in 1964 and reached super-sectional play before falling to Decatur.

Jacksonville topped the 16-team Carbondale Christmas tourney and also reached super-sectional play before putting the uniforms away for the year.

One of the most shocking turnabouts involved Pekin, the 1963-64 state champion, and Lockport Central. Pekin blasted Lockport, 71-44, for the Pontiac holiday tourney title last winter, but three months later Lockport shaded Pekin by six points for the super-sectional crown.

Eleven holiday tournaments and eleven champs . . . and not one titlist made the trip to Champaign in March for the state finals.

Maybe there will be a different story to report this year.

Happy New Year

May we take this opportunity to wish everyone a happy and prosperous New Year. For the many coaches and athletes in the Paddock Publications circulation area, we can only hope that 1966 is a year filled with success in all endeavors.

We want to thank everyone for their cooperation in helping Paddock Publications bring to the public each week a complete sports picture. Our papers are unique in their thorough coverage of high school sports.

We need help to maintain this high level of coverage, and we've always received excellent cooperation from the schools involved — administrators, coaches, and the athletes themselves.

Thanks.

Homewood's Hot Shooting Prevails

Cards Are Vanquished 64-47 In Kankakee Tourney Action

One of the inevitables of basketball is this: mix a good performance with a bad performance and you will assuredly get a one-sided result.

Ted Wissen, whose Arlington Cardinals were the Vikings' opposition, thought his hopefuls had one of their poorest efforts.

The result: a 64-47 Homewood victory, and a trip into the losers' bracket at Kankakee for Arlington, the team that ended second at Kankakee a year ago. The Cards were to play again yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon against the loser of Monday's clash between Kankakee and University High of Normal.

HOMEWOOD, which upped its season standard to 6-3 with the win, cashed in on hot shooting—especially a torrid first quarter—to stroll to the win.

In that first quarter, when the Vikings burst to a 21-6 lead, they cashed in on 10 of 14 shots from the floor. Arlington, in the same stretch, could convert only two of 14 shots into points. For the game, the breakdowns were similar. Homewood hit 29 of 61, a .475 mark, while Arlington was 15 for 60 in field goal accuracy, a .250 achievement.

That slick shooting, combined with quick Homewood play and early dominance of the rebounding by the victors, dictated the result. The Cards, though they cut the margin to 10 during period two, were never in close contention.

THE ONE AREA where Arlington did profit was at the free throw line. The Cardinals took considerable advantage of 17 HF fouls, getting 17 one-pointers from them, while missing nine. The Vikings were six for 13.

Balanced scoring was a special feature of both clubs, but Homewood had much the better of it. Tops for the game was the Vikings' 6-4 senior center Mike Lockhart, who hit eight shots from the floor and added a free throw for 17 points. Junior forward Steve Niems, the team's scoring leader going into the game, added 13, while Rick Harbeck had 12.

For Arlington — whose record dipped to 5-3 — the best was Bruce Hubbard with 10 points.

'Cat Quintet Beaten By Ridgewood 61-51

by Michael Hess

A mirage can be just as torturous on a basketball court as it is on a desert.

Wheeling cagers had a vision of victory on Monday. That image was rudely snatched away however, and the 'Cats fell to Ridgewood 61-51.

After one quarter the forces of coach Mike Owens were ahead of the Rebels 16-11. Midway in period two the Wildcats were on top 21-12 and were still in front at the half 26-25.

A faint glimmer of hope remained entering the final eight minutes of play. Wheeling trailed by just two, at 40-38. Then the roof gave way, the mirage cruelly vanished and Ridgewood won going away.

What must have made the defeat especially galling was that it came in tournament action. That 'Cats-Rebels contest opened Fenton's 1965 Holiday Tournament.

WHEELING REMAINS alive in the tourney, going into the consolation bracket and met a host Bisons aggregation last night (Tuesday), too late to make this edition. The winner of last night's battle will play next, tomorrow (Thursday) at 6 p.m.

Against Ridgewood, no one could blame the 'Cats for grabbing at even the ghost of triumph. Thus far in this campaign headman Owens' squad has managed only a 1-7 record and finding win number two has proven to be quite a chore.

Regardless of past performances however, Wheeling turned in a creditable showing against the Rebels.

That initial quarter Wildcats advantage was built on scoring done mainly by Scott Bischoff and Tom Neuckranz. Bischoff threw in eight and Neuckranz four of their teams points to open 7-2, 11-4 and the period closing 16-11 margins.

Ridgewood had been kept in the game on six points from Churck Fabian. In quarter two though the entire Rebels band got into the act to gradually close the gap to one point at intermission.

Braves Belt Bisons In Fenton Tourney

The top-ranked team in the Fenton Holiday Tournament, the Braves of Bremen, ran into a big scare from the hosts Monday night, but absorbed it to win going away.

For Fenton, it was a case of early prosperity not lasting, and the Bisons fell 68-49 to the Southwest Suburban Conference entrant.

The action is the eight-team tourney put Fenton into the losers' bracket and moved Bremen to the semi-finals. The Bisons were to play again last night (Tuesday) against Wheeling, loser of Monday night's other first round game. Last night's action also saw clashes between Elmwood Park and Lake Zurich, and Conant and Lake Park.

Fenton, behind the sharp shooting of Corky Kero and Ken Schulze, ruled first quarter play against Bremen, and didn't actually fall behind until midway through the second period. The Bisons worked through a Bremen zone defense for 19 points and a three-point quarter lead.

But the Braves switched their tactics to man-to-man play in the next period, and it began to tell. Before that stanza was over, the victors had outscored the vanquished 16-6, and had run up a 32-25 halftime lead.

FENTON STAYED in reach in the third quarter, totaling 15 to Bremen's 16 points, and keeping the margin to eight. But in period four, it was a difference of 20-9 and a waltz to the finish for Jack Renfro's five.

The big moment for Phil Hardy's Bisons ended up being that first quarter. Kero hit for seven points before it was over, and he got only six more all night. Schulze, high man for the Bisons, totaled five of his 15 in stanza one.

Bremen's output was almost a one-man show, with Wayne Mercier getting 12 points in the period. He was high for the night with 26 points, but that total — and his first period outburst — weren't the essential differences in the game.

PART OF THE outcome was dictated by that switch to a man-to-man defense, which cut Fenton's output to a half-dozen points after the big start. Part of it was the play of Bremen reserve quards Woerhyde and Jennings, who came on in the second quarter to spark the winner's offensive surge. And part of it was Fenton's inability to cash in at the free throw line.

The Bisons took 27 free throws and made only 13 of them, a percentage of less than .500. It was the more painful because in several instances Hardy's boys failed to take advantage of bonus situations.

Those factors all combined in determing the final result, and though the Bisons made another valiant rush in the third quarter, Bremen just pulled away as the end neared.

Knight JV Five Nips Cards

Prospect's jayvee Knights edged Arlington High School last week, 56-54, handing the Cardinals their first loss of the season.

The winners recorded the decisive basket in the final minute of play in what was a tight contest throughout.

Arlington held a 33-32 lead at halftime thanks to a basket at the buzzer and increased the advantage by one point with a 13-12 third quarter.

Mike Anderson was high for the Knights with five baskets and seven free throws for 17 points. Tom Grafton threw in 14, nine in the last half, and Mike Mueller collected 11.

Jim Bressler topped the losers with 17 points, collecting 15 in the first half. Doug Fink and George Bergstrom tossed in eight each.

Split to Wildcats Freshmen Fives

One went under .500 and the other went further ahead for the season — that was the tale of last week for Wheeling freshman cagers.

The 'Cats frosh A quintet fell before Maine South 57-52 on December 18. That set their record under coach Paul Grady at 2-3.

A 38-35 margin spelled victory for the Wildcats B group against MS. Their campaign mark rose to 4-1 for director Jerry Grier.

IN THE A game Wheeling was ahead 30-29 at the half and 48-47 after three quarters. However a 10-4 deficit in the final period brought the loss. High men for the 'Cats were Jay Lesniak and Carl Friche with 13 points apiece.

Mike Mitchell and Ken St. Onge paced the B's to their triumph. Mitchell made 13 and St. Onge 11 points. "Joe Whittington also played a very good all-around game," commented headman Grier.

Falcons' Frosh Drop Cage Pair

It was a sad day for Forest View's freshman cagers. The day was last Monday (Dec. 20) and they lost two games to Wheaton Central.

FV's frosh A quintet fell 55-36. The Falcons were down 10-4 after one quarter, came back to a 29-28 lead after three quarters but only scored seven points in the final period and were defeated.

BEST POINT producers for Forest View A freshmen were Kevin Grismer, with 15 points, and John Calvello, with 12 points. A 5-3 mark is now owned by coach Al Kintzle's A unit.

On the B level the Falcons' setback came by a 39-36 margin. Headman Fred Empkie's squad is now 3-3 for the season.

Wheeling's Soph Cagers Defeated

Deficits in the first and last quarters caused defeat for Wheeling's soph cagers last week. They fell before Maine South 67-55.

MS ran to a 24-18 lead going into period two of the contest. The 'Cats moved to within three, at 31-28, at the half but were back by six again, at 44-38, after quarter three. Maine outscored Wheeling 23-17 in period four to wrap up the triumph.

Pacing the losers were Robin Melzer and Phil Smith. Melzer hit seven field goals and four foul shots for 18 points. Four goals and five at the charity stripe gave Smith 13 points. Melzer now owns a 15 point per game average while Smith has hit for 12.5 each time out.

Men's Cage Loop Opens

The Addison Men's Basketball League opens official league play on Thursday evening, January 6, at Indian Trail Junior High School.

Art Petersen, Addison Recreation Director who is in charge of the program, announced today that a total of six teams have organized and will play in the league.

A total of 10 league games will be played by each team with the first games scheduled for Thursday evening and league play ending on March 10. A tournament will also be held March 17, and 24, for the six teams in the league.

All six teams will play every Thursday night as three games are scheduled.

APPROXIMATELY 60 men are now registered in the six team league. At the last organizational meeting managers received team rosters which must be completed and turned in no later than Wednesday, January 5, in the office of the Recreation Director.

Managers are again reminded that all players on their roster must be residents of Addison. Players who are not residents of Addison cannot play in this league. An entry fee of $5.00 was decided on by the players in the program. This entry fee must be paid on or before league play begins. It was also decided to have two referees officiating all league games.

All players in the program are reminded that they must wear tennis shoes when practicing or playing games. No street shoes of any type will be allowed on the gymnasium floor. Shower facilities will be made available to players in the program, however, they must bring along their own towel and soap.

THE BASKETBALL program is being sponsored by the Addison Recreation Department in cooperation with the Addison Public Schools.

Due to the scheduling of three games every Thursday evening, time will be a vital factor in completing all games scheduled. Players are asked to be at the gymnasium and ready to play 10 minutes before game time. A 15 minute forfeit time limit will be in effect at all games during the year.

Record Crowds

While Illinois gridders rewrote the record book during the 1965 season, the team established new records for attendance. At home, Illini drew 297,841, in six games, breaking the old mark of 291,070 established in 1949. For the year, Coach Pete Elliott's club played before 549,330, beating the former regular-season mark of 521,566.

Johannesen Sparks Cards Past Wheeling

Arlington's varsity gymnasts remained unbeaten against Paddock area competition for the 1965-66 season by rolling over Wheeling last Thursday evening, 87-45.

Coach Tom Walthouse's Cardinals, who already own wins over Palatine and Prospect in dual meets, collected six firsts en route to their fourth straight dual success of the campaign.

Senior Jim Johannesen turned in another impressive performance for the winners, racking up 21 points with firsts on the high bar, parallel bars, and in tumbling.

Johannesen flashed a 156 routine on the high bar with cards of 76-80 and had a 167 on the parallel bars. He earned ratings of 82-85 in winning the latter event.

Johannesen completed a successful evening with a 133 routine in tumbling.

Arlington picked up three other firsts thanks to Tom Riesing on the trampoline, Henry Taylor on the side horse, and Doug Dattilo on the still rings.

Riesing earned 74-76 rankings for his work on the tramp, and Taylor had a 132 (69-63) on the side horse. Dattilo posted a 77-79 for a 156 on the rings.

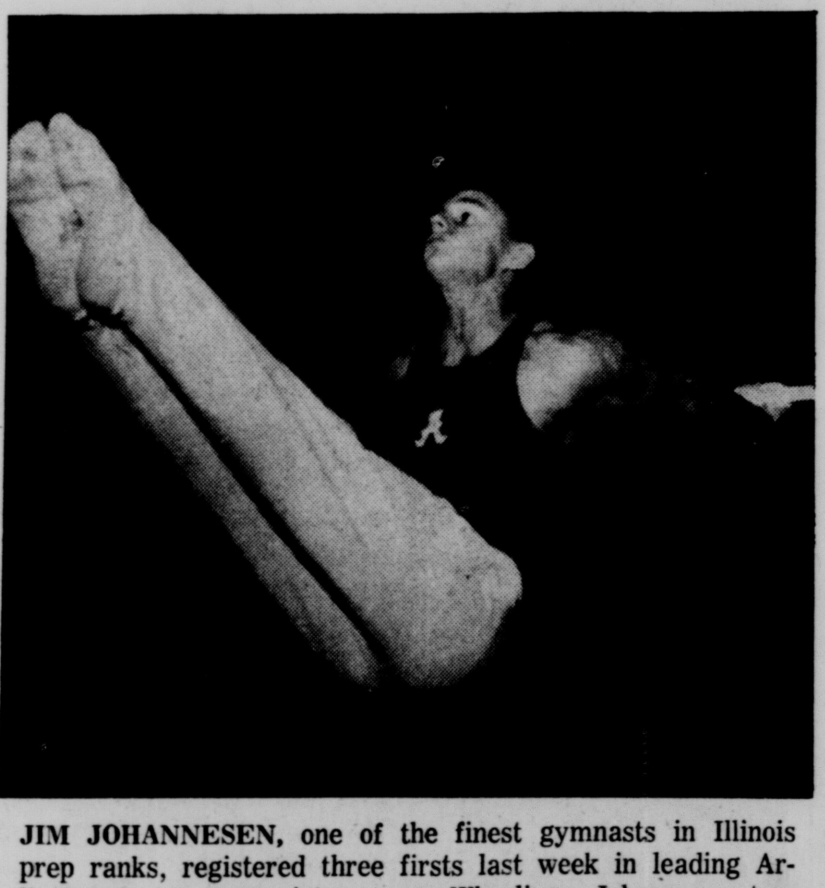
The Cardinals swept the top three slots on the trampoline and side horse.

Rick Atwater and Bob Weber followed Riesing on the trampoline with Sam Cullison and Steve Vaen backing Taylor on the side horse.

Other Cards picking up seconds were Bert Schmitt on the high bar and parallel bars and Roy Rettburg on the still rings.

Jerry Fontecchio landed the highest position for Wheeling with a second in his specialty, tumbling. Jerry had a 126 routine to finish seven points behind Arlington's Johannesen.

Collecting thirds for Wheeling were Jim Rainer on the high bar, Mike Bangs on the parallel bar, Lonny Davis on the still rings, and Richard Dyson in tumbling.



JIM JOHANNESEN, one of the finest gymnasts in Illinois prep ranks, registered three firsts last week in leading Arlington to an 87-45 victory over Wheeling. Johannesen topped the parallel bars, high bar, and tumbling events in scoring 21 of the Cardinal points. (Photo by Larry Dale)

Card Wrestlers Top 'Cat Varsity, 25-15

Strength in the heavier weights gave Arlington High School the points it needed last Thursday afternoon to pull out a 25-15 victory over Wheeling in varsity wrestling.

The Cardinals trailed 12-5 after five bouts but rallied to register five decisions and a pin in the next seven matches for the team victory.

The win was Arlington's first since a 32-8 conquest of Palatine and second of the season in dual meets. Wheeling now stands 2-4.

Arlington's Jim Whitnell pinned the Wildcats' Chuck Nute in 2:40 at 95 pounds to put the Cards on the board first, but Wheeling bounced back with four straight wins.

RAY WEIDNER of Wheeling decisioned Arlington's Jay McDonnell, 8-4, at 103 pounds, and Ken Brown gave the 'Cats a 6-5 lead with a 5-2 conquest of Ray Smith at 112. Brown scored five first period points with a takelown and near-fall.

Karl Meisenheimer gave Wheeling three more points with an effortless 18-5 victory at 120 pounds, scoring two near-falls, three predicaments, and three reversals.

It was 12-5 Wheeling after Al Eisenstein whipped Arlington's Mike Mills 4-0 at 127, posting a first period takedown and third period reversal.

THAT'S WHEN Arlington made its move with Chip Douglas, Dave Gooding, Kirk Wolter, Don Lindmark, and Mike Jones posting victories to push the Cards into a 22-12 lead.

Douglas got it started with a 12-1 win at 133 pounds, putting the decision out of reach with six points in the final period. Gooding remained unbeaten for the season at 138 as he flattened his opponent in 5:42 after building up a 4-2 advantage.

Wolter pushed the Cardinals into a 16-12 lead with an 11-1 decision at 145, and Lindmark added three more points with a 4-1 conquest of Rich Haddock at 154. A first period takedown and second period reversal set up Lindmark's victory.

Jones assured Arlington of at least a tie when he whipped Paul Berwanger 3-2 at 165, scoring with a third period escape and takedown.

Wheeling snapped its string of losses with a 4-2 triumph by Ted Armstrong at 180 pounds. Armstrong got the decision from Bruce Weber with a third period reversal.

FV's Sophs Tip Wheaton Quintet 39-37

Charity stripe efforts gave Forest View sophomores a 39-37 basketball triumph over Wheaton Central last Monday (Dec. 20).

For the game FV was on the short end of a 14-9 margin in field goals. However, the Falcons hit on 21 foul shots to just five for WC and that decided the outcome.

FOREST VIEW'S sophs were down by nine in the opening quarter but fought back to take a two point lead at half. The charges of coach Rog Steingraber fell behind by two after three quarters but again came back and won by a pair.

High scorer for the victorious Falcons was Mike Messer. He had 14 points and also grabbed four rebounds. Backing him up was John Wester with 13 points and eight rebounds. "Messer did an excellent job on defense," said headman Steingraber, "and Wester played his best game to date."

The FV sophomores have now won two straight and own a 4-3 record for the season. Next game for the Falcons will be Jan. 8 when they host Maine South.

punch to set the score at 37-35 when closing play began.

Beginning the last quarter Stunden put in a bucket and Buckholz sank two foul shots to maintain the two point margin. At that point, with the score 39-37, Dunnigan took over. He canned a driving lay-up, one of two free throws and a twisting, underhand scoop shot to give his team a quick 42-39 lead.

JEFF GRISMER popped a pair of charity throws for FV to offset Stunden's lay-up and Borgardt hit two more from the line. Dunnigan, again, has a lay-up and four straight foul tosses to more than combat Winrow's bucket. The tally then was 52-43.

Though Naperville pulled to within four, at 52-48, there were under 20 seconds left and the outcome was no longer in doubt.

Backing up Dunnigan's output for Forest View was Baumgardt, with 10 points, and Buckholz and Grismer with nine and seven markers respectively. As a team the Falcons connected on 38 per cent from the floor and 67 per cent at the line. FV had its won-lost mark moved to 5-3 by the outcome.

Stunden and Winrow were best for the Redskins. They had 12 and 11 apiece for a Naperville aggregation which hit 37 per cent of its goal tries and 12 of 13 free throws.

that quarter while Fabian chucked in seven. The two from Bischoff, four from Neuckranz and six from Mark Newman just weren't enough to keep the scoring close.

With only 1:09 left the tally was 55-51. Then O'Keefe hit for six straight points, the Wildcats didn't register another marker, and the final margin was set.

FOR THE CONTEST, O'Keefe put in 24 points to take honors. Fabian had 13, Cassata 10 and Isakson and teammate Bob Willis had seven apiece to compliment their leader.

On the Wheeling side of the ledger, Bischoff was best. He played a good game under the boards and tossed in 17 points. Neuckranz and Newman both had 11.

Braves Belt Bisons In Fenton Tourney

The top-ranked team in the Fenton Holiday Tournament, the Braves of Bremen, ran into a big scare from the hosts Monday night, but absorbed it to win going away.

For Fenton, it was a case of early prosperity not lasting, and the Bisons fell 68-49 to the Southwest Suburban Conference entrant.

The action is the eight-team tourney put Fenton into the losers' bracket and moved Bremen to the semi-finals. The Bisons were to play again last night (Tuesday) against Wheeling, loser of Monday night's other first round game. Last night's action also saw clashes between Elmwood Park and Lake Zurich, and Conant and Lake Park.

Fenton, behind the sharp shooting of Corky Kero and Ken Schulze, ruled first quarter play against Bremen, and didn't actually fall behind until midway through the second period. The Bisons worked through a Bremen zone defense for 19 points and a three-point quarter lead.

But the Braves switched their tactics to man-to-man play in the next period, and it began to tell. Before that stanza was over, the victors had outscored the vanquished 16-6, and had run up a 32-25 halftime lead.

FENTON STAYED in reach in the third quarter, totaling 15 to Bremen's 16 points, and keeping the margin to eight. But in period four, it was a difference of 20-9 and a waltz to the finish for Jack Renfro's five.

The big moment for Phil Hardy's Bisons ended up being that first quarter. Kero hit for seven points before it was over, and he got only six more all night. Schulze, high man for the Bisons, totaled five of his 15 in stanza one.

Bremen's output was almost a one-man show, with Wayne Mercier getting 12 points in the period. He was high for the night with 26 points, but that total — and his first period outburst — weren't the essential differences in the game.

PART OF THE outcome was dictated by that switch to a man-to-man defense, which cut Fenton's output to a half-dozen points after the big start. Part of it was the play of Bremen reserve quards Woerhyde and Jennings, who came on in the second quarter to spark the winner's offensive surge. And part of it was Fenton's inability to cash in at the free throw line.

The Bisons took 27 free throws and made only 13 of them, a percentage of less than .500. It was the more painful because in several instances Hardy's boys failed to take advantage of bonus situations.

Those factors all combined in determing the final result, and though the Bisons made another valiant rush in the third quarter, Bremen just pulled away as the end neared.

Knight JV Five Nips Cards

Prospect's jayvee Knights edged Arlington High School last week, 56-54, handing the Cardinals their first loss of the season.

The winners recorded the decisive basket in the final minute of play in what was a tight contest throughout.

Arlington held a 33-32 lead at halftime thanks to a basket at the buzzer and increased the advantage by one point with a 13-12 third quarter.

Mike Anderson was high for the Knights with five baskets and seven free throws for 17 points. Tom Grafton threw in 14, nine in the last half, and Mike Mueller collected 11.

Jim Bressler topped the losers with 17 points, collecting 15 in the first half. Doug Fink and George Bergstrom tossed in eight each.

Split to Wildcats Freshmen Fives

One went under .500 and the other went further ahead for the season — that was the tale of last week for Wheeling freshman cagers.

The 'Cats frosh A quintet fell before Maine South 57-52 on December 18. That set their record under coach Paul Grady at 2-3.

A 38-35 margin spelled victory for the Wildcats B group against MS. Their campaign mark rose to 4-1 for director Jerry Grier.

IN THE A game Wheeling was ahead 30-29 at the half and 48-47 after three quarters. However a 10-4 deficit in the final period brought the loss. High men for the 'Cats were Jay Lesniak and Carl Friche with 13 points apiece.

Mike Mitchell and Ken St. Onge paced the B's to their triumph. Mitchell made 13 and St. Onge 11 points. "Joe Whittington also played a very good all-around game," commented headman Grier.

Falcons' Frosh Drop Cage Pair

It was a sad day for Forest View's freshman cagers. The day was last Monday (Dec. 20) and they lost two games to Wheaton Central.

FV's frosh A quintet fell 55-36. The Falcons were down 10-4 after one quarter, came back to a 29-28 lead after three quarters but only scored seven points in the final period and were defeated.

BEST POINT producers for Forest View A freshmen were Kevin Grismer, with 15 points, and John Calvello, with 12 points. A 5-3 mark is now owned by coach Al Kintzle's A unit.

On the B level the Falcons' setback came by a 39-36 margin. Headman Fred Empkie's squad is now 3-3 for the season.

Wheeling's Soph Cagers Defeated

Deficits in the first and last quarters caused defeat for Wheeling's soph cagers last week. They fell before Maine South 67-55.

MS ran to a 24-18 lead going into period two of the contest. The 'Cats moved to within three, at 31-28, at the half but were back by six again, at 44-38, after quarter three. Maine outscored Wheeling 23-17 in period four to wrap up the triumph.

Pacing the losers were Robin Melzer and Phil Smith. Melzer hit seven field goals and four foul shots for 18 points. Four goals and five at the charity stripe gave Smith 13 points. Melzer now owns a 15 point per game average while Smith has hit for 12.5 each time out.

Men's Cage Loop Opens

The Addison Men's Basketball League opens official league play on Thursday evening, January 6, at Indian Trail Junior High School.

Art Petersen, Addison Recreation Director who is in charge of the program, announced today that a total of six teams have organized and will play in the league.

A total of 10 league games will be played by each team with the first games scheduled for Thursday evening and league play ending on March 10. A tournament will also be held March 17, and 24, for the six teams in the league.

All six teams will play every Thursday night as three games are scheduled.

APPROXIMATELY 60 men are now registered in the six team league. At the last organizational meeting managers received team rosters which must be completed and turned in no later than Wednesday, January 5, in the office of the Recreation Director.

Managers are again reminded that all players on their roster must be residents of Addison. Players who are not residents of Addison cannot play in this league. An entry fee of $5.00 was decided on by the players in the program. This entry fee must be paid on or before league play begins. It was also decided to have two referees officiating all league games.

For the game FV was on the short end of a 14-9 margin in field goals. However, the Falcons hit on 21 foul shots to just five for WC and that decided the outcome.

FOREST VIEW'S sophs were down by nine in the opening quarter but fought back to take a two point lead at half. The charges of coach Rog Steingraber fell behind by two after three quarters but again came back and won by a pair.

High scorer for the victorious Falcons was Mike Messer. He had 14 points and also grabbed four rebounds. Backing him up was John Wester with 13 points and eight rebounds. "Messer did an excellent job on defense," said headman Steingraber, "and Wester played his best game to date."

The FV sophomores have now won two straight and own a 4-3 record for the season. Next game for the Falcons will be Jan. 8 when they host Maine South.

punch to set the score at 37-35 when closing play began.

Beginning the last quarter Stunden put in a bucket and Buckholz sank two foul shots to maintain the two point margin. At that point, with the score 39-37, Dunnigan took over. He canned a driving lay-up, one of two free throws and a twisting, underhand scoop shot to give his team a quick 42-39 lead.

JEFF GRISMER popped a pair of charity throws for FV to offset Stunden's lay-up and Borgardt hit two more from the line. Dunnigan, again, has a lay-up and four straight foul tosses to more than combat Winrow's bucket. The tally then was 52-43.

Though Naperville pulled to within four, at 52-48, there were under 20 seconds left and the outcome was no longer in doubt.

Backing up Dunnigan's output for Forest View was Baumgardt, with 10 points, and Buckholz and Grismer with nine and seven markers respectively. As a team the Falcons connected on 38 per cent from the floor and 67 per cent at the line. FV had its won-lost mark moved to 5-3 by the outcome.

Stunden and Winrow were best for the Redskins. They had 12 and 11 apiece for a Naperville aggregation which hit 37 per cent of its goal tries and 12 of 13 free throws.

that quarter while Fabian chucked in seven. The two from Bischoff, four from Neuckranz and six from Mark Newman just weren't enough to keep the scoring close.

With only 1:09 left the tally was 55-51. Then O'Keefe hit for six straight points, the Wildcats didn't register another marker, and the final margin was set.

FOR THE CONTEST, O'Keefe put in 24 points to take honors. Fabian had 13, Cassata 10 and Isakson and teammate Bob Willis had seven apiece to compliment their leader.

On the Wheeling side of the ledger, Bischoff was best. He played a good game under the boards and tossed in 17 points. Neuckranz and Newman both had 11.

Johannesen Sparks Cards Past Wheeling

Arlington's varsity gymnasts remained unbeaten against Paddock area competition for the 1965-66 season by rolling over Wheeling last Thursday evening, 87-45.

Coach Tom Walthouse's Cardinals, who already own wins over Palatine and Prospect in dual meets, collected six firsts en route to their fourth straight dual success of the campaign.

Senior Jim Johannesen turned in another impressive performance for the winners, racking up 21 points with firsts on the high bar, parallel bars, and in tumbling.

Johannesen flashed a 156 routine on the high bar with cards of 76-80 and had a 167 on the parallel bars. He earned ratings of 82-85 in winning the latter event.

Johannesen completed a successful evening with a 133 routine in tumbling.

Arlington picked up three other firsts thanks to Tom Riesing on the trampoline, Henry Taylor on the side horse, and Doug Dattilo on the still rings.

Riesing earned 74-76 rankings for his work on the tramp, and Taylor had a 132 (69-63) on the side horse. Dattilo posted a 77-79 for a 156 on the rings.

The Cardinals swept the top three slots on the trampoline and side horse.

Rick Atwater and Bob Weber followed Riesing on the trampoline with Sam Cullison and Steve Vaen backing Taylor on the side horse.

Other Cards picking up seconds were Bert Schmitt on the high bar and parallel bars and Roy Rettburg on the still rings.

Jerry Fontecchio landed the highest position for Wheeling with a second in his specialty, tumbling. Jerry had a 126 routine to finish seven points behind Arlington's Johannesen.

Collecting thirds for Wheeling were Jim Rainer on the high bar, Mike Bangs on the parallel bar, Lonny Davis on the still rings, and Richard Dyson in tumbling.

JIM JOHANNESEN, one of the finest gymnasts in Illinois prep ranks, registered three firsts last week in leading Arlington to an 87-45 victory over Wheeling. Johannesen topped the parallel bars, high bar, and tumbling events in scoring 21 of the Cardinal points. (Photo by Larry Dale)

Host Knights Win Mat Tourney by One Point

CONCERNED MENTOR is what Prospect wrestling coach Dick Mudge was for a moment last week. His boy, Gary McMorrow, had been shaken up a bit in a 95 pound bout but, after this brief officials time out, McMorrow went on to get second place at his weight. NOT EVERY JOURNEY to a hunting preserve produces sheer delight and rich bounty. That's the gist of the message from Roger Webb of Itasca, after reading of the rash of ringnecks this scribe's hunting party encountered at Windy Acres Hunt Club.

As Webb tells it, he was stung, and badly. It started, he says, with plans to take his two sons—one home on leave from the army—out for some pheasant shooting.

With the regular hunting season about to expire, the Webbs tried two of the public preserves, but found no room at one and no pheasants at the other. So they went to one of the numerous privately-operated daily fee locations.

It cost, Webb reports, $13 apiece for the three of them, with two birds allowed for each hunter. Anything over that was to be $6.50 a bird, but—Webb says—they were told if they blanked, they'd get complimentary birds anyway.

The Webbs were blanked. They hunted for four hours, and according to father Webb didn't even see evidence of a pheasant. Worse yet, he says, when they returned to the main house, there was no one around to make good on the complimentary pheasant promise. The impulse of the Webbs was to "take the place apart."

Mr. Webb has also been stung in another, more familiar fashion. He lives on a farm in DuPage county, and says for years he allowed hunting by anyone with "the decency to ask." But no more. He's upset about his preserve hunt, but it's mostly because he's been besieged with trespassers, some who even demanded he get off his own land.

WHAT TO DO? Two more hunting seasons have closed, with the quail and Southern Illinois goose seasons expiring over the weekend. The deer bow season ends this Friday, and after that, the only popular creature still available for hunters will be the rabbit. Cottontail season, with a limit of five per day, runs through Jan. 31.

That leaves ice fishing—when the ice is thick enough—and hiking and camping, if you're hardy.

The final accounting of the shotgun deer season lists 7,575 animals taken this year, 487 more than last year. The Conservation Department reports that all but 1,800 of the whitetails were taken in the first three days of the split six-day season, and that 4,339 of them were taken in the southern counties. The biggest buck downed was a 320-pounder claimed in Schuyler County.

Spring brings many things, including the inevitable charge to renew boat registrations. The conservation people report 82,000 motorboat certificates will expire in 1966, opening their holders to possible arrest and fine.

So—though you've heard it before for dozens of things—get your renewals in early. They're good for three years, and will pick up with the date of expiration of the old certificate.

FROM THE ELGIN, JOLIET AND Eastern Railway: don't hunt along our tracks or rights of way. The line takes issue with advice given recently in a hunting magazine. Such property may make good hunting terrain, but the EJ & E says it can be dangerous to the hunters, to railway employes and to the general public. It could also, says the railroad, lead to damage to rail-related facilities, like telegraph, telephone and signal wires.

Wildcat Matmen in Glenbrook Tourney

"Prelims" are finished! How high will Wheeling place? Find out tonight! !

'Cats wrestlers are entered in a holiday tournament being held at Glenbrook South. Preliminary bouts were staged last evening.

TODAY (Wednesday) semi-final matches will take place at 2 p.m. Final rounds come at 7 p.m. Due to an early press deadline no results of the tourney prelims can yet be reported.

Six other teams are battling at GS along with the hosts and the Wildcats. They are Barrington, Willowbrook, Glenbrook North, Maine South, Niles North and Wheaton North.

Wheeling matmen, under coach Art Kraft, went into the Christmas - New Year action carrying a 2-3 record in dual meets. They have already improved on last year's showing which saw them compile an 0-12-1 mark.

Pacing the 'Cats attack thus far have been Al Eisenstein and Rich Haddock. A 4-0-1 individual record is owned by Eisenstein, who wrestles at 127, while Haddock is 3-1-1 at 154. Both should be tough at the Glenbrook tourney.

OTHER CHARGES of headman Kraft, who could do well in tournament grappling are Ted Armstrong, 3-1-1 at 180; Matt Porzell, 3-2 at 145; and Ray Wiedner, 2-2-1 at 103.

Perhaps the top individual in the holiday affair will be Bruce Erb. Erb, of the hosting Glenbrook South team, was an All-State football lineman this fall. In the mat season he has won seven bouts without a loss and six of those victories have come on pins.

Wheeling Tops Frosh Mat Battle

Wheeling's freshman wrestlers overpowered Arlington High School last week, 33-15, in the final action for both squads before the holiday break.

The young Wildcats broke away from a tie at 133 pounds with a pin by Keith Lewis in 5:22.

Posting decisions for Wheeling were Bob Tipsword at 95 pounds, Mike Pattarozzi at 145, and Bill Carlander at 180. Wildcat falls were recorded by Bob Carlson (103), Lewis (133), Dave Hendren (138) and Ed Humphreys (165).

McCoy racked up the only Arlington pin. Jack Dabbert (120) and Noel Bauler (127) showed decisions.

Two bouts ended in ties. Chuck Schini of Arlington and Jim McCranie of Wheeling battled to a 4-4 standoff at 112, and Wally Bednarz of the Cards and Tony Stavros of the Wildcats were involved in a 2-2 deadlock at heavyweight.

Victory for 'Cat Soph Wrestlers

A tremendous comeback allowed Wheeling soph matmen to remain undefeated last week when they edged Maine South 26-23.

The Wildcats were behind 17-2 following the 120 pound bout. They made an uphill climb however until, before the heavyweight battle the margin was only 23-21. Ron Frediani's pin in the final match clinched the triumph.

Other pins for Wheeling were gained by Paul Harris (145 pounds) and Ed Shasteen (180). Decisions for the 'Cats went to Jim Boscamp (127) Stephen Mykytuik (133) and Steve Strom (165). Rich Schachner took a draw for the winners.

Season's record for the Wildcats is now 3-0-1 under coach Frank Miller. Next meet for the sophs will come January eighth at Conant.

Arlington Frosh Top Maine East

Jim Baumgartner topped 20 points for the third time this season as Arlington's frosh "A" basketball Cardinals waltzed past Maine East, 56-35, in recent action.

Baumgartner flipped in ten baskets and two free throws for the winners. He has also had games of 23 and 25 in the young season.

Niles West in 2nd; FV Ends in Cellar

For wrestlers, compiling a top dual meet record and taking a tournament title are achievements which don't automatically combine.

If that observation needs proving, one obvious example occurred last week. The event in question was Prospect's 6th holiday tourney.

Forest View and Glenbard East matmen entered competition with perfect dual standards of 5-0 and 6-0 respectively. Knights grapplers began the fray carrying a mediocre mark of 2-2-1.

When final tabulations were in they showed little relation to previously earned won-lost figures. Prospect took first in the affair with 66 points, GE totaled 33 points for seventh while FV, in eighth, was last at 32.

ROUNDING OUT THE field were: Niles West, only one point back of the leaders at 65; Lake Park and York, tied for third with 47; Rockford East, fifth with 41; and Downers Grove, sixth at 35.

Triumph for the Knights resulted from a balanced performance turned in by four seniors, two juniors and two sophs. Those eight got by preliminary rounds held last Wednesday (Dec. 22) and advanced to Thursday's semi-final and final matches.

Only one of victorious coach Dick Mudge's squad ended as a champ in his weight class. That was senior Rick Bertoglio, who turned in a pin and pair of decision wins, didn't have a point scored against him, and gained 145 pound honors.

Other than Bertoglio's first there were five seconds and two fourths taken by Prospect, just enought to offset the two first, three seconds, two thirds and a fourth which went to Niles.

For Forest View and coach Hal Henson, eight also advanced to second day bouts. However, unlike the Knights, the Falcons had disastor strike during the semi's and no one made the finals. Four thirds and four fourths made FV the tourney doormat.

GOING ON TO the wind-up competition for other teams were six from LP, five from York and RE, and four from Rockford and defending champ GE. The meet-deciding final battles went as follows:

95 pounds — Prospect sophomore, Gary McMorrow got a pin and 5-3 decision to make the finals. He met Lake Park's Bill Kielar for the weight title and was defeated 4-1. Kielar had also won at the weight in '64. Third place went to Niles' Rich Lee who topped the Falcons' Tom Bohac 4-0.

RICK BERTOGLIO
Knights' Champ

103 pounds — Dave Holmes, another Knights soph, went into the finals after 6-2 and 2-0 decisions had gone in his favor. Holmes was pinned in 1:48 by Tom Tennyson of Rockford East. Tennyson is now 9-0 in bouts this season. Third went to Rich Klyman of Niles while Downers' Bob Vitek repeated his fourth place finish of one year ago.

112 pounds — Another second place went to Prospect at 112. Mike Mohr, a junior, took runner-up points with 8-4 and 4-3 decisions before falling 10-0 to Niles' Mark Yohanna for the title. Steve DeHaven, of FV, was fourth after being bounced 12-1 by Tom Stewart of Glenbard who took third.

120 pounds — Bob Bien, who won Illinois titlist laurels at the weight last spring, scored three decisions for the 120 pound championship. The York standout was Knights tourney champ at 112 in '63 and at 120 last year. Second went to Barry Gelfand of Niles while DG's Steve Fania decisioned FV's Kent Taylor, 7-4 for third place.

127 pounds — Glenbard won this weight as Mike Scalso knocked off Jack Larson of Rockford 4-2. Third went to York's Bob Miller who decisioned Jeff Hansen of Prospect 3-0.

133 pounds — Jim Herod was second for the Knights at 66-65 and those totals didn't change again.

Terry Weiss of Niles was second at 145 while Jim Kubic was third for the Falcons and Steve Tuluck was fourth for Lake Park. Kubic shutout Taluck 6-0 to get third.

133. He rang up 2-0 and 3-2 decisions before losing to Rick Bobus for the title. Bobus, a York entry, is now 7-0 for the season. Third was taken by Lake Park's Brian Quig. He pinned Niles' Dan Luber for the number three spot.

138 pounds — Niles' Chuck Friedman, fourth in '64, moved up to first at 138 this year. He scored three decisions including an 8-5 topping of John Hausen of LP for the title. Ken Andrews from Forest View was third after whipping Rockford's Ron Morris 4-1.

The victory for Friedman at 138 put Niles into a temporary lead in the tourney. NW went in front 65-63 with five bouts left.

145 pounds — Bertoglio used a pin, in 5:35, a decision, 7-0, and another decision, 7-0, to take this weight class. He also put Prospect back into the lead

154 pounds — A 9-0 personal record was owned by Mike Hemmerich after he took three decisions and the title here. Hemmerich beat LP's Bill Hausen 3-1 for first place. Third went to Downers' Rich Fiegal who edged past FV's Pete Phillips 2-1.

165 pounds — Russ Rapier of York gave his team its third first of the meet at 165. Rapier registered two pins and a decision to win it. He took the title by downing the Knights' Marty Destafanis in 3:09. Bill Westerlund of Lake Park was third after decisioning Glenbard's Bob Bryor 8-2.

180 pounds — Best at 180 was Rodger Scott of Rockford. Scott decisioned Hank Vejunda 7-3 for the honors which pushed his personal season standard to 9-0. Last year's action at 180 also found Scott the winner. Third place went to the Falcons' Mike Severns with a 3-1 decision over Prospect's Kim Schier.

Heavyweight — Niles had its last chance to go ahead of Prospect at this weight. If NW's Bob Lynch had won the heavy title his team would have taken the tourney. But, Lynch was defeated by Downers' Jeff Kiser 4-2 and Prospect's triumph was assured. Third at the heaviest weight went to Phil Reder of Forest View who bested York's Mike Derrico 8-4.

And thus the Knights took the championship in their own holiday mat tournament. The win marked an initial victory for headman Mudge and his forces in the Christmas-New Year affair since their win when it first began as a four team event in 1960.

NOTHING GOOD came out of this bout for Forest View or the tournament of which it was a part. FV's Pete Phillips was decisioned 2-1 by Rich Flegel of Downers Grove and, as a result, Phillips ended fourth and Flegel third at 154 pounds. The Falcons missed such additional points all the way down the line and were last in last week's Prospect Holiday Wrestling Meet. (Staff photo)

'Cats, Cards Tie in Jayvee Mat Test, 21-21

A reversal in the final period gave Wheeling's Frank Abboreno a 4-3 decision at heavyweight and set up a 21-21 deadlock in jayvee wrestling action between the Wildcats and Arlington.

The Cardinals had pulled into a three-point lead on Verne Gongol's 12-0 win at 180 pounds.

Scoring victories for Wheeling in addition to Abboreno were Denny Kneip by forfeit at 112, Bill Hemme by forfeit at 127, Eric Meisenheimer at 133, and Phil Peet by pin at 145.

Other Arlington scorers were Dave Morong at 95, Al Oates at 103, Ken Hawkes at 120, Brad Philo at 138, Tom Barkulis at 154, and Brad Somers at 165.

'Cat JV Matmen Lose First Meet

It had to come sometime, but Wheeling's first JV wrestling loss ruined an impressive streak.

The 'Cats junior varsity matmen lost to Maine South last week. Final margin in the meet was 29-19.

That defeat was the first of the year after four straight triumphs for coach Charles Stuber's squad.

THOSE WHO WON their bouts against MS on decisions were Dave Liu (120 pounds), Phil Peet (145), and heavyweight Frank Abbereno. Scoring a pin for Wheeling was Larry Knack (165). Only other who got points for Stuber's club was Mike Henry (180), who gained a forfeit.

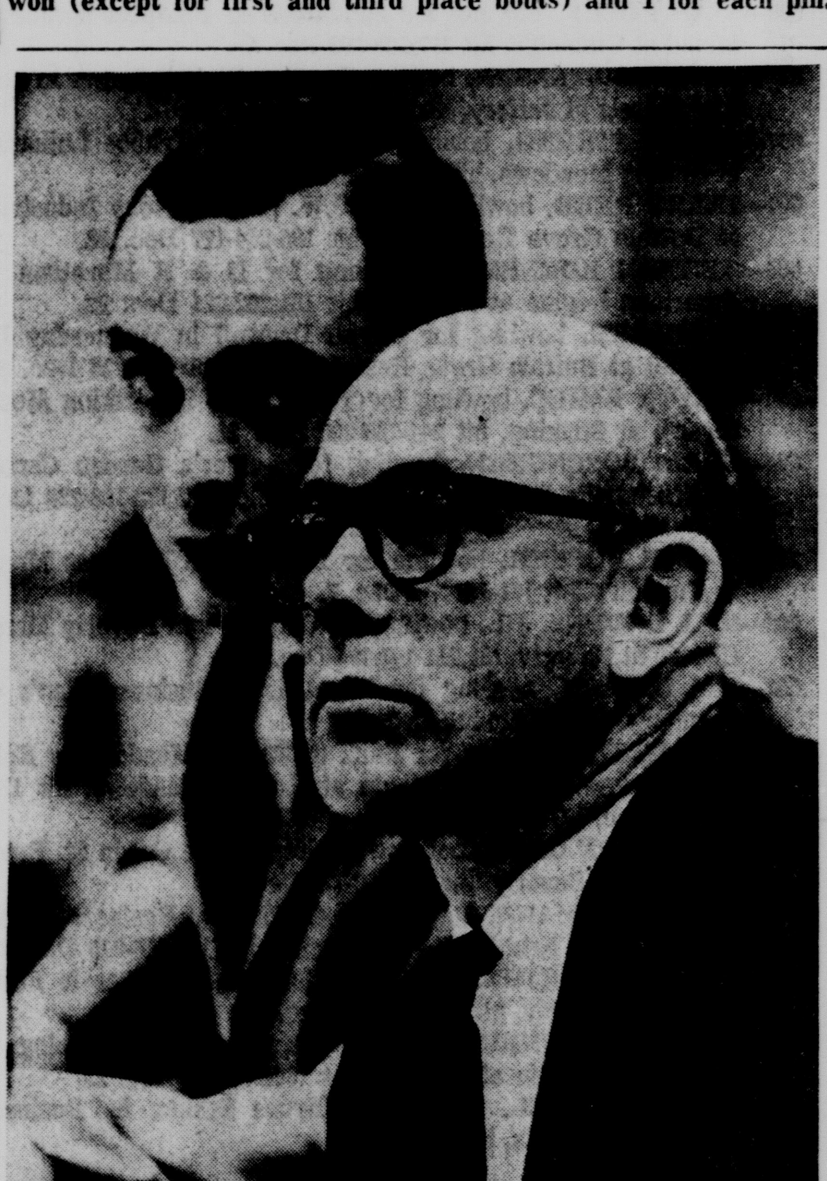
POINTS in each weight class were awarded on the basis of 10 for first, 7 for second, 4 for third, 2 for fourth, 1 for each bout won (except for first and third place bouts) and 1 for each pin.



"PAINFUL" is almost the only appropriate word for the experience last week of Forest View's varsity wrestling coach Hal Henson (on right). With his JV director Maury Levy, Henson watched as his mat charges ended in last place of Prospect's holiday tournament. The Falcons were undefeated in dual meets entering the tourney and were among the favorites for the championship. It was a sad day for FV grapplers. (Staff photo by Mike Seeling)

Strong Field In Mat Meet

A star-studded field, including seven former national collegiate champions will take part in Chicagoland's premier wrestling event—the third annual midlands Championships—at Lyons Township High School in LaGrange, Wednesday and Thursday (Dec. 29-30.)

Former national champs who will represent Chicago's Mayor Daley Wrestling Club are Terry Finn, NCAA champion at 115 pounds for Southern Illinois University in 1964; Joe James, heavyweight champion at heavyweight for Oklahoma State in 1964; and Larry Kristoff, AAU heavyweight champion from Southern Illinois University in 1963, 1964 and 1965, and also third in World Games in '65.

AMONG ENTRANTS who placed in last year's NCAA meet will be the Buzzard brothers of Iowa State, Don, 191, and Bob 137; Bob Fehrs, 123, Michigan; Don Behm, 130, Michigan State; Clay Beattie 157, Illinois; and Dan Pernat, 191, Wisconsin. Stu Marshall, Northwestern captain, will be back to defend his Midlands 167 pound title. He is one of eight returnees who will attempt to repea[illegible] champion.

Iowa State is favored to dethrone Michigan's Big Ten champions as kings of the Midlands meet. Last year, Michigan edged intra-state rival Michigan State for the team title by one point.

The tournament will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 29, and Thursday Dec 30 with afternoon sessions beginning at 1 and evening sessions at 7:30. Tickets will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children; $1.50 and $1.00 for the finals.

120 pounds — Bob Bien, who won Illinois titlist laurels at the weight last spring, scored three decisions for the 120 pound championship. The York standout was Knights tourney champ at 112 in '63 and at 120 last year. Second went to Barry Gelfand of Niles while DG's Steve Fania decisioned FV's Kent Taylor, 7-4 for third place.

127 pounds — Glenbard won this weight as Mike Scalso knocked off Jack Larson of Rockford 4-2. Third went to York's Bob Miller who decisioned Jeff Hansen of Prospect 3-0.

133 pounds — Jim Herod was second for the Knights at

Terry Weiss of Niles was second at 145 while Jim Kubic was third for the Falcons and Steve Tuluck was fourth for Lake Park. Kubic shutout Taluck 6-0 to get third.

133. He rang up 2-0 and 3-2 decisions before losing to Rick Bobus for the title. Bobus, a York entry, is now 7-0 for the season. Third was taken by Lake Park's Brian Quig. He pinned Niles' Dan Luber for the number three spot.

138 pounds — Niles' Chuck Friedman, fourth in '64, moved up to first at 138 this year. He scored three decisions including an 8-5 topping of John Hausen of LP for the title. Ken Andrews from Forest View was third after whipping Rockford's Ron Morris 4-1.

The victory for Friedman at 138 put Niles into a temporary lead in the tourney. NW went in front 65-63 with five bouts left.

145 pounds — Bertoglio used a pin, in 5:35, a decision, 7-0, and another decision, 7-0, to take this weight class. He also put Prospect back into the lead

154 pounds — A 9-0 personal record was owned by Mike Hemmerich after he took three decisions and the title here. Hemmerich beat LP's Bill Hausen 3-1 for first place. Third went to Downers' Rich Fiegal who edged past FV's Pete Phillips 2-1.

165 pounds — Russ Rapier of York gave his team its third first of the meet at 165. Rapier registered two pins and a decision to win it. He took the title by downing the Knights' Marty Destafanis in 3:09. Bill Westerlund of Lake Park was third after decisioning Glenbard's Bob Bryor 8-2.

180 pounds — Best at 180 was Rodger Scott of Rockford. Scott decisioned Hank Vejunda 7-3 for the honors which pushed his personal season standard to 9-0. Last year's action at 180 also found Scott the winner. Third place went to the Falcons' Mike Severns with a 3-1 decision over Prospect's Kim Schier.

Heavyweight — Niles had its last chance to go ahead of Prospect at this weight. If NW's Bob Lynch had won the heavy title his team would have taken the tourney. But, Lynch was defeated by Downers' Jeff Kiser 4-2 and Prospect's triumph was assured. Third at the heaviest weight went to Phil Reder of Forest View who bested York's Mike Derrico 8-4.

And thus the Knights took the championship in their own holiday mat tournament. The win marked an initial victory for headman Mudge and his forces in the Christmas-New Year affair since their win when it first began as a four team event in 1960.

NOTHING GOOD came out of this bout for Forest View or the tournament of which it was a part. FV's Pete Phillips was decisioned 2-1 by Rich Flegel of Downers Grove and, as a result, Phillips ended fourth and Flegel third at 154 pounds. The Falcons missed such additional points all the way down the line and were last in last week's Prospect Holiday Wrestling Meet. (Staff photo)

NOT EVERY JOURNEY to a hunting preserve produces sheer delight and rich bounty. That's the gist of the message from Roger Webb of Itasca, after reading of the rash of ringnecks this scribe's hunting party encountered at Windy Acres Hunt Club.

As Webb tells it, he was stung, and badly. It started, he says, with plans to take his two sons—one home on leave from the army—out for some pheasant shooting.

With the regular hunting season about to expire, the Webbs tried two of the public preserves, but found no room at one and no pheasants at the other. So they went to one of the numerous privately-operated daily fee locations.

It cost, Webb reports, $13 apiece for the three of them, with two birds allowed for each hunter. Anything over that was to be $6.50 a bird, but—Webb says—they were told if they blanked, they'd get complimentary birds anyway.

The Webbs were blanked. They hunted for four hours, and according to father Webb didn't even see evidence of a pheasant. Worse yet, he says, when they returned to the main house, there was no one around to make good on the complimentary pheasant promise. The impulse of the Webbs was to "take the place apart."

Mr. Webb has also been stung in another, more familiar fashion. He lives on a farm in DuPage county, and says for years he allowed hunting by anyone with "the decency to ask." But no more. He's upset about his preserve hunt, but it's mostly because he's been besieged with trespassers, some who even demanded he get off his own land.

WHAT TO DO? Two more hunting seasons have closed, with the quail and Southern Illinois goose seasons expiring over the weekend. The deer bow season ends this Friday, and after that, the only popular creature still available for hunters will be the rabbit. Cottontail season, with a limit of five per day, runs through Jan. 31.

That leaves ice fishing—when the ice is thick enough—and hiking and camping, if you're hardy.

The final accounting of the shotgun deer season lists 7,575 animals taken this year, 487 more than last year. The Conservation Department reports that all but 1,800 of the whitetails were taken in the first three days of the split six-day season, and that 4,339 of them were taken in the southern counties. The biggest buck downed was a 320-pounder claimed in Schuyler County.

Spring brings many things, including the inevitable charge to renew boat registrations. The conservation people report 82,000 motorboat certificates will expire in 1966, opening their holders to possible arrest and fine.

So—though you've heard it before for dozens of things—get your renewals in early. They're good for three years, and will pick up with the date of expiration of the old certificate.

FROM THE ELGIN, JOLIET AND Eastern Railway: don't hunt along our tracks or rights of way. The line takes issue with advice given recently in a hunting magazine. Such property may make good hunting terrain, but the EJ & E says it can be dangerous to the hunters, to railway employes and to the general public. It could also, says the railroad, lead to damage to rail-related facilities, like telegraph, telephone and signal wires.

Wheeling Tops Frosh Mat Battle

Wheeling's freshman wrestlers overpowered Arlington High School last week, 33-15, in the final action for both squads before the holiday break.

The young Wildcats broke away from a tie at 133 pounds with a pin by Keith Lewis in 5:22.

Posting decisions for Wheeling were Bob Tipsword at 95 pounds, Mike Pattarozzi at 145, and Bill Carlander at 180. Wildcat falls were recorded by Bob Carlson (103), Lewis (133), Dave Hendren (138) and Ed Humphreys (165).

McCoy racked up the only Arlington pin. Jack Dabbert (120) and Noel Bauler (127) showed decisions.

Two bouts ended in ties. Chuck Schini of Arlington and Jim McCranie of Wheeling battled to a 4-4 standoff at 112, and Wally Bednarz of the Cards and Tony Stavros of the Wildcats were involved in a 2-2 deadlock at heavyweight.

Victory for 'Cat Soph Wrestlers

A tremendous comeback allowed Wheeling soph matmen to remain undefeated last week when they edged Maine South 26-23.

The Wildcats were behind 17-2 following the 120 pound bout. They made an uphill climb however until, before the heavyweight battle the margin was only 23-21. Ron Frediani's pin in the final match clinched the triumph.

Other pins for Wheeling were gained by Paul Harris (145 pounds) and Ed Shasteen (180). Decisions for the 'Cats went to Jim Boscamp (127) Stephen Mykytuik (133) and Steve Strom (165). Rich Schachner took a draw for the winners.

Season's record for the Wildcats is now 3-0-1 under coach Frank Miller. Next meet for the sophs will come January eighth at Conant.

Arlington Frosh Top Maine East

Jim Baumgartner topped 20 points for the third time this season as Arlington's frosh "A" basketball Cardinals waltzed past Maine East, 56-35, in recent action.

Baumgartner flipped in ten baskets and two free throws for the winners. He has also had games of 23 and 25 in the young season.

Wildcat Matmen in Glenbrook Tourney

"Prelims" are finished! How high will Wheeling place? Find out tonight! !

'Cats wrestlers are entered in a holiday tournament being held at Glenbrook South. Preliminary bouts were staged last evening.

TODAY (Wednesday) semi-final matches will take place at 2 p.m. Final rounds come at 7 p.m. Due to an early press deadline no results of the tourney prelims can yet be reported.

Six other teams are battling at GS along with the hosts and the Wildcats. They are Barrington, Willowbrook, Glenbrook North, Maine South, Niles North and Wheaton North.

Wheeling matmen, under coach Art Kraft, went into the Christmas - New Year action carrying a 2-3 record in dual meets. They have already improved on last year's showing which saw them compile an 0-12-1 mark.

Pacing the 'Cats attack thus far have been Al Eisenstein and Rich Haddock. A 4-0-1 individual record is owned by Eisenstein, who wrestles at 127, while Haddock is 3-1-1 at 154. Both should be tough at the Glenbrook tourney.

OTHER CHARGES of headman Kraft, who could do well in tournament grappling are Ted Armstrong, 3-1-1 at 180; Matt Porzell, 3-2 at 145; and Ray Wiedner, 2-2-1 at 103.

Perhaps the top individual in the holiday affair will be Bruce Erb. Erb, of the hosting Glenbrook South team, was an All-State football lineman this fall. In the mat season he has won seven bouts without a loss and six of those victories have come on pins.

'Cats, Cards Tie in Jayvee Mat Test, 21-21

A reversal in the final period gave Wheeling's Frank Abboreno a 4-3 decision at heavyweight and set up a 21-21 deadlock in jayvee wrestling action between the Wildcats and Arlington.

The Cardinals had pulled into a three-point lead on Verne Gongol's 12-0 win at 180 pounds.

Scoring victories for Wheeling in addition to Abboreno were Denny Kneip by forfeit at 112, Bill Hemme by forfeit at 127, Eric Meisenheimer at 133, and Phil Peet by pin at 145.

Other Arlington scorers were Dave Morong at 95, Al Oates at 103, Ken Hawkes at 120, Brad Philo at 138, Tom Barkulis at 154, and Brad Somers at 165.

'Cat JV Matmen Lose First Meet

It had to come sometime, but Wheeling's first JV wrestling loss ruined an impressive streak.

The 'Cats junior varsity matmen lost to Maine South last week. Final margin in the meet was 29-19.

That defeat was the first of the year after four straight triumphs for coach Charles Stuber's squad.

THOSE WHO WON their bouts against MS on decisions were Dave Liu (120 pounds), Phil Peet (145), and heavyweight Frank Abbereno. Scoring a pin for Wheeling was Larry Knack (165). Only other who got points for Stuber's club was Mike Henry (180), who gained a forfeit.

POINTS in each weight class were awarded on the basis of 10 for first, 7 for second, 4 for third, 2 for fourth, 1 for each bout won (except for first and third place bouts) and 1 for each pin.

"PAINFUL" is almost the only appropriate word for the experience last week of Forest View's varsity wrestling coach Hal Henson (on right). With his JV director Maury Levy, Henson watched as his mat charges ended in last place of Prospect's holiday tournament. The Falcons were undefeated in dual meets entering the tourney and were among the favorites for the championship. It was a sad day for FV grapplers. (Staff photo by Mike Seeling)

Strong Field In Mat Meet

A star-studded field, including seven former national collegiate champions will take part in Chicagoland's premier wrestling event—the third annual midlands Championships—at Lyons Township High School in LaGrange, Wednesday and Thursday (Dec. 29-30.)

Former national champs who will represent Chicago's Mayor Daley Wrestling Club are Terry Finn, NCAA champion at 115 pounds for Southern Illinois University in 1964; Joe James, heavyweight champion at heavyweight for Oklahoma State in 1964; and Larry Kristoff, AAU heavyweight champion from Southern Illinois University in 1963, 1964 and 1965, and also third in World Games in '65.

AMONG ENTRANTS who placed in last year's NCAA meet will be the Buzzard brothers of Iowa State, Don, 191, and Bob 137; Bob Fehrs, 123, Michigan; Don Behm, 130, Michigan State; Clay Beattie 157, Illinois; and Dan Pernat, 191, Wisconsin. Stu Marshall, Northwestern captain, will be back to defend his Midlands 167 pound title. He is one of eight returnees who will attempt to repeat as champion.

Iowa State is favored to dethrone Michigan's Big Ten champions as kings of the Midlands meet. Last year, Michigan edged intra-state rival Michigan State for the team title by one point.

The tournament will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 29, and Thursday Dec 30 with afternoon sessions beginning at 1 and evening sessions at 7:30. Tickets will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children; $1.50 and $1.00 for the finals.

Top Coaches Set For Track Clinic

College coaches Bob Epskamp of Ohio State and Lew Hartzog of Southern Illinois and high school coaches Bob Trevarthen of Evanston and Dick McCallister of Proviso West (Hillside) will appear on the program of the Illinois Track Coaches' Clinic at University of Illinois Armory, Jan. 15.

Clinic is sponsored jointly by the Illinois High School Coaches Association and the University of Illinois Athletic Association.

Epskamp is in his first year as Buckeye coach, replacing Larry Snyder. Appearing with Epskamp will be Bob Schul, winner of the 5000-meter run in the 1964 Olympics, whom Epskamp developed at Miami of Ohio before he accepted the Ohio State job. Hartzog has developed powerful teams at Southern Illinois since becoming coach there in 1961.

Trevarthen's 1965 Evanston team won the state high school track championship. McCallister, in four years at Proviso West, has produced cross-country teams which have never lost in dual meet competition, and has had outstanding track squads as well.

Tom Frederick, assistant executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association, will speak on the organization of the state track meet.

Henry's Gains Third Win In Wheeling Play

Henry's remained unbeaten and on top of the Wheeling Park District adult basketball standings this past week.

The Henry's team improved its mark to 3-0 with a 70-32 pasting of the Jaycees. The victors showed balanced scoring in the win, with Petty dropping in 18 points, Freeze 17 and Kaage 16.

Groot's and Martin Metals—two teams deadlocked for second with 2-1 marks—will meet next Tuesday, while Thursday action will see the Jaycees battling Highland Glen.

CITY WELDING SALES and Service is new among the sponsors in the Paddock Classic Traveling League, and so is City Welding's home house, Thunderbird Bowl in Mount Prospect. The Welders have been garnering mostly adversity in the PCT'Ls first round, and have been cast in the role of cellar-dwellers for this half of the 1965-66 season. The team members are Norm Schoemann, Bill Smith and Lobby Lobinsky, back row; and Bob Hurwitz, the captain, and Dick Wirtz, front row. (Staff Photo)

Gas, Tools, Bowling– That is City Welding

(This is the fifth in a series of articles on the sponsors in the Paddock Classic bowling leagues for men and women.)

What connection do nitrogen, ground clamps and power tools have with bowling? Just ask John R. Coffey!

Coffey is the founder-owner of City Welding Sales and Service, Inc. City Welding, located at 9206 Waukegan Road, Morton Grove, was started in 1958.

"Basically we're a welding supply house," explains Coffey. "We service industrial-commercial and individual businesses. We sell welding machines, tools, accessories and other allied equipment necessary in the fabrication of steel."

Another aspect of City Welding makes clear the connection between gas, clamps, tools and bowling. Coffey's firm sponsors a Paddock Classic Traveling League entry.

"WHILE I don't have much time to take part right now," Coffey says, "I'm very much a sports enthusiast. We've sponsored several bowling and golf teams. This is our first season in the Paddock league."

And what about Coffey's own ability on the lanes? "I've done some bowling and, when I did, I averaged around 152. But my scores are very unpredictable and that's why I decline any invitations to become a league bowler right now."

At his welding offices Coffey deals daily with such disparate items as a $.04 replaceable flint and a $35,000 positioner. The flint is self-explanatory but the positioner is quite another matter. What is it?

"A positioner," Coffey responds, "is a machine that manipulates and elevates extremely heavy weldments (objects to be welded) such as locomotive or excavator frames and rotates them so they're accessible for easy welding."

In between those extremes, City Welding Sales and Service handles a myriad of other articles.

Of course various gases are required for various welding jobs so Coffey deals in gas. He sells oxygen, acetylene, argon, helium, CO2, compressed air, krypton and nitrogen. These go to industrial users, research labs, hospitals, old peoples homes and service stations.

"We deal with anyone who has a use for compressed gases in metal tubes," Coffey says.

Welding, proper welding, is not performed without the necessary acessories and supplementary tools. City Welding deals in holders, cable, cutting machines, burning machines, heavy duty grinders, fixtures for each and ground clamps.

All too obvious is the thus far missing ingredient in the City Welding picture. "We also sell and distribute all the latest in semi-automatic welding equipment," concludes Coffey.

Coffey opened his first welding supply house in 1955 at the age of 25. "I was a partner in Ardheh Welding Equipment Co. of Chicago and probably the youngest owner of such a company in the country."

An Arlington Heights resident (1501 E. Eastman), Coffey maintains a staff of 10 full time employes at City Welding. "If you're called a welding supply dealer then you must carry all welding supplies and the people to handle them," Coffey states.

The status of the City Welding PCTL aggregation is not as lofty as it could be. At present the welding keglers rest on the bottom rung of Paddock league stadnings. Does that bother Coffey?

"We're in the bowling league for the sport of it," offers Coffey. "Anyone likes to win but we aren't necessarily interested in glory or prizes but more in the sportsmanship aspect of the competition."

Regulars on the City Welding team, and their current averages are: Lobby Lobinshy (185.2), Bill Smith (183.5), Dick Wirtz (182.1), Bob Hurwitz (181.6) the captain, and Norm Schoemann (178.2).

Krause Team Wins Fifth Straight Game

Krause and Kehe continued their winning ways in the Arlington Heights Park District basketball league as they recorded their fifth consecutive win.

The high-scoring league-leaders claimed the 45th Artillery Brigade as their victim last week by handing them a 100-54 defeat. Adair of the 45th tallied 34 points for the losers, while Elms hit for 27 for Krause and Kehe.

Charles Klehm's Nursery remained one game out of first by whipping the Arlington Oilers 68-37. Since their initial loss to Krause and Kehe in the season opener, Klehm's has been gaining strength.

In two other contests played last week, Arlington Park Sinclair buried Pure Oil 79-19, while Sellergren Sports outscored the 755th Radar Squadron 50-36.

Card Frosh Top Knights

Balanced scoring paid off last Thursday as Arlington's frosh "A" Cardinals tripped up Prospect High School, 54-42, in basketball action.

Dave Somers threw in 15 points and Dean Schmelzer and Jim Baumgartner collected 11 and 10 respectively for Arlington. Denny Meacham was right behind with nine.

Bob Bachhuber topped the Knights with five field goals for 10 points. Ted Passarelli added nine markers.

The Cards jumped out to a 15-6 lead after one period and never trailed.

Arlington also won the frosh "B" contest.

Cardinal Sophs Top Wheeling's Soph Gymnasts

Wayne Crockett scored 15 points and Lee Brown 14 as Arlington's frosh-soph gymnasts posted an 83-49 victory over Wheeling High School last week.

Crockett topped the still rings and placed second on the side horse and fourth on the parallel bars.

Brown won the high bar and parallel bar events.

Also scoring firsts for Arlington were Doug Atkins on the side horse and Bill St. John in tumbling.

Wheeling picked up one first with freshman John Grund on the trampoline.

At Rolling Meadows

In the Thursday Morning Eye Openers league the first place Stewed Tomatoes rolled high series of 2054 and high game of 705 . . . Star bowler of the week with high game of 203 sandwiched between a 144 and 196 was Esther Soukup of the Parsnippers . . . The race tightened in the Rolling Meadows Major as Rolling Meadows Bowl took three out of four games from pace-setting Hal Lieber . . . Car Poole Leasing and Grant's split their four games . . . Grant's were paced by Al Jordan's 613 . . . International Iron also picked up ground on the leaders by winning three games with Russ Sacks flipping a 630.

At Thunderbird Bowl

The Ringers hold a one-game lead in the Thunderbelles division with a 25-20 record . . . The Swingers are second at 24-21 with the Tinkerbelles and Gals-A-Go-Go tied for third at 23-22 . . . Phyllis Carol, boasting a 105 average, picked up the 5-7 rail . . . Gals-A-Go-Go topped the league with a high game of 745 and high series of 2086 . . . Leaders in the recent Arlington Heights Elks Lodge league were E. Grundt 205, Ron Hengel 203-532, Matt Lorris 535, John Golda 535, Andy Lucas 209-545, George Stolzman 209-545, Ray Froula 548, Jim White 229-547, Paul Aidikonis 207-549, Ray Nolty 556, Bill McKinley 220-596, and Jim Nolan 201-200-582.

2 Teams Lead In Volleyball

The Arlington Heights Park District Classic Volleyball league was narrowed to two leaders last week as the Astros handed the Hurricanes their first defeat.

The Astros took the first game 15-9, and then the Hurricanes reversed the decision in the second game, also 15-9. The third and final contest was another 15-9 repeat, with the Astros taking the match.

HOBBY LOBBY, the only other undefeated team, took consecutive games from the Old Men, 15-9 and 15-5.

Klein Insurance came back after last week's upset, and trounced the Greens 15-3 and 15-6.

In this week's action, Hobby Lobby and the Astros clash in a bitter struggle for the undisputed lead.

Skating Carnival Set For Lions Park Rink

A spectacular show of speed on ice will be held Sunday at the Lions Park Rink in Mount Prospect.

The Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club will serve as host of its winter Carnival which annually brings together the finest skaters in the Midwest.

Charles Payne, president of the Mount Prospect Park Board, promised this week that every effort will be made to prepare the ice's surface for the all-day event.

No admission is charged for the Carnival and the public is invited. Final races will follow the 2 p.m. intermission of special entertainment.

FEATURE RACE Sunday will be the Paddock Mile in Senior Men's competition with several impressive skaters shooting for the handsome trophy donated by Paddock Publications.

The Mount Prospect Club scored 27 points in the Illinois State Championship races in Oak Park to bring down the curtain on the indoor season.

The lone gold medal winner for the club was Bobby Knight who skated to a first place finish in the Juvenile boys half mile.

KNIGHT, WHO will lead the Mount Prospect contingent into Sunday's Carnival, fell in the 220-yard preliminary race at Oak Park, but Gary Johland and Tom Tagney finished second and fourth for four points.

Tagney skated to a second in the 880 and added three points to his personal total.

Bob Haenisch gained a third place finish in the midget boys 220 and came back with a second in the rugged quarter-mile.

TIM JILEK overcame the indoor jinx by taking third place awards in the 440 and 880 yard Junior Boys class. Tim survived near falls in both races at the crowded first turns.

Jim Zuckermandel took a fourth in the men's 440 yard race but failed in his other races.

Mary Lou Haenisch took a fourth in the quarter mile and third in the three-quarter mile for intermediate girls. Mary Lou appears to be the most improved skater on the club right now.

BOBBY KNIGHT

MARY CUNNINGHAM drove to a third place finish in a record-breaking 440 yard performance but fell in the 880 yard final and had to be content with fifth.

In the Class B Bantam boys division young Prospect skaters dominated the finishes in both their events. Tom Grunnah took first in the 110 yard sprint with Jim Tagney second and Rich Vehe third.

Coming back for the two lap final, Vehe grabbed first with Grunnah in second and Jim Tagney in third.

Ann Lindstrom pulled out a fourth place finish in the Class B Pony Girls class.

Rotary's Ice Show Slated For Jan. 8

The eighth annual Rotary Ice Carnival is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 8, at the Retention Basin, corner of Olive and Douglas Streets. Skating competition for boys and girls of all ages will be held at 10:00 a.m.

The carnival is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Rotary Club under the direction of the Arlington Heights Park District.

THE ROTARIANS will award medals to first, second and third places in each event. Participant ribbons will be given to all who take part. A special trophy will be awarded to winner of the 880-yard race for all boys.

Any youngster in Arlington Heights may enter on the day of the races at the Retention Basin Skating Rink at the time of the race in which they are competing.

Events in the carnival include: boys and girls—110 yard races for skaters 11 years and under; boys and girls — 220 yards for 15 and under and 16 and over; 440 yard—open to girls of all ages; boys — 880 yards open to all ages; plus competition in figure skating for both boys and girls.

If the ice is unsuitable for the event on January 8, the Rotary Carnival will be postponed one week to January 15, also at the Retention Basin.

St. Viator's Tankers Win

It was strictly no contest last week as St. Viator's varsity and frosh-soph swimmers overwhelmed St. Ignatius.

Coach Charles Mondi's varsity Lions routed the Wolves, 77-18, for their fifth straight success and the Lion frosh-sophs won, 67-28.

St. Viator splashed to ten varsity firsts, yielding honors only in the 100 backstroke.

Rene Tague was a double winner for Mondi's powerhouse, posting a 24.1 clocking in the 50 freestyle and 55.6 in the 100 free.

OTHER LION winners in the individual events were Rick Withrow in the 200 yard freestyle (2:07.7), Fred Schmidt in the 200 individual medley (2:31.3), Dave Chantry in diving, Joe Herrity in the 100 fly (1:08.9) Bill Richardson in the 400 freestyle (4:54), and Jim Spears in the 100 breaststroke (1:11.8).

St. Viator topped both relays. Mike Gibler, Spears, Herrity, and Kevin Shea worked on the 200 medley unit which turned in a 1:50.0 clocking.

Bob Brown, John Massey, Cronin and Shea toiled on the 400 freestyle quartet which clipped off a 4:00.1.

ST. VIATOR received a stiffer argument in frosh-soph ranks but still had no trouble disposing of St. Ignatius by 39 points.

Highlight of this win was the school records established by the 200 medley relay team of Bill McCaffery, Mike Madding, Mike Kaminski, and Ed Vallely (1:59.9) and by Kaminski in the 50 fly (28.6).

Also scoring St. Viator firsts were Lou Hibbs in the 100 individual medley (1:10.7), Fern in the 100 freestyle (1:00.7), and McCaffery in the 50 backstroke (30.4).

St. Viator will host St. Joseph of Westchester on Tuesday, Jan. 4, in its next dual meet competition.

At Striking Lanes

Joe Simonis continued his fantastic bowling in the Striking Men's Classic, rolling his ninth consecutive series over 600 and increasing his league-leading average to 209.36 for 48 games . . . Karlsen Pharmacy and Striking Lanes, separated by only one point, were slated to collide last night (Tuesday) for first half honors . . . The league now features seven bowlers with 190-plus averages . . . White Stucco Inn clinched first half honors in the Striking Men's Jackpot Doubles with a comfortable 10-point cushion . . . R. C. Hanneberg joined Century Club with 244 although he sports a 143 average . . . Ralph Roller will receive the triplicate award for posting three 147s.

At Beverly Lanes

In the American Legion league at Beverly Chuck Innocentini hit 278 for a 670 series as B & R Marathon took four points from Hi-Temp to gain first place and a spot in the Paddock tournament . . . George Quade was the Parkway pace-setter with a 598 series . . . George had games of 214 and 205 . . . Other leaders were Jones 580-214, Conroy 557-230, Eriksen 210, and Bergdahl 206 . . . Quade team rolled its high series of the season with a 2541.

At Rose Bowl

Art Miller rolled both high game and high series for the year in the St. Theresa Holy Name Society league as he fashioned a booming 660.

Klean Team Unbeaten In Cage Action

The Rolling Meadows adult basketball league, sponsored by the park district, has now completed six weeks of its nine-week round robin.

League standings are as follows:

TEAM	W	L
1. Klean Co.	6	0
2. Lukowski's	3	3
3. Hoopers	2	4
4. General Time	1	5

Leading scorer for the four team league is B. Evanson playing for Lukowski's with a total six game accumulation of 85. Next in scoring is W. Burleson of Hoopers with 57 points.

Two games are played weekly at Carl Sandburg Junior High School on Tuesday evenings, at 7:30 and 8:45. Spectators are welcome but must sit in the bleachers in the area provided.

Top Coaches Set For Track Clinic

College coaches Bob Epskamp of Ohio State and Lew Hartzog of Southern Illinois and high school coaches Bob Trevarthen of Evanston and Dick McCallister of Proviso West (Hillside) will appear on the program of the Illinois Track Coaches' Clinic at University of Illinois Armory, Jan. 15.

Clinic is sponsored jointly by the Illinois High School Coaches Association and the University of Illinois Athletic Association.

Epskamp is in his first year as Buckeye coach, replacing Larry Snyder. Appearing with Epskamp will be Bob Schul, winner of the 5000-meter run in the 1964 Olympics, whom Epskamp developed at Miami of Ohio before he accepted the Ohio State job. Hartzog has developed powerful teams at Southern Illinois since becoming coach there in 1961.

Trevarthen's 1965 Evanston team won the state high school track championship. McCallister, in four years at Proviso West, has produced cross-country teams which have never lost in dual meet competition, and has had outstanding track squads as well.

Tom Frederick, assistant executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association, will speak on the organization of the state track meet.

Henry's Gains Third Win In Wheeling Play

Henry's remained unbeaten and on top of the Wheeling Park District adult basketball standings this past week.

The Henry's team improved its mark to 3-0 with a 70-32 pasting of the Jaycees. The victors showed balanced scoring in the win, with Petty dropping in 18 points, Freeze 17 and Kaage 16.

Groot's and Martin Metals—two teams deadlocked for second with 2-1 marks—will meet next Tuesday, while Thursday action will see the Jaycees battling Highland Glen.

CITY WELDING SALES and Service is new among the sponsors in the Paddock Classic Traveling League, and so is City Welding's home house, Thunderbird Bowl in Mount Prospect. The Welders have been garnering mostly adversity in the PCT'Ls first round, and have been cast in the role of cellar-dwellers for this half of the 1965-66 season. The team members are Norm Schoemann, Bill Smith and Lobby Lobinsky, back row; and Bob Hurwitz, the captain, and Dick Wirtz, front row. (Staff Photo)

Meet The Sponsor: 5

Gas, Tools, Bowling-That is City Welding

(This is the fifth in a series of articles on the sponsors in the Paddock Classic bowling leagues for men and women.)

What connection do nitrogen, ground clamps and power tools have with bowling? Just ask John R. Coffey!

Coffey is the founder-owner of City Welding Sales and Service, Inc. City Welding, located at 9206 Waukegan Road, Morton Grove, was started in 1958.

"Basically we're a welding supply house," explains Coffey. "We service industrial-commercial and individual businesses. We sell welding machines, tools, accessories and other allied equipment necessary in the fabrication of steel."

Another aspect of City Welding makes clear the connection between gas, clamps, tools and bowling. Coffey's firm sponsors a Paddock Classic Traveling League entry.

"WHILE I don't have much time to take part right now," Coffey says, "I'm very much a sports enthusiast. We've sponsored several bowling and golf teams. This is our first season in the Paddock league."

And what about Coffey's own ability on the lanes? "I've done some bowling and, when I did, I averaged around 152. But my scores are very unpredictable and that's why I decline any invitations to become a league bowler right now."

At his welding offices Coffey deals daily with such disparate items as a $.04 replaceable flint and a $35,000 positioner. The flint is self-explanatory but the positioner is quite another matter. What is it?

"A positioner," Coffey responds, "is a machine that manipulates and elevates extremely heavy weldments (objects to be welded) such as locomotive or excavator frames and rotates them so they're accessible for easy welding."

In between those extremes, City Welding Sales and Service handles a myriad of other articles.

Of course various gases are required for various welding jobs so Coffey deals in gas. He sells oxygen, acetylene, argon, helium, CO2, compressed air, krypton and nitrogen. These go to industrial users, research labs, hospitals, old peoples homes and service stations.

"We deal with anyone who has a use for compressed gases in metal tubes," Coffey says.

Welding, proper welding, is not performed without the necessary acessories and supplementary tools. City Welding deals in holders, cable, cutting machines, burning machines, heavy duty grinders, fixtures for each and ground clamps.

All too obvious is the thus far missing ingredient in the City Welding picture. "We also sell and distribute all the latest in semi-automatic welding equipment," concludes Coffey.

Coffey opened his first welding supply house in 1955 at the age of 25. "I was a partner in Ardheh Welding Equipment Co. of Chicago and probably the youngest owner of such a company in the country."

An Arlington Heights resident (1501 E. Eastman), Coffey maintains a staff of 10 full time employes at City Welding. "If you're called a welding supply dealer then you must carry all welding supplies and the people to handle them," Coffey states.

The status of the City Welding PCTL aggregation is not as lofty as it could be. At present the welding keglers rest on the bottom rung of Paddock league stadnings. Does that bother Coffey?

"We're in the bowling league for the sport of it," offers Coffey. "Anyone likes to win but we aren't necessarily interested in glory or prizes but more in the sportsmanship aspect of the competition."

Regulars on the City Welding team, and their current averages are: Lobby Lobinshy (185.2), Bill Smith (183.5), Dick Wirtz (182.1), Bob Hurwitz (181.6) the captain, and Norm Schoemann (178.2).

Krause Team Wins Fifth Straight Game

Krause and Kehe continued their winning ways in the Arlington Heights Park District basketball league as they recorded their fifth consecutive win.

The high-scoring league-leaders claimed the 45th Artillery Brigade as their victim last week by handing them a 100-54 defeat. Adair of the 45th tallied 34 points for the losers, while Elms hit for 27 for Krause and Kehe.

Charles Klehm's Nursery remained one game out of first by whipping the Arlington Oilers 68-37. Since their initial loss to Krause and Kehe in the season opener, Klehm's has been gaining strength.

In two other contests played last week, Arlington Park Sinclair buried Pure Oil 79-19, while Sellergren Sports outscored the 755th Radar Squadron 50-36.

Card Frosh Top Knights

Balanced scoring paid off last Thursday as Arlington's frosh "A" Cardinals tripped up Prospect High School, 54-42, in basketball action.

Dave Somers threw in 15 points and Dean Schmelzer and Jim Baumgartner collected 11 and 10 respectively for Arlington. Denny Meacham was right behind with nine.

Bob Bachhuber topped the Knights with five field goals for 10 points. Ted Passarelli added nine markers.

The Cards jumped out to a 15-6 lead after one period and never trailed.

Arlington also won the frosh "B" contest.

Cardinal Sophs Top Wheeling's Soph Gymnasts

Wayne Crockett scored 15 points and Lee Brown 14 as Arlington's frosh-soph gymnasts posted an 83-49 victory over Wheeling High School last week.

Crockett topped the still rings and placed second on the side horse and fourth on the parallel bars.

Brown won the high bar and parallel bar events.

Also scoring firsts for Arlington were Doug Atkins on the side horse and Bill St. John in tumbling.

Wheeling picked up one first with freshman John Grund on the trampoline.

2 Teams Lead In Volleyball

The Arlington Heights Park District Classic Volleyball league was narrowed to two leaders last week as the Astros handed the Hurricanes their first defeat.

The Astros took the first game 15-9, and then the Hurricanes reversed the decision in the second game, also 15-9. The third and final contest was another 15-9 repeat, with the Astros taking the match.

HOBBY LOBBY, the only other undefeated team, took consecutive games from the Old Men, 15-9 and 15-5.

Klein Insurance came back after last week's upset, and trounced the Greens 15-3 and 15-6.

In this week's action, Hobby Lobby and the Astros clash in a bitter struggle for the undisputed lead.

Skating Carnival Set For Lions Park Rink

A spectacular show of speed on ice will be held Sunday at the Lions Park Rink in Mount Prospect.

The Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club will serve as host of its winter Carnival which annually brings together the finest skaters in the Midwest.

Charles Payne, president of the Mount Prospect Park Board, promised this week that every effort will be made to prepare the ice's surface for the all-day event.

No admission is charged for the Carnival and the public is invited. Final races will follow the 2 p.m. intermission of special entertainment.

FEATURE RACE Sunday will be the Paddock Mile in Senior Men's competition with several impressive skaters shooting for the handsome trophy donated by Paddock Publications.

The Mount Prospect Club scored 27 points in the Illinois State Championship races in Oak Park to bring down the curtain on the indoor season.

The lone gold medal winner for the club was Bobby Knight who skated to a first place finish in the Juvenile boys half mile.

KNIGHT, WHO will lead the Mount Prospect contingent into Sunday's Carnival, fell in the 220-yard preliminary race at Oak Park, but Gary Johland and Tom Tagney finished second and fourth for four points.

Tagney skated to a second in the 880 and added three points to his personal total.

Bob Haenisch gained a third place finish in the midget boys 220 and came back with a second in the rugged quarter-mile.

TIM JILEK overcame the indoor jinx by taking third place awards in the 440 and 880 yard Junior Boys class. Tim survived near falls in both races at the crowded first turns.

Jim Zuckermandel took a fourth in the men's 440 yard race but failed in his other races.

Mary Lou Haenisch took a fourth in the quarter mile and third in the three-quarter mile for intermediate girls. Mary Lou appears to be the most improved skater on the club right now.

BOBBY KNIGHT

MARY CUNNINGHAM drove to a third place finish in a record-breaking 440 yard performance but fell in the 880 yard final and had to be content with fifth.

In the Class B Bantam boys division young Prospect skaters dominated the finishes in both their events. Tom Grunnah took first in the 110 yard sprint with Jim Tagney second and Rich Vehe third.

Coming back for the two lap final, Vehe grabbed first with Grunnah in second and Jim Tagney in third.

Ann Lindstrom pulled out a fourth place finish in the Class B Pony Girls class.

Rotary's Ice Show Slated For Jan. 8

The eighth annual Rotary Ice Carnival is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 8, at the Retention Basin, corner of Olive and Douglas Streets. Skating competition for boys and girls of all ages will be held at 10:00 a.m.

The carnival is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Rotary Club under the direction of the Arlington Heights Park District.

THE ROTARIANS will award medals to first, second and third places in each event. Participant ribbons will be given to all who take part. A special trophy will be awarded to winner of the 880-yard race for all boys.

Any youngster in Arlington Heights may enter on the day of the races at the Retention Basin Skating Rink at the time of the race in which they are competing.

Events in the carnival include: boys and girls—110 yard races for skaters 11 years and under; boys and girls — 220 yards for 15 and under and 16 and over; 440 yard—open to girls of all ages; boys — 880 yards open to all ages; plus competition in figure skating for both boys and girls.

If the ice is unsuitable for the event on January 8, the Rotary Carnival will be postponed one week to January 15, also at the Retention Basin.

St. Viator's Tankers Win

It was strictly no contest last week as St. Viator's varsity and frosh-soph swimmers overwhelmed St. Ignatius.

Coach Charles Mondi's varsity Lions routed the Wolves, 77-18, for their fifth straight success and the Lion frosh-sophs won, 67-28.

St. Viator splashed to ten varsity firsts, yielding honors only in the 100 backstroke.

Rene Tague was a double winner for Mondi's powerhouse, posting a 24.1 clocking in the 50 freestyle and 55.6 in the 100 free.

OTHER LION winners in the individual events were Rick Withrow in the 200 yard freestyle (2:07.7), Fred Schmidt in the 200 individual medley (2:31.3), Dave Chantry in diving, Joe Herrity in the 100 fly (1:08.9) Bill Richardson in the 400 freestyle (4:54), and Jim Spears in the 100 breaststroke (1:11.8).

St. Viator topped both relays. Mike Gibler, Spears, Herrity, and Kevin Shea worked on the 200 medley unit which turned in a 1:50.0 clocking.

Bob Brown, John Massey, Cronin and Shea toiled on the 400 freestyle quartet which clipped off a 4:00.1.

ST. VIATOR received a stiffer argument in frosh-soph ranks but still had no trouble disposing of St. Ignatius by 39 points.

Highlight of this win was the school records established by the 200 medley relay team of Bill McCaffery, Mike Madding, Mike Kaminski, and Ed Vallely (1:59.9) and by Kaminski in the 50 fly (28.6).

Also scoring St. Viator firsts were Lou Hibbs in the 100 individual medley (1:10.7), Fern in the 100 freestyle (1:00.7), and McCaffery in the 50 backstroke (30.4).

St. Viator will host St. Joseph of Westchester on Tuesday, Jan. 4, in its next dual meet competition.

At Striking Lanes

Joe Simonis continued his fantastic bowling in the Striking Men's Classic, rolling his ninth consecutive series over 600 and increasing his league-leading average to 209.36 for 48 games . . . Karlsen Pharmacy and Striking Lanes, separated by only one point, were slated to collide last night (Tuesday) for first half honors . . . The league now features seven bowlers with 190-plus averages . . . White Stucco Inn clinched first half honors in the Striking Men's Jackpot Doubles with a comfortable 10-point cushion . . . R. C. Hanneberg joined Century Club with 244 although he sports a 143 average . . . Ralph Roller will receive the triplicate award for posting three 147s.

At Beverly Lanes

In the American Legion league at Beverly Chuck Innocentini hit 278 for a 670 series as B & R Marathon took four points from Hi-Temp to gain first place and a spot in the Paddock tournament . . . George Quade was the Parkway pace-setter with a 598 series . . . George had games of 214 and 205 . . . Other leaders were Jones 580-214, Conroy 557-230, Eriksen 210, and Bergdahl 206 . . . Quade team rolled its high series of the season with a 2541.

At Rose Bowl

Art Miller rolled both high game and high series for the year in the St. Theresa Holy Name Society league as he fashioned a booming 660.

Klean Team Unbeaten In Cage Action

The Rolling Meadows adult basketball league, sponsored by the park district, has now completed six weeks of its nine-week round robin.

League standings are as follows:

TEAM	W	L
1. Klean Co.	6	0
2. Lukowski's	3	3
3. Hoopers	2	4
4. General Time	1	5

Leading scorer for the four team league is B. Evanson playing for Lukowski's with a total six game accumulation of 85. Next in scoring is W. Burleson of Hoopers with 57 points.

Two games are played weekly at Carl Sandburg Junior High School on Tuesday evenings, at 7:30 and 8:45. Spectators are welcome but must sit in the bleachers in the area provided.

Ballard Earns Free Enterprise Award

Everette E. Ballard, 501 Edgemont Lane, Park Ridge, was recently presented an "American Success Story Award" by the Free Enterprise Awards Association, Inc. The 64-year-old Ballard is president of All American Life & Casualty Co., Park Ridge. He was cited by the association for his "dedications and contributions to the American free enterprise system through his services to the personal insurance business."

Ballard was a farm boy who went to a one room school. At 15, he attended Southern Illinois University while working his father's small farm on weekends. Starting at 18, he taught all eight grades in a one room country school for ten years.

AFTER 10 YEARS of teaching, Ballard left to become an insurance salesman. In 29 years he became an insurance executive. Then, in 1952, he left a secure position to join the newly-formed All American Life and Casualty Co. He became president within two years.

Now, 13 years later, All American is licensed to operate in 48 states, has $675 million of life insurance, $20 million premium income, $41 million assets, 1,136 field representatives, 673 full time brokers and 300 employes in its Park Ridge home office.

Job Training Set By Palatine Firm

Shields & Co. of Palatine, an oil jobbing consultant firm, will develop the on-the-job training program which has been approved by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

The program for 4,160 service station salesmen in 13 states will help the chronically unemployed to find steady jobs through 12 state and regional associations.

Wirtz said that a total of more than $1.7 million has been earmarked for the entire training effort as part of the Job Development Program to increase the number and improve the status of service-type jobs.

ABOUT 3,000 OF the trainees will be selected from among the unemployed through local State Employment Service offices. The remaining 1,160 will be upgraded from handy-man and odd-job employment in retail service stations.

The Labor Department has signed an agreement with the Shields firm to develop training projects among associations in Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Instruction will be provided by coordinator-instructors at individual gas stations for 10-week periods for each trainee. One week of the training term will be devoted to instruction to groups of 10 to 15 trainees.

Among the 12 associations expected to develop individual projects in the midwest are Northwest Petroleum Association, Minneapolis, covering Minnesota and North Dakota, and Wisconsin Petroleum Association, Madison. (15BB

Foreign Sales Boost Outlook for Barco

Aeroquip Corp.'s Barco Division in Barrington reports that rising foreign sales, a hefty backlog and promising new product introductions are among factors creating a favorable outlook for the firm in 1966.

According to J. O. Heyworth, vice president and general manager of the division, Barco shipments in the 1965 fiscal year were up 20 per cent. Order intake increased 27 per cent while backlog increased 147 per cent during the year. The greatest percentage increases were in foreign sales, which rose 36 per cent.

Barco's employment roster is growing and the present force of over 300 employes is expected to expand with the addition of a second shift in a month or two.

THE BARCO Division is the former Barco Manufacturing Co. which became a division of Aeroquip Corp. in 1962. The division manufactures flexible ball, rotary and swivel joints, steam heat connections and railroad speed recorders.

Over the past three years the company has announced new designs of swivel joints and the development of additional sizes in the various ball joint lines. Barco recently developed new low balanced pressure swivel joint for use with flexible hose assemblies. (10BB

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

It's always with a twinge of sadness that we take down the Christmas tree. That has served as such a gay ornament in our homes these past few days.

In some communities this sad note is overcome by special Twelfth Night Ceremonies. At that time all Christmas trees, wreaths, and boughs are collected and burned in a scintilaging fountain of flame. Certainly this is a fitting end to such a sentimental and joyous season.

This custom supposedly comes from the early Christians who celebrated the feast of the Nativity for twelve days. Special emphasis was placed on the last or Twelfth day.

Germany started a similar custom which was instituted to commemorate the light of the star of Bethlehem.

GARDENERS have been making still other post uses of the Christmas tree. Simply by attaching feeding stations supplemented with suet to the branches it becomes an interesting focal point for birds. Although some people attach bread to the branches, I've seldom observed any birds but starlings or sparrows dining on such fare.

If you have more than one tree available, such as those of the neighbors, you can use a hatchet to strip the boughs from the trunk. These boughs then make an excellent covering or mulch in the garden.

A final word about the Christmas tree indoors. If you note any pitch stains on your rug clean them as soon as possible. Apply a drycleaning fluid with any eye dropper. They blot by applying a weight to a pile of tissue. Continue to apply drycleaning fluid and piles of tissue until all the pitch has been drawn from the rug. (15BB

GT&E Regional Post For Auditor Trebat

Joseph V. Trebat, 21 WaPella Ave., Mount Prospect, has been named regional audit manager for GT&E Service Corp., a subsidiary of General Telephone & Electronics Corp.

K. G. O'GORMAN JR.

Kenneth G. O'Gorman Jr., of Arlington Heights has completed his initial training at Delta Air Lines training school at the Atlanta Airport and is now assigned to the airline's Atlanta pilot base as a second officer.

O'Gorman attended the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla.

Prior to joining Delta he was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy.

O'Gorman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Gorman, 534 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights. (10BB

Extra Dividend Voted

The board of directors of the First National Bank of Des Plaines has voted payment of the regular quarterly cash dividend in the amount of 50 cents per share plus a year-end extra of $1 per share.

Total dividends for 1965 amount to $3 per share, compared with $2.60 for 1964, announced Frederick F. Webster, chairman of the board.

SUBJECT TO shareholder's approval at the annual meeting in January and to the approval of the comptroller of the currency, the directors also passed a resolution to split the bank's stock two for one, reducing the par value from $20 to $10 per share.

They also passed a resolution to declare a 100 per cent stock dividend.

It is believed that both resolutions will be approved. If they are, the bank's capital stock will total $2,400,000; there will be 240,000 shares outstanding and every stockholder will own four shares for every share held on the record date. (10BB

Foreign Sales Boost Outlook for Barco

Aeroquip Corp.'s Barco Division in Barrington reports that rising foreign sales, a hefty backlog and promising new product introductions are among factors creating a favorable outlook for the firm in 1966.

According to J. O. Heyworth, vice president and general manager of the division, Barco shipments in the 1965 fiscal year were up 20 per cent. Order intake increased 27 per cent while backlog increased 147 per cent during the year. The greatest percentage increases were in foreign sales, which rose 36 per cent.

Barco's employment roster is growing and the present force of over 300 employes is expected to expand with the addition of a second shift in a month or two.

THE BARCO Division is the former Barco Manufacturing Co. which became a division of Aeroquip Corp. in 1962. The division manufactures flexible ball, rotary and swivel joints, steam heat connections and railroad speed recorders.

Over the past three years the company has announced new designs of swivel joints and the development of additional sizes in the various ball joint lines. Barco recently developed new low balanced pressure swivel joint for use with flexible hose assemblies. (10BB

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

It's always with a twinge of sadness that we take down the Christmas tree. That has served as such a gay ornament in our homes these past few days.

In some communities this sad note is overcome by special Twelfth Night Ceremonies. At that time all Christmas trees, wreaths, and boughs are collected and burned in a scintilaging fountain of flame. Certainly this is a fitting end to such a sentimental and joyous season.

This custom supposedly comes from the early Christians who celebrated the feast of the Nativity for twelve days. Special emphasis was placed on the last or Twelfth day.

Germany started a similar custom which was instituted to commemorate the light of the star of Bethlehem.

GARDENERS have been making still other post uses of the Christmas tree. Simply by at taching feeding stations supplemented with suet to the branches it becomes an interesting focal point for birds. Although some people attach bread to the branches, I've seldom observed any birds but starlings or sparrows dining on such fare.

If you have more than one tree available, such as those of the neighbors, you can use a hatchet to strip the boughs from the trunk. These boughs then make an excellent covering or mulch in the garden.

A final word about the Christmas tree indoors. If you note any pitch stains on your rug clean them as soon as possible. Apply a drycleaning fluid with any eye dropper. They blot by applying a weight to a pile of tissue. Continue to apply drycleaning fluid and piles of tissue until all the pitch has been drawn from the rug. (15BB

'Desk Set' Rehearsals Cameo Players Begin

EFFICIENCY EXPERT Richard Sumner, played by Peter Piper, takes time out from the office Christmas party to observe members of the desk set Venus Miller and Gloria Dee. The scene is from Cameo Players' production, "The Desk Set," to be given Jan. 14 and 15 at Prospect High's Little Theatre. (Staff Photo)

Cameo Players are busily engaged in rehearsals for their forthcoming production, "The Desk Set," a three-act comedy by William Marchant, which the Mount Prospect group will give Jan. 14 and 15 in Prospect High Little Theatre.

Recently the Cameo Players presented "The Littlest Angel" for a local philanthropic group.

Their upcoming play is about a group of girls in the reference department of a TV network.

IN THE ROLE of Bunny Watson, Gloria Dembinski of Mount Prospect plays a woman of encyclopedic knowledge. Mrs. Dembinski has had experience in theatre, both musical and dancing.

Also in the desk set are Venus Miller, Prospect Heights, and Doris Donovan and Judy O'Brien, both of Mount Prospect. Mrs. Miller appeared in "Kiss Me Kate" and "Flower Drum Song," productions of the Best-Off-Broadway Players. Mrs. O'Brien worked in the Cameo Players' production last year of "The Seven Year Itch." Also on the costume crew for "The Littlest Angel," she had her three daughters in that play. Mrs. Donovan, with theatre experience elsewhere, is new to this area.

ALL IS SERENE and prosperous among the desk set until an efficiency expert, played by Mount Prospect's Peter Piper, begins installing electronic brains around the office, replacing whole departments. Piper was the comic lead in "The Seven Year Itch" and has appeared in "Kiss Me Kate," "Flower Drum Song" and "The Littlest Angel."

In the midst of all this activity there is a typical office Christmas party at which all the girls get to kiss "the boss," portrayed by Don Schroeder, a newcomemr to Mount Prospect. On the guidance staff at Wheeling High School, Schroeder previously was associated with the Bloomington, Ill., Community Players.

Others in the cast are Ruth Piper and Joel Axelrad, both Mount Prospect residents. Mrs. Piper was in high school plays while living in Germany. Axelrad served as scenery director for "The Seven Year Itch" and "The Littlest" Angel."

THE REST OF THE cast includes Ginny Foster, Mrs. Paul Wilke, Carl Erikson and Tom Ellison, all of Mount Prospect.

Tickets to "The Desk Set" may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jean Petras, 1313 Mulberry Lane, Mount Prospect, 392-6077.

Critique, Awards Climax Art Dinner

Presentation of awards for the best paintings by Des Plaines Art Guild members climaxed the guild's smorgasbord dinner Dec. 10 at Heuer's Restaurant, Rosemont.

Edward Fischer, a resident of Palatine and an administrator in High School District 214, gave a talk following dinner and then a critique of paintings brought by members. He has a bachelor's and a master's degree from the Art Institute of Chicago.

Awards for the best paintings were given at the end of Fischer's critique. First place went to Donald Ellwanger, Des Plaines, for his snow scene done in watercolor. Second place went to Mrs. Melvie Wheeler, Deerfield, for an oil of a girl picking mushrooms in the woods.

THIRD PLACE went to Mrs. Virginia Closs, Des Plaines, for a still life of a flower and vegetables in front of a window, in oil. Fourth place went to Mrs. Dorothy Kruse, Palatine for an oil and collage painting of figures.

M. Ragland, Mount Prospect, received the oil painting by James Eccles, which was given as a gift to someone attending the guild's annual pre-holiday art exhibit at Rand Park Nov. 14. Dorothy Nissen, Des Plaines, received the gift certificate to have one portrait done by guild member Dorothy Kruse. (Bill

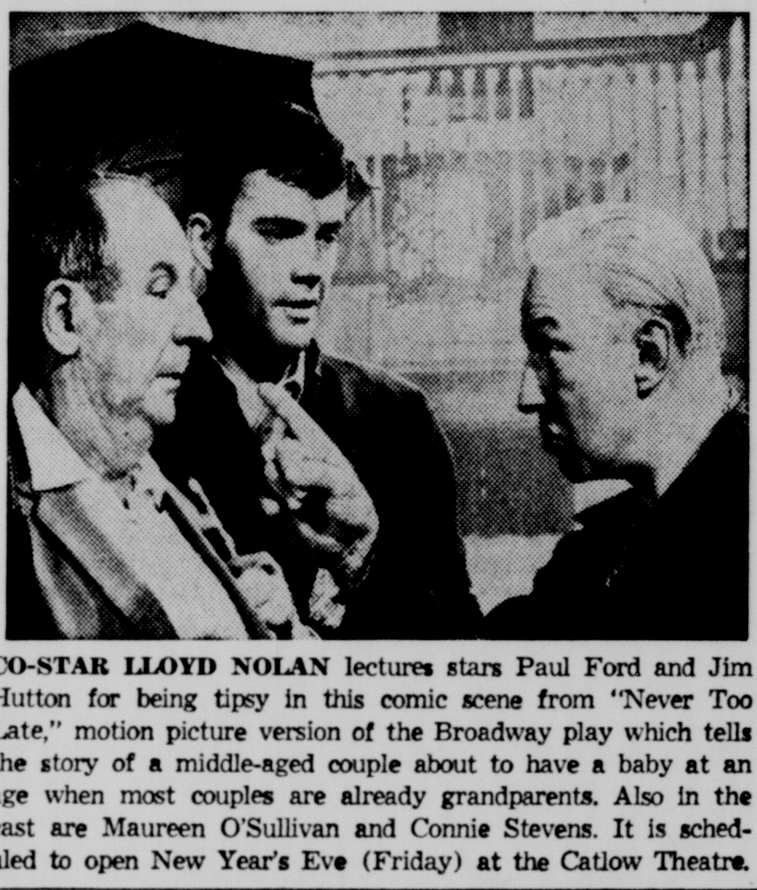
STEVE McQUEEN, as The Kid, with two women who play a prominent part in his life in "The Cincinnati Kid," Ann-Margret as Melba, who desires him, and Tuesday Weld as Christian, who loves him. It starts tomorrow (Friday) at the Mount Prospect Cinema with Shirley Jones in "The Secret of My Success" co-featured.



CO-STAR LLOYD NOLAN lectures stars Paul Ford and Jim Hutton for being tipsy in this comic scene from "Never Too Late," motion picture version of the Broadway play which tells the story of a middle-aged couple about to have a baby at an age when most couples are already grandparents. Also in the cast are Maureen O'Sullivan and Connie Stevens. It is scheduled to open New Year's Eve (Friday) at the Catlow Theatre.

Art Leaguers to Hear Glass Blower

A talk and demonstration on the art of glass blowing is the program for the January meeting of the Mount Prospect Art League.

Gilbert Armstrong of Park Ridge will be the guest lecturer at the meeting Tuesday, Jan. 4, at 8 p.m. at Mount Prospect Country Club, Shabonee Trail.

ARMSTRONG learned glass blowing in England where he was born and grew up. He moved first to Canada in 1957 and later to the United States. He now is head glass blower for Central Scientific Co. in Chicago and finds his relaxation in ornamental glass blowing.

Armstrong is a member of the national and local American Scientific Glass Blowing Socities. He also participates in all the local art fairs and belongs to the Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Countryside and North Shore Art Leagues. (Bill

MOS Lists Audition Dates for 'Wildcat'

Music-On-Stage Inc. announces that auditions for its April musical production, "Wildcat," will be held Friday night, Jan. 7, from 8 to 11 p.m. and Sunday afternoon, Jan. 9, from 1 to 5 o'clock in Room 133, Prospect High School, 801 W. Kensington, Mount Prospect.

Jerry Epperson, Niles, has been selected as the dramatic director of this comedy, and Paul Beringer, Crystal Lake, will assist as musical director.

Epperson said that persons trying out for chorus and leads may sing any musical selection of their choice. Mrs. William Cotsakis, accompanist, will require a copy of any music not in the score of "Wildcat." Scripts will be provided for the dramatic reading. Dancers are needed and will be auditioned by MOS choreographer Mrs. Hank Vandenboom.

THIS FAST-PACED musical tells a story of oil discovery in a small California town. The leading female roles are Wildcat, (a scheming minx), her pretty 18-year-old sister and a frowsy, middle-aged Countess.

Of the 13 male characters, four are leads, featuring a brawny, handsome oil driller, his youthful Mexican sidekick, the opulent town sheriff and a crochety old man.

Any suburbanite interested in musical theatre is invited to the tryouts. (Bill

Golf Mill Holds 'Flying Machines'

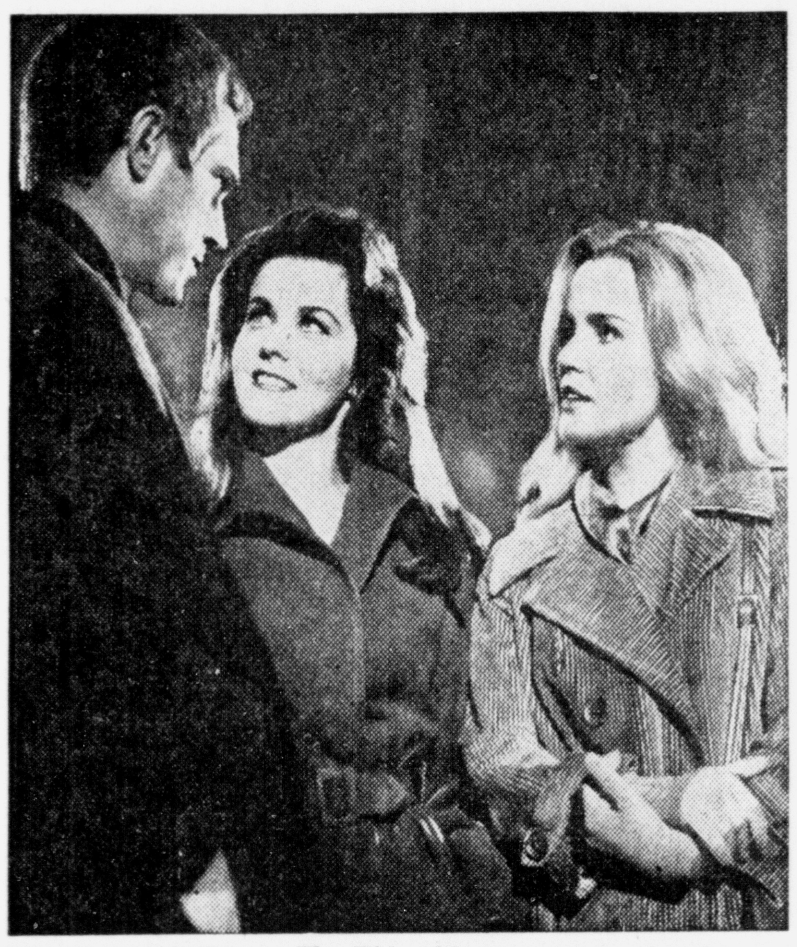
"Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines" is being held over for the second week at the Golf Mill Theatre.

With a cast of internationally famous stars, "Magnificent Men" is in CinemaScope and color and offers entertainment for the entire family.

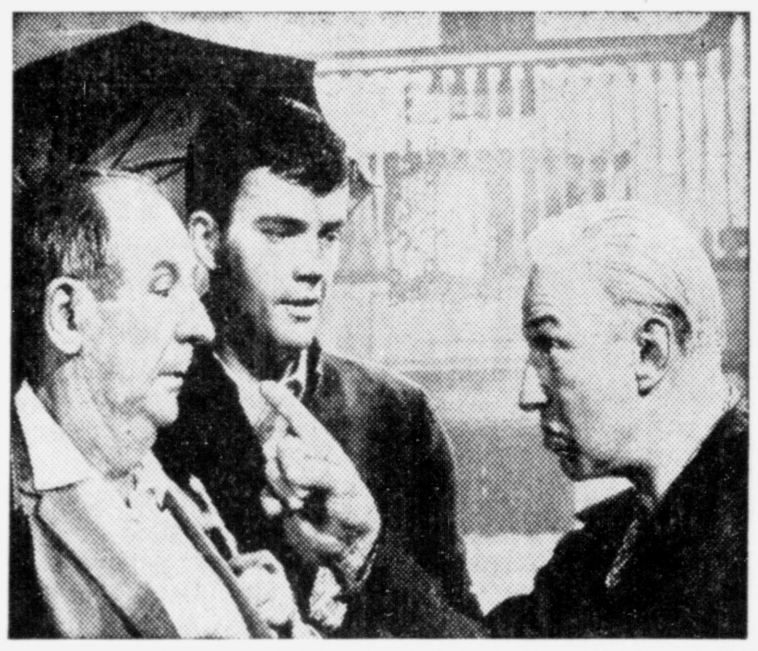
Coffee is served from 7 till 10 o'clock every evening in the Golf Mill's color TV lounge.

Theatre Guild Slates Workshop

The Des Plaines Theatre Guild announces another in its series of acting workshops, to be conducted by director Jerry Epperson for five weeks starting Friday, Jan. 6, at the Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee St., Des Plaines. Interested persons should contact workshop secretary Jackle Alessandro at 439-2986 before Jan. 4. (Bill



STEVE McQUEEN, as The Kid, with two women who play a prominent part in his life in "The Cincinnati Kid," Ann-Margret as Melba, who desires him, and Tuesday Weld as Christian, who loves him. It starts tomorrow (Friday) at the Mount Prospect Cinema with Shirley Jones in "The Secret of My Success" co-featured.



CO-STAR LLOYD NOLAN lectures stars Paul Ford and Jim Hutton for being tipsy in this comic scene from "Never Too Late," motion picture version of the Broadway play which tells the story of a middle-aged couple about to have a baby at an age when most couples are already grandparents. Also in the cast are Maureen O'Sullivan and Connie Stevens. It is scheduled to open New Year's Eve (Friday) at the Catlow Theatre.

Art Leaguers to Hear Glass Blower

A talk and demonstration on the art of glass blowing is the program for the January meeting of the Mount Prospect Art League.

Gilbert Armstrong of Park Ridge will be the guest lecturer at the meeting Tuesday, Jan. 4, at 8 p.m. at Mount Prospect Country Club, Shabonee Trail.

ARMSTRONG learned glass blowing in England where he was born and grew up. He moved first to Canada in 1957 and later to the United States. He now is head glass blower for Central Scientific Co. in Chicago and finds his relaxation in ornamental glass blowing.

Armstrong is a member of the national and local American Scientific Glass Blowing Societies. He also participates in all the local art fairs and belongs to the Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Countryside and North Shore Art Leagues. (Bill

MOS Lists Audition Dates for 'Wildcat'

Music-On-Stage Inc. announces that auditions for its April musical production, "Wildcat," will be held Friday night, Jan. 7, from 8 to 11 p.m. and Sunday afternoon, Jan. 9, from 1 to 5 o'clock in Room 133, Prospect High School, 801 W. Kensington, Mount Prospect.

Jerry Epperson, Niles, has been selected as the dramatic director of this comedy, and Paul Beringer, Crystal Lake, will assist as musical director.

Epperson said that persons trying out for chorus and leads may sing any musical selection of their choice. Mrs. William Cotsakis, accompanist, will require a copy of any music not in the score of "Wildcat." Scripts will be provided for the dramatic reading. Dancers are needed and will be auditioned by MOS choreographer Mrs. Hank Vandenboom.

THIS FAST-PACED musical tells a story of oil discovery in a small California town. The leading female roles are Wildcat, (a scheming minx), her pretty 18-year-old sister and a frowsy, middle-aged Countess.

Of the 13 male characters, four are leads, featuring a brawny, handsome oil driller, his youthful Mexican sidekick, the opulent town sheriff and a crochety old man.

Any suburbanite interested in musical theatre is invited to the tryouts. (Bill

We Are NOT Looking for a GRUMPY COMPOSITOR

Instead, we have need for a Smiling Compositor to work alongside other Smiling Compositors, all of whom are helping us get out the paper.

Must Be Experienced — Full Time Days

In event you are a normally Grumpy Compositor, perhaps you will become a Smiling Compositor when you think of the many company benefits, such as . . .

Hospitalization Benefits second to none, including $10,000 major medical, all of it paid by the boss, with option of including your family;

Paid Vacation—Two weeks after one year, three weeks after ten years;

Profit Sharing Program—wonderful opportunity for all after two fiscal years on the job;

Life Insurance—Free $5,000 coverage for heads of household with dependent coverage of $1,000 for the wife, $500 for each of the children, all paid by the boss;

Disability Insurance—contributory program.

Work Hours—yes, you'll be expected to work, too, but close to home, pleasant surroundings, nearby coffee machine, etc.

OBITUARIES

Please call information for obituaries to
Mrs. Harry Schulze, 253-2352, by Tuesday noon.

Ira C. Melbourne

Ira C. Melbourne, a former Arlington Heights patrolman, died Saturday, Dec. 25, at St. Anthony Hospital in St. Petersburg, Fla., his late residence. He was born Aug. 8, 1899.

Mr. Melbourne was a patrolman with the Arlington Heights Police Department for 22 years until his retirement.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. today (Wednesday, Dec. 29), at Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home, 2000 E. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights, the Rev. Robert O. Bartz officiating. Interment will be at Randhill Park Cemetery.

He leaves his wife Agnes, nee Kelm; two brothers, Cecil, and Russell, both of Franklin, Ohio; and a sister, Myrtle Robinson of Harrisburg, Ky. (A15

Carl Hotwagner

Funeral mass for Carl Hotwagner, 317 Prospect Manor. Mount Prospect, was read at 10 a.m. Monday, Dec. 20, at St. Raymond's Church in Mount Prospect. Interment was at St. Joseph Cemetery.

Mr. Hotwagner died Friday, Dec. 17, at Brookwood Nursing Home in Des Plaines at the age of 67. He was a retired cement finisher and belonged to the Cement Finisher's Union, Local 502.

He leaves his wife, Julianna, one daughter, Mary Geschke of Elmwood Park; a son, Albert of Itasca, and seven grandchildren.

Friedrich's Funeral Home in Mount Prospect handled the funeral arrangements.

Eugene V. Burmeister

Funeral services for Eugene V. Burmeister, 216 S. Miner St., Bensenville, were held Monday, Dec. 27, at Geil's Funeral Home in Bensenville. Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery in Forest Park.

Mr. Burmeister was injured fatally in an automobile accident Thursday, Dec. 23, on Route 59 near West Chicago. He was 42 years old.

He leaves his wife, Violet; a son, David; one daughter, Laura; his mother, Julia Burmeister; one brother, and three sisters. (A-15

John Traikoff

John Traikoff, 25 N. Kennicott, Arlington Heights, died Tuesday, Dec. 21, in Clearwater, Fla.

Mr. Traikoff, born Aug. 29, 1894, in Yugoslavia, had been a barber for 37 years.

He leaves his wife Mary, nee Dimoff; one daughter, Doris Kozokari; and a son, Boris Traikoff, both of Arlington Heights; two grandchildren; and two brothers, George Botseff of Chicago, and Alex Dameski of Yugoslavia.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Dec. 27, at St. John United Church of Christ, the Rev. Robert S. McDonald officiating. Interment was at St. John Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were handled by Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home.

Mrs. Louis Meyer

Marie Meyer, 86, of 33 E. Lake St., Addison, a resident of that village for 40 years, died Sunday, Dec. 26, in Elmhurst Memorial Hospital, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Meyer was a member of Oak Park Chapter 539, O.E.S. She and her husband were coowners of Lutzmeyer Tavern and Restaurant, which they operated at 33 E. Lake St. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Feb. 23, 1961.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 28, at Richert & Son Funeral Home, Addison. Interment was at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Hillside.

In addition to her husband, Louis, she leaves several nieces and nephews. (A15

Mrs. Wm. Senofsky

Funeral services for Elizabeth Ann Senofsky, 39, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 30, at St. Simon Episcopal Church, 717 Kirchoff Road, Arlington Heights. Officiating will be the Rev. Samuel Keys. Interment will be at Memory Gardens.

Mrs. Senofsky was born Oct. 16, 1926, and died Monday, Dec. 27, 1965, in her home at 4100 Jay Lane, Rolling Meadows.

She is survived by her husband, William; three children, Marie, Alexandraa nd Nicholas; her mother, Regina Artingstall of Oak Park; two sisters, Jean Keller of Deerfield and Susan Hochsteder of Oak Park.

The body will lie in state from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in Haire Funeral Home, 207 N. Vail, Arlington Heights. (A15

Mrs. Edward Moone

Marie J. Moone, 701 Candota, Mount Prospect, died following a long illness Wednesday, Dec. 22, at Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital. She was 47 years old.

She leaves her husband, Edward; five sons, Michael, Stephen, Paul, George, and Gregory; and one daughter, Mary.

Funeral mass was read at 10 a.m. Friday, Dec. 24, at St. Raymond's Church in Mount Prospect, with interment at All Saints Cemetery. Friedrich's Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements. (A15

Mrs. George Turba

Sigred Martina Turba, 70, died Monday, Dec. 20, in Northwest Community Hospital. She resided at 704 E. Lincoln Road, Arlington Heights, having lived in Arlington Heights sincet he late 1930's.

She was a member of the Arlington Heights Chapter O.E.S., and a member of the former Church of Our Lord.

Preceded in death by her husband, George, she leaves one son, George C. of Arlington Heights; daughter-in-law, Lillian Turba; and a grandson, Charles.

The Rev. Robert S. MacDonald conducted funeral services at 11 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 23, at Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home. Interment was at Randhill Park Cemetery.

Ignacio and Albert Espinosa

Ignacio and Albert Espinosa, 6 and 17 months old, died Monday, Dec. 20, when fire swept their home at 1041 Higgins Road, Elk Grove.

Mass of the angels was recited at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 22, at Queen of the Rosary Church in Elk Grove Village. Interment was at All Saints Cemetery. Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home were in charge of funeral arrangements.

They leave their parents, Ignacio and Maria Espinosa.

Charles E. Sobol

Charles E. Sobol, president of Croname Inc. in Niles, died Friday, Dec. 24, at Northwest Community Hospital. He was born Dec. 23, 1910, in Chicago.

Mr. Sobol, of 424 E. Orchard Lane, Arlington Heights, had been associated with Croname for 38 years. He was elected president and treasurer of the firm in October, 1965.

In addition to his wife Anna, nee Chekas, he leaves his mother, Mrs. Anna Horn; and a brother, Eugene Sobol, both of Chicago.

Funeral mass was read at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 28, at Our Lady of the Wayside Church, with interment at All Saints Cemetery. Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home handled the arrangements. (A-15

Mrs. Roy James

Ruth M. James, 63 years old, died Tuesday, Dec. 21, in her home at 849 N. Mill Road, Addison.

Peace Corps Tests Slated For Jan. 8

Area residents interested in joining the Peace Corps can take the placement test at 9 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 8, at the following locations:

Aurora (33-01), Main Post Office; Chicago (33-10) Room 1154, U. S. Customhouse, 610 S. Canal St.; Des Plaines (33-14), Main Post Office; Oak Park (33-33), Room 217, Main Post Office; Waukegan (33-49), Federal Building, 325 Washington St.; Wheaton (33-50), Main Post Office. Numbers in parentheses refer to area codes.

THE PEACE CORPS uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive.

Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half. An optional achievement test for applicants who have studied French or Spanish requires another hour. (A-15

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

How Is Your Telephone Etiquette

By Jane Sherrod Singer

When Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone, it did not occur to him that it would become a vexatious instrument in the hands of those people who misuse it. It's all a matter of good manners. For instance do you:

	YES	NO
1. When calling, identify yourself rather than making the other person guess?	( )	( )
2. Get lonely and call up your friends just to chat for a long, long while?
3. Ask the party you are calling if it is convenient to talk at that time?	( )	( )
4. Check phone numbers when not absolutely sure of them?	( )	( )
5. Dial carefully?	( )	( )
6. Have a notepad and pencil by the phone to take messages?	( )	( )
7. Place casual calls at times that are convenient for the other party?	( )	( )
8. If interrupted, suggest calling back instead of making the person wait at the other end of the line?	( )	( )
9. Have a ready list of emergency numbers: police, fire department, doctors, etc.	( )	( )
10. Call others during business hours about trivial personal matters?	( )	( )
11. Ever make a list of things you wish to discuss rather than rattling on?	( )	( )
12. (For girls and women only) Call that man in your life just to let him know you are thinking about him?	( )	( )
13. Use the phone as a plaything for tricks such as dialing numbers at random and then hanging up, or for leaving strange anonymous messages?	( )	( )
14. Hold the receiver and use a voice so that your voice can be heard without straining (or breaking) the listener's eardrums?	( )	( )

DESIRABLE ANSWERS:

1. YES. The "guess who" is so stupidly coy that it is immature. And it is egotistically stupid to assume the other party knows your voice. Properly, one should say, "Hello, Betty? This is Paul . . ."

2. NO. This is one of the greatest crimes. You may be lonely, but the other person may not be. There just could be an emergency when others are trying to get through to YOU.

3. YES. This is just courtesy. Perhaps the person who answers your call is still dripping from the shower or has a cake ready to come out of the oven.

4.YES. You know how YOU hate wrong numbers. Don't inflict them on others. Phone books and information service are at your convenience.

5. YES. Wrong dialing? Wrong number!

6. YES. Don't trust your memory when taking messages for other people. Repeat the message back as you have written it.

7. YES. YOU may get up at six in the morning, but not all your friends do. Avoid mealtimes when possible. In making long distance calls, remember time differences.

8. YES. That knock at the door may take you longer than you think. Suggest that you will return the call at your earliest convenience.

9. YES. The reason is obvious.

10. NO. NEVER, unless you merely ask the other party to call you back at a more convenient time since you do not have the after-office phone number.

11. YES. This will avoid that sudden thought, "I forgot to say . . ."

12. NO. There is something in the prideful make-up of the male which leads him to want to be the pursuer, not the pursued. Unless he suggests it, let him call you.

13 NO. This is no joke. Not recommended unless you want a sudden visit from the police.

14. YES. Since it is hard to gauge our own telephone voices, ask someone else how you sound. Your best friends will tell you.

15. YES. This is customary, polite and proper unless you are positively forbidden not to.

SCORING:

Unless you have answered 11 or more of these questions correctly, your bad telephone manners are showing.

Peace Corps Tests Slated For Jan. 8

Area residents interested in joining the Peace Corps can take the placement test at 9 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 8, at the following locations:

Aurora (33-01), Main Post Office; Chicago (33-10) Room 1154, U. S. Customhouse, 610 S. Canal St.; Des Plaines (33-14), Main Post Office; Oak Park (33-33), Room 217, Main Post Office; Waukegan (33-49), Federal Building, 325 Washington St.; Wheaton (33-50), Main Post Office. Numbers in parentheses refer to area codes.

THE PEACE CORPS uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive.

Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half. An optional achievement test for applicants who have studied French or Spanish requires another hour. (A-15

Mrs. Peter Lynn

Katherine Lynn, who resided with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Price, at 1344 E. Chicago Ave., Palatine for the past seven years, died Sunday, Dec. 26, in Northwest Community Hospital. She was 76 years old.

Funeral services will be held today (Wednesday, Dec. 29), at Cusick Funeral Home in Scranton, Pa., with interment in that city.

In addition to Mrs. Price, she leaves another daughter, Dorothy Mullen of Scranton; two sons, John R. of Virginia, and Peter P. of New Jersey; seven grandchildren; one brother, James Burke; and a sister, Genevieve Kennedy of Scranton. (A-15

Jeffery D. Martin

Jeffery Dalton Martin, 9-month-old son of James and Ruth Martin, of 281 Flagstaff Lane, Hoffman Estates, died in his home Wednesday, Dec. 22. He was born March 5, 1965, in Chicago.

In addition to his parents, he leaves one brother, James II; a sister, Caroline; grandparents, Joseph and Louise Hester of Chicago, and James M. and Eva Martin.

Haire Funeral Home in Arlington Heights handled the funeral arrangements. (A15

Talented Teen Tour Tryouts Set Jan. 16

The Talented Teen Foundation will recruit teenage singers, musicians, dancers and novelty acts for the annual Europe tour troupe on Sunday, Jan. 16, at 2 p.m. at the village hall, Itasca.

The Talented teen tour is designed for young people who wish to further their talent education during the summer. Students will be coached in the performing arts and will perform before live audiences while they are in Europe. Membership is open to all talented youth for soloists and group acts.

The three-week Europe tour will leave O'Hare Aug. 2, fly direct to London and then travel to six countries on a motor coach. Complete cost of the tour is $783 for each member. Qualified coaches and chaperones will be with the troupe at all times.

MOVIES WILL be shown of last year's tour, which included the following local members:

Mrs. Betty Dunaway, 2105 South St., Rolling Meadows, chaperone; George and Betty Koehnke, directors, Itasca; Joanne Mayer, 413 S. State Road, Arlington Heights, singer; and June Dunaway, 14, 210 S. South St., Rolling Meadows, dancer and musician.

For information, write Talented Teens, Itasca, or call 392-2331. (A15

Notre Dame Registration Set Jan. 8

Registration for eighth grade boys who will attend Notre Dame High School, Niles, in September 1966 will take place Saturday, Jan. 8, at 9 a.m.

Students registering must be accompanied by one parent or guardian. Placement tests will not be given on Registration Day, but later in February, and students will be notified regarding the exact date of these tests. The placement tests are not entrance tests, but a means by which the most suitable course of studies is prepared for the individual student at Notre Dame. (B10

Seminar to Hear Placement Talk

Dr. Robert H. Gourley, associate director of placement, Northern Illinois University, has been selected to be one of the main speakers at the Teacher Recruitment Training Seminar at Mount Prospect.

The seminar will meet five days over a three-week period at the Mount Prospect School District 57's Administration Center and will involve the district's administrative staff.

Gourley's topic will be "Interviews." He will speak Jan. 4 at 9 a.m.

Stephen L. Caruso, principal, Lincoln School, Mount Prospect, is seminar coordinator.

Coffee on House At Tollway Stops

Coffee on the house will be presented to all motorists on the Illinois Tollway from 9 pm. to 6 a.m. on New Years Eve at the five Harvey Restaurants.

Other special measures for added motorist safety and convenience for holiday drivers on the tollway include the assignment of additional troopers by the state police, additional toll collectors at all plazas and the establishment to alert status for maintenance crews in case of severe weather conditions. SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

How Is Your Telephone Etiquette

By Jane Sherrod Singer

When Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone, it did not occur to him that it would become a vexatious instrument in the hands of those people who misuse it. It's all a matter of good manners. For instance do you:

	YES	NO
1. When calling, identify yourself rather than making the other person guess?	( )	( )
2. Get lonely and call up your friends just to chat for a long, long while?
3. Ask the party you are calling if it is convenient to talk at that time?	( )	( )
4. Check phone numbers when not absolutely sure of them?	( )	( )
5. Dial carefully?	( )	( )
6. Have a notepad and pencil by the phone to take messages?	( )	( )
7. Place casual calls at times that are convenient for the other party?	( )	( )
8. If interrupted, suggest calling back instead of making the person wait at the other end of the line?	( )	( )
9. Have a ready list of emergency numbers: police, fire department, doctors, etc.	( )	( )
10. Call others during business hours about trivial personal matters?	( )	( )
11. Ever make a list of things you wish to discuss rather than rattling on?	( )	( )
12. (For girls and women only) Call that man in your life just to let him know you are thinking about him?	( )	( )
13. Use the phone as a plaything for tricks such as dialing numbers at random and then hanging up, or for leaving strange anonymous messages?	( )	( )
14. Hold the receiver and use a voice so that your voice can be heard without straining (or breaking) the listener's eardrums?	( )	( )

DESIRABLE ANSWERS:

1. YES. The "guess who" is so stupidly coy that it is immature. And it is egotistically stupid to assume the other party knows your voice. Properly, one should say, "Hello, Betty? This is Paul . . ."

2. NO. This is one of the greatest crimes. You may be lonely, but the other person may not be. There just could be an emergency when others are trying to get through to YOU.

3. YES. This is just courtesy. Perhaps the person who answers your call is still dripping from the shower or has a cake ready to come out of the oven.

4.YES. You know how YOU hate wrong numbers. Don't inflict them on others. Phone books and information service are at your convenience.

5. YES. Wrong dialing? Wrong number!

6. YES. Don't trust your memory when taking messages for other people. Repeat the message back as you have written it.

7. YES. YOU may get up at six in the morning, but not all your friends do. Avoid mealtimes when possible. In making long distance calls, remember time differences.

8. YES. That knock at the door may take you longer than you think. Suggest that you will return the call at your earliest convenience.

9. YES. The reason is obvious.

10. NO. NEVER, unless you merely ask the other party to call you back at a more convenient time since you do not have the after-office phone number.

11. YES. This will avoid that sudden thought, "I forgot to say . . ."

12. NO. There is something in the prideful make-up of the male which leads him to want to be the pursuer, not the pursued. Unless he suggests it, let him call you.

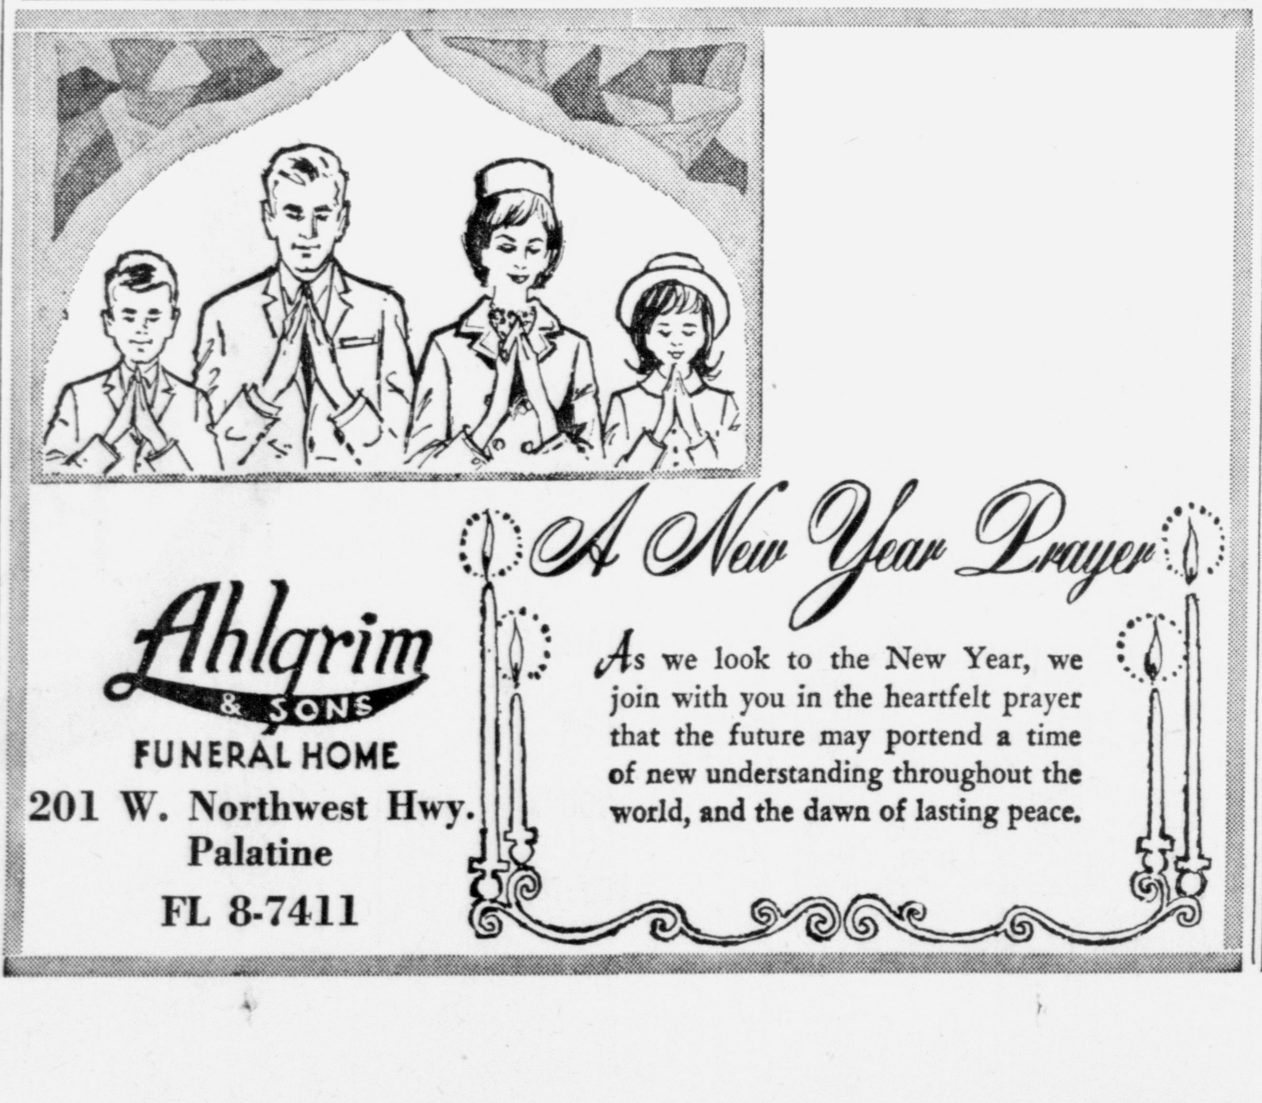
13 NO. This is no joke. Not recommended unless you want a sudden visit from the police.

14. YES. Since it is hard to gauge our own telephone voices, ask someone else how you sound. Your best friends will tell you.

15. YES. This is customary, polite and proper unless you are positively forbidden not to.

SCORING:

Unless you have answered 11 or more of these questions correctly, your bad telephone manners are showing.



A New Year Prayer
